*CALL TO WORSHIP

LEADER: A new year has dawned; the old is past and gone. This is a time for beginnings, a time to encounter God.

PEOPLE: O God, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You are the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.

LEADER: Look to the heavens and wonder at the magnitude of space. Look around you at the amazing variety of creation.

PEOPLE: You have made everything suitable for its time. You have made us and crowned us with glory and honor.

LEADER: Ponder the meaning of our days in the face of eternity. Consider again what God has called us to do and to be.
You have given us dominion over the works of your hands. You have called us to minister to the least of your children.

CWF "LOVIE BEAR" PROJECT

At the Fall CWF meeting the membership voted to spend a portion of the bazaar earnings on stuffed animals which would be donated to the local Spouse Abuse Center. Since that time, every child who has entered the center under adverse conditions has been given a stuffed "Lovie" to keep as a personal possession. According to a source at the center, the soft, cuddly "Lovies" have been most welcome.

Unfortunately, the supply will not last forever. Therefore, the CWF would like to give the whole congregation an opportunity to participate in this program by either purchasing a small stuffed "Lovie" or by making a $5.00 donation toward their purchase.

There will be a special dedication ceremony on Laity Sunday, January 22. Bring your "Lovie" on that day or make your cash donation prior to January 22 to either Grace Cassity, Marge Thomas or Linda Bryant.

PURPOSE OF WEEK OF THE LAITY

The Week of the Laity is set aside to enable congregations to be informed about the outreach mission of the Church. Lay persons are given this special opportunity to share understandings of how the congregation can be in relationship with the church beyond its own community.

Another purpose of the Week of the Laity is to lift and celebrate God's special gifts which lay people offer to ministry. All are called to ministry which is a reflection of our affirmation of the priesthood of all believers.

One Great Hour of Sharing

HEARING
OF THE

nce there was a saintly rabbi named Rabbi Zalman. He lived on the second floor of a building, and his son, Rabbi Dov Ber, lived on the ground floor with his wife and baby. One day, Rabbi Dov Ber, who was known for his powers of great concentration, was so absorbed in the study of a holy text that he didn't hear the baby fall out of the cradle next to him.

On the floor above, the grandfather, Rabbi Zalman, heard the baby fall. He came downstairs, picked up the crying child, comforted him, and placed him back in the cradle. Later that day, he told Rabbi Dov Ber: "It is good to be so surrendered in holiness that you do not hear a bell ring, a knock at the door — but you must always hear the cry of a child. What is the point of communion with God, if you neglect godliness in this world?"

"Never fail to hear the cry of a child."

The Children Are Crying

- Every minute, 15 children in the world die for want of essential food and inexpensive vaccines.
- Each year, 15 million children under the age of five die of hunger — one-fourth of all the world's deaths.
- Five million children under the age of five die annually of dehydration caused by diarrhea.
- Vaccine-preventable diseases kill nearly 3.5 million children each year in the developing world.
- There are more than 18 million refugees in the world, more than 75 percent of whom are children.
- One million children are forced into the sex markets every year to serve the increasing demands of tourists and organized sex tours from industrialized nations.
- By the year 2000, 16 million children — one in four of all American children — will be poor.
- One of every four homeless persons in the United States is a child.
- There are more than 100 million street children around the world who live in fear every day of their lives.

Responding To The Cries

Through Week of Compassion and our partners such as Church World Service, Heifer Project International and the Cooperative Disaster Childhood Program, Disciples hear and respond to the cries of the world's children by providing:

- food, blankets, medicine and recreational equipment to more than 20,000 boys who have been orphaned and displaced by the civil war in Sudan;
- emergency day care to children in south Florida after Hurricane Andrew, in the Midwest after the '93 floods and in Los Angeles after the Northridge earthquake;
- counseling and rehabilitation for victims of the child prostitution industry in Southeast Asia;
- a home for handicapped children in Vietnam and flood ravaged children in Iowa;
- a school for poor children in New Caledonia and in the Philippines;
- school supplies to war-weary children in Bosnia and flood-weary children in Kansas;
- a health nurse for sick children in Jamaica and Somalia;
- day care for neglected children in Argentina and refugee children in Jordan;
- livestock training for the mothers of children in Peru and Kenya.

Week of Compassion

The relief, development and refugee ministry of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) seven days a week, 52 weeks a year.

SCHOOL KITS FOR BOSNIA CHILDREN:

The CWF members voted to assemble school kits for Bosnian children as one of their mission projects
This is a part of the state CWF service project.
The Mary Carey and Mayme Wiley Circle will be making the school bags and the Phoebe Button Circle will purchase and ensemble each kit. If you would be willing to make some school bags, contact Mabel Reynolds for size, etc. If you would like to contribute to the purchase of supplies give money to Grace Cassity. The approximate cost of supplies for each kit is $5.00. We have a goal of 100 kits. Please help us brighten the lives of some children in Bosnia.

FIFTH SUNDAY OFFERING CHRISTIAN CHURCH HOMES OF KENTUCKY

In Isaiah 1:17, God's Prophet Isaiah, wrote, "Learn to do right!" Seek justice, encourage the oppressed, defend the cause of the fatherless, plead the case of the widow." The Christian Church Homes of Kentucky has been faithfully serving as the Christian Church ministry to older adults and children in Kentucky for over 110 years.

With the support of churches like ours, they strive to touch lives by bringing comfort and care to the residents and children they serve.

Today we will receive a special Fifth Sunday offering. By participating in this offering, we will help provide a nurturing environment for children who have serious emotional and behavioral problems, often resulting from abuse and neglect. We help provide caring homes for older adults who have depleted their savings through illness or the loss of a spouse.

Please give as generously as you can, so that combined, the Christian Churches in Kentucky can answer Isaiah's call.

10:00 P.M. CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE - SANCTUARY

One of the most beautiful services of the Christian Year is the Christmas Eve Service. A time to feel the beauty of the season and meditate on the true meaning of Christmas with you family.

CHURCH BOARD WILL NOT MEET IN DECEMBER

On Christmas Eve we will receive a special offering for the Children and older adults cared for through the Christian Church Homes of Kentucky. Please give generously so that all of God's children, young and old, will be able to experience the love and joy that Christ envisioned for us all.

Poinsettias may be taken home at the completion of the Christmas Eve Service.

1996 Offering Envelopes are located in the back of the church.

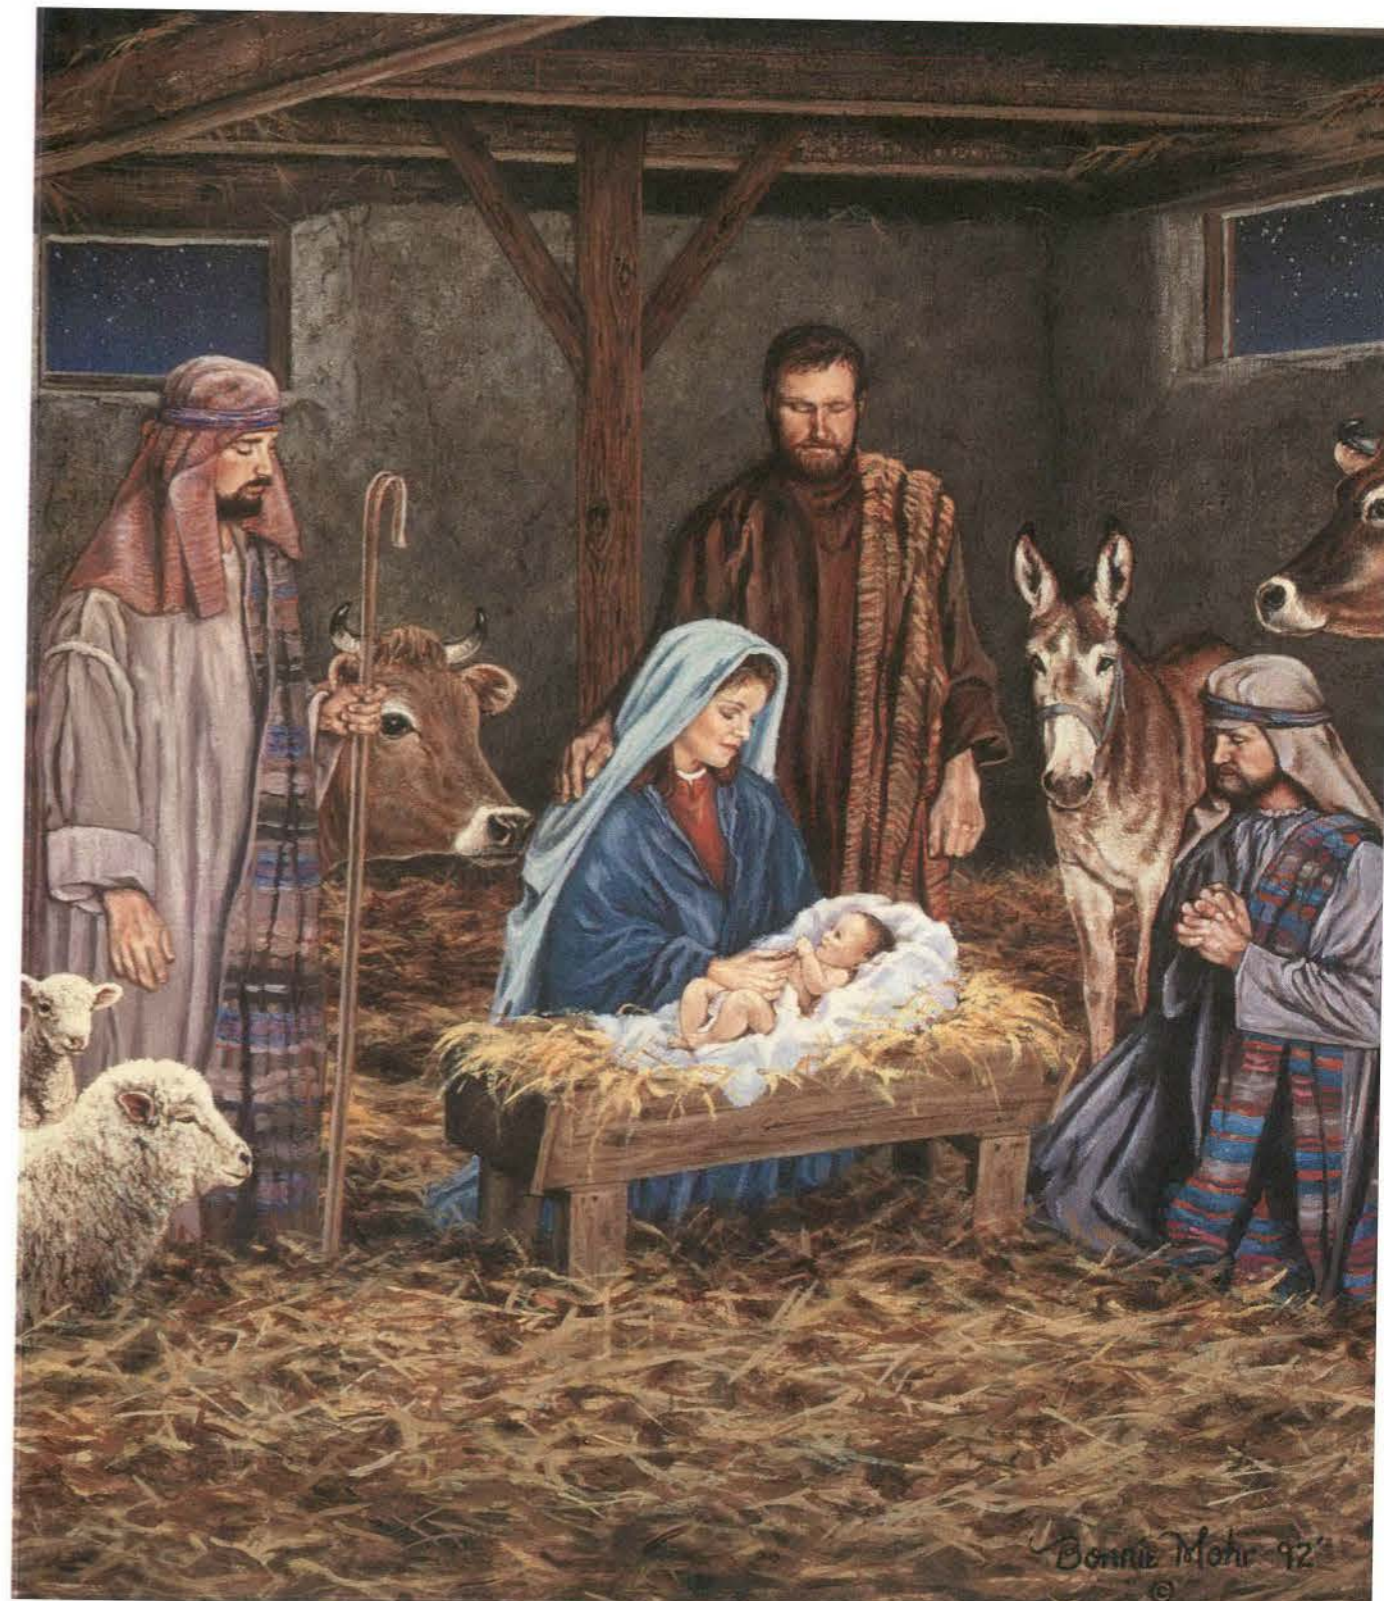

ADVENT: The most common colors of the Advent candles are three purple and one pink, the Christ candle being white. The white of the Christ candle reminds us of the purity of Christ. The purple candles stand for loyalty. The pink candle is signifying the perfectness of the flower of Christ.

The symbolism becomes more meaningful as we see the candles lit, brightening not only the sanctuary, but also the darkening December days. As we have lit the Advent candles, the sanctuary becomes brighter, as the scriptures are read-full of promise and hope-the light of Christ is freshly lit within us - this day.

A poinsettia has been placed in the sanctuary in memory of Ellen Hudgins - by David & Margaret Ellen Larkin and John and Billie Jean Glaser.

No Youth meetings on December 24 or 31.

We need people to sign up to do youth meals for January. Sign-up sheet in kitchen.

As we begin the New Year may we seek the guidance during the past year, may we be assured that the future is as bright as the promises of our loving
