The Souper Bowl Needs You!

God created us at different times, in different places and with flesh of a hundred different hues, but we are set forth with a common purpose, "to love the Lord our God...and to love our neighbor as ourself."

Today, even as we enjoy the satisfaction of food and drink while enjoying the Super Bowl football game, 34,000 young children around the world will die due to malnutrition and preventable diseases. In the United States alone, eight million young people under the age of eighteen - each handcrafted by God - live in poverty.

Together, we can make a difference. Give one dollar as you leave worship today. The donation will be sent directly to the soup kitchen, food bank or other helping ministry your congregation selects. Your group alone touches the money. Organizers only request that totals be phoned in on game day (1-800-358-SOUP) so that final figures can be promptly announced.

The Souper Bowl is no panacea. However, just as this simple effort shows the good possible when we give of ourselves, we must all continually seek ways to love God and neighbor.

The Souper Bowl began in 1990 with the Youth Fellowship of a single Columbia, SC church. Last year $1,700,000 was raised by men, women and children across the country who joined in this act of caring. With your help, this year's total will be even greater!

Why participate?

- It's only a buck, meaning everyone can participate.
- Young people, often bombarded with messages of hopelessness, see that they can make a positive difference in the lives of others.
- In a day when we are terribly divided as a nation, the Souper Bowl illustrates the good that can be accomplished when we move beyond ourselves & work in partnership with others.
- Every dollar goes directly from participating congregations to the charity they choose.
- The Souper Bowl enables us to love God and love our neighbors in a simple but significant way.

"BLESS YOU!"

*"Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven..."*

Matthew 5:3 (NIV)

It begins with a little tickle deep inside your head. Then it builds and builds until it must escape. There's a sniff and a snort, then a final sudden, spasmodic expiration of breath. "Achoo!" We sneeze. And someone nearby responds with a "Bless you!"

"Bless you!" The words themselves are more than just a flippant response to sneezing strangers in our midst. The phrase is a gift, a promise of support, a connection of one to another.

When Jesus blesses his disciples, he gives us a good idea of what is important to him. With his blessings come promises. Those who are blessed will see the kingdom come. Those who are blessed will inherit the promised land. Those who are blessed will see God's justice on earth. Blessing is also given to those whose lives are marked by acts of compassion.

Blessed are the elderly, for their gifts of wisdom and experience. Bless you for providing health care and the security of a safe place to live.

Blessed are the children, for their joy and innocence. Bless you for helping to heal the hurt of abuse and neglect.

(over)

Blessed are people with developmental disabilities, for their openness and spontaneous love. Bless you for providing opportunities for dignity and self-fulfillment.

Through your Fifth Sunday offering to The Christian Church Homes of Kentucky you bless those who need a place to heal their spirits, those who need to know that someone feels their pain. Your gift blesses those whom Jesus blessed. And that's nothing to sneeze at.

Bless you!

THE SIGN OF ASHES

From ancient times Christians have on this day searched their hearts and sought to be cleansed from sin. They have sought reconciliation with God and with one another. They have received ashes marked on their foreheads as a sign of sin's disfigurement and of their own mortality.

PRAYER OVER ASHES

Almighty God, you have created us out of the dust of the earth, may these ashes be to us a sign of our mortality and penitence, so that we may remember that only by your gracious gift are we given everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen

IMPOSITION OF ASHES

Remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return.

ACT OF PENITENCE AND RECONCILIATION

In fear, but also in hope, we come together with ashes on our heads. The planet is dying in our hands, people turn to each other for food and strength only to be shoved away. Each day we deal with death, yet pretend that we are good. Let us take forty days to look hard at our so-called goodness and see what covers it up. Then, we will join together in taking up the cross and in living in the world as it is, for there is only one earth, and, as far as we know, only one human race. Join me in prayer by responding to each spoken petition with the words, "Hear Our prayer, O God. Let us pray.

That as Disciples of Christ we might start using our hands, feet, money, time and energy for the good of the poor, let us pray to the God of mercy.

Hear our prayer, O God.

That citizens everywhere may realize that care of their neighbor consists of more than the mere giving of money, let us pray to the God of mercy.

Hear our prayer, O God.

For the needy, that they may not have to remain despondent and alone, let us pray to the God of mercy

Hear our prayer, O God.

For all of us here that we may be honest enough to admit what we are selfish about, and what we can do to remedy our lack of love, let us pray to the God of mercy.

Hear our prayer, O God.

For those who share Christ's charity toward sinners, let us pray to the God of mercy.

Hear our prayer, O God.

Merciful God, their ashes are our pledge to take the cross of life. We came from the earth and we will go back to it. In the meantime, beginning these forty days, we will try to live here and make it a better home for everybody. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Leader: This is the season of Lent, a season to remember the sufferings of Jesus Christ.

People: A season to remember that to follow Christ is to take up our crosses to be servants to all.

Leader: A season to remember Jesus' question "Are you able to drink the cup I drink?"

People: A season to ask ourselves how we, like Simeon the Cyrene, might help to bear the cross.

Leader: A season to ask ourselves how we, Like Pilate and Caiaphas and the crowd, continue to nail Christ to the tree.

People: A season to ask ourselves how we, like Peter, are afraid and turn away.

Leader: A season to ask ourselves what we, like the woman with the fine ointment, have to offer.

People: A season to give sacrificially to others through the One-Great-Hour-of-Sharing offering.

Leader: A season to watch and wait with Christ, that we may have the courage in the hour of testing.

People: A season to proclaim with Mary Magdalene that Christ is not dead but alive!

PRAYERS OF CONFESSION (unison)

O God, we confess that we are reluctant to move forward on this Lenten journey to Jerusalem. The past appears pleasant with the future unknown. We meet pressing human need with fear and pain and inaction. In a chorus with worshipers everywhere, we say, "We have fallen short, we live in a state of brokenness and alienation. We have sinned." O God, our sustainer and redeemer, help us to discover the gifts of power, talent, and energy which you give us, that we might bring healing into a broken world. Forgive our sin, strengthen our resolve, and renew us in your ever-vibrant Spirit. Amen.

BENEDICTION

when is one plus one more than two?

When you give to Week of Compassion.

Jesus fed thousands with five loaves and two fish offered by a small boy (John 6:1-15). But suppose the boy had not come forward? Suppose he thought his gifts were not enough to make a difference?

We face the same dilemma today. Confronted by the world's overwhelming need, we wonder if our gifts can make a difference.

But we must be confident that, like the loaves and fish, our gifts are also multiplied by the power of Jesus Christ. Through a network already in place, through dialogue already begun, through relationships already established with those who are closest to the world's problems and who know best where the solutions lie, we forge partnerships that make a difference.

Multiply your gift through Week of Compassion.

Today we observe the Week of Compassion. This 50th anniversary year of One Great Hour of Sharing affords us a unique opportunity to be a part of sharing our time, money and commitment. God reaches out to touch us, we are changed, as we reach out to touch the world, we are changed once again, and the world is changed through our giving today at First Christian Church.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Bill Watson

Leader: We are gathered in the presence of God, who asks us to choose between life and death, blessing and curse..

People: We are gathered like the people of Israel, who were challenged to choose the way of life.

Leader: Like them, we often follow the ways of death,

People: Yet, like them, we have the freedom each day to begin anew by the grace of God.

Leader: By our presence here, we are saying that we want to choose life one more time.

All: Let us praise the God of love and life who has called us to this place. Amen.

Wise and wonderful God, you have given us your light and truth to guide us through confusion, yet we have relied instead on our human wisdom and have lost our way. You offer to share our burdens and give us your strength, yet we trust in our own efforts and find ourselves exhausted. Bring us back into your presence, O God; overcome our separation from one another and from you. By your Word and Spirit, fill us with the gifts that equip us to meet life's demands, that we may be your people in the world and live in the confidence and joy of Jesus Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

RESPONSIVE READING

Through our baptism into Christ, God has graced us with the gift of the Holy Spirit to Forgive our sins, to cleanse us from all wrongs, to clothe us with God's own righteousness, and to strengthen us all our days.

Through our baptism into Christ we have gained a new identity as sons and daughters of God, and received a new life-purpose of Christlike ministry by word and deed.

Let us remember and rejoice in our own baptism as we recall that time in our lives . . . .

(Communal sharing)

CONFESSION AND REAFFIRMATION

(Please repeat after me, adding your own name)

I, _____ come before God in God's holy church today to confess Jesus Christ as my Lord and Savior.

I, _____ renounce evil, repent of sin and turn again and again to Christ.

I, _____ renew my confession that Jesus is the Christ the Son of the living God, the Redeemer of the World, and proclaim him as the source of my hope and my being, knowing that I can only strive for His perfection.

I, _____ remember my baptism in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, the creator, redeemer and sustainer of the world, and in the company of all Christians, everywhere, believe and trust in God, who made the world and made me; and in God's Son, Jesus Christ, who redeemed humankind; and in the Holy Spirit, who abides with us and sustains all of God's creation.

I, _____ renew my promise to walk with God, to serve God, to study and pray diligently, and to seek the Christ in all others, and to show Christ through myself.

(Look back with joy on your baptism - recall the power and wonder of that moment)

Reaffirmation of Baptism

INVOCATION

Creator spirit, who in the beginning hovered over the waters, who at Jesus' baptism descended in the form of a dove, who at Pentecost was poured out under the signs of fire and wind,
come to us, open our hearts and minds,
so that we may hear the life-giving word and be renewed by your power in the unity of the Creator and the Redeemer, now and forever. AMEN

SPIRIT . . . . verse 1 . . . . . CH249

READING FROM HOLY SCRIPTURE

Matthew 3:1-3, 11-17

RESPONSIVE READING

From apostolic times, persons have become disciples of Christ by confessing that Jesus is God's Messiah - the Lord and Savior of the world. In obedience to Christ's command and in likeness to Christ's example, they have been baptized.

Today we joyously renew ourselves in Christ's one, holy, apostolic, and universal church.

READING FROM HOLY SCRIPTURE

Romans 6:3-5

RESPONSIVE READING

Through our baptism we have been brought into union with Christ, with each other and with the church of every time and place.

Through our baptism we were buried with Christ, that we like him, might be raised from the dead to walk in newness of life.

READING FROM HOLY SCRIPTURE

Galatians 3:26-28

PRAYER

Gracious God, we thank you that in every age
you have made water a sign of your presence.
In the beginning your Spirit brooded over the waters and they became the source of all creation.
You led your people Israel through the waters of the Red Sea to their new land of freedom and hope.
In the waters of the Jordan, your Son was baptized by John and anointed with your Spirit for his ministry of reconciliation.
May this same Spirit bless the water we use today, that it may be a fountain of deliverance and renewed creation.
Wash away our sins again and embrace us tightly in the arms of your church.
Pour out your Spirit on us again and again that we may be agents of your reconciling love.
Make us one with Christ,
buried and raised in the power of his resurrection,
Remember and renew us, we pray . . . . in His holy name. AMEN

(Come forward to receive the symbol of reaffirmation)

Oklahomans and Kansans continue to dig out from some of the most ferocious tornadoes to strike the Great Plains this century. 51 people have been killed, more than 500 hundred injured, and thousands of homes, farms and businesses destroyed or damaged. In several communities major employers have been debilitated, jeopardizing the employment of hundreds of people.

The Disciples community in the region has been severely impacted as well. The sanctuary of First Christian in Haysville, KS was destroyed. More than 50 Disciples families in at least 17 congregations have lost homes. Among those who died in the tornadoes, one person was a member of Hillcrest CC, OKC.

Week of Compassion has provided $31,000 to Disciples regional offices in Oklahoma and Kansas to assist with immediate needs in our congregations. WOC has committed an initial $15,000 to Church World Service for interfaith relief efforts. WOC Director Johnny Wray is traveling in the region now to visit pastors and survivors and to coordinate additional Disciples' responses. Local Disciples are heavily involved in relief efforts. First Christian in Del City is serving as a relief center for the community. Disciples Linda Reed Brown and Larry Bishop are two of several CWS Disaster Response Consultants already at work. For more information and a detailed listing of impacted congregations, please see the WOC web page: www.disciples.org/woc.

Needs are immense. Designated contributions can be made to WOC and will be used in their entirety for tornado relief and recovery.

Blessings, Johnny Wray

MISSION AND MINISTRY IN ARGENTINA

Timothy and Jodi Bobbitt are missionaries in Buenos Aires, where Tim is pastor of the Saavedra congregation and Jodi is involved in health ministries at the Community Center in La Tablada, which includes "Casa del Nino," a pre-school children's program.

Tim and Jodi have written about their efforts to reach out in their community where violence and drugs are increasing. In describing their emphasis on children and youth they wrote, "New leaders stepped up to take on the task of our church youth group. It grew from about 12 children a week to over 20 each week. Several of the children whose parents do not attend worship are also beginning to join us on Sunday mornings. The addition of Sunday School for both children and adults has been quite a hit. Other new activities include an evening basketball program and school tutoring, which have been very successful. We are looking forward to a large pastor's class with baptisms at Pentecost."

The "Casa del Nino" is the only free pre-school in their impoverished area. The program provides two meals a day, a shower and tutoring for 50 children age 5 to 15. Children are referred to the program by schools or other organizations because of learning disabilities or behavior problems. The children come from poor neighborhoods where families don't have the means to deal with these problems. The Bobbitts write, "They are a challenging group at times but are grateful for the opportunity to come to the center."

One of Jodi's most important duties is health education. Some of her programs have included dental health care, lice prevention and nutrition. When she last wrote she was planning some new workshop themes dealing with violence, positive self image and serving others.

MEDITATION

God, we dream of being faith-filled people.

Like Abram and Sarai, we know you have invited us to be your people. Give us the courage to live as your people every day.

Like Matthew, we want to follow you. Help us follow your teachings.

Like the sick woman, we trust your power. Heal the hate and greed and selfishness that make our lives so unhealthy.

Like the father whose daughter died, we know that your love and power go even beyond death. So we trust those who have died to your care, and we live bravely, knowing that even when we die, you will be with us.

God, we dream of being your faith-filled people, and we trust your power to make your promises come true. Amen.

A DEEP ABIDING SENSE OF COMMUNITY

Lydia and Jack Johnson-Hill are missionaries engaged in theological education in Fiji. Last November they wrote of graduation at Pacific Theological College.

At the beginning of the year each staff family is given responsibility for an 'advisory group,' a mixture of students and support staff and their families. The focus of the groups is personal with laughter, story-telling and music making as well as prayer together and the sharing of tough issues in their personal lives.

There is also a communal dimension as everyone helps students having a hard time. One such student had missed the official deadline for submitting the final draft of his thesis. "A student who was good at English would sit with him late into the night, helping him convert his Tongan grammar into English grammatical forms. Another student gently encouraged him to keep going. Two staff members became like parents, offering emotional as well as academic guidance. Lydia proof read the final draft. Through it all, we prayed, cajoled, sternly reprimanded and kept starting again. The other students said that they could not celebrate the completion of their own theses until everyone was finished. And finish he did. Everyone had passed and now everyone could celebrate."

And, there was the spiritual time when each departing student and staff member had opportunity at daily chapel to say what the experience at PTC had meant for their own Christian journey. "One student courageously shared the faith struggle he and his wife have endured as she has battled with cancer all year. She could barely muster the strength to stand, but she read the 23rd Psalm as it has never been read before. And we wept."

Prayer for Healing

*By your power, great God, our Lord Jesus healed the sick
And gave new hope to the hopeless.*

*Though we cannot command or possess your power,
We pray for those who want to be healed.
Mind their wounds, soothe fevered brows,
and make broken people whole again.*

*Help us to welcome every healing as a sign that,
though death is against us, you are for us,
and have promised renewed and risen life in Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.*

A story from your Global Ministries . . .

"Let my teaching fall like rain and my words descend like dew, like showers on new grass, like abundant rain on tender plants. I will proclaim the name of the Lord. O, praise the greatness of our God." Deuteronomy 32:2-3 (NIV)

THANK YOU TEACHER

The Rev. Karl and Jan Whiteman are missionaries serving in the Marshall Islands. Karl is Liaison Pastor for Micronesia and the Marshall Islands and theological education instructor; Jan is an Elementary and English educator.

The words of Deut. 32:2-3 are Jan's daily prayer as she teaches, and earning her students' trust and affection has made it possible for her to make a difference in their lives. Karl describes it this way.

"Teacher, teacher! What is love? What is 'opposite' sex? What is dating?"

In the Marshallese culture, young girls only learn about relationships and the physical and emotional changes that happen to all adolescents from their older sisters or aunts, friends and sometimes their grandmothers. Traditionally parents never talk to them about such things, and, for the most part, the discussion of these subjects is usually avoided.

After a year of teaching 8th grade at Rita Christian School in Majuro, Marshall Islands, five girls trusted Jan enough to seek her out at "the feast" following a youth rally to ask what these words meant. A lively hour-long question and answer session followed which may have changed the lives of these young women living in a society of overpopulation, sexually transmitted diseases, and rampant teen pregnancy.

"Thank you, Teacher. We'll never forget you," the girls say.

You make the difference . . .

The prayers and help you provide through your local congregation make possible the work and witness of GLOBAL MINISTRIES, which is supported by Basic Mission Finance of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and Our Church's Wider Mission (OCWM) of the United Church of Christ.

HAVE A SAFE FOURTH OF JULY!

Meditation

A Prayer for Our Nation

Almighty God,

We remember that you are the Lord of all nations including the United States of America.

We are mindful that we stand responsible and accountable before you as we consider our stewardship as citizens of this land.

Make us equal to our challenges, O Lord.

Guide us into providing justice for all.

Turn our hearts toward our children that we may teach them rightly to please you in their citizenship.

Enable us to make certain that all citizens, affluent and poor, young and old, male and female are treated fairly and never forgotten.

Most of all, keep us aware of your providential care and guidance that we may never assume that we are totally on our own.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

The church office will be closed on Monday, July 5, for Independence Day.

HEIFERS FOR HEALTH!

A dairy cow can produce four gallons of milk a day—enough for a family to drink, share with neighbors and sell for cash.

By adding protein to inadequate diets, milk helps make sick, malnourished children healthy. The sale of surplus milk earns money for school fees, medicine, clothing and home improvements.

Each family that receives a heifer passes on the gift of a female calf to another family in need. Because a healthy cow can have a calf every year; your gift of an HPI heifer eventually could help an entire community move from poverty to self-sufficiency.

We will start collecting money from the daily missions giving program on July 11. You may turn in the ark filled with coins or you may wish to write a check payable to First Christian Church.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Meditation

*Taken from the "The Seeking Heart"
The Prayer Journal of Mae Yoho Ward*

Dear God,

This cool morning should make me feel ambitious and ready to do tasks about the house, but I only want to go back to bed. I'm disturbed about little things—a rusted fender on the car, having to take money out of the savings account to meet expenses, how to get packages to the post office, and a dish to Evelyn in all this rain. Such little things preoccupy me when I should be praying for the sick, the hungry, those who do not know Christ.

GOATS CARE FOR KIDS

Goats can thrive in extreme climates and on poor, dry land by eating grass, leaves, even twigs.

Your gift of a dairy goat can supply a family with two-four quarts of nutritious milk a day — as much as a ton of milk a year. Extra milk can be sold for income or used to make cheese, butter or yogurt.

Families use goat manure to fertilize a plot of trees and a vegetable garden.

And because goats often have two or three kids a year, HPI partners can start small dairies that pay for food, health care, and education.

We will start collecting money from the daily mission giving program today. You may turn in the ark filled with coins or you may wish to write a check payable to First Christian Church.

All chairs from committees whose terms have just expired, please be at the Board meeting on Monday at 7:00.

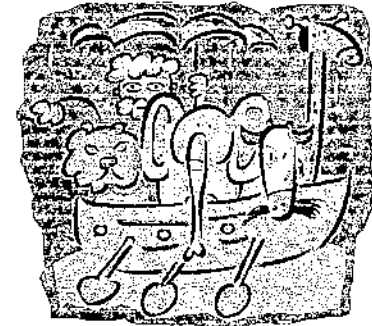

We need to start collecting items (furniture, small appliances, games, books, etc.) for the youth rummage sale which will be held during the Harvest Festival on September 17, 18, and 19.

Please bring all donations to the Church. No clothing please.

Quality geese lay about 75 large eggs a year and ducks, up to 300.

DUCKS AND GEESE GIVE RESULTS

Ducks and geese are among the most versatile and useful domestic animals.

They're easy to raise, don't require much shelter, and can adapt to hot, wet or cold weather. They can find some of their own food and efficiently dispose of weeds, slugs and snails while they fertilize the garden.

Heifer Project partners value ducks and geese because they're efficient egg and meat producers.

Families find ready markets for duck and goose products. And because families pass breeding eggs or young birds on to others in need, HPI ducks and geese can improve the quality of life for an entire community.

As of July 13 we have collected enough money to buy two flocks of chickens, two bee hives, two trios of rabbits, a pair of water buffalo, and a pair of donkeys.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Meditation

I go to church. . .

Not because a sermon is preached, though it can be helpful;
Not because good music is provided, though I obtain much benefit from the musical part of the service;
Not because other people go, though following the crowd is all right when the crowd is going the right way;
Not because I have the habit, though I consider the custom of church attendance valuable;
Not because I am afraid God will punish me if I am absent, though neglect of church attendance brings moral and spiritual poverty;
Not because at church I wear my best clothes, though, like most people, I enjoy being well-dressed;
Not because there I am in the best society, though the company of Christian people is very attractive to me;
Not because I agree with all the religious ideas and lifestyles of everyone who goes. I don't; it's impossible.
I go because Jesus went even when he could not agree with the scribes and Pharisees, nor the congregation.
I go because God is my Creator and friend, the source of all that is worthwhile in my life and in my world.

CONGRATULATIONS FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH!

WE NOW HAVE LLAMAS FOR OUR ARK
AT FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH!

When resources are scarce, it is important that livestock don't use up land reserved for people. At home in rough, mountainous areas, llamas are a blessing to families with limited pasture land.

Llamas are remarkably disease resistant and require little care; they can live five days without food or water and can carry as much as 100 pounds for 20 miles over rugged slopes at high altitudes.

You can help a poor family with the gift of a llama or alpaca—hard-working, respected HPI favorites.

As of July 27 we have collected enough money to buy two flocks of chickens, two bee hives, two trios of rabbits, a pair of water buffalo, a pair of llamas, and a pair of donkeys.

BUILDING A FUTURE FOR THEMSELVES

Daniel and Sandra Gourdet serve in Bulawayo, Zimbabwe. Daniel is Development Officer involved with community and church projects--food production and distribution, cattle and poultry raising and income generating projects. Sandra works with the Women's Desk for the United Congregational Church of Southern Africa (UCCSA), Zimbabwe Synod. They often work together since most community development programs are organized by women. They write of the problems the country faces--salaries eroding in value, AIDS, malaria, fear of cholera from Mozambique, domestic violence. The problems are overwhelming and beyond the ability of the church alone to change, but they write, "The UCCSA recognizes her responsibility of being involved in a holistic ministry. If the community suffers, the church suffers as well. We are grateful to be part of this church as it seeks to witness to the community."

Describing what development means to them, they write, "We don't see development as just projects. It is about building relationships and building people so that they can build a future for themselves. It is about building one's strength and viability, like a plant from the roots upward. It is a journey that never ends, but rather, it is like a spring from which water continuously flows."

"Garden projects at Inyathi and Hope Fountain (the oldest missions in the entire country) provide a valuable source of income for the church as well as providing employment for several persons. A welding workshop, a bakery, tailoring shop, soap making enterprise, crafts and basketry exports, a catering service are all projects initiated by UCCSA which are now empowering people, enabling them to take control of their lives."

You make the difference . . .

The prayers and help you provide through your local congregations make possible the work and witness of GLOBAL MINISTRIES, which is supported by Basic Mission Finance of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and Our Church's Wider Mission (OCWM) of the United Church of Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Meditation
(No Shocs)

A visitor came to a church of great name,
And he didn't have shoes on his feet.
His hair was quite long and the people all moaned,
"How dare he should come here to meet."

He sat in a pew with a man that he knew,
But the man moved a few seats away,
And the look of surprise in the visitor's eyes
Turned to hurt as the folks bowed to pray.

As they sang from the book, the people chanced a quick look
At the stranger who stood in their midst.
But the preacher grew shrewd of the crowd's attitude,
And he stood up and lifted his fist.

"Folks, it tells in this Book," and his voice almost shook,
"Of a Stranger," the preacher began.
Not a place can I find that His hair was like mine
Or His feet were all shod in brogan.

"Naught is said of His dress, maybe God thought it best
That we judge not be fad nor by fashion.
All your garments depart when God looks on your heart,
Best you clothe it with love and compassion.

"There's a stranger today who has come here to pray
Who is different than you in his style.
Now his feet are not shod, but I dare say that God,
Due to dress, will not put him on trial.

"Let us know it or not that no garments we've got
Will add prestige to us in God's sight.
For the stranger you've shunned, may well be the one Whom the Lord feels is best-dressed tonight."

The stranger looked down at this feet on the ground,
Only he knew just why they were bare.
A beggar that day without shoes passed his way,
And the stranger had given his pair.

As the sermon did close, everyone quickly froze
The crowd sat in silence and fear.
In the pulpit there stood a cross made of wood,
And some shoes at the base did appear.

"I was roaming the street, with no shoes on my feet,"
Came a voice, but no one could see.
"Inasmuch as was done, to the very least one,
This stranger has done to me."

Now from all of that crowd who once had been proud,
Of manner of dress they did choose,
Heaven's Judge did declare that the best dressed one
there,
Was the stranger without any shoes.

Leader: The Lord told Moses to send a representative from each tribe to scout out the land of canaan.

Unison: What if this is another wilderness with more danger, more hardship, more anxiety?

Leader: Moses told them to find out if the people there we're stronger or weak, few or many, whether the land was good or bad.

Unison: What if they are many, strong, and the land is bad?

Leader: Moses told them to find out if the people lived in strongholds, if the land was rich or poor, had wood or not and returned with some of the fruit from the land.

Unison: What if the cities are fortresses, the land poor, barren and the fruit low quality?

Leader: Two of the twelve who returned and said, The place was like the garden of eden- we can take the land." Ten said. "The people are too strong--we are like grasshoppers among giants."

Unison: Lord, what are we to do when we are faced with impossible odds?

UPCOMING EVENTS

First Christian Church has been asked to supply (10) Thanksgiving baskets this year. These will be dedicated next Sunday. You may bring items and place them in the buckets near the elevator door. Also, you may assume the responsibility of an entire basket. Thus far, two have asked to fill a basket. Items to include: canned fully cooked ham, canned sweet potatoes, corn, green beans, cranberry sauce, stuffing, and drink (juice). The elders will bless all items brought next Sunday morning. (The items will be given to families the following Saturday)

Christmas Time Goodie Trays: Homemade goodie trays prepared by church women are $10.00 a tray. Call now for your goodie tray. Please order by December 1st. Please call Neva Griffith—783-1306, Linda Bryant—784-7410 or the church office to order your goodie tray now!

Women's Retreat at Cliffview Resort, Richard White's resort in Rogert's KY. November 5. Please contact Sarah Chaney at 784-8027 for more information if interested.

Stewardship Breakfast Brunch--Sunday, November 7, 1999 immediately following morning worship service. Please make plans to attend this all-important event of your church. Bring JUST your appetite and a pledging heart as ALL food will be provided and prepared by a group of the finest chefs in this area (we are told). A copy of next year's proposed budget will also be available to you at this brunch.

Main Street Christmas: Make your reservations now for an evening of community spirit on Saturday, December 4, as we celebrate the beginning of the holy season with our friends from the First Methodist and the First Baptist. Main Street Christmas will be a progressive dinner beginning with appetizers at First Christian, continuing with the main course at First Baptist and concluding with dessert at the First Methodist. There will be a brief worship experience and entertainment at each locale. As we stroll down Main Street, there may even be a few musical interludes. Transportation will be provided for those unable to "stroll." Call the church office for reservations at $6.00 per person by Friday, November 19. There are only 150 places for all 3 churches so don't delay!! Festivities will begin at 5:30 at the First Christian Church.

In Confidence, We Seek

In confidence before the throne
Of grace, so freely given,
We seek the mercy we have known
And are by challenge driven.

We would confess our fallen ways;
Our weaknesses we own.
Temptation stalks and sin betrays,
Yet we are not alone

As Jesus prays, we know our needs
Are raised in godly fear
To one who hears and ever heeds
Our broken hearts, sincere.

We look to Jesus, God's own child,
Our great high priest and friend
Obedient and oft reviled,
Eternal life to send.

Disciples families profoundly affected by NC hurricane

Indianapolis (DNS)- - Thousands of North Carolina families have been dislocated from their homes, farms have been ruined, businesses destroyed, and water, sanitation, highway and other infrastructure systems damaged following Hurricane Floyd last week. The large Disciples community in eastern North Carolina has been profoundly affected by the storm system.

"This part of the tar heel state is facing a major humanitarian, economic and ecological disaster," said the Rev. Johnny Wray, director of Week of Compassion for the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).

The homes of hundreds of Disciples families are underwater, many of them without flood insurance. St. Luke's Christian Church in Princeville is submerged. The community of Princeville also is inundated. In addition, an undetermined number of St. Luke's families—likely more than 100—were flooded out.

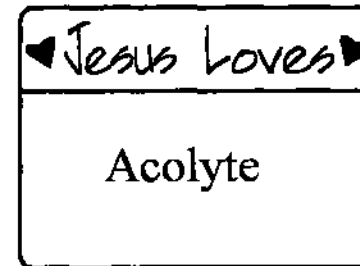

Five other church facilities also were damaged by wind and flood waters: Armenia, Grove Park, and Southwest Christian Churches, Kinston; New Fellowship, Williamston; and First Church, Grifton.

You can help these Disciple congregations and many others in North Carolina by writing a check to First Christian Church and noting it for Week of Compassion-N. Carolina flood relief.

Leader: Praise the Lord; praise God, O my soul!
 Let us praise God as long as we live.

Unison: God alone is worthy of our devotion; we will sing praise to God all our life long.

Leader: Happy are those who hope in God;
 who labor in steadfast faith and love.

Unison: God lifts up those who are bowed down;
 prisoners are freed, and the blind see.

Leader: Grace to you and peace, from God whose care we know. Worship now, giving to God all that belongs to God.

Unison: We bring all that we are to this time of worship. Praise God for the joy inspired by the Holy Spirit.

Following Jesus

I follow my savior one step at a time
And bask in the sunshine of his love divine;
Then why should I worry when he holds my hand?
I know he will strengthen and help me to stand.

The pathway is narrow, but onward we go;
I walk in his shadow - He meets every foe.
My courage grows stronger as I journey along,
For Jesus is leading and I will follow on.

I'm following Jesus as he points the way
An pray to be faithful each our, each day;
There's joy in proclaiming his wonderful love
So others will know him and dwell up above.

I'm watching and waiting for Jesus to come;
He'll guide and protect me till my work is done.
And then when he comes on the cloud from on high,
He'll call and I'll answer - we'll meet in the sky.

So I follow Jesus as time rolls along,
His word in my heart, on my lips is the song,
"I'm homesick for heaven"- no heartaches, no fears,
For Jesus will blot from my eyes every tear.

MEDITATION: Poverty-- can bear on things like our opinion, our "style," anything that tends to affirm us as distinct from others, as superior to others in such a way that we take satisfaction in these peculiarities and treat them as "possessions." "Poverty" should not make us peculiar. The eccentric person is not poor in spirit. Even the ability to help others and give our time and possessions to them can be "possessed" with attachment if by these actions we are really forcing ourselves on others and obligation them to ourselves. For in that case we are trying to buy them and get possession of them by the favors we do for them. What one us, O Lord, can speak of poverty without shame? Yet You, O Lord, came into the world to be poor among the poor.

The family of Phillip Sturgill would like to thank the congregation of The First Christian Church in Morehead for the food and beverages they provided for the family. Your generosity is deeply appreciated. Thank You.

MEDITATION: Keep watch the realm of heaven is near, The day and hour unknown. The wise prepare to see and hear the one who comes to make all clear. And claim us, as God's own. Each one is given a task to do, and gifts to use each day. Christ bids us to our work be true, and grants us hope to see us through the blows that come our way. Prepare your lamps, and keep them lit, with faith to feed the flame. Be watchfully alert and fit as to the Christ we now commit our best to God's acclaim. Come, meet the Christ with hearts aglow; God welcomes great and least. Now, as we worship, God will know the many ways to seek and grow. Come, join the joyful feast!
