Justified by Faith

*Therefore, since we are justified by faith,
we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.*

Through Him

we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in our hope of sharing the glory of God.

More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings,

*knowing that suffering produces endurance,
and endurance produces character,
and character produces hope,*

*and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts
through the Holy Spirit which has been given to us.*

*While we were still weak,
at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.*

Why, one will hardly die for a righteous man—though perhaps for a good man one will dare even to die.

But God shows His love for us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us.

Since, therefore, we are now justified by His blood, much more shall we be saved by Him from the wrath of God.

*For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of His Son, much more, now that we are reconciled,
shall we be saved by His life.*

Not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received our reconciliation.

—Romans 5:1-11 (RSV)

Christian Social Services 2000 Annual Giving Campaign

LOOKING BACK AT 1999

In 1999, Christian Social Services and its branch Office, the Elliott County Christian Community Center provided services to over 2,200 families in Rowan, Morgan and Elliott counties. With the generosity of our donors, we were able to assist families in need with food, clothing, furniture, household items, and eyeglasses as well as financial assistance with past due rent, mortgage payments, utility bills and medications. We offered budget counseling to all families in order to help them achieve long-term stability. As the number of requests for assistance increases, so does our need for your support!

LOOKING FORWARD TO 2000

Christian Social Services hopes to have its newest program, Wise-Choice Credit Counseling in full operation this year. This program will allow us to address the long-term financial needs of the families we serve. Through budget counseling, educational programs, and debt management plans, we will work with families to achieve the financial stability they desire.

SOME NUMBERS TO CONSIDER...

English Lessons and Learning About Jesus

Every summer for the past 20 years, a group of Hong Kong teenagers have spent their vacation in a most unusual way, described by Global Ministries missionary Judy Chin Chan, who serves with the Hong Kong Christian Council.

JUDY CHAN

"They attend a four week camp, spending most of their time improving their English while learning about Jesus Christ. Most of these 14-16 year old teenagers are not Christians.

In the month spent at the SWAP camp (Summer with A Purpose), they speak more English than they have probably done in their whole lives. They live without television, computer games and telephones. They wash their own clothes by hand, they clean the toilets, they sleep under mosquito nets. And, oh yes, they have their lives absolutely changed forever."

SWAP was started by a missionary of the Reformed Church in America, which sends six American university students who are joined by six Hong Kong university students who live around the clock with 70 Hong Kong teenagers for an intensive program of English instruction, personal growth classes, and introductory lectures in the Christian faith. Judy is liaison between the Hong Kong Christian Council, which sponsors the program, and the SWAP committee. When the college staff shared their stories, they told how "the students who were Christian witnessed boldly to their friends, making an impression that a year's worth of religion classes in school might never equal. They told how their own faith was strengthened as they opened their hearts to the pains and joys of an age they themselves had left not long ago. I finished the day," Judy said, "deeply impressed and immensely grateful to God. And the magic continues to happen every summer."

You make the difference...

The prayers and help you provide through your local congregations make possible the work and witness of GLOBAL MINISTRIES, which is supported by Basic Mission Finance of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and Our Church's Wider Mission (OCWM) of the United Church of Christ.

Lord, Jesus, we cannot do anything without you; and you yourself cannot act in us without our cooperation. We thank you for being able to do so much; but, at the same time, we see our basic inability to live up to the fullness of your love. Save us! Make us welcome your salvation, not as a chance to better our lives, but as the only source of freedom, without which we cannot break every last bond that keeps us enslaved to ourselves.

Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) In Kentucky

The Christian Church in Kentucky is an expression of Christ's mission, witness, and service for 258 Disciples of Christ congregations in Kentucky. Our birth as a Region goes back to 1840 when statewide meetings were held in Kentucky to unite the churches and to send forth evangelists. By 1850 the Kentucky Christian Missionary Society had become a united way for churches to be in mission.

Today the Regional expression of the church continues to seek ways to be faithful to the Gospel and to build up the church.

- ◆ Children and Youth are nurtured in faith through district and regional gatherings and summer camp programs at KBY and WKDH.
- ◆ Women are united in mission, leadership development and fellowship in region-wide retreats.
- ◆ Men are gathering for retreats, fellowship, Bible study, service and prayer.
- ◆ About eighty persons considering ordained or licensed ministry are in care of the Committee of Ministry.
- ◆ Over thirty pulpit/search committees each year are provided consultation and resources by the Regional Ministers.
- ◆ Relationships with other denominations are strengthened through Kentucky Disciples ecumenical witness.
- ◆ Kentuckiana Disciples Area ministries bridge regional boundaries for congregational witness and service.
- ◆ West Area ministries are linked to outdoor ministries at KBY and the full services of the Region.
- ◆ Kentucky Appalachian Ministries reach out to congregations in Eastern Kentucky to strengthen the church and serve the Appalachian area.

You, 60,000 members (including 464 ministers), make the ministry possible through our covenant to uphold one another with our prayers, leadership and finances. Outreach gifts for Basic Mission Finance through your congregation supports these and many other ministries. Thank you!

Introduction – Jan Trulock

Matt 10:2-4 (Light the 12 candles as the disciples are named.)
Gene to read the names.
Samantha Davis to light the candles.

Celebration of the Last Supper . . . Mark 14:22-25 Larry Fannin (Break the bread/Pass the cup/Dip the bread in the cup/Serve one another)

A MEDITATION ON JESUS CHRIST

Prayer Larry Fannin

O God, whose eternal love for our weak and struggling race was most perfectly shown in the life of Jesus Christ our Lord, enable us now to meditate upon our Lord's passion that, having fellowship with Him in His sorrow, we may also learn the secret of His strength and peace. AMEN.

Hymn “’Tis Midnight, and on Olive’s Brow” Verse 1 # 194

Reading “Were you there” Samantha Davis

(After each scripture and reading, the congregation will respond
Lord, have mercy on me.)

I remember Gethsemane . . . Mark 14:32-42 Nelson Grote Christ Jesus, in agony in the garden of olives, troubled by sadness and fear, comforted by an angel:
(Lord, have mercy on me.)

I remember how Judas betrayed him. . . Mark 14:43-47 Samantha Davis
(Extinguish the Judas candle) Samantha Davis
Christ Jesus, betrayed by Judas’ kiss, abandoned by your disciples, delivered in the hands of sinners:
(Lord, have mercy on me.)

I remember how they all deserted him and fled. . . Mark 14:48-50 Glenn Johnston
Blackness burnt into blackness, abysmal absence of anything good.
We acknowledge that death is real; and we tremble for a world that would kill its God. Our feet stand in quicksand; our voices echo sterile silence. We huddle together to meet the darkness and the death, forgetting what was taught us.
(Lord, have mercy on me.)

I remember how Peter denied him. . . Mark 14:66-72 Di Walke Christ Jesus, disowned by Peter, your apostle, delivered to Pilate and Herod, counted among the likes of Barabus:
(Lord, have mercy on me.)

I remember the scourging... (Pass Whip) Ryan Brown
The words of Palm Sunday praise are over. As we approach Friday, the words around Jesus judge, demand, accuse, deny, mock, cyhastice and threaten. It is as if, before we break Christ's body, we must break his heart.
But Jesus turns to God like the suffering servant of Isaiah.
(Lord, have mercy on me.)

I remember the crown of thorns... (Pass Crown of Thorns) Mabel Reynolds King of the Jews! Where's your crown? Where are your jewels? King of the Jews – come down – save yourself. As they pressed the band of loathsome thorns more tightly on his head. Beads of sweat and glistening drops of blood became the jewels of that crown.
(Lord, have mercy on me.)

I remember how they spat upon him... "Were you there?" Verse 1 Jack Bizzel Christ Jesus, accused by false witnesses, condemned to die on the cross struck by servants, covered with spittle:
(Lord, have mercy on me.)

I remember how they stuck him with a staff... Mark 15:16-20 Natalie Caudill
(Pass Staff)

(Cross is drug in. – Ryan Brown) Natalie Caudill Christ Jesus, carrying your cross to Calvary, consoled by the daughters of Jerusalem, helped by Simon of Cyrene:
(Lord, have mercy on me.)

I remember His pierced hands and feet... (Pass the spike) Jack Bizzel
"Were you there?" Verse 2
(Sound of nails being pounded. -- Ryan Brown)
Christ Jesus, insulted on the cross, praying for your executioners, pardoning the good thief:
(Lord, have mercy on me.)

I remember His agony on the cross... Matthew 27:35 (Pass dice) Eva Johnston
(Lord, have mercy on me.)

I remember His thirst... (Pass the vinegar soaked sponge)
Christ Jesus, stripped of your clothes, given vinegar to drink,
crucified with thieves:

Bessie
~~Samantha Davis~~

(Lord, have mercy on me.)

I remember how He cried, "My God, My God, why have you forsaken me?"
Mark 15: 25 – 39

~~Rev. Gene Derryberry~~ Ron Caudill

"Were you there?" Verse 3
(Cross is draped in black – Ryan and Samantha)

Jack Bizzel

Christ Jesus, entrusting your mother to your beloved disciple, giving up your spirit into the hands of your father, dying for all us sinners:

~~Rev. Gene Derryberry~~ Ron Caudill

(Lord, have mercy on me.)

But your sufferings, Lord, heal the wounds in our hearts. Let your tears be the source of joy for us, and let your death give us life.

(Lord, have mercy on me.)

Going out in darkness... John 8:12
The candles are extinguished, one-by-one. (Samantha) Process upstairs in silence with the lighted Christ candle. (Jan) The congregation follows.

(Personal Meditation for the evening)
We may not know, we cannot tell,
What pains He had to bear.
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

A Lily was placed by: Creative Touch Florist

As of 2:00 PM on Friday, these are the lilies I had or have gotten names from the families sending. If you sent a lily and your name isn't listed please leave me a note on my desk and I will put in next weeks bulletin. Chasity

Lilies

*In the beauty of the lilies
We can see the love of God.
They without a conscious effort
Rise - supreme above the sod -
Clothed in tints of radiant glory
Fed by springs and from above,
Each a message of Creation,
Each a symbol of His love.*

“Special Reminders”

On Mother's Day, May 14, a carnation bouquet will be in the sanctuary. Each carnation in the bouquet will be in memory (white) or honor (pink) of a gracious lady. To place a carnation in the bouquet it is $ 2.00. You may pay and/or call Neva Griffith, CWF Treasurer, at 784-7973.

Deadline for placing orders is May 8, 2000.

A lily was sent in memory of Dr. Louise Caudill from Jim, Etta, Jane, and Michael McCarty. This name was left off the list on Easter Sunday.

By your Fifth Sunday gift to The Homes, you provide shelter for troubled children, aging adults, and persons with developmental disabilities. By your gift you open souls and minds to the presence of Christ and transform fear into confidence. By your gift you help others to lay aside their doubt and touch the miracle of life. By your gift you accord fingertip faith to those who need to see in order to believe.

And when all of that happens, even on the Sunday after Easter, the angels will smile.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH
HOMES OF KENTUCKY

QUASIMODO SUNDAY

*"Put your finger here...
Stop doubting and believe."
John 20:27 (NIV)*

In the words of an old pop song, "There's got to be a morning after." And this is it. The Sunday after—after the full sanctuary, after the scent of lilies, after the trumpet fanfares, after the echoes of "Christ has risen!"

In the traditional church calendar every Sunday has its own Latin title. The first Sunday after Easter derives its name from an antiphonal piece, which begins with the words, quasi modo geniti infantes, "as just-born children." So, this is Quasimodo Sunday in the Latin year.

Do you remember the name of Victor Hugo's hunchback of Notre Dame? Abandoned as a baby on the first Sunday after Easter, Quasimodo was bundled and left lying on the cathedral steps. In spite of his condition, Quasimodo discovered a home in the church.

In 1882 a Kentucky pastor, William A. Broadhurst promised a home to a young boy facing abandonment after the death of his mother. Like Quasimodo in Hugo's famous story, the church provided a home for the child. Broadhurst appealed to Christians across the state for help in his mission: "Can we who have cheerful and happy homes, afford to deny such to others when only a little effort on our part would give it? A blessing will make the angels smile...for those who find protection under the roof of our Home." The Christian Church Homes of Kentucky became the first benevolent ministry of its kind in the nation.

Dear Christian Church Friends,

I just wanted to let you know well the Kurahovic family is doing in Lexington. Mulagn is now a process engineer at a plant in Lawrenceburg and Bogdanka is a Revenue Auditor I at the Kentucky Revenue Cabinet in Frankfort. They are going to rent out their present home in Lexington and purchase a new home near Versailles Road. The girls are doing fine.

Your generous sharing of time and household items gave this family a new start in a new country. I know they will never forget their first days in Morehead and friends at the Christian Church.

Dear friends and family,

My time is short as I prepare to move into storage here in Lexington. I leave on the 6th for AZ, where I will be at Saguaro until July 17th. I am in negotiation for a call to First Christian Church, Edinburg, TX. If all works well, I will be moving there to begin on August 1. That will give me time to move my "stuff" out of storage and visit with the folks.

For those of you who know of my mission work and love for Southwest Good Samaritan Ministries, Edinburg is in that general area of Texas. The temperatures are about the same as Tucson, but it gets a little more humid.

Please say extra prayers.

Peace and love, Jan

To Open the Doors of Our Hearts...

Global Ministries missionary Jeff Mensendiek is the director of the student center in Sendai, Japan. For ten years he has been taking Japanese students on study tours to south Asia. This spring he took seven students to Kerala in the southern tip of India. For three weeks they visited village people, stayed in their homes, and learned about social service work being done by local non-governmental organizations (NGOs).

JEFF MENSENDIEK

On these visits, they spend time, not in five-star hotels, but in the homes of local people, the visits made possible by contacts through the church. "It is a way to share from the heart," Jeff writes, "as a simple home becomes the sharing ground for a newfound friendship. Japanese youth are astounded by the hospitality and acceptance. These trips open the doors of our hearts to the richness of life which is the Gospel."

As Jeff wrote, his students had just gone off for their home-stays. "They will stay two nights with Harijan families who are the lowest caste of Hindu society. Never have these people had foreign visitors in their homes. This was arranged by a friend who runs an NGO to aid poor families by providing them skills training, which can be the beginning of sustainable income for their future village life."

With both India and Pakistan involved in nuclear testing, Jeff said that on this particular trip he was thinking about the world's increasing dependence on nuclear power and weaponry, and efforts to change this. "My host here has been involved in inviting Hiroshima nuclear bomb survivors (Hibakusha) to India to speak about the horrors of the bomb. He is trying to educate the people who have so little information about the bomb, and who only identify the bomb as a 'Hindu bomb,' a symbol of strength against India's rival, Pakistan."

You make the difference...

The prayers and help you provide through your local congregations make possible the work and witness of GLOBAL MINISTRIES, which is supported by Basic Mission Finance of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and Our Church's Wider Mission (OCWM) of the United Church of Christ.

Ordination of Elders

August 13, 2000

In the light of your calling to this new responsibility, do you reaffirm your faith that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and do you promise to follow him and to seek to do and to bear his will all the days of your life?

I do.

Do you believe that the word of God in the Old and New Testaments, discerned under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, is the supreme authority for the faith and conduct of all God's people?

I do.

Do you commit yourself to the well being of the church and through God's grace fulfill a servant ministry of care and concern for all the church's members?

I do, God being my helper.

May the Lord bless you and give you grace to keep these vows.

PRAYER

Rev. Gene Derryberry

Gracious God, the giver of every good and perfect gift, we thank you for raising up these elders in our midst to serve you and the church in strengthening the church. By your grace assist them in the building up of the church into the fullness of the stature of Jesus Christ.

We thank you for Don and ask that you fill him with all the good graces of your Spirit that he may faithfully fulfill the ministry of Christ.

We thank you for Rex and ask that you fill him with all the good graces of your Spirit that he may faithfully fulfill the ministry of Christ.

INDUCTION

Rev. Gene Derryberry

I now ask the congregation to join with its elders in a covenant affirmation:

Reaffirming our faith that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, we gladly receive these elders as leaders in our life together. We covenant to support them with our prayers, encouragement, and respect. We celebrate with thanksgiving the shared responsibilities for Christ's ministry which is ours as the church. Praise be to God.

Ordination of Elders

August 13, 2000

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Tommy Griffith

We come to this glad and solemn moment in which this congregation recognizes God's gift of elders to serve the church in Christ's ministry. All ministries is a gift from Jesus Christ who is the chief minister, the great high priest, of the entire people of God. Through the action of the Holy Spirit, Christ's ministry of reconciling, healing, teaching, and serving is the basis of all ministries. While the whole people of God through baptism is commissioned to share in this servant ministry, the church from earliest times has set some persons apart with prayer to serve in designated ministries.

Larry Fannin

An eldership has been established through which those names as elders serve together in a shared responsibility of congregational leadership. Together they serve as colleges of the minister who represent the reconciling work of Christ and the whole church in the present day. The responsibility of the eldership is:

- to teach and express the nature of the church and the spirit of Christian living in word and deed;
- to give wise counsel to individual members and to the congregation as a whole in the face of the perplexities of its life together;
- to represent with disciplined clarity the church's understanding of the significance of communion at the Lord's table through its prayers;
- to set forth to the people of God
an engaging vision of the congregation's mission and ministry;
- to share in positions of church leadership in accordance with this congregation's practices.
- to guard in all things the purity, unity,
and peace of Christ's holy church.

PRESENTATION OF CANDIDATES

Rev. Gene Derryberry

Don Blair and Rex Chaney

The church has with prayer and deliberation affirmed your call to the eldership of this congregation. Each of you have accepted this call as God's intention for your life. We therefore now proceed to ordain you to the office of elder.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

Sarah Chaney

Through the gifts of the Spirit, God calls men and women within Christ's church to serve as deacons in ministry. All ministry derives from the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, who embodies God's ministry to all the world. Within the church all ministry is a rich interweaving of word and worship, work and witness. In different ways, members of the body of Christ share responsibility for the church's government, administration, discipline, instruction, worship, and pastoral care.

A diaconate has been established through which those designated as deacons serve together in a shared responsibility of church leadership. Together they represent to the people of God servant ministry within a congregation. Together they are those:

who assist generally in worship and particularly in the ministration of baptism and the Lord's supper; who assist in pastoral care, looking after the needs of the sick and those in distress;
who take shared responsibility for the disciplined spiritual life of the congregation and its collective expressions of the gospel; who fulfill designated administrative responsibility in the ordered life and mission of the church.

In all things the diaconate is called to exemplify the interdependence of worship and mission in the life of the church.

PRESENTATION OF CANDIDATES

Reading the roll of Deacons

Phyllis Bradley

The church has prayerfully considered your gifts of ministry for service in its diaconate and has duly called you to be a deacon. Each of you has accepted this call as God's intention for your life. In the light of your calling to this responsibility, do you reaffirm your faith that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God;

do you seek the peace, unity and purity of the church;
and do you, in accepting the office of deacon in this congregation, promise faithfully to perform all the duties pertaining to your calling?

I do, God being my helper.

POSTLUDE

Hedy Caldwell

Thought you might enjoy this interesting prayer given in Kansas at the opening session of their Senate. It seems prayer still upsets some people. When Minister Joe Wright was asked to open the new session of the Kansas Senate, everyone was expecting the usual generalities, but this is what they heard:

"Heavenly Father, we come before you today to ask Your forgiveness and to seek Your direction and guidance. We know Your Word says, "Woe to those who call evil good" but that is exactly what we have done.

We have lost our spiritual equilibrium and reversed our values.

We confess that We have ridiculed the absolute truth of Your Word and called it Pluralism;

We have worshipped other gods and called it multiculturalism;

We have endorsed perversion and called it alternative lifestyle;

We have exploited the poor and called it the lottery;

We have rewarded laziness and called it welfare;

We have killed our unborn and called it choice;

We have shot abortionists and called it justifiable;

We have neglected to discipline our children and called it building self-esteem;

We have abused power and called it politics;

We have coveted our neighbor's possessions and called it ambition;

We have polluted the air with profanity and pornography and called it freedom of expression;

We have ridiculed the time-honored values of our forefathers and called it enlightenment.

Search us, Oh, God, and know our hearts today; cleanse us from every sin and set us free. Guide and bless these men and women who have been sent to direct us to the center of Your will, to open ask it in the name of Your Son, the living Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen"

The response was immediate. A number of legislators walked out during the prayer in protest. In 6 short weeks, Central Christian Church, where Rev. Wright is pastor, logged more than 5,000 phone calls with only 47 of those calls responding negatively. The church is now receiving international requests for

MEDITATION

We do not come to this place as idle spectators. We come as imperfect human beings called by God. We are bound to God and to each other by his son. We are led by his spirit and blessed by his forgiveness. We come to confess our sins, to sing praises to God, and to seek his way for our living.

Worship speaks to the very heart of life. It touches hurt and pain with healing. It enters our prison and frees the captive. It enters darkness and brings forth light. It has its way with sin and has power over evil, and yet it can touch and transform only what we allow it to touch. Come with anticipation to this hour.

Worship is one step beyond our ordinary world for it seeks to blow from our lives the dust of confusion and the ashes of hopelessness. It seeks to bless us with a clear vision of our needs, and to call us to the service of God. Let us not fear this step beyond our ordinary world for we take it in the presence of God. Let us be reminded that God has created us in His image.

We live in an age that doubts love and is afraid of the commitment it requires. Our age wants no part of the risk that is partner to love. And yet we stand in the need of love, long to be touched by it, to be wrapped in its security, to be freed from the bonds that hold us captive to ourselves. Be wary of stuffy tradition and pompous behavior that would prevent worship from blessing you with God's love. Let your heart be free as you worship.

To our Lord we say, Living God, open our hearts, that we may feel the breath of your spirit. Unclench our hands, that we may reach out to one another. Open our lips, that we may drink in the delight and wonder of life. Unclog our ears to hear your invitation. Open our eyes that we may see Jesus Christ in friends and strangers. Breathe your spirit into us and touch our lives with your love as we worship today.

Enter To Worship, Depart To Serve

MOREHEAD FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH
Sunday Morning Worship, November 5, 2000

MEDITATION

Worship is our way of saying that when we are separated from each other and from God we are only fragments. Worship is our way of saying that when we gather in the name of Jesus Christ we are made whole by the love of God. Whoever is truly touched by worship will never be the same again. Their life has been touched by the eternal. Be open to that touch. Remember worship does not happen apart from life. It stands at the very heart of life. It speaks of the forgiveness without which we can not keep relationships. It speaks of the support without which we can not reach fulfillment. It speaks of the healing without which we can not survive. To have no need of these is to have no need of life. May we celebrate life through our worship.

2000 ROWAN COUNTY THANKSGIVING PROGRAM

Again this year, the Rowan County ministerial Association and the Rowan County Interagency Cooperative (RCIC) will join together to distribute Thanksgiving baskets to Rowan County families in need. Members of the Ministerial Association will provide the baskets. Churches "adopt" a certain number of baskets. Members of the RCIC will refer the families and will be responsible for getting the baskets to the families. Last year we contributed ten of these baskets. There is no general "sign-up" for this program. It is referral only.

To accomplish the project, it is estimated that we will need 80 baskets. Baskets are to be brought to the Carl Perkins Center between 9:00 and 9:30 a.m. on Friday, November 17, 2000. RCIC members are to pick them up from the Carl Perkins Center between 9:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.

SUGGESTED THANKSGIVING BASKET

Canned ham or frozen turkey
Box of instant potatoes or 5 pounds of fresh potatoes
Dessert item - pie, cake mix, brownie mix
Canned cranberry sauce
1 package stuffing mix
2 packets of gravy mix
Fresh fruit (apples, oranges, etc.)
6 cans of vegetables
Rolls, biscuit mix or corn muffin mix
2 cans of fruit
2 packages of Jell-O
Miniature marshmallows

MEDITATION

All of us love new things. We love the sight, the sound, and the feel of a new look. We look forward to the new. We make plans for the new, and wish for the new.
