Historical Information: The Upward Bound Program was established at Morehead State University in the spring of 1966 with Federal funds to “provide a special cultural-academic enrichment summer program for 100 selected high school sophomores from homes labeled as culturally different.” The Program presently serves high school students from low-income families, and high school students from families in which neither parent holds a bachelor's degree, by assisting participants in preparation for college entrance. Morehead State serves high school students in sixteen Eastern Kentucky counties.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of scrapbooks, photographs, video recordings, departmental publications and ephemera related to the Upward Bound Department of Morehead State University from the 1960s to 2015. The collection contains poster boards with attached photos of program scholars (1960s-1980s), photo calendars (1984-2000), loose photographic prints and slides (1960s-2000s), negatives (1988-1996), scrapbooks (2007-2010), recruitment DVDs (1985-2015), and program awards (2006-2011). Included with the collection are pamphlets, admission guides, news releases, correspondence, film reel, LPs, and ephemera associated with the program.
