The stage was decorated in the national colors and flags were numerous.
The members of the orchestra are: John Will Holbrook, Earl Young, Ralph Miller, Jack Lewis, Everett Blair, Hansford Staggs, Bruce Calvert, Claude Crosthwaite, and Alexander Bishop.

PROGRAM
Salute to the Flag: "Star Spangled Banner"
Invocation: Rev. W. C. Hale
Address: President F. C. Button
Reading: "Your Flag and My Flag" by Mrs. Dudley Caudill.
Reading: "The American Flag" by Miss Elizabeth Peters.
Reading: "The Blindman" by Miss Evelyn Royalty.
Solo: "Your Father is looking for You" by Mr. R. H. Brooks.

Peace Drill, 12 young ladies including tableau:
Liberty: Miss Edna Sparks
Uncle Sam: Harold Blair
Angel of Peace: Roberta Bishop
Song: "America the Beautiful"
Address: Captain Ezra Proctor
Benediction: Rev. Mr. Fann

Goldie Hutchinson and Miss Inez Faith Humphrey spent the weekend in Lexington attending the State Conference of Young Women's Christian Association. About 150 girls and teachers from ten Kentucky colleges were entertained by the University of Kentucky. Four National Association Secretaries, assisted by Miss Frances Jewell of the University, conducted the various conference sessions.

The members of the James Lane Allen Literary Society had a picnic and wiener roast on the hill Friday evening. A delightful time is reported.

Emma Scaggs, Pete Johnson and Myrtle Brown are now students in M. S. N.

John G. Evans, of Frankfort, was the guest of President and Mrs. Button on Tuesday. He was much pleased with the progress of the school.

The Dinner Male Quartette and Bell Ringers will give an entertainment in the Chapel in Burgess Hall, December 12. Don't forget the date!