

STATE NORMAL

1924

President Button, Dean Lewis, and Professor Chambers have recently had a conference with the accrediting committee of the University of Kentucky.

Revs. R. C. Caudill, minister of the Church of God and W. S. Irvin of the Christian church recently gave very interesting talks in chapel.

New students in M. S. N. are Ruth May of West Liberty and T. H. Morris of Providence, Webster County. Twenty-four counties are now represented in our school. Mr. Morris was formerly one of Professor Chamber's students.

Miss Catherine Braun left October 1st for Peabody College, where she will spend several months in special study.

Miss Ora Adams has returned from a visit in Lexington and Harrodsburg. She reports that her brother is much improved.

Mrs. Nannie Foulconer spent several days in Lexington and Jackson and attended the Upper Kentucky River Teachers' Association. She saw several former students of Morehead State Normal.

Mrs. Hubert Bishop, of Ashland, will stop off here for a visit on her return from attending the W. C. T. U. convention at Shelbyville, Kentucky.

Mrs. Mayme Wiley spent a day at her home near Soldier and attended the basket dinner at the Soldier church. Her father and mother, little daughter, and Miss Lelia Forrest accompanied her here. They spent a few hours visiting friends.

Rigdon Ratliff, principal of the school at Soldier, spent the week end at the home of Mrs. Mary E. Humphrey and daughter.

W. E. Flannery visited friends in Mt. Sterling over Sunday.

Prof. Haggan and Roscoe Esham drove to Lexington, Saturday.

An interesting program was given at the girls' meeting in chapel last Tuesday morning. The general topic was "First Things".

Song—"I've Found a Friend."
Scripture--Matt h e w--E d n a Sparks.

Prayer-- Miss Royalty.

Talks:

Purpose--Mary Lewis.

Health--Marie Holbrook.

First Things I Liked About Morehead--Miss Lucy Wilson.

Putting Christ First--Nell Casity.

Special Reading--Miss Margaret Scott.

Song--Brighten t h e Corner Where You are.

Two parties went to North Fork last Saturday. One was a hiking trip for the purpose of collecting bot o n y specimens. This group was composed of Misses King, Royalty, Shader, Hard, Carpenter, and Ruby Vansant. Dean Lewis drove over, taking Mrs. Lewis and her sister and Mrs. Groves and the children.

Miss Sallie Lathram, from Bath County, came to Wrigley last Tuesday morning, where she will have charge of the first three grades in the Wrigley school. Miss Lathram has almost completed her Junior College work in Eastern State Normal at Richmond and is considered a very successful teacher in rural school work.

Miss Della Godbey, of Casey County, is spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Charles D. Lewis, and taking some special courses in M. S. N.

Mr. Mark Hudgins, of Phoenix Arizona, who has been visiting at the home of his aunt, Mrs. B. F. Vansant, was called to his home by the sudden death of his sister. Many will remember her as Carrie Hudgins, who visited here for a few weeks last year.

The members of the Babbist church gave a beautiful reception Friday evening from eight to ten o'clock.

The Baptist Normal Students and friends were invited.

An interesting program was given by Mrs. Sam Bradley and Miss Evelyn Royalty. Remarks by Dr. Hale, Mr. Jane and Mr. Wheeler were much enjoyed. Miss Lucy Wilson had charge of the games. The refreshments, angel-food cake and punch were served in a unique fashion. Miss Josie Jacobs, as Rebekah, stood by an open well and drew the punch from its depths, serving the guests as they filed by. Over a hundred enjoyed this happy occasion.

Friday evening, from seven until nine, the Epworth League entertained at the Methodist Parsonage for the new Methodist students and their friends. During the evening many amusing and clever games were enjoyed. These were so arranged that they offered an opportunity for the town people and the Normal studens to become better acquainted. The evening closed with delightful refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, coffee and hot chocolate.

Mrs. Gus Thomas and son drove to Frankfort for the week end. Misses Rovena Lewis and Margaret Scott accompanied them; the former to visit friends there, the latter to visit her sister, Mrs. P. H. Hopkins.
