FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ASHLAND, Ky.—Nearly 60 undergraduate and graduate courses will be offered this spring by Morehead State University at its Ashland Area Extended Campus Center, 1401 Winchester Ave.

The schedule includes a number of afternoon and early evening classes in a wide variety of fields, according to Dr. Roland Burns, director of the extended campus center. Among the areas represented are business, education, history, science, sociology, nursing and real estate. Also available are several courses designed for registered nurses who wish to earn their B.S.N. degree.

Registration at MSU-Ashland Area ECC will be conducted Thursday, Jan. 20, from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Friday, Jan. 21, from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m., with classes beginning Monday, Jan. 24. Mail-in registration accompanied by tuition and fees will be accepted postmarked through Jan. 14.

Classes will meet at the center, except for those in industrial education and technology which are held at the Ashland State Vocational School.

The cost per credit hour is $70 at the undergraduate level and $103 at the graduate level for all students taking classes at MSU's regional locations—whether in-state or out-of-state residents.

MSU's spring schedule for the Ashland Area ECC includes:

ACCT 390, Cost Accounting I, 6 to 8:40 p.m., Tuesdays.

ACCT 483, Auditing, 6 to 8:40 p.m., Thursdays.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.—On Wednesday, Jan. 12, WMKY 90.3 FM, public radio from Morehead State University's campus, will air a locally-produced tribute to several notable figures from the world of music who passed away in 1993.

Produced by Paul Hitchcock, WMKY music and traffic director, "Music Memorial 1993" will be broadcast twice that day.

"We will air 'Memorial' at 10 a.m. and again at 10 p.m. to give our listeners during different time periods a chance to hear this special," Hitchcock said.

This is the third annual year-end memorial that Hitchcock has produced and aired on WMKY. "Music Memorial 1993" will include a look at the achievements of people who were involved in many facets of the music industry.

Academy Award-winning composer and lyricists Sammy Cahn will be featured. He may be best remembered as the lyricist for the smash hit "Call Me Irresponsible."

From the jazz genre, trumpeter John Birks (better known as Dizzy Gillespie) will be highlighted along with Billy Eckstine, a Gillespie sideman on trombone and vocals.

Marian Anderson, who broke racial barriers as the first African-American to perform at the White House and the New York Metropolitan Opera, also will be recalled.

Country music will be represented by the late Conway Twitty, whose career spanned five decades and saw his popularity reflected by 40 tunes hitting number one on the country charts.

Not as commercially successful, but much more controversial, was Frank Zappa. Although his compositions are defined as rock, Zappa's works included orchestral pieces as well. Additionally in 1993, the blues world lost "The Master Telecaster," Albert Collins. These and many more will be remembered on "Music Memorial 1993."

"It's important to remember these artists," said Hitchcock. "Not so much to mourn their passing, but to celebrate their contributions to all of our lives with the music they have left us. Even with their passing they continue to inspire future artists," Hitchcock added.

Additional information on the program may be obtained by calling Hitchcock at (606) 783-2001.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Morehead State University students will have an opportunity to get a jump on summer employment, thanks to a special program.

The Office of Career Planning and Placement is hosting a "Summer Jobs Information Day" on Tuesday, Jan. 25, from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. in the Adron Doran University Center.

"Lots of employers want applications for summer employment on file by late February or early March," said Dr. Michael Hopper, Career Planning and Placement director who is coordinating the activity. "We are offering students a chance to stop by and browse, see what entities are hiring and what qualifications are needed," he added.

More than 200 employers have been contacted to send information, Dr. Hopper noted. "The range includes federal jobs, private businesses, summer camps, the park system, hospitality industry and theme parks," he said.

Additional information is available by calling 783-2233. There is no registration or fee required.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.----Registration for Morehead State University's 1994 spring semester will be conducted Thursday and Friday, Jan. 20-21.

Students who did not advance register will develop class schedules in their major departments before going to Laughlin Health Building to pay fees.

Students who have not declared a major will go to 233 Allie Young Hall to schedule their classes. Undergraduate students, who have not previously been admitted or were not enrolled last fall, will need to stop first at the Admissions Office, 301 Howell-McDowell. For graduate students, that stop will be 701 Ginger Hall.

Registration will be from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. both days and entry time into the payment area in Laughlin is based on a last name alphabetical system. All fees should be paid at this time.

Part-time students taking classes on the main campus also will process their schedules in their major department and may pay fees in Laughlin between 5 and 6 p.m.

Registration at MSU's Ashland Area, Big Sandy and Licking Valley Extended Campus Centers as well as the Appalachian Graduate Consortium will be conducted from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 20, and again on Friday, Jan. 21, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The registration period for regional classes at Jackson, Maysville, Mt. Sterling and Whitesburg will be from 5 to 7 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 20, only.

All MSU classes, including evening and off-campus, will begin meeting on Monday, Jan. 24.

Schedule adjustments will be processed Thursday, Jan. 20, through Monday, Jan. 24, in the student's major department at no cost. Effective Tuesday through Friday, Jan. 25-28, drop-adds will be processed in the Office of the Registrar, 201 Ginger Hall, still without a cost. The $10 drop-add fee goes into effect at 8 a.m. on Monday, Jan. 31.

Course directories with a complete listing of classes and registration information may be obtained from the Registrar's Office. Additional information is available by calling that office, locally at 783-2008 or toll-free elsewhere in Kentucky at 1-800-262-7474.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRESTONSBURG, Ky.---Morehead State University will host an informational program at the MSU-Big Sandy Extended Campus Center, at 719 University Drive in Prestonsburg on Wednesday, Jan. 19.

On behalf of MSU, President Ronald G. Eaglin invites all area students and their parents to attend the "Meet Morehead State" night and learn about the opportunities available at the University. Dr. Eaglin will be among the MSU representatives on hand that evening.

"Because it is sometimes inconvenient for students to visit the campus, we want to provide the information at a location that is easily accessible to them," said Sandra Barker, MSU admissions counselor and program coordinator. "This is a good opportunity to talk with a variety of individuals and ask specific questions about particular programs and career possibilities in various fields."

The agenda for the evening also has been designed for convenience, Barker noted. "Students may attend either of two sessions, each running approximately one and one-half hours each." The first session begins at 4:30 p.m., while the latter will start at 7 p.m.

Among the topics for discussion will be ways to finance a college degree.

A special reception for area alumni to meet President Eaglin is scheduled from 6 to 8:30 p.m.

Additional information is available by calling MSU's Office of Admissions at (606) 783-2000 or toll free at 1-800-262-7474.

RATHER A TALL ORDER

Morehead State University took advantage of the semester break to take care of various projects, including one rather tall order: replacement of the cooling tower on a multi-story residence hall. To reach the rooftop of MSU's Alumni Tower, Leggo Mechanical Contractors needed the services of Duncan Machinery's 160-foot crane. MSU physical plant estimated the ground to rooftop height of Alumni to be at least 110 feet with the need for an additional 30 feet of clearance for the chiller.

NETHERTON IS PKP BANQUET SPEAKER

Morehead State University's chapter of Phi Kappa Phi interdisciplinary honor society recently honored students for academic excellence at a scholarship banquet. Dr. Vicente Cano, left, professor of romance languages and incoming PKP president, talked with Mary Jo Netherton, associate professor of French, and Dr. Wade Cain, assistant professor of chemistry and the organization's outgoing president. Netherton, who served as the keynote speaker for the banquet, spoke on "Teaching--a Dynamic Interactive Process." She was the recipient of MSU's 1992-93 Distinguished Teacher Award.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Morehead State University President Ronald G. Eaglin has been asked to serve a two-year term on the steering committee of the newly-organized Central Appalachian Alliance.

The Alliance is a partnership of leading energy and land holding companies along with universities in Kentucky and Virginia.

Headquartered at the University of Kentucky, the Alliance and its members will work toward enhancing economic growth and developing natural resources as well as human capital in the coal mining regions of Appalachia.

The steering committee is charged with recommending to the Alliance's Board of Advisors specific projects and allocation of funds.

Now in his second year as MSU's chief administrator, Dr. Eaglin recently was named by Gov. Brereton Jones to a task force charged with developing a comprehensive plan for the state's Appalachian region and with finding ways to obtain additional funding from the Appalachian Regional Commission.

The 35-member Kentucky Appalachian Task Force also will examine the possibility of an expanded Appalachian Development Program.

Additionally, the MSU president has been named to a three-year seat on the board of directors for the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU).

Dr. Eaglin has served on numerous AASCU committees, including as chair of the Committee on Academic Affairs. Currently he is participating in a special national project on student retention which AASCU is conducting with funding from the Student Loan Marketing Association.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.—Morehead State University senior Kimberly Simpson of Louisville has been invited to attend the eighth annual Conference for Recruitment and Retention of Minorities in Education to be held in Lexington, Jan. 16-18.

The three-day event will focus on the shortage of minorities in teacher education, in developing models for addressing the problems, and in reporting the strategies used by institutions, government bodies and other groups in addressing the problem.

Simpson's invitation was the result of being named recipient of a 1993-94 Kentucky-Scholarships and Teacher Education for Minorities (K-STEM) scholarship. A 1989 graduate of Harry Doss High School in Louisville, she is an education major with an emphasis on teaching middle school students and will do her student teaching during the 1994 spring semester.

As part of the opening session on Sunday, Jan. 16, Simpson, along with other K-STEM scholarship recipients, will be introduced and asked to provide a brief overview of her career goals and professional plans.

The conference, whose theme is "Local and National Policies That Impact The Recruitment and Retention of Minorities in Education," will include nationally known speakers and the Martin Luther King Jr. Banquet. In the past, ideas from the conference have been used to develop legislative proposals in the U.S. Congress and in the formulation of recruiting and retention plans for educational institutions.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Morehead State University will delay its spring semester registration by one day because of weather conditions. Faculty and staff meetings scheduled for Wednesday have been moved to Thursday and registration will be held Friday and Saturday instead of Thursday and Friday.

The University will operate with essential staff members only expected to report.

The "Meet Morehead State" Night scheduled for Wednesday, Jan. 19, at MSU's Big Sandy Extended Campus Center in Prestonsburg has been canceled. A new date will be announced later.

MSU's residence halls will open Wednesday but students are encouraged to delay returning to Morehead until Thursday or Friday because of hazardous travel conditions and to allow more time for snow removal on campus streets and parking lots.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ASHLAND, Ky.—Morehead State University will host an informational program at the Ashland Plaza Hotel on Wednesday, Feb. 2.

On behalf of MSU, President Ronald G. Eaglin invites all area students and their parents to attend the "Meet Morehead State" night and learn about the opportunities available at the University. Dr. Eaglin will be among the MSU representatives on hand that evening.

"Because it is sometimes inconvenient for students to visit the campus, we want to provide the information at a location that is easily accessible to them," said Sandra Barker, MSU admissions counselor and program coordinator. "This is a good opportunity to talk with a variety of individuals and ask specific questions about particular programs and career possibilities in various fields."

The agenda also has been designed for convenience, Barker noted. "Students may attend either of two sessions, each running approximately one and one-half hours each." The first session begins at 4:30 p.m., while the latter will start at 7 p.m.

Among the topics for discussion will be ways to finance a college degree.

A special reception for area alumni to meet President Eaglin is scheduled from 6 to 8:30 p.m.

Additional information is available by calling MSU's Office of Admissions at (606) 783-2000 or toll free at 1-800-262-7474.

PRESTONSBURG, Ky.--Registrations are still being accepted for the 12-week Lambers CPA Review course, sponsored by Morehead State University's Department of Accounting and Economics, to be offered at the University's Big Sandy Extended Campus Center.

The course, which begins Feb. 1, will prepare those enrolled for the May 1994 certified public accountant examination, according to Dr. L.K. Williams, MSU professor of accounting and coordinator for the video review course.

The $950 cost of the program includes videotape checkouts for at home class make-ups, textbooks, an intensive review two weeks prior to the CPA exam and an unconditional repeat of the course.

Also included in the course cost is PassWare, an IBM-compatible software program to supplement out-of-class study.

Established in 1966, the Lambers CPA Review has a 78 percent pass rate and is considered by many to be the nation's number one video review in the field, Dr. Williams said.

Registration and additional information may be obtained by calling Dr. Williams at (606) 783-2911 or Joe Pitts, vice president of marketing for The Resource Network, toll free at 1-800-239-8833.

The agenda also has been designed for convenience, Barker noted. "Students may attend either of two sessions, each running approximately one and one-half hours each." The first session begins at 4:30 p.m., while the latter will start at 7 p.m.

Among the topics for discussion will be ways to finance a college degree.

A special reception for area alumni to meet President Eaglin is scheduled from 6 to 8:30 p.m.

Additional information is available by calling MSU's Office of Admissions at (606) 783-2000 or toll free at 1-800-262-7474.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Faculty members from Marshall University will present a guest recital at Morehead State University's Duncan Recital Hall on Thursday, Jan. 27, at 8 p.m.

The Chamber Players presenting the concert will be Judi Fine, on cello; John Mead, on trombone; Leslie Petteys, on piano; Wendell Dobbs, on flute; Kay Wildman, piano; Reed Smith, on violin, and Dr. Donald Williams, on clarinet.

The evening program is free and open to the public.

The concert will feature instrumental chamber music written by MU's retired music professor Dr. Paul W. Whear, an internationally recognized composer. His works have been commissioned by many groups including the American Guild of Organists, the Strategic Air Command and the U.S. Navy Band.

Whear's composition, "March Onward," was recorded by the Calgary Symphony Orchestra for the 1988 Winter Olympics and his music epic, "The Chief Justice John Marshall," was performed during the nation's bicentennial celebration.

The MSU performance is part of an exchange concert agreement; the Baird Winds, the MSU Faculty Woodwind Quintet, will perform at Marshall University on Thursday, Feb. 17.

Additional information is available from MSU's Department of Music at (606) 783-2473.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.—WMKY 90.3 F.M., public radio from Morehead State University's campus, will offer several special programs in celebration of Black History Month.

"During the month of February, we've identified a number of programs that are pertinent to the achievements of African-Americans," said John Wolfe, WMKY interim program and production director. "We also have two ongoing series that address this subject."

On Wednesday, Feb. 2, at 10 p.m., WMKY will air "Nat King Cole: In Every Way." The program uses exclusive interviews, rare recordings, original material from radio and television and in-studio musical demonstrations to spotlight Cole's career as a highly influential jazz pianist and groundbreaking performer.

At 4 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 7, WMKY will air one of three half hour programs produced by WFPL in Louisville. The series, "Voices for Equality," profiles African-Americans who worked for equality in Kentucky. The first show will profile Lyman Johnson, educator and civil rights activist.

"Riverwalk: Live from the Landing," an ongoing series that airs at 8 p.m. on Saturdays, will offer "If Beale Street Could Talk: The Life and Times of W.C. Handy" on Feb. 11. A special insert in the regular series programming, it will pay tribute to the genius of this African-American composer and will feature many of his tunes performed by the Jim Cullum Jazz Band.

During February, "Wade in the Water: African-American Sacred Music Transitions," another continuing series, will focus on the musical aspects of the African-American culture. The series airs on Sundays at 4 p.m. and is repeated the following Saturdays at 7 p.m. Programs scheduled include: "The Power of Communal Song" on Feb. 6; "The Lined Hymn and Shaped-Note Tradition" on Feb. 13; "Post-Slavery African-American Education and the Fisk Jubilee" on Feb. 20, and "The Concert Spiritual Tradition" on Feb. 28 to close out the month.

WMKY Programming
2-2-2-2

On Tuesday, Feb. 15, at 6:30 p.m., WMKY will air "A Conversation with Ruby Dee and Ossie Davis." Produced by American Public Radio, it features the couple discussing theatre, literature, writing and raising children during the 1960s. It will be followed at 7 p.m. by the second in the "Voices for Equality" series which addresses the Lincoln Institute, a school formed to offer educational and vocational training to young African-Americans from 1912 to 1971.

Rounding out WMKY's observance of Black History Month will be the final "Voices of Equality" program, airing at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 25. This segment highlights former state Sen. Georgia Davis Powers' role in the civil rights movement and her work with Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Additional information is available by calling WMKY at (606) 783-2001.
