University students will soon be able to study Kentucky state government at first hand, not on occasional one-day visits, but daily for a full seven months.

Morehead State University has joined with other state universities and Kentucky State College in the unique study of internship program known as "The Frankfort Semester."

Selected students will work each afternoon in a state agency at the Capitol after attending special morning classes in state government at Kentucky State College.

Starting this fall, each participating university will enroll two students and two alternates in the program. In succeeding semesters three will be selected from each university.

In the summer following their internship, the students will attend a class in Special Problems of Public Administration and write a research paper.

The faculty for the Frankfort Semester will include the staff of Kentucky State College and visiting lecturers from the administrative staff of the state government.

A stipend of $250 a month will be paid each student enrolled in the program.

The stated purpose of Frankfort Semester is "to provide orientation and unique educational experiences and special training, including that of research, for undergraduate students in search for undergraduate studies in the problems and administration of a state government, and to inspire intelligent and eager young men and women to seek challenging careers of public service at the state level."

Participants are not required but are encouraged to enter state employment after completing the course.

Two Arrested For Morehead Robbery

Over $10 Million $1,400 Taken At Budget Set Gunpoint From Empire Finance

A program to provide trained teachers for a growing number of two-year colleges and other institutions of higher education has been adopted by Morehead State University.

The Board of Regents last week approved a curriculum leading to the new degree of Master of Higher Education as a means of helping relieve a shortage of trained college teachers.

Dr. Adron Doran, President of Morehead State, said the proposed curriculum would provide instruction in the goals and problems of higher education as well as strong training in the teaching fields.

The program lasts two hours a week. The program last two hours a week. The program last two hours a week. The program last two hours a week.

Two men have been arrested, jailed at Morehead, and charged with the daylight hold-up at pistol point of the Empire Finance Company, Main Street, Morehead.

The robbery was effected about 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Three hours later the arrests were made at West Liberty.

Charged with the hold-up are Teddy W. Jones, 25, RFD 1, Morehead; and Walter Richard Anderson, 23, who gave his address as 210, West Second Street, Fort Clinton, O.

Georgia Nell Masters, manager of the Empire office at Morehead, said that Jones called her the previous day requesting a loan. She said she told him that he would need a co-signer.

Jones had repaid a loan at Empire on March 27, but officials of the company said they had more trouble collecting. Jones has also been implicated in a seizure of cold or forged checks.

Miss Masters related that Jones came into the Empire offices about 12:30 p.m. Thursday afternoon again requesting the loan. He was again told an acceptable co-signer would be required. Miss Masters said he hung around while she waited on another customer.

As the other customer left I looked up and he (Jones) had a gun pointed at me," Miss Masters related.

"He said 'Give me the money,'" "What did you do?" Miss Masters was asked.

"I did what he told me. I gave him the money. I was afraid he would shoot if I didn't."

She said that Jones then fled from the Empire office and quickly entered a car and he (Jones) had a gun pointed at another man in the vehicle.

The alarm went to State Police, City Police and the Sheriff's office.

Within minutes it was learned that two men, one of them Jones, had passed through the Clark Mountain and Clearfield areas on Ky. Highway 1167. Road blocks were set up. This road travels through a hilly area just west of North Fork at Licking areas of Rowan County.

State Police said the getaway car, a 1954 Ford driven by Anderson, was down. They said the two men then hitchhiked.

Morehead Will Host The Scout-O-Rama

This Saturday [April 15] is the big day of the year for Boy Scouts in this part of Kentucky.

The annual Scout-O-Rama will be held at Morehead for an eight county area. This is the first time that the Scout-O-Rama will be outside the home-base. The colorful event is scheduled in Burton gymnasium at Morehead State University.

The success at Morehead will be a Scout-O-Rama, including attendance will decide whether it will be held in the future at Morehead, Scout officials said.

The 1967 Scout-O-Rama was brought to Morehead at the request of W. H. Rice, a life-time adult scout leader and member of the Board of Directors. Counties to be represented at the colorful displays and Saturday's program include Rowan, Elliott, Morgan, Bath, Montgomery, Menifee, Fowell and Wolfe.

Scouts are making personal calls this week selling tickets for Saturday's festival. The program lasts two hours a week. The program last two hours a week. The program last two hours a week.

The two-year program, leading to the Associate of Applied Arts degree, will include personnel to fill non-professional service positions with social work agencies.

The Board adopted a record budget of $10,557,831 for operating the University in the fiscal year starting July 1. The amount is 22.5 per cent greater than the $8,596,053 authorized for the current year.

About 65 per cent of the allocation of $7,142,381 approved for educational and general operations will be used for instructional and salaries and expense. In 1966-67, $5,929,305 was spent for these services.

The Commonwealth of Kentucky is providing $4,025,000 for the current year, with the balance of the funds to come from student fees and auxiliary services. Last year the state allocated $3,951,155 to Morehead State.

In other action the Regents adopted the 1967 personnel roster, including 36 staff members for the summer term, and approved a life insurance program for full-time employees.

Morehead Almost Out Of Water

Morehead ran out of water Friday afternoon, but few people knew it.

Storage tanks at Morehead State University from which the city purchases its supply of purified water hit dead end.

Pumps continued operating at the Bridge Street plant and the supply went directly in the lines so there was no cut-off. Pressures dropped, but built up by five o'clock.

As of today all storage tanks are full as this is spring vacation at the university and usage dropped.

The "Conserve Water" warning continues.

The University expects to have its expanded pumping and purification facilities in operation by May 1. If Morehead can hold out for the next two weeks the shortage, extending over 2 1/2 years, will probably have been eliminated.

Morehead Exchange Has Almost 4,000 Phones

Last year, 404 telephones were added in the Morehead Exchange bringing the total telephones in service to 3867, according to M. E. Keller, District Manager for General Telephone Company of Kentucky.

This represents a 10.4 percent increase in telephones during the year. Keller noted that there had been an increase of 1516 telephones here during the past five years, while telephones in the past 10 years have more than doubled.

This pattern of growth was much the same throughout General Telephone's service area in 29 Kentucky counties, Keller said. In 1966, 14,906 telephones were added and in 1967 the total phones served by General Telephone is expected to reach 217,491.

"Kentucky's growth has created the demand for not only more telephone service but also other communications such as data transmission and tele

Ward District Rally

Henry Ward, democratic gubernatorial aspirant, will open his 7th district campaign on Friday, April 28 with a 7:30 p.m. speech at the Fieldhouse in Morehead.

Announcement of the Ward 7th district rally was made this morning in Louisville by State Campaign Chairman Foster Ockerman.

Ockerman said an opening will be held in each of the seven Kentucky congressional districts. He pointed out that Morehead was the only district because of accessibility by highway and adequate space. The Morehead Fieldhouse will seat upwards of 6,000 when additional seats can be placed on the basketball playing floor.

Delegations are expected from the 20 counties comprising the district which is represented in congress by Carl D. Perkins. Ockerman also said that other Kentucky counties would have representation.

Almost all the candidates for other state offices are expected in Morehead for the Ward opening. It is traditional for them to attend the district rallies, providing the opportunity to visit and consult with democratic leaders from many counties.

Ockerman said the Morehead program will be released Friday. Ward, of course, will be the principal speaker. He is expected to spend part of his time on Morehead State University campus since the opening will be on the campus of the largest institution of higher learning in eastern Kentucky.

Ward, who heads the highway commission longer than any other man, resigning to run for Governor, has the biggest lead in the state administration and most Kentucky party leaders. He is heavily favored in all polls to easily win the democratic nomination at the May primary.

Mike Sloane Will Direct Ward Campaign

The Ward-for-Governor campaign went to youth, plus experience, this week by naming Mike Sloane, Morehead businessman as campaign manager.

Sloane's appointment was confirmed this morning at Louisville by Foster Ockerman, State Campaign Manager.

Your... Social Security

By: Thomas B. Thompson - Ashland District Mgr. For Social Security information write: District Social Security Office, 1016 West Avenue - Ashland, Ky. 1 Phone 324-7666.

"The Health Insurance Card is very important to area residents," said Larry Tyler, Social Security Representative for this area. The Health Insurance Card is a small red, white and blue card. The card shows the type or types of insurance Part B which a beneficiary is entitled to see the card so that their records will show the name and number exactly as on the card. The hospital will not be able to complete a claim for reimbursement until they have the Health Insurance number.

The doctor cannot properly complete his claim, when the beneficiary assigns his benefits to the doctor, without the Health Insurance Card. If the Health Insurance card shows "Hospital Benefits Only" then the doctor knows that his Medicare will not pay for his services. Tyler had this advice to beneficiaries, "Write the Health Insurance claim number on a piece of paper and leave the paper in a lock box at the bank or at home, but carry the Health Insurance card with you at all times." Help those that supply you with Medical services or supplies by having your Health Insurance card available.

The social security office is located at 1816 Carter Avenue, Ashland, Kentucky 41101, telephone number is 325-7666. The office is open Monday through Friday from 8:45 a.m. until 5 p.m. and on Saturday from 9 a.m. until 12 p.m. A representative from the Social Security Administration can be contacted at the following places on the dates noted: Morgan Courthouse, April 17; Morehead State Building, April 18; West Liberty Courthouse, April 19; and Louisa Post Office, April 20.

Two Arrested -

Continued From Preceding Page hiked one ride and paid a farmer to drive them to the Morgan County. They then paid for a ride into West Liberty, the Morgan County seat, about 30 miles south of Morehead.

Arriving at West Liberty the alleged hold-up men employed a driver at a funeral home to take them to Lexington. That was the end of the trail. Within minutes several State Policemen directed by Captain William Campbell, the sheriff of Morgan County, into West Liberty, Police cornered the two men. They surrendered without resistance.

Standard Sentinel Revolver was taken from Jones. He said this was traced and that Jones had purchased it at the Western Auto Store in Morehead a short time before the robbery. Western Auto and Empire are near each other on Main Street. Miss Masters said Jones, whom she positively identified from the outset, took $127.73 from the cash drawer. State Police said $1,399 (all-but about $23) was recovered.

Anderson is charged with being the getaway driver. He said he kept the motor running on the old car while Jones held up the small loan company. Jones has a police record mostly for forging checks. State Police officers were checking with Ohio authorities to ascertain if Anderson has been involved with the law there.

Morehead Police Chief Callis Coyle said this was the first daylight hold-up at Morehead in many years. "I can't remember the last one," the Chief related.

Shortly after the hold-up Main Street spectators had a treat of the 'wild west' as Miss Masters ran from the building and police cars followed. She made no effort to conceal his name or identity. Jones' brother, Dale, was Rowan County's second fatality in the Vietnam War. The funeral was held last month after the remains were brought back to the home in Ohio.

Police said that Anderson appeared to be a mental case and needed psychiatric care. State Police had the men spotted shortly after the holdup but said they seemed to "keep one jump ahead of us through the isolated Faragon and Wisley areas."

Vocalizing Found Barrier to Speedy Reading

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI) — Persons who read slowly and with frequent rereading habits could be assisting their "inner" mind with rapid reading courses.

Actually, all they have to do is learn how not to swallow and clench their jaws.

Three researchers at the Institute of Human Learning at the University of California have reported an amazingly fast therapy for readers whose speed is held back by vocalizing while they read.

In just one session such hindrances were completely removed for a group of students professor of psychology at UC Berkeley who participated.

Electrodes placed over the throat and neck of subjects transmitted amplified recordings of sounds emitted from the throat while reading.

A simple swallow, mumble or whisper was identified through earphones on the subjects' heads — coming through in an ear-splitting blast of static.

The researchers said, "In what might be considered an understatement by some, 'such feedback' demonstrates to the subject the extent of habit pattern which he has acquired."

Creators of the "cure" are Curtis D. Harvick, assistant professor of psychology at UC Medical Center in San Francisco and assistant research psychologist at the Berkeley Institute; Lewis F. Petrinovich, visiting research psychologist and director of graduate studies in psychology at the University of New York; and Delbert W. Ellisworth, post-graduate researcher at UC Berkeley.

Thirty-three leadership roles have been held by thirty members of two charter chapters of the Future Homemakers of America in Morehead, in a twenty-one year period.

At the spring FFA meeting held at the Mayville High School, April 1, Pamela Hall, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Parthenia Hall, Morehead, Ky., was elected song leader of the Morehead District. Both of these officers will continue their charter chapters celebrating their twenty-one year history during the month of April.

In 1944-45, Nancy Holbrook Calvert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Will Holbrook, was elected as the first district president of FFA. Mrs. Calvert was a charter member of the Breckinridge FFA Chapter. Her adviser was Miss Patti Bolin. Miss Bolin was the first vocational home economics teacher in order to meet the needs and interests in the district at the Breckinridge School.

This group was a part of the college home economics clubs in the United States. These groups established FFA in order to meet the needs and interests of high school girls studying home economics.

In 1946-47, vocational home economics was added to the Morehead High School curriculum. Mrs. W. H. Rice, was the charter adviser of this group.

Both of these charter groups have continued to fill outstanding leadership roles at the district and state levels in their twenty one year history.

Other members of the chapters in the two high schools in Rowan County who have served as district presidents include: Virginia Ellington Martin, daughter of Mrs. Esther Ellington, Morehead, Ky.; Barbara Skaggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Skaggs; Kay Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Owens; Janice Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Wilson; Susan Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carr.

State leadership roles have been held by Margaret Foreman Parritt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Foreman, Clearfield, Ky.; Judy Black Jolly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Black, Ellington, Ky.; Mary Thompson Roberts, Gwendaline Lissick, Susan Bays, Daubrammer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bays, Delta; and James Brammer, Jr. represented the Morehead District at the National Meeting in Kansas City, last July.

The first presidents of the two charter chapters were: Meri Fair-Allen Breckinridge Chapter, and Virginia Ellington Martin, Morehead High Chapter. Charter members of the Breckinridge Chapter who were members of the college high school home economics club and who helped organize the national FFA group were: Janis Ruth Caudill Ellis, Joan Christie Welle; Janice Dudley Baldwin; Nell Fair Mahan; Jean Flannery; Margaret Gullett Johnson; Louise Ketter; Joyce Ann Mobley; Ann Nickerson Hudson; Martha Lee Fenebaker; Osborne; Barbara Ray Tolliver Lyons; Betty Jane Wolford Diehl; Meri Fair Allen.

They are being put to publicize a statewide effort to eradicate measles, sponsored by the State Department of Health and Kentucky Medical Association in cooperation with local and county health departments.

Tent Caterpillars In Hatching Stage

The eastern tent caterpillar, a long-time bane of summer outdoor activities, is now in the hatching stage and the Kentucky Division of Forestry is urging landowners to begin immediately to control the pest.

The insects feed on cherry, apple, crabapple and similar fruit trees. They form silvery, alien webs or tents in the forks of trees and almost completely defoliate them.

Harry Nadler, associate director of the forestry division, said the caterpillars can be easily controlled now by burning or spraying with malathion or sevin chemicals. "Control becomes more difficult the longer they are allowed to live," Nadler said.

Kentucky has had a wide infestation of tent caterpillars in the past few years, Nadler said, and infestation is expected to reach all sections of the state this year.

Heaviest infestation, a survey revealed, is expected in Taylor, Casey, Marion, Green, Adair, Menifee, Morgan, Montgomery, Powell, Wolfe, Magoffin, Elliott, Rowan, Clark, Letcher, Knott, Perry and Harlan counties.

Conducted last fall by the forestry division and the U.S. Forest Service, the survey was the first of its kind in the nation. It sought to determine the prevalence of their presence on the trees as evidence of caterpillar egg masses through a sampling of wild cherry trees in 30 counties across the state.

From the survey, Nadler said, "The caterpillar larvae emerge in the spring to begin defoliation of the host trees. The larvae grow to about two inches in length and are hairy with a white stripe down the back, bordered by reddish-brown patches with blue spots on the sides."

The caterpillars feed for about six weeks, eventually coming moths. After mating, the female moths again lay in the fall their eggs in masses that form bands around the branches of the host trees, to hatch the following spring.

Nadler said each egg mass contains from 150 to 350 eggs. The first signs of their presence on the trees are white-colored tents or webs.

Another survey will be conducted next month to see if there is a correlation between the numbers of egg masses found last fall and the actual infestation of the caterpillars, Nadler said.

He said his division has prepared a brochure on how to deal with the pest. Copies of it can be had by writing to the Kentucky Department of Natural Resources, division of forestry, Capitol Annex, Frankfort, Ky. 40601.

Parliamentary Workshop Set

A parliamentary workshop will begin Friday, April 14, at Carter Caves State Park according to Mrs. J. Paul Richardson, administrative assistant to the commissioner of parks, Ed Fox.

Mrs. Francis M. Pennington, of Ashland, parliamentarian of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs and president with the National Association of Parliamentarians, will serve as instructor for the classes.

The event will be held in four sessions--the first on Friday evening following a dinner. "Robert's Rules of Order Revised" will be used as the textbook and a registration fee of five dollars will cover the entire program, Mrs. Richardson said.

Lodge rooms, cottages and meals will be available at regular rates, she added.

"If you have ever wished you knew the correct point of order or felt lost in an unbusinesslike business meeting you will take this opportunity to improve your procedures," Mrs. Richardson noted.

"Mrs. Pennington is recognized in the field of parliamentary law and leaders will receive great benefit from the course," she indicated.

HISTORIC RACE - No other thoroughbred race has been run over the same track continuously as long as the Kentucky Derby. It has been run at Louisville continuously since 1875 at Churchill Downs. This year's Derby is May 6.

Publisher's Pen...

Day-by-day let-downs, and editorial misadventures, of the publisher of this newspaper.

Judge D. B. [Dan] Caudill fully expected to live for 100 years, often making this prediction.

If we were a betting man, which we are, our wager would have been even money that he would live to the century mark. It was not to be. He died at the age of three score and seven years turned to three last Wednesday. Repeated heart seizures took the life of this pioneer citizen.

In its 112 year history Rowan County never had a more heated and bitter election than in 1933.

Mr. Caudill sought the Circuit Judgeship. He was opposed by the powerful forces of Gov. Ruby Laffoon. Allie W. Young, who had great political stature and knowledge, was an organized democratic force, particularly at Mt. Sterling.

Incumbent Henry Frewitt seemed unbeatable. Frewitt was a learned Circuit Judge and few of his decisions were reversed in the higher courts. It was said that Henry Frewitt was smarter than all the Court of Appeals combined.

Judge Frewitt, known for his fastidious pleated shirts, had some weaknesses to go with his ability and knowledge. They were: 1. Many folks thought he was unfair, other that he was controlled in many instances by the higher-ups; 2. He was gruff, hard to get along with, seldom courteous, always entitled, and apparently knew other people inferior; and 3. It was an open secret that Judge Frewitt was a heavy drinker, being charged down on liquor violators during prohibition and became known as the toughest Judge in all the counties.

When Dan Caudill announced the knowledge all boys snickered and Judge Young was not alarmed. But, they were concerned about the Caudill monster.

It wasn't long that the Caudill monster was only one of many of Judge Frewitt's headsmen. Good citizens who had been lectured in open court for something minor like sneezing or the baby crying were arrested in Rowan in open support of Dan Caudill. It was that way in every county - Rowan, Bath, Menifee and Montgomery.

Frewitt tied on the democrat ticket. Caudill on both the democrat and republican. In those days, as now, one could declare himself in the Circuit Judge race under more than one emblem.

Throughout the State where Frewitt was widely known the Morehead lawyer was given little chance. The voters thought and acted otherwise. When the paper ballots were tabulated, on the third day, D. B. Caudill won both the democrat and republican nominations.

The democrat edge over Frewitt was razor thin, a hundred or so votes. Judge Frewitt, obviously incensed in his hister-than-thou manner, filed a contest suit charging Caudill, and associates, used vast amounts of money during a campaign and on election day. Ensuing evidence was that both sides used money extensively and probably effectively in those depression days when a dollar went by 100 pounds of potatoes with some change back.

The case finally went to the state-administration court of Appeals. This body removed Caudill's name from the democrat ticket, declaring Frewitt the nominee. But, there was no legal way they could disqualify D. B. Caudill on the republican ticket.

Voters in all four counties showed their wrath in the November election. Rising up in open arms they elected D. B. Caudill by a landslide.

It was the one election that old timers like to recall.

SOUNDS PLAUSIBLE - Street corner rumor is that Morehead State University will, within the year, discontinue or tear down the Evans Branch impoundment reservoir built in 1950 but rarely used.

... enter into an agreement with the City to purchase water [licking River source] from them in case of a drought. ... in turn the City could buy from the University if they had a machinery breakdown, etc. ... the University would drain the 23 acre lake at northeast rear of the campus and use the land for additional buildings.

It all sounds feasible since Morehead and the University should have water to spare by this time next year. MSU officials said this morning this is the first time they had heard anything about such a proposal. One of the drawbacks is that the 23 acres now covered with impounded water are mostly steep and considerable earth moving would be mandatory.

BIG, GETTING BIGGER - Business has been off in Morehead this week as it always is when the University is closed. The spring vacation also brought this year's low in Morehead Sunday School attendance following a record Easter morning. When observed the more than $10 million operating budget adopted last week by the Regents, and the students spend, and plus all the uncounted financial fringe benefits, it is more forcibly brought home that we would be getting more than a village like some nearby county seats in more prosperous agricultural counties, if it wasn't for the University.

SHIPPING UP - From polls at hand we have a fair idea who most of the nominees will be for state offices including the governorship. But, we have no poll on the Morehead council race which will be staged in November.

Fourteen candidates [fore] on page one may be something of a record. Our old [Down] [Montgomery] Lane] do not record so many aspirants for this thankless position where the pay is nothing and headaches are migraine.

SAME HORSE - An old adage is that a man convinced against his will is of the same opinion as if he were not. As of today we hold to our previously announced Derby horse - Damascus. Meanwhile our learned panel of 22 judges and tried local handicappers are scanning the year's merits. Their selections will be in our May 6 issue. Then we'll see who knows most hereabouts when it comes to these unpredictable four legged animals some of whom win more in one race than us mortal humans make in a lifetime.

HOLD - Few recognized it but water storage tanks at Morehead hit zero last Friday afternoon. Exodus of MSU students for spring vacation caused them to build back up and they are full today. This does not mean that you should cease conserving water. If the community will cooperate and hold for the next two weeks the emergency will have dissipated as the tanks are being pumped and purification facilities in operation. If record consumption continues we could be out of water by this time next week. Storage tanks hold only one day's supply.

GROWING - We like to recall our early days in Morehead when the population was about one thousand and telephones operated by crank with a little gadget falling on the exchange switchboard. Nobody bothered their numbers as the manual operator knew everybody's number, plus their pedigree. General Reports states that Morehead now has 3,867 telephones, an increase of 404 [10 percent] over last year.

BIG GROW - Democratic political leaders from the 20 counties of the 7th Congressional District will gather at Morehead on Friday, April 28 - the district opening and rally for Henry Ward. It is becoming a tradition for Morehead to be the site of large northern Kentucky meetings because of MSU facilities for east-west and north-south highways.

GOOD TEAM - The Morehead Eagles baseball team is a prime favorite to capture the eastern division of the GVC. Their record today is seven victories and two defeats, not bad in our opinion. The Eagles have many games against top flight competition during April and May. You are invited to them at Breathitt Sports Arena. Opponents will be University, Lambuth, Tennessee, and Ripley. Also, return to Lexington, East Tennessee, Kentucky State, Marshall, Hanover, Kentucky Wesleyan and Tennessee. Also the agenda - golf, tennis and track.

SOARING - We believe it is March and August when the birth-rate of the From our files it is evident that more babies occur at the change of seasons. This issue of The Morehead News has nine local obituaries.

COSTLY WEEK - Many dub this the sickening week of the year. Saturday is the deadline for federal and state income taxes. Understand there will be no penalty if your return is postmarked by midnight Monday. This is because April 15 falls on a weekend.

DISTURBING - The Rowan County Extension Office warns farmers not to chew tobacco while working busy farm heads. We still don't know why this is so unless a farmer kills his young plants.

DON'T MISS THIS - For 50¢ [whole family $1] you can attend the Scout-o-Rama Saturday at Button gymnasium. Performances start at 1 o'clock and continue two hours. Scout exhibits and retail merchant displays may be seen until six o'clock Saturday afternoon.

PALATABLE - The manager of a leading restaurant in Lexington says his attention has been called to a lament in this column that delicious Kentucky Bib Limestone Lettuce could be found everywhere - except in Kentucky. He implies that we already knew - his income tax of the few in the Bluegrass State with this lettuce on the menu. It is the king of all salad bowls in other states and on the ships at sea and the planes in the air. Kentucky bib lettuce is sort of like the prophet who is without honor in his own community.

GET READY - The first two weeks in May will be proclaimed as Morehead's annual Fair-Up, Clean-Up, and Fix-Up weeks. Only you can help make our community more beautiful and healthy.

CONCLUDING - Space is short in this issue and some columns have been deleted or condensed. But, not the Publisher's Pen. We own this newspaper which the make-up department recognizes. It is an old adage that Ho Chi Minh gets about the same reaction as waving a red flag at a bull. Look at the other side! There are still several million employees belonging to labor unions who are not striking or threatening to do so. "It isn't smart to keep too much to yourself," says a psychiatrist. He's right particularly this income tax week, as the I. R. R. and the IRS are on hand and have you slumped in jail. Some skirts that at mini - are almost not skirts that at mini - are almost not fancy turns cause fires to squeal. We know a woman who thinks she has succeeded in reforming her husband and she simply nagged his spirit down to a nub. It is almost conclusive that there are no treatments for a common cold. If you doctor a cold it will last seven days; if you don't you'll make a week. We conjecture how many people know that it is legal to HUMAN RELATIONS CONSULTANT - Mrs. Geraldine Conway of Lucasville, Ohio, will address the Morehead State University Human Relations Conference on Tuesday, April 17. A world traveler and lecturer she is the founder of the Lucasville Mission.

News Report From... Rowan County Extension Office

A law that may aid consumers in their future shopping goes into effect on July 1. The law, the Packaging and Labeling Act, became law last year. The Packaging and Labeling Act applies to all food and laundry products and meat products. It is included because they are already covered by existing federal laws. Of interest to most consumers are the key provisions.

Here is a brief summary: The law prohibits the use of terms such as "serving" quart or "lumbo" quart. When a package promises to "serve 4" or "serve 6", it must give the weight of each serving, for example 4 ounces.

Powerful Eagles Have Tough Baseball Sked

Morehead State University's baseball team has opened its 1967 season with a record of 6-21. The Eagles have won their last 5 games.

Mike Collins, Charlie Merfow and sophomore outfielder Doug Maddox have led the team in the offensive department. Mike Collins has a batting average of .439 and has hit two home runs while leading the team in RBI's. He has a total of 12.

Jim Martin, John Capelle and Bill Craig have divided most of the mound chores for the Eagles. They have received able assistance from relievers Wink Smith and Donnie Stewart.

Head coach Rex Chaney, returning to his team following a sabbatical leave in which he completed his doctoral course work at Indiana University, feels the team has yet to reach its maximum potential. Coach Chaney feels that the improvement is shown after almost every practice session.

The schedule for the remainder of the season is as follows: April 13 - Union University, Jackson, Tenn.; April 14 - Lumbard College, Jackson, Tenn.; April 15 - Tech, 181 Nashville, Tenn.; April 17 - Rio Grande, Rio Grande, Ohio; April 19 - Eastern Kentucky, Richmond, Ky.; April 20 - Xavier University, Cincinnati; April 22 - Tennessee, home; April 24 - Kentucky State, Colton, Ky.; April 25 - Marshall University, home; April 26 - Hanover, home; April 27 - Bellarmine, home; April 29 - Eastern Kentucky, home; May 3 - East Tennessee, Johnson City; May 9 - Marshall University, Huntington; May 10 - Kentucky, Lexington; May 11 - Eastern Kentucky, Cookeville; May 13 - Tennessee Tech, Cookeville.

Mrs. Dunlap Presents Program For Jayceets

On Wednesday, April 5, the Morehead Jayceets met in the Assembly Room of the Henry County Building.

Mrs. Dunlap presented an enlightening program on how to be physically fit. She explained that the proper diet along with exercise are the keys to physical fitness. She demonstrated several exercises to help lose inches in the "problem spots."

Applied with a hand-powered duster for good coverage. DON'T CHEW TOBACCO WHILE WEEDING BEDS. If you don't do it while you are weeding plant beds, this may spread mosaic in your plant bed. It is best to use a sharp knife and cut weeds at the surface of the soil rather than pulling them. The reason for this is when we pull plants we bring disease organisms from beneath the surface of the soil and can introduce them into the soil.

Let's keep in mind that these tiny tobacco plants are trying to establish themselves in the top fraction of an inch of the soil. Also we know that the ground dries out quicker this time of year. Therefore, if we go for a period without rain, let's water these beds. A thorough watering every four or five days is better than a lighter watering every two days. A bed one foot by 100 feet should have six to eight barrels of water if we do a good job. Water late in the afternoon.

FERTILIZER INJURY CAN AVOIDED. Have you noticed plants dying in spots when it has been dry for several days? If your bed was probably suffering from fertilizer injury. This resulted from the movement of ground water towards the surface, carrying fertilizer salts up to the roots. This usually occurs when the soil has been fertilized rather heavily. A thorough watering mentioned above will take these salts down to the ground and help prevent further injury.

SOME FACTS ABOUT TOBACCO. Did you know that tobacco was the top crop in cash value last year; that $265,000 in Kentucky tobacco crop was worth $5.92 of the farmer; that this year's tobacco crop in Kentucky is up 10% from 1966; that 62.2% in 1962, 5% in 1963, 10% in 1964; and that there were 43,467 tobacco farms in Kentucky in 1964.

Delinquent Tax Bills Will Soon Be Advertised

Under Kentucky Revised Statutes § 141, a taxpayer who fails to pay taxes on time is liable for a penalty. These bills will be sold at the courthouse door.

Two penalties have already been added. When advertised there will be advertising costs added to the tax bill.

If you haven't paid your taxes do so now and avoid advertising costs and embarrassment of having your name published in the newspaper.

This applies to owners of automobiles. Further, the law requires that the Sheriff pick up and impound automobiles and trucks on which taxes will also be published.

Support Model Cities Program, King Asks

Washington, D. C. (Special)—Dr. Martin Luther King at the climax of a mammoth rally here asked Congress and the people to support the Model Cities Program as well as the civil rights proposals of President Johnson which are now before the Congress.

Dr. King said: "I believe the Model Cities Program is a step in the right direction. I therefore call upon people of goodwill across the country to support vigorously not only the Administration's Fair Housing legislation for the integration of our communities but also its Model Cities Program for the revitalization of central cities."

Dr. King spoke under the auspices of the Model Inner City Community Organization which is headed by the Reverend Walter E. Fauntroy. This Washington organization has begun work on the redevelopment of a 45-square block slum area.

In his speech, Dr. King said: "My travels across the length and breadth of this country have convinced me that there is no more serious domestic problem facing our nation today than that of the crisis in our cities. Until we deal with it, the masses of our Negro citizens will remain smothering in an airless, stifling cage of poverty in the midst of an affluent society."

IT'S WISE TO BE THURTY
Thriftiness is wise wherever it is practiced. In New England, where the motto is said to be "Eat it up, wear it out, make it do, do without," thriftiness is legendary.

Today food thriftiness means searching for store specials and buying seasonal foods. It's the kitchen as in this recipe which uses leftover juice from a can of fruit. Fruit juices such as cherry, pear, apricot, peach and apple are good. Add lemon juice or grated lemon peel for flavor with the bland fruits such as pears.

Heart Attacks Fatal To D.B. Caudill, 87

Successive heart attacks snapped the life Saturday morning of Daniel B. Caudill, 87, prominent Morehead banker, attorney, businessman, and former Circuit Judge.

Mr. Caudill died at St. Joseph Hospital in Lexington. The first attack came Wednesday and was taken to St. Claire Medical Center at Morehead. When his condition became worse Mr. Caudill, who resided on Wilson Avenue, was rushed to the Lexington hospital for specialist care.

Hospital personnel said he was in good spirits and conversed with them minutes before the fatal stroke. When it struck Mr. Caudill lost consciousness and passed away within minutes. In apparent excellent health all his life and rarely, if ever, requiring medical attention, Mr. Caudill told friends on his 50th wedding anniversary, attended by hundreds of friends, neighbors and associates in 1958 that he would live to be 100. But, the series of unanticipated seizures, all within four days, proved fatal.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at 2:30 at Morehead Christian Church, followed by burial in Caudill cemetery at Morehead. He had purchased a large family lot in the cemetery when it was founded.

Mr. Caudill held numerous positions of high trust and policy decisions throughout his life. These included: Circuit Judge of Rowan, Bath, Montgomery and Menifee counties (1933-1939). He won this race in two elections that attracted state-wide interest and successfully opposed the strong state administration of early depression days.

Past President of the Peoples Bank of Morehead. He was among the original incorporators of the bank, but sold his stock in recent years to head another bank at Sandy Hook.

President at the time of his death of Peoples Bank, Sandy Hook. He held this position for many years and was the principal stockholder. The Sandy Hook Bank has experienced considerable growth under Mr. Caudill's leadership and that of his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Boone (Jane) Caudill.

Rowan County Attorney and for many years a leader in the democratic party and city and county government. He was also City Attorney of Morehead. He was often democratic campaign chairman.

Regent of Morehead State Teachers College, now Morehead State University.

Active in judiciary circles, serving many times on committees of the Kentucky Bar Association.

Member of the Masonic Lodge.

Mr. Caudill was one of Morehead's largest and best owners. He owned several business buildings and stores, all under lease-rental, and valuable property under lease near Morehead State University. Through the years Mr. Caudill rarely sold a piece of property once he gained fee simple title.

One of Mr. Caudill's prime concerns and activities in recent years was Saint Claire Medical Center. He made one of the largest single donations to North-east Kentucky Hospital Foundation and was active in the campaign to raise funds which led to the building of St. Claire. His daughter, Dr. C. Louise Caudill, led the community effort to obtain hospital and health care facilities.

He was the son of the late Abel and Mary Ann (Hiall) Caudill, and was born in the Wagner-Hamm section of Rowan County. His father along with the sons, established the Peoples Bank at Morehead and the sons have been financial and community leaders since the turn of the century.

Mr. Caudill was an active and lifelong member of the Christian Church. He resided all his adult life at Morehead.

Two close friends, Reverend Alvin Busby and Charlie Vansant conducted Monday's funeral.

On Oct. 2, 1908 he married Etta Proctor, who survives.

Mr. Caudill also leaves two sons and three daughters - Dr. Milton Caudill, Frankfort; Mrs. Lucille Little, Lexington; Boone Caudill and Dr. C. Louise Caudill, both of Morehead; and Mrs. Pat Eubank, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

Other immediate survivors are a sister, Mrs. Hannah Blair, Morehead; a late past President of the Peoples Bank, Morehead; and Joe Caudill, W. Palm Beach, Fla.

Two of the brothers in the large family of Mr. and Mrs. Abel Caudill died in recent years. They were Dave C. Caudill and George Caudill.

The family has been for three generations one of the most prominent in northeastern Kentucky.

Lane Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The casket bearers - Hubert Allen, Robert Allen, Bob Holbrook, Malcolm Blevins, E. M. Hogge and Pat McGarey.

Vehicle Enforcement More Strict

Enforcement of commercial-vehicle regulations in Kentucky has increased 20 per cent with only a token increase in personnel, State Motor Transportation Commissioner Ben M. Combs announces.

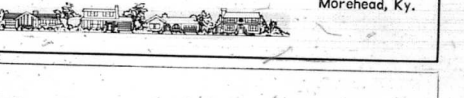

He says the Motor Transportation Department made about $2,500 safety inspections of commercial vehicles during the past 12 months and ordered 17 per cent of them out of service until repairs were made.

Combs says audit and enforcement have improved with regard to proper regulation and collection of fuel taxes.

"The total of fuel taxes collected from commercial vehicles has increased in proportion with Kentucky's general economic rise," Combs says.

Fuel taxes collected for the 1965-66 fiscal year were $2.3 million, compared with $2 million for the 1964-65 fiscal year—a 12 per cent increase.

Combs is chairman of a commission set up to develop a nationwide reciprocal agreement authorizing interstate operation of commercial vehicles.

 Walnut timber is a crop, and a valuable one. As such, the mature trees should be harvested in an orderly workmanlike manner to insure that:
 • the smaller trees (the crop of tomorrow) are not damaged, and
 • selective cutting gives trees every opportunity of reaching maturity in the shortest possible time, and
 • a forest management plan be drawn up which would include the planting of seedlings.

Germans Seek Law to Ban Illegitimate Tag

—(APN UP) — Illegitimate children finally will be accorded first class citizenship if Parliament approves the German government's proposals for reforming the penal code. Even the description "un-chosen illegitimate" which children find embarrassing will be eliminated in favor of "born outside wedlock." If Dr. Ludwig Jansen, the Justice Ministry official drafting the legislation, has his way.
 For more than 60 years, German reformers' rage straggled without success. It included without success, the proposed legal status of illegitimate children. Jansen said.
 Almost 36,000 children are born illegitimately in West Germany every year — 48 for every 1,000 live births — and government aid is granted about half a million illegitimate minor children living with their mothers.
 Under existing law, these children are not related to their fathers. They are treated as if they were.
 Jansen's bill would change these restrictions and allow illegitimate children to inherit property from their fathers. It would also give them the right to sue their fathers for support.
 A father would be required to support his illegitimate child for three years after birth rather than only until it is 18, and the amount of support would be measured according to the father's income and social status, not that of the mother.

Lad, 4, Rates As College "Drop-In"

—(APN UP) — Mark Stanley holds the title of "youngest student at Modesto Junior College" — but he's a long way from getting a degree.
 He attended English, ecology, home economics and language classes for three years out of necessity. His student parents couldn't find a baby sitter. Mark is almost four years old. His father, Stanley T. Stanley, of Modesto, attends part-time now and his mother is enrolled at Stanislaus State College so Mark's visits to the Modesto campus are limited.
 His two brothers, 10 and 7, are also students at the college. They learned to cook in Spanish and to operate candy machines in the student center. If someone close by would boost him up.
 Mark still goes to language labs with his dad, puts on variations and reads in Spanish. Mary Jane Stanley says her son began reading his name and simple phrases at age two.
 His college days apparently paid off. Stanley says his son almost nightly takes a children's encyclopedia and begins with questions.
 "He wants to know things like where his food goes, what happens to it, and why he bleeds," says Stanley.

Egghead Nixes Exam Cram

—(APN UP) — A counselor at Texas A. and M. University thinks students make too much fuss about staying awake all night to study for final examinations.
 "It's not worth the effort for a single study session," Austin S. Kiley, director of the university's counseling and testing center, said. "Several review times are suggested over one lengthy session."
 He said rest and a clear mind are among the best things a student can take into an exam.
 One advantage of studying all night before a final examination is that it gives you a beautiful sleep for future," he said.

Claig Sprout . . . Sez

Dear Mister Editor:
The fellers at the store Saturday night was giving some late information on the education business. On account of most of us didn't get past the 7th grade, we ain't had this subject on the agenda until now.

But the storekeeper's old lady was a school teacher, and he's been picking up a little here and yonder about these matters.

He reports that everything is getting super complicated since they come up with this thing they call the "New Math." His old lady told him they ain't got no schools one that ain't at least rated Class A but it didn't mean nothing. They go right on up to Class AAA and after that they call 'em by a number and letter, like 10-A. And to be shore none of the schools get embarrassed, the school people get together and change the number system every year or two.

Ed Doolittle said his daughter, the one that works in the city and calls dinner "lunch," started out on the grading system of A or B or C and letters like that, but afore she got through high school they come up with a system called grading on the curve, which was like separating the dumb and the smart without knowing the difference.

He said he recollected once her school got a "excellent" rating on their choir, but it weren't till a month later they found out that "excellent" was not too bad, not too good. "Outstanding" was worse, and "superior" was somewhere in the middle.

The storekeeper was of the opinion they wasn't no sense in giving a kid a report card to take home on account of the kid didn't know what it meant and his parents know less.

Zeke Grubb said he reckoned the schools was getting superduped to keep up with the Great Society. He reported he had saw in the papers where them folks in Washington was now working on a program called the "Freedom Budget" that will cost $185 billion and it would guarantee everybody a certain income and the same kind of houses and schools. He figured this was sorter like schools grading on the curve. A feller that won his lick at a black-snake will get on the curve with a feller biting and scratching to make a good salary.

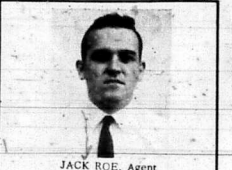

Bug Hookum, that ain't on fire with ambition and takes to work like a cat take to a dog, said it were all the same to him. He reported that what be made off his little place, his income was the same before taxes as it was after taxes. The only thing was, he allowed, he didn't know he was so pore and miserable until the Great Society come along and showed him what a mess he was in.

Yours truly,
Claig Sprout

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Right to Quit

Quitting a job may be costly in many ways: not only in terms of wages, but also in terms of unemployment insurance.

Your system of unemployment insurance is designed primarily to help the man who is laid off, not the man who quits. In most cases, the man who quits is disqualified for a certain period from collecting any benefits.

But what if you quit not because you don't want to work, but because conditions on the job have become intolerable?

That does make a difference. In such circumstances, the law recognizes a kind of "right to quit" compensation. You are then entitled to the same benefits as the person who has been laid off.

Consider this situation: A stenographer had an office manager who made her life miserable. After a period of months, he lashed her with insults and bullied her with profanity.

When she finally quit and claimed unemployment benefits, the company demurred.

Unemployment insurance does not cover a case like this. After all, the young lady wasn't fired. She is unemployed only because she herself chose to be unemployed.

But the court held she was indeed entitled to collect, since her quitting was not an act of her own free will. She was forced to quit because she was being treated so badly that she was too badly treated to continue to work.

On the other hand, you cannot collect benefits if the grievance that makes you quit is relatively minor.

Compensation was denied to a man who quit because he resented the friendly kidding he got from fellow workmen. The court decided he was out of work not because he was too badly treated, but because he was too easily offended.

Once a near-sighted truck driver, after being involved in three accidents, was told by his employer to get glasses.

"I'd rather quit," he replied, and he did quit.

But here, too, unemployment benefits were denied. To compensate individuals who quit so involuntarily, the court felt, would put a burden on the unemployment insurance system that it was never meant to carry.
