Vacation About Over
For School Kiddies

There's only about one more week of the summer vacation remaining for the school kiddies. To hear them talk about it, you'd think they had to see the end of the vacation period arrive; secretly, however, they've become pretty tired of loafing around and hunting something to occupy their minds, and are looking forward to returning to the school
-room.

Few youngsters actually hate going to school. It may become a bit monotonous to them, after several months; but so does the vacation period.

Yes sir, most youngsters are secretly
looking forward to the re-opening of school!

Propaganda And Prosperity

Statistics make dull reading. Dictional statistics have however within themselves elements of humor and imagination. So when you read the story of the G. O. P. economist you learned that the New Deal had put business in a straight jacket and prevented it

Virginia Jennings accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Key Jennings to their home in Alexandria, Va. Friday.
She will also visit at the home of her nephew, Harold Jennings.

Mrs. S. B. Caudill entertained as her guests the past week, her daughter, Mrs. L. A. Wright and husband, her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wright, two daughters and son-in-law, Wilbur Barnhart, of Olin, Iowa.

Mrs. John Wells was visiting
Mrs. George Turner, Elliottville, who is dangerously ill.

Jesse Mabry, of near Hogtown,
was a Morehead visitor Monday,
Malcolm, Wayne and Woodrow Thompson, of Sandy Hook, were visitors in Morehead, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. R. Hall were visitors in Maysville over the week-end. They attended the Germantown Fair at Germantown
Saturday evening.

T. W. Hilton spent the weekend at a camp near Clay's Ferry
on the Kentucky River.

A. D. Baldwin, Maysville, was a business visitor in Morehead
last week.

Sheriff John Moran, of Mason
county, was a Morehead visitor
Thursday evening.

Mrs. M. M. Bradley and two children spent last weekend visiting relatives in Ohio and spent one day at Coney Island.

Miss Vella Lewis and Miss Etta Lewis, of Charleston, W. Va., are guests this week of their aunt, Mrs. M. M. Bradley.

Fifteen boy scouts from Morehead are camping this week on Fox Creek.

Miss Norma Powers and Ernestine Powers shopped in Lexington Thursday.

Mrs. A. W. Adkins returned Tuesday from a two week's visit with her son, Asa Adkins, Jr., at Lansing, Michigan. Mrs. Adkins drove to Lansing with Miss Etta Faulstich, who went on to her home
at Minkton for a visit.

Mrs. Crawford Adkins, of Jackson, was a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Adkins last week-end.

from functioning.
The New York Journal of Commerce states that American big business rounded out an unparalleled 20-year period of expansion in 1938 with greater resources than at any time in previous history. Today there are 26 financial and commercial enterprises in the United States with assets of more than a billion dollars each, compared with only six in 1919 and 20 in 1929.

During a Republican administration
with the country in the throes of a panic, prosperity is just around the corner. Under Democratic administration, with every business index pointing upward, these same pamphlets assure us that ruin is just around the corner.

Morehead's Traffic Lights

Complete disregard for traffic signals continues on an upturn as tourist after tourist from other states as well as Kentucky drives through red lights installed at More-head's dangerous intersections. Although most offenses are committed by out-of-town persons, it is noted that several local people continually disobey the lights.

Speed demons also continue to plague the community. This type of lawbreaker is dangerous and eventually he will be the direct or indirect cause of some person's death.
Thus, he is a potential criminal and far more responsible than the drunken driver.

It is high time, therefore, that action is taken to protect Morehead pedestrians and automobile drivers. If the city has inadequate legislation to take care of traffic problems, new and stringent steps should be taken in the formation of traffic laws.

Recently, we suggested the employment of a special traffic officer—one who received no salary except a commission from fines—one who was polite, courteous and gave assistance to Morehead visitors, but was also firm in the matter of deliberate traffic law violations.

Then, instead of being afraid of having the city pointed out as a speed trap, erect several large signs on the various roads leading into the city, saying:

"Welcome to Morehead
"CAUTION—SPEED TRAP"
"Slow down and obey traffic signals!"

A man is called selfish, not for pursuing his own good, but for neglecting his neighbor's. Whatley

Selfishness is the root and source of all natural and moral evils. Emmons.
As a man goes down in self, he goes up in God. G. B. Cheever.

Selfishness is that detestable vice which no one will forgive in others, and no one is without in himself. H. W. Beecher.

Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Blair left Sunday for a week's vacation in New York City and at the World's Fair.

Mrs. Robert Anglin, and little daughter, Virginia Burns, Mrs.
Thelma Lytton, and Mr. and Mrs.
O. B. Egan were visitors in Lexington Thursday.

Mrs. Wm. Lindsay and little daughter, Maribelle, were guests of Mrs. C. U. Walls, last week.
Mr. Lindsay joined them on Saturday and they returned to Stanton Sunday.

Mrs. Everett Blair, Mrs. H. L.
Wilson and Mrs. Mary Carey shopped in Lexington Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. Ted Crosthwaite were visitors in Lexington Thursday.

Miss Lynn Thompson, of Maysville, and Mr. and Mrs. R. B.
Day returned home Tuesday after a week's tour of the East in which they visited the World's Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Lane and daughter, Betty, returned home Sunday after a two weeks' vacation at Lake City, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crosthwaite returned from Yale Tuesday where they spent a week fishing at the home of Mr. Crosthwaite's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Crosthwaite.

P. T. A AND BOOK SHOWER
Friday the Clearfield School and teachers gave a book shower at their P. T. A. meeting. Many books were donated to the library as members brought books. The program was as follows:

Bible Reading, Mrs. Nolan.
Prayer, Rev. Ramah Johnson.
Song, Quartette.

Morals in the Home and School,
Rev. Ramah Johnson.

Attendance in the P. T. A., and in Schools, Mabel Alfrey.
Co-operation of Parents with the Teacher, Zelda Fugate.

How We Children Can Help Our School, Margie Stewart.
What Clearfield School Means
to Me, Lela Kissinger.

CHURCH NEWS
There will be no services at the Methodist church Sunday as a conference will be in session at Winchester. The pastor, along with several other members of the congregation are planning to attend.

The Young Peoples' meeting will be held at 8:30 p. m. as usual.

Mrs. Ethel Simms of Charleston, West Va., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. B. F. Penix, this week.

Mrs. Ben Whitin and daughter,
Alice Jean, of Ashland, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Allen.

Mrs. Margie Caudill, of Ashland, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Proctor.

1,500 CONSOLIDATED PUPILS GO BACK TO SCHOOL

Fifteen Hundred Morehead, Farmers, Elliottville And Haldeman Pupils Expected To Return To Books Monday

Busy school days and activities began Monday for 1,500 Rowan County Consolidated School children as four schools, Morehead, Elliottville, Haldeman and Farmers, welcome the pupils.

The largest enrollment of school children, both rural and consolidated, is expected by the County Attendance Officer, Mabel Alfrey. About 2,500 rural children are already attending school.

Teachers Meeting Friday

A teachers meeting will be held Friday morning at 9 o'clock in Room 15 in the Morehead school building. The year's work will be discussed by Supt. Roy Corsette and others. Afterwards the individual principals will hold group meetings with their own teachers.

Nine buses will transport pupils from their homes to the schools. Two will deliver the Blueprints and Razor pupils to Farmers.

Will Use 6 Buses
One bus will take the Bradley school children to Elliottville. The school buildings belonging to these pupils were wrecked in the July flood.

Morehead will have 15 members in its faculty: Haldeman, 13; Elliottville, 7; and Farmers, 6.

Teachers in the four consolidated schools are as follows:

Morehead — Ethel Ellington, principal; Roy Holbrook, Coach, Grace Crosthwaite, Carl Wade, Nellie T. Casaly, Telford Gevahan, Mary Alice Calvert, Maymie Blair, Leta Porter, Wynona Jennings, Russell Meadows, Sibbie Caskey, Mary Olive Boggess, Nellie Tolliver, Desiah Williams.

Haldeman — Frank Laughlin, Principal, Fred Cassill, Coach, Chas Bruce, Hildreth Maggard, Ellen Hudgins, Marie Sturgill, Evelyn Stinson, Fern Harris, Nola Cooper, Margaret Stewart, Virginia Cassill, Bessie Cline, Georgia Evans.

Elliottville — Ted Crosthwaite, Principal, Mabel Hackney, Bernice Lewis Barber, Mae Carter, Mary Hogge, Grace Lewis, Bessie Birchfield.

Farmers — Austin Riddle, Principal, Ira Cassill, Beulah Burrows, Harold Pettrey, Christine Hall, Gertrude Higgins.

CLEARFIELD SCHOOL

About sixty books were added to the Clearfield School Library, as a result of the book shower given at the regular P. T. A. meeting last Friday.

At this meeting a thirty-two piece dinner set was given away. Dickie Johnson of Clearfield won the dishes. The seventh and eighth grade room made eighteen dollars selling chances on the dishes. The money will be spent for the room.

A theatre party was enjoyed by the winners in a contest held in the seventh and eighth grade room Monday.

Prizes were awarded to the eighth hardest workers for the month in this room. The winners were Lila Kissinger, Margie Stewart, Helen Faulkner, Oleta Fugate, Bernice Easterling, Mable Early, Fanny Elam and Mary Alice Barndollar. These eight have the highest standing in all the standards of their room.

The Honor Roll for the sixth, seventh and eighth grades are:

Mary Alice Barndollar, Helen Faulkner, Leona Baldrige, Mabel Early, Bernice Easterling, Lara Lambert, Margie Stewart, Juanita Crager, Oleta Fugate, Blandina Mynhier, Kathryn Mynhier, Olive Rigby and Geneva Pettit.

We, the sixth, seventh and eighth grade rooms live up to the following standards:

1. Never say anything about anyone unless it is nice.
2. Treat everyone as you would like for them to treat you.
3. Never laugh or make fun of anyone.
4. Never be pettish or selfish.
5. Always be polite and use good manners.
6. When mad always count to ten before saying anything.
7. Always' return good for evil.
8. Never tattle.

9. Never do anything you are ashamed of.
10. Always attend to your own business.

The Primary room has finished papering the Three Bear's house. We intend to do more to the house this week. So far the children who have never missed a day or been tardy are Phyllis Stewart, Ray Collins, Dorothy Jean Mynhier, Harold Markwell, Marvin Jennings, Doretta Maynard, Jeanetta Rose, Harold Crosthwaite, Joe Stewart and Beatrice Johnson. We hope they will continue through the year as they have started.

The fourth grade had a birthday party this afternoon for one of the pupils, Gene Hamm. They sang songs, told stories and had a nice time. Candy was served.

The bank does not have a key that will open your safe deposit box. It merely has a "guard-key" for your protection which must be inserted in the lock before your key will open the box.
Therefore, if a finder of your lost key should perform the double miracle of avoiding identification and of gaining entrance to the vault, he would still be defeated. He would find his key useless without the guard key—and no attendant would use his guard-key for a person not properly identified as the renter of that box. PRIVACY MEANS PRIVACY when you have a safe deposit box.

I will never write about a chameleon again. From now on a chameleon is just a plain lizard to me—and I don't care if I never see one.

Our Attendance Officer in this county recently had an assistant. It seems "We wonder"??

Clark Lane, just back from Michigan, said the fight were so hungry up there they bit on an empty hook. I did not question him for I was sure that he might get carried and tell me. As for Doc Ellington, who was with the Lanes, I'm not going to ask him about the trip. In fact, it won't be necessary, for he will hold you and tell you all about the big fights he had with those northern fish.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Nickels, of Newport, were Sunday guests of Rev. and Mrs. G. B. Trayner. Rev. and Mrs. G. B. Trayner and Mrs. John Will Holbrook are in Winchester attending the annual Methodist conference.
