Eagles Trap Transy Here Thursday Night

Carter Leads Eagles In Bat With 22 Points; Eagles Show Class In Last Half

After barely nosing out the Holbrook five of Manchester the previous week in the season's basket ball opener, the Eagles of Morehead found their feet last Thursday night against Transylvania, on the Eagle court, and during the last half ran away with the show. Carter, in the pivot position was the outstanding point guarder of the game tipping in for 22 points to make him high point man.

Transy took the lead as the game opened and held it until well into the first half. The Eagles apparently could not get under full steam, while Transy started early and kept it rolling.

The score at the end of the half was Transy 12, Eagles 10. Four minutes were gone in the second half when Carter, aided by the other Eagles, began tossing them in from every angle. It was the smoothest game the Harlan county boy has turned in for the Eagles for some time. Last year it will be remembered, Carter was more or less off all season. The Transy game, showed him at his best, and at his best there are few who can stop him.

Fouls were numerous on both sides, Transy drawing the greater number. However Transy was also better on the free shot, as they cashed in on 11 out of 12. The Eagles apparently had left their basket eyes at home as they failed on a large number of throws by the free route.

The new rule eliminating the center jump has certainly speeded up the game, and has brought out the things that worked against the inexperienced Eagles in their game against Manchester. Naturally the rule is all to the advantage of the defending team, as it gives them possession of the ball out side whenever their opponents make a basket, putting the strong team on the defensive each time.

Mrs. Benton Cooper Dies In Hospital

1937 Marriages Drop Below 1936 Record

Fewer couples approached altar during last year than in preceding years.

There has been a slight depression or recession in the business of marriage licenses during the past year, according to the records in the office of C. V. Alfrey, county clerk. Over the year just past, 1936, whether this is due to the business prospering or not, has not been determined.

At any rate during the year just past 248 licenses to wed were issued as against 265 in the preceding year. This is 18 less than were issued in 1936, when 265 licenses were issued.

However, Mr. Alfrey is not so gloomily depressed as the falling figures show. He hopes that when the warm days of spring come there will be the usual rate for the altar, which usually means the issuance of more licenses to wed.

And With The Carollers We Say Peace To You This Christmas Day

Every year at this time, it becomes our pleasant duty to forget the business cares of the past, all the disappointments, all the heart aches, and remember but the one outstanding fact, that this is the Season of Joy and Good Will. It is the Season of Well-Wishing to our friends and neighbors.

Each year the Rowan County News takes the opportunity to extend greetings and Good Wishes to its readers and friends. So again we wish to extend those wishes and that Good Will to every reader of the Rowan County News, in the hope that they will in even greater measure enjoy and possess the good things of life throughout the Christmas Season and the coming year.

Trail Theatre Opens Dec. 25

Opening Program Includes Warner Bros. Film; Shafer Announces Policies

The Trail Theatre, recently completed will hold its initial show on Christmas night, December 25, according to the announcement of the manager, Mr. W. R. Shafer. The building has been completed and will be ready by that night.

Mr. Shafer is an experienced theatre man, operating one show at Irvine, Kentucky. He plans on operating a continuous show from 8:30 each afternoon until 10 p. m. The local management will be in charge of Sam Edd, while Mr. Shafer himself will spend his time between Irvine and Morehead.

The Trail recently completed by E. E. Maggard and leased to Mr. Shafer is one of the beautiful buildings of Morehead. It is located on Wilson Avenue near the new post office building. It will seat 450 patrons. The building is beautifully finished and commodious.

Asking about the policy of the theatre, Mr. Shafer stated that they would offer the products of Warner Brothers, Universal, R. E. O. Republic and other companies. They plan on five picture changes each week, on Sunday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday, running the same bill on Sunday and Monday and on Thursday and Friday.

The opening bill at the Trail will feature a Warner Brothers production, "Slim" in which Pat O'Brien and Henry Fonda are starred. The picture is said to be a convincing romance that will appeal to young and old.

PAUL MUSIC DIES IN MASON COUNTY

Auto Licenses Are Going Out Slowly

New Licenses Are Going Slowly, Due To Date Of Required Purchase

Automobile licenses for 1938 are a drop on the market, according to County Court Clerk Vernon Alfrey. He has had them for sale for the past month and over, but in spite of all his art of persuasion and judging by the huge majority he piled up at the November election, that was considerable, he still has upward of a thousand to sell. Since last year there were 910 sold in the county, that would indicate that the sales are few and far between.

As a matter of fact, he had at the time he was interviewed, sold but two tags in the county for 1938.

Evidently the users are satisfied to use their old tags until the last minute. The 1936 legislature set the first date for obtaining licenses at March 1. No new tags may be used until December 29. Under those circumstances, there is little wonder that some have been bought thus far. People would evidently rather use what money they have in the purchase of Christmas gifts, and let the car licenses take care of themselves later.

Vikings Lose To Olive Hill

Game Shows Improvement As Inexperienced Cagers Hold Comets To Level

The Vikings of Morehead High still stand the cellar position in the E. K. Conference, with no wins. They are, however showing improvement as they go along, with the game against Olive Hill at Olive Hill on Tuesday night demonstrating that they are rapidly approaching form.

The Comets defeated the Vikings 28-21 and the game was even more thrilling to watch than the score indicates.

The score by quarter was: first quarter, Olive Hill 7, Vikings 6; Half, Olive Hill 18, Vikings 10; third quarter, Olive Hill 22, Vikings 19; final, Olive Hill 28, Vikings 21.

The previous week, the Kings defeated Hitchins by 1 point. Fans here, considering the results of those two games had expected Olive Hill to romp over the Vikings. They didn't.

The Vikings took the lead at the start and held it until just before the final of the first quarter, when two field goals and a foul put the Comets ahead 7-6. They maintained this lead and added to it the remainder of the game. Just once more did the Vikings actually threaten. That was in the closing moments of the game, when they crawled up to within one point making the score 22-21. Experience told the story, however, and the Comets were able to dig in for the final score.

The Kings play Haldean here tonight (Wednesday). The score was too late for this issue as the News was on the press when the game was played.

Elections Claims Are Allowed By Court

At a special session of the Rowan County Fiscal Court held on Saturday of last week, all election claims for the primary, local option and general elections were allowed. The vouchers are now being made out and are ready. Judge Jennings stated that the money was in the bank for the payment of the vouchers as soon as they are presented.

McKinney's Contest Arouses Much Interest

True And False Contest Has Readers Guessing; Awards Made To Winners

In this issue appears the answers to the True and False contest held by the A. B. McKinney Store as announced in the last issue of the News. The contest has created considerable interest among the people of the community, many of whom have matched their wits to answer the questions.

The score made by most of the contestants was surprisingly low, the winners who will be announced in the next issue of the News had a comparatively easy chance to take the honors.

The contest had added a touch of spice to the Christmas season, and the winners were awarded excellent gifts by A. B. McKinney's.

Now turn to Page Four for the correct answers.

Jane Withers Cozy Feature

"Wild And Woolly" Latest Vehicle Of Youthful Star; Jane Goes Western

That Withers girl is on the loose again, out where the West begins, and the West was never so wild as when Jane and her girl pals, the gang, play it by Walter Brennan, creative pioneer pandemonium on runaway wheels for her grandest, funniest, Country-Fox comedy, "Wild and Woolly," which opens Friday at the City Theatre.

"Wild and Woolly" is the wild west of Buffalo Bill and Sitting Bull are paled and put to shame when Hollywood's little Miss Michief goes to town in the Mesa City Pioneer Day Jubilee. Aided and abetted by the best supporting cast she's ever had, Jane twirls a rope and rides like a saddle-born vixen as she reveals in the "Days of '49" atmosphere recreated for her by grandpoo Brennan.

Last year's Academy Award winner for the best performance of an actor in a supporting role, Brennan heads the cast which includes Pauline Moore, Carl "Alfalfa" Switzer, Jack Seal, Robert Churchill, Douglas Scott, Bert Wilson and Douglas Scott.

The feud between Brennan and Churchill is renewed each year when Brennan's candidacy for Sheriff is always defeated by the political machine run by banker Churchill. Jane carries on this battle with Jack Serale, the bank clerk. (Continued On Page Four)

News Special Draws Many Compliments

Hundreds Heap Praise On Progress And Christmas Shopping Edition Last Week

Rather proudly, the Rowan County News acknowledges the hundreds of compliments the citizens of this community have given them on the last week's issue of the News. It is the first time that the present owners have received as many compliments and expressions of pleasure over any special edition they have issued in the past twenty years. Practically every person of the force has met in the past few days has been warm in the praise of the completeness of the edition.

As a matter of fact a 30 page newspaper is more or less of an unusual thing in a community the size of Morehead. According to all information the issue published last week sets a number of national records. Here they are:

It is probably the largest issue ever published in a town the size of Morehead, with a 1936 census of less than 1000.

It carried the largest number of advertisements of any paper published in a town of this size, with a sale of 31 ads out of 55 calls.

With the exception of 24 lines, every line of type used in the edition was set in the Model 14 Blue-Strak Linotype installed in the News office in October of last year. Every line of type was set in less than 1000 calls.

150 galleys of type were turned out by Mr. Peck Robinson.

The length of time in which it was set and set up is also nearly a record. The News force consisting of four people starting working on it on Thursday morning, December 9 and finishing on Thursday, December 16 find that in the mills. That means that the News force set up and finished 150 galleys of type in less than eight days. It means, practically, that the printing of the press to get it printed and ready to mail.

The "Wild and Woolly" operator sets eight galleys of type a day, so our readers may see what 150 galleys means in one week. Fifty six galleys is a comfortable margin of work.

Needless to say we are proud of the accomplishment, and we are sure that the News force is as interested in the success of the edition as they have shown themselves to be.

The News wishes to express their thanks to the generous support from the local merchants which made this edition possible.

Rev. B. H. Kazez Decides To Remain At Morehead Post

Urgent Request Of Local Parishioners Causes Baptist Pastor To Reconsider

News of interest to the citizens of this community, and particularly to the members of the Morehead Baptist Church, is to the effect that Rev. B. H. Kazez, pastor of one of the important posts in the state of the Baptist Church, has and has definitely decided to remain in Morehead in his present position.

The news is extremely gratifying to the members of the church, but to the citizens at large, as Mr. Kazez is recognized in the bank for the payment of the debt of the church, and has definitely decided to remain in Morehead in his present position.

A few weeks ago, Mr. Kazez had definitely decided to accept the offer of the pastorate at Mayslick. However, when his resignation here was received, he was asked if they refused to accept it, and unanimously voted to ask him to remain in Morehead in his present position. Under these circumstances, he asked that Mayslick permit him to withdraw his acceptance for their offer.

Mr. Kazez has been pastor of the local church for eight years. In that period he has with the aid of his parishioners paid off all the debt of the church, and is self-supporting. He has raised the membership more than double and has put the organization on a solid footing.

Outside of his church duties, Mr. Kazez has been active in furthering

Today and Tomorrow

MANHATTAN — Holiday Christmas again. In many parts of the country it will be a white Christmas. Here in New York, where winter spend the holidays, there is little chance that snow will be on the ground to greet the eyes of eager youngsters on Christmas morn.

Freezing weather was not experienced regularly in Manhattan until a few days ago but ice-skating has been a popular sport at Rodeckers Center, since before Thanksgiving, made possible by an artificially frozen outdoor skating rink. Here crowded skating to music, "piped" from somewhere within the vast Radio City. I am told that spectators are often rewarded by the appearance of notables and stars of stage, screen and mike who have given in way to the national urge to emulate the graceful Son Hebe.

STAR — Of Bethlehem. Placecards in the subway cars announce a special Christmas demonstration at the Hayden Planetarium. This marvel reproduces the heavens by projecting myriads of tiny synchronized lights on the huge domed roof of the auditorium. Stars and planets are exactly in place, can be rotated to reproduce any time of year, at any spot on the globe. The thought occurred that at this season of the year the most important star we know is nowhere in the sky but dwells only in the memory and hearts of mankind. This is the Star of Bethlehem, that guided the Three Wise Men over the Jordan, to the manger scene. The thought occurred that because that there never was, really a single star of the magnitude Bright. But they must be added that according to modern calculations, the three planets that appear as bright stars in the heavens appeared so closely together in 7-B. C. that they might well have seemed a single cross-shaped star of great intensity.
