Historical Information: The CAPA Tridents Sorority of Morehead State University was organized in November of 1961 as a women's social club. The sorority was officially recognized by the Student Affairs Committee on April 17, 1962, and was the first and most desirable women's club on campus. The initials of the organization represent "C" for character, "A" for appearance, "P" for personality, and "A" for academic. The sorority mission was to promote outstanding and moral character, endorse appropriate appearance, provide greater opportunities, and improve the academic minds of women students on campus. On February 22, 1970, members of the CAPA Tridents (later known as Alpha Sigma Rho) established the Delta Omicron chapter of the Delta Gamma sorority.

Scope and Content: Collection consists of a scrapbook created by the CAPA Tridents Sorority of Morehead State University from 1962 to 1969. The scrapbook contains the organization's history, membership lists, correspondence, newspaper clippings, photographs, and ephemera gatherings and events sponsored by the sorority.
