

EAGLE BROODINGS...

(By Bill Hoeger)

We have been studying about this for some time and we have come to the conclusion that we would almost like to be an editor of a paper, what with the publicity garnered (?), speaking over the radio (or Mike Wright is one easy lesson) and all the honor appertaining thereto and hear-fer. That is the case of one of our editors and he has even tried to steal our stuff and transform his column (?) into a little more sports. But we think that after a little incident of last week (and here he reads this) that he will stick to his duties as editor and not try to abscond with some of the rights and privileges there- to, granted me by the board of— Now, where have we heard that before?

Say, Mr. Editor, are your ears burning? They should be.

Pardon us, ladies and gentlemen and fellow-students, but we just had to get that off our chests some way and we hope you won't mind too much. If you do, just start over and skip the first para-graph.

To get back to the sports side of the situation, what ever it may be by this time, we want to take off our hat to the members of the Varsity basketball team and the coaches for those two wonder-ful showings against the high-ly-stee Marshall team. Every fan we talked to had only praise for the boys and one fan from Hunt-ington said Mr. Morehead was the best team that Marshall had played all the season.

There was a certain let-down feeling after the Marshall game and therefore the lost to Holtz-rood. This let-down was more ap-pear in the students and fans' reactions than in the players.

This writer cannot understand how any true college student can have the nerve and audacity to make a stab at dignity and sit through a basketball game or any other sport without yelling or ap-plauding his teams' play. Of course, we grant you there are a few exceptions, as in the case of a person with a bad heart, but it is the exception rather than the rule. It has become the rule rather than the exception for a More-head student not to yell at a game. We grant you that there was a lot of yelling at the Marshall game but at the Holtz-rood game a bunch of about six or seven grade school boys made more noise than the whole college cheering section. And it has been this way all during the season.

When an athlete is playing in a contest he needs moral support from the fans. This encourage-ment from the stands makes the boy "put out" just a little more than adds that extra "zip" that it takes to produce a winning team. This writer does not blame the team for its loss suffered on the home court this season but lays it to the poor support from the students.

If any one gets their feelings hurt on, please excuse us but there are two old sayings that still hold true: (1) If the shoe fits, wear it and, (2) The truth hurts.

We found out something inter-esting about the Holtz-rook boys the other day. There is not an out-of-state boy on the team and five of them live within a radius of 50 miles from Manchester. They only have about one hundred stu-dents and only about thirty boys to choose the team.

Starting last year and then will be five basketball tournaments in the state. The K.I.A.C. tourney is now being held at the S.I.A.A. tour-nament and the district high school tournaments are to be held next week. The students and finally the State High School finals at Lexington.

Thither and you—We think it is by this time, we want to take off our hat to the members of the Varsity basketball team and the coaches for those two wonder-ful showings against the high-ly-stee Marshall team. Every fan we talked to had only praise for the boys and one fan from Hunt-ington said Mr. Morehead was the best team that Marshall had played all the season.

There is only one place where a boy will chase a girl until she catches him. This department has never been lucky or unlucky, as the case may be, along that line. Nudism has been declared ille-gal in Texas. The authorities must think that no nudes are good nudes.

Some people say it is only natu-ral to look sheepish after hav-ing been fleeced.

Breck Sophomores Plan Leap Year Hop

Dance Will Be March 22 With Geo. Young In Charge

The sophomore class of Breck-ridge Training School, sponsored by George T. Young, is to give its annual dance March 22 in the college gymnasium. This dance is in honor of the basketball team.

When interviewed yesterday in his classroom, Mr. Young, instructor in history and sponsor of the sophomore class at Breckridge, stated that plans were already un-der way for the dance to be given in the college gym Friday, March 22. Various committees are re-sponsible for the several details of the affair, and Mr. Young says that much progress is being made. In a recent election of sopho-more class officers, the following were chosen: Jack Friedman, vice-president; Betty Banks, secretary and treasurer; Irvin Kash, serge-ant-at-arms. These students are partially active in preparing for the event and have formed com-tees. The decaying program, adver-tising, and sales are each under-mitted for carrying on the work. The supervision of a separate com-tee.

The main attraction of the evening is to be a floor show staged by students from the high school and college. Tap dancing and singing are to be featured, with Mr. Young playing the accompa-niment.

An interesting feature of the dance is that girls will do all their dancing in accordance with the Leap Year custom. There are to be six "no-break" numbers, the fourth being a "special" in which each couple on the floor must from in it either a boy or girl from the high school.

Music will be provided by the Blue 'n' Gold orchestra, directed

Murray Swim Team

PICTURED ABOVE is Murray State College's first swim team, which opens its season Monday night, February 26, opposing the natators of Eastern and the University of Kentucky in the Eastern pool. IN THIS ACTION SHOT he's come in like a bullet from an express rifle... he takes a pass. But the opposition's defense stops him—this time.

His hockey's fast and hot!
BUT HE SMOKES A SLOW-BURNING CIGARETTE FOR MORE MILDNESS, COOLNESS, AND FLAVOR

"CAMEL'S fine in hockey but not in cigarettes"—Roy, how right you are!
Research men may use fancier language—but they use exactly the same thing about cigarettes.
Scientists know that nothing destroys a cigarette's delicate elements of fragrance and flavor so mercifully as smoking fast. And cigarettes that burn fast also burn hot. Your own taste tells you that.
Slow-burning cigarettes don't burn away these precious natural elements of flavor and fragrance. They're milder, mellower, and—naturally—cooler!
And the slowest-burning cigarettes of the 16 large, eye-catching brands tested was Camel's. They burned 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands tested. (See panel below, right).
So... why not enjoy Camel's extra mildness, coolness, fragrance, and flavor?... And extra smoking equal to 5 extra smokes per pack.

SPEED'S FINE IN HOCKEY BUT NOT IN CIGARETTES.
I LIKE SLOW-BURNING CAMELS... THEY'RE Milder AND COOLER

When it's easy-chair time after that rough-and-tumble miltie known as a hockey match, you'll find Roy Conacher of the Bruins enjoying a milder, cooler, more fragrant, and flavorful cigarette... Camels, of course.

CAMELS SLOW-BURNING
COSTLIER TOBACCO'S

In recent laboratory test, CAMELS burned 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands tested— slower than any of them. That means, on the average, a smoking plus equal to 5 extra smokes per pack!

Young People's Meeting Held At Christian Church

The District meeting of Eastern Kentucky Christian Young People, held at the Christian church last Sunday afternoon and evening, was attended by more than one hundred - fifty young people and their sponsors. The Young People's Guild of the Christian Church acted as hosts, and besides entertaining the large group, prepared and served the evening luncheon in the church basement.

At the luncheon meeting during the afternoon, officers for the new term were elected. Mrs. Arthur Landolt was elected as sponsor of the Eastern Kentucky organization.

Reverend James N. Kelly delivered the address at the worship service in the evening. The next meeting of the district young people will be held at the Church of which he is Pastor at Irvine, Kentucky.

Members of the Niagara Club entertained with a backward dress party, Tuesday evening, February 20, at the Mills Theatre. The picture was "Hero for a Day."

After the picture the girls took their dates to the Blue N Gold Grill for refreshments. Fifty-four members and guests were included in the party.

Professor and Mrs. Thomas Henry Coates, of Montgomery, W. Va., were visitors on the campus, Wednesday, February 21.

Professor Coates, a former faculty member of Morehead College, is now head of the Commerce department at New River State College.

The following group were in Lexington Saturday to attend the show "Gone With the Wind": Miss Carol Patrick, Miss Mary McClung Adkins, Miss June Ann Jones, Ed Case, Eddie Weichers, Leslie Nickels, Mrs. Naomi Claypool, Mrs. H. C. Haggan, Miss Mildred Sweet, and Miss Amy Irene Moore.

"Red" Henry and Charles Cornwell, of Frenchburg, were guests of George Anna Motley, Wednesday night.

Earlene Saunders and Beryl Motley, of Frenchburg, were visitors in Morehead during the weekend.

Ruth Crowe, a freshman from Field's Hall, was taken to the hospital at Winchester, Friday, to undergo an emergency operation for appendicitis.

Club Notes

Y. W. C. A.

The regular Vesper service of the Fields Hall branch of the Young Women's Christian Association, was held in the music department Sunday night, with the president, Hazel Hicks, presiding.

The musical program planned by Eloise Cole, consisted of the following members: "Day is Dying in the West" sung by two quartets, the members being Dorothy Smith, Lela Picklesimer, Belle Gibb, Mildred Sargent, Harriet Huey, Martin Smith, Eloise Cole, and Hazel Hicks; scriptural passages, by Lois White and Mary F. BonDurant; "Break Thou the Bread of Life" sung by Belle Gibb, Lela Picklesimer, and Mildred Sargent. Martha Smith rendered a violin number, "Adieu" written by Rudolph Fyrm, accompanied with Eloise Cole at the piano. The concluding hymn of the program was "I am Praying for You," a vocal solo, sung by Eloise Cole.

Vesper services will be conducted at nine o'clock next Sunday evening, in the music department. All students are invited to attend.

Home Ec. Club.

The Home Economics Club banquet and formal initiation was given in the grill room of the cafeteria, Wednesday night, February 21, at six o'clock.

The club sponsor, Mrs. Myrtle Hall, and the president, Miss Belle Gibb, sat with other executive officers at the speaker's table.

The banquet was in itself very excellent and was made to fit into the ritual, candlelight ceremony which is the formal initiation. The interest which is being fostered by the club was shown by the almost unanimous attendance of both old and new members.

Beaux Arts Club.

At the regular session of the Beaux Arts Club Monday night, February 19, new pledges were considered for membership into the active part of the organization. Those whose names were submitted and considered eligible are:

Betty Stevens, Gayle Eversman, Arthur Rose, Mary J. Peed, Robert Sharpe, Crawford Venn, Mildred Barber, Mary F. Proctor, Earl Adams, Madelyn Porter, David Thompson, Dixie Little, Alice Brand, Ruth Hayes, and Leonard Lyons.

Following the business session, club members continued to see which member could model the most original piece of art work out of clay. Judges for the contest were Martha Estill, Hazel Hicks, Mary Adkins, and Mr. Thomas Young. First prize was won by Dixie Adams for a ball and glove model, and the second prize went to Reva Murphy, who designed the head of an artist.

Beta Zeta.

A party for the members of the Beta Zeta Club was held in the Biology Department, Tuesday night, February 20. Planned by the social committee, the program consisted of games of ping pong and other games. Refreshments were served to all present.
