

Mr. Atwood, of the Committee on Rules, called from the Clerk's desk a bill which originated in the Senate of the following title:

“S. B. 14. An Act to provide for the establishment of two normal schools for the training of white elementary teachers, and appropriating moneys for the maintenance and operation thereof.

Whereas, the greatest need of common schools is trained elementary teachers, and,

Whereas, the State Normal Schools already established can neither reach nor train all the elementary teachers needed for the common schools; therefore.”

Said bill reads as follows:

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

§ 1. That the State Board of Education be and is hereby authorized and empowered to establish two new normal schools for the training of white elementary teachers, one to be located in the western part of the State and one to be located in the eastern part of the State.

The State Board of Education is hereby authorized to receive gifts of land, buildings, or money for the establishment of these two normal schools for white elementary teachers.

§ 2. The management and control of these two normal schools, when established, shall be and is hereby vested in the State Board of Education.

§ 3. There is hereby appropriated, out of the general funds of the State, to each of these two normal schools, for maintenance and operation, the sum of thirty thousand dollars annually. The Auditor of the Commonwealth is directed to draw his warrants for said sums, above appropriated, upon requisitions signed by the chairman and secretary of the State Board of Education.

Provided, that the above appropriation for maintenance and operation shall not become available for said normal schools until the State Board of Education has received for each of said school gifts of land suitable to the purposes of each school, and also, gifts of buildings or money, or both, equivalent in value to at least one hundred thousand dollars.

Provided further, that if gifts and donations are made, sufficient to establish one of said schools, then the sum of thirty thousand dollars shall be available for the maintenance and operation of said school.

§ 4. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

Which bill had been passed by the House of Representatives with an amendment thereto and reported to the Senate on Thursday, February 23, 1922.

Said amendment as proposed by the House reads as follows:

“S. B. 14 is hereby amended as follows:

By striking from line 1, Section 1, page 1 thereof the words “that the State Board of Education be and is”, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: “that a commission is hereby created, to be known as the State Normal School Commission, consisting of eight members who are citizens of the State of Kentucky, and over the age of twenty-one years to be appointed as follows: five by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and three by the President of the Senate, which is”;

By striking from line 5, section 1, page 1 thereof the word "State Board of Education", and inserting in lieu thereof the words "said Commission";

By striking from lines 8 and 9, section 3, page 2 thereof the words "State Board of Education" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "said Commission".

Amend S. B. 14 by adding the following section:

Section 5. If any section of this Act shall be held unconstitutional the remainder of the Act shall not be affected thereby.

Resolved, that the title thereof be as aforesaid.

Mr. Harris moved that the vote by which said bill was passed be reconsidered and that said motion lie on the table.

Said motion was agreed to.

Mr. Haselden, of the Committee on Enrollments, reported that the Committee had examined an enrollment bill which originated in the House of Representatives of the following title, viz:

“H. B. 52. An Act to amend paragraph 3 of Section 8 of Chapter 36 of the acts of the General Assembly of 1920, which act created a County Board of Education, prescribed its duties, fixed the tenure of office and compensation of its members, and provided for the levy of a tax for common school purposes in each county, etc.”

Whereupon, all other business was suspended, and said bill was read at length and compared in open Senate by the Clerks and was found to be correctly enrolled.

Thereupon, the President of the Senate, in open Session, in the presence of the Senate, affixed his signature to said bill.

Ordered that the Enrolling Clerk deliver said bill to the House of Representatives.

Mr. Monroe indicated the hour of adjournment.

Thereupon, the President of the Senate declared the Senate adjourned.

And the Senate adjourned.
