"ONE OF KENTUCKY'S GREATER WEEKLIES"

Crackerbarrel Comments

Most every day I am asked the question as to just how much I spent in my campaign when I ran for Senator last fall. For the first time I will release my expenditures as taken from final expense accounts to the public. I lost 872 hours of sleep thinking about the election. Lost a porcelain jacket from a front tooth, a good pen, and had a good shirt torn off in an argument with a local attorney. Donated one cow, two shoats, three sheep, for which I traded a Maytag washing machine. The stock was used for a barbecue in Powell county. Gave away two pairs of cottonade pants, three pairs of galassus, five calico dresses, $5.00 in cash to a Freshet in Maysville as expense money for him to go to Menifee county to hold a revival. Kissed 79 babies, gave away 57 1928 cars, two carried 64 loads of wood, put two houses out that were on fire, autocentered 27 pie supers; joined three lodges; spoke in four churches of different denominations. Bought an auto tire for a man that I found out later lived out of my dist; used my car for three days hauling a man to the work, later found out he was not even registered.

I walked 1876 miles, wore out three pairs of shoes. I bought from Frank Havens in order to get his vote and he did not even vote. Shook hands with 4182 people, told enough lies to send me to torment, and talked enough to fill three books. I donated $2 for relief in China, bought one keg of beer for the thirty in Mayville, made love to five great widows, looked up twenty-three old sweethearts, hugged nine old maids, was dog bit three times, was best by 1728 cars.

Herbert Hogan said a choice bird got the other day for $1,000.00. When asked if he got much he said, "Yes, but got two mighty fine hawks."

Scene in Morehead during the gas shortage: James Clay in his underwear, bathrobe, overcoat, and his wife Spanish shawl, sitting at the table calling for Cecil Landreth. Dr. Nickell sitting in his office with ear-muffs on. The A. B. McKinnies living in the basement of their home with a stovepipe stuck out thru the window and eating on a ping-pong table. Mrs. Woody Hinton standing around the night gown saying, "I am going to Mama." Everett Jones stopped and wanted his alcohol checked. Well, well, a new year is with us. The only resolution I made this year was that, I resolve to smile under in circumstances and not run for any political offices. I have an uncle over in Mason that wrote a book full of resolutions every year. This year "Aunt Sallie" said: "Now Fleming there is no use for you to go to the legislature this year for you know you never keep them." He said: "Now Sallie, this year I am starting out with determination in my heart to win the strongest resolution, stop drinking, and show you how durned tired I am if I touch one drop this year. I will give you that bald-faced heifer out there in the yard. "Uncle Fleming" went to Maysville two nights later and when he came in the door he said, "Sallie you now own one of the baldiest heifers in Mason county. Ira Skaggs asked one of his pupils that was holding up his hand, "did you want to leave the room?" The kid replied: (Continued on Page 3)

City Council Orders Census To Be Taken; Classify City

To Be Used In Effort To Have Morehead Raised To Fourth Class City

With a double motive in mind Morehead's new city council, as one of its first official acts this week, ordered the taking of a city census to begin almost immediately.

The newly appointed Mayor C. B. Daugherty, said that the local census will be taken in an effort to obtain city mail delivery for the newly incorporated addition of West Morehead and to obtain Parcel Post delivery for the entire city and to present in substitution of a bill that will be introduced at the present session of the Kentucky legislature to raise the census to a fifth class city to a fourth class city.

At the request of the Mayor and the City Council Postmaster W. E. Crutcher appeared before the council and set out the qualifications which Morehead and the post office must meet before city and parcel post delivery can be obtained. This post office division which is termed village delivery.

The Postmaster pointed out to the city council that the following requirements are necessary for city delivery and parcel post delivery service: (1) a population of 2,500 or more; (2) gross stamp receipts of the office of $10,000 more; (3) at least 50 percent of the area to be served must be improved; and (4) sidewalks are necessary in the section to be served.

It was explained that apparently every one of these requirements have been met with the exception that due to the seasonal growth of the city plus the newly incorporated area required a census. Mr. Crutcher said after the meeting that the council should call a special merchants club, a resolution of the city council and knowledge of the fact that the city was appropriating money sufficient for an immediate census would be forwarded to the postoffice department, which after an inspection. John Manning Dies At His Home After Long Illness

Was Friend of Many Years of Friend Allie W. Young; Born in Carter County

Another of the old citizens of Rowan county, and one of the oldest and truest friends of Allie W. Young, passed away on Monday last week, New Years Day, when John Manning, died at his home near Morehead, Ky., after a long confinement to his home for some time with the infirmities of age, and his death, following a long illness was not unexpected.

Funeral services were held at the Christian Church Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Reverend A. E. Landolt, pastor of the Morehead Christian Church, Reverend Beard, pastor of the Christian Church of Olive Hill and Reverend T. F. Lyons, pastor of the Morehead Church of God. Burial was made in Lee Cemetery.

John Manning was one of the few old citizens remaining in this county. He was born on February 19, 1857 in Carter county. At the age of fifteen years, he moved with his parents to Elliott county shortly after the outbreak of a county. There, in 1882, on March 2, he was united in marriage to Miss Nancy Letitia Vencil, also of Elliott county. At the present time six children were born, all of whom survive him. They are: (Continued on Page 4)

Orville Holbrook Is Claimed By Death After Long Illness

Funeral Services Held Friday; Burial Made In Sandy Hook Cemetery

Orville Chitt Holbrook, age 35 years, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holbrook Sunday morning at eight o'clock. He was born August 26, 1904. He had been ill for several months. He is from one of the oldest and most well known families in Elliott, and was loved by all who knew him. Besides his parents he is survived by his wife, Mrs. Olive Kendall Holbrook, four children, Kathleen, Billy, Colleen, and Everett; one brother, O. E. Holbrook; five sisters, Mrs. Roscoe Parson of Sandy Hook, Ky., Mrs. Walter Briney, Eliza Hundall all of Dayton, Ohio, and Mrs. George Weddington of Portsmouth.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday by Reverend Charles Vansant Logan Woolridge with burial in the Sandy Hook cemetery.

Second Semester To Open At M. S. T. C. January 29th

The 2nd semester will begin at the Morehead State College on Jan. 29, with registration occurring on that day, according to an announcement from the office of Dean W. H. Vaughn.

Several extension classes will be offered this coming semester, states Dr. J. D. Falls, director of the Extension Department and further details may be secured by writing his office, he said.

"We are sincerely expecting an unusually large enrollment in line with what we believe to be the 'banner' year at Morehead," President H. A. Babb said today.

College Employee Dies of Heart Attack

Funeral services were held last Saturday from his home in Morgan county, for Frank Kennard, 63, night watchman at Morehead College. Kennard died suddenly Wednesday of an heart attack suffered after leaving work.

Kennard leaves his wife and six children to mourn his loss.

Noah Kennard, local hardware dealer, is a nephew of the deceased.

College Freshmen Defeat Ashland Junior College 52-27

The Morehead College freshmen, playing their first game of the season, defeated the Ashland, (Ky.) Junior basketballs Tuesday night at Ashland by a score of 52-27.

Coach Miller's lads were never behind from the outset of the fracas while Coach Ernie Chatten's Thorobreds lost their second game in four starts.

THREE REASONS FOR SUCCESS

are shown above. Len Steiner, Jones Talent and Charley Higginbotham, all imported from Cumberland Junior College last year, are showing up well this season and with a little practice should round the Eagles into championship form.

Steiner is a guard, Talent a center and Higginbotham a forward.

Low Gas Pressure Is Reason For Failure To Publish Paper

Due to the inclement weather and the very low gas supply this past week, the Morehead Independent was not published. The linotype, operated by gas, "froze up."

Only by working at night this week when the pressure is normally higher are we able to put out the Independent.

We ask our friends and subscribers to bear with us for a short while. When we get into our new building on or about the first of March we will be in a much better position to serve you.

Social Security Board To Open Temporary Office In Morehead

Mr. James A. Chaney will establish the first of a series of temporary offices of the Social Security Board in Morehead on each 2nd and 4th Wednesday of each month beginning January 10, 1940, between the hours of 10:00 A. M. and 12:00 Noon. The office will be in the postoffice building. Mr. Chaney stated that this would be a regular service to the people of Morehead and vicinity, inasmuch as this temporary office will be established every 2nd and 4th Wednesday at the time and place indicated above. Services which will be available to the public while the office is open will include the following:

- Receive applications for social security members, either originals or duplicates.
- Aid workers in correcting information appearing in their applications for social security numbers.
- Advise workers how to get information as to the status of their wage records on which future social security benefits will be based.
- Receive claims for monthly payments due qualified workers who reach age 65.
- Assist employers in making payments due survivors of insured wage earners who die on or after January 1, 1940.

"There is no charge for any of these services," Mr. Chaney said. "I hope any one who has any problems in the field of social security will visit our temporary office and give us an opportunity to study the questions and give our advice as to what can be done in such case."

The Peoples' Bank Statement Shows A Decided Increase

"The Peoples' Bank has larger resources today, larger capital position and cash position," was the statement today of C. P. Caudill, President. Deposits of the bank tally $767,000, President Caudill said, and capital position is $34,000 and its cash position $237,000.

The Peoples' Bank, in its present location since 1938, is one of the most modern, best-equipped banks in the State of Kentucky.

The bank statement may be found in this weeks issue.

Spelling Bee To Be Held Friday

Many Prizes To Be Given The Contestants

The Rowan County Spelling Bee will be held Friday, January 12th. The Gymnasium at the Morehead High School. The written spelling contest will be at 10:00 o'clock A. M. The oral spelling will begin at 1:00 o'clock P. M. The prizes are unusually large this year due to the fact that it was in charge of a committee who has done good work. The first prize will be a cash reward of $10.00, and all expenses paid to the State Spelling Bee at Louisville; second prize will be a new $5.00 bill and the third prize $3.00. There will be a combination pen and pencil set given to each child that comes to participate in the contests.

The children who take part in the Spelling both oral and written will be given a free luncheon at the expense of the local business men and Rowan county teachers, and chaperoned by Golda Dillon Mauk.

These children will tour the campus while here viewing things of interest such as the Science building, swimming pool, training school library and cafeteria.

The Morehead Independent donated one-hundred tickets to the contest and its teacher to the picture show at the Trill Theatre Friday at 2:30 P. M. The name of the feature is "Our Leading Citizen."

The committee for the bee is Golda Mauk, chairman, Ellen Hudgins, Grace Crowsthaite, Hubert Pennington, Amy Irene Pennington and members of the Merchants club to work with the committee are Bill Lane and Bill Sample.

Prizes: Rita Paulson Judges: Rev. E. A. Landolt, Mrs. H. C. Hagan, Bill Lane.

There will be an art exhibit from each school on exhibit at the Gymnasium and prizes will be awarded.

"Gas" Booster Is Being Installed

This association will be connected to credit associations of other cities for information exchange. This organization is being called upon from different towns for credit information and references, so that a person who has been where ever you may go. If your credit is good here it will be good anywhere. You may give this organization a reference and find time. The Big Book will be bad for the man who is in the habit of beating his creditors.

"Shortage" of Gas Described As "Desperate" By Local Citizens

The gas "booster" which should take care of the gas "shortage" suffered for the past week by Morehead residents has arrived and is being installed, according to W. E. Eyles, manager of the local gas company.

The gas situation became so acute last Tuesday that the Morehead citizens held a mass meeting of protest at the city building many stating that their homes were "unbearably uncomfortable," and they couldn't have enough gas pressure to cook by.

Eyles called into the meeting, stated that "Morehead may break its contract with my company if we can't give you plenty of gas after the booster is installed."

Library and Reading Room Started At Recreation Center

The participants of activities at the community recreation center on Second Street wish to take this opportunity to thank those people who have contributed books and magazines toward the founding of a Community Library. The center has one room that is used for reading. Books and magazines are available between the hours of 9:30 A. M. and 6:30 P. M. They may also be checked out. Mrs. C. O. Peratt, Miss Inez Faith Humphrey, Miss Juanita Minniss and Mrs. Homer Wilson have been generous to donate literature. Mrs. John Cecil, and Mrs. Steve Caudill have made possible many happy hours for the younger children by saving the Sunday "funnies." The Girl Scouts have also contributed funny books and games to the center.

New Plan Will Place Bad Accounts in Blacklist Book Over Town

The first meeting of the Morehead Merchants Credit Association was held Friday, December 29th. This is a new organization for Morehead, and was started to protect Morehead merchants against bad accounts.

A file of names and slow accounts will be kept and exchanged among the merchants thru what will be known as the Big Book. This means if you owe a merchant a past due account, your name will be put on the Big Book. Each merchant will have a copy of the Big Book, which will list everyone who is slow in paying their accounts or has failed to pay their account in the past. If your name gets in the Big Book, each merchant will have a record of your account and your credit will be marked no good until the account is paid. If an account is ever guaranteed the name will always remain on the Big Book. These bad accounts will be published in the local newspapers if they are not paid in due time.

In the early days of the organization it has been made compulsory for each merchant to make it known to the Big Book when an account is not paid. If you fail to do so, in other words, if you owe a merchant a past due account and you do not turn in your name so the other merchants may know who owes past due accounts the merchant will have to pay fine of $25.00. If the merchant makes a charge to anyone whose name is on the big book he will also be subject to a fine of $25.00.

At the meeting the merchants compared accounts and found that some bad accounts had good positions and have been letting their accounts drag for months and some people had been under several different stores. This new organization will protect merchants against these bad accounts. In the future a person who wishes to beat one merchant instead of all of them.

At regular meetings all slow accounts will be compared and discussed and new names, if any, will be added to the Big Book.

This association will be connected to credit associations of other cities for information exchange. This organization is being called upon from different towns for credit information and references, so that a person who has been where ever you may go. If your credit is good here it will be good anywhere. You may give this organization a reference and find time. The Big Book will be bad for the man who is in the habit of beating his creditors.

Ora Raymond Dies Of Pneumonia; At Morehead Home

Was Employed By State Hospital At Lexington; Former Cynthia Man

Ora Raymond, aged 64, died at his home here on Saturday, December 30th, following an illness of three weeks. Mr. Raymond who was employed by the State Hospital for the Insane at Lexington for a number of years, became ill while at the work and returned home suffering from influenza, which later developed into pneumonia, from which he died.

Funeral services were held at Cynthia Man. Raymond's old home town, on Monday of this week, conducted by Reverend B. H. Kates, pastor of the Baptist church in this city.

Mr. Raymond who was well thought of in this community, where his family had lived since 1933, is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mollie Raymond, county health nurse of Rowan county, and his son, Mortie Raymond, both of this city also a niece, Mrs. Edmund Rose, of Cynthia Man, Ky.

Connecticut Opens Machine School

Purpose Is To Teach Unemployed Rudiments Of Shop Work

Connecticut is meeting a shortage of skilled help in the State's booming factories by opening the first of a night schools for industrial beginners.
 Gov. Richard E. Baldwin, mentioned as a possible candidate for the Republican Vice-Presidential nomination declares this "job training school the first of its kind in the United States."
 It was opened here with seventy unemployed youths enrolled.
 No jobs were promised. They were offered a 200-hour course of general shop training, considered sufficient to permit them to get jobs as apprentices in industrial plants, which were expected to absorb them quickly.

Most of the large factories are co-operating principally by lending skilled employes to teach the youths the rudiments of shop practice.
 Classes are held from 11 p. m.
 to 7 a. m., five nights weekly at the State Trade School. Similar programs are planned in Connecticut's other large cities as soon as they can be prepared.
 Each student is told before he begins:
 1. The completion of the course does not guarantee a job. Every effort, however, will be made to obtain one.
 2. The first week is to be considered as probationary period. If at the end of this period the enrollee has not shown sufficient progress, he will be dropped from the class and another called to take his place.
 3. It is to be understood that the course does not aim to produce skilled toolmakers and machinists, nor should the enrollee expect to obtain the type of work done by these tradesmen when entering industry. Its purpose is to give such training as will enable a person to have some understanding of shop processes and an appreciation of the accuracy required in machining operations.

4. The State Trade School is not responsible for any injuries which may occur to members of the class.
 These instructions are for the unemployed youngsters, just out of school or a little older—between 16 and 25.
 The "job-training" program began after a special State commission studying unemployment of men past 45 discovered the problem of unemployed youth was a greater one in Connecticut at the moment.

Clemson outgained its football
 opponents by exactly 1,000 yards
 during the 1939 season. The figures were 2,195 and 1,195.

RUFFED GROUSE
 The ruffed grouse is locally known as pheasant, is one of the finest game birds that ever lived in our state. The drumming of the male during the period of courtship in the spring was a common woodland sound of pioneer days. Now he who hears the drumming of the grouse in our state may consider himself fortunate indeed. The grouse uses this device as his substitute for song for it serves not only as a warning to other males to stay away
 but also as a method of attraction for the female. Usually an old moss-covered log is selected for this activity and the log is used many times every day during the courting period.
 The drumming itself has been a cause for much speculation among ornithologists. The sound which may be described as follows: thump - thump - thump - thump - thump - thump - thump - rrrrr, rrrrr, begin very slowly and end in a rapid blur.
 The male mounts the drumming log, literally leans backward, and rests on his tail, and then suddenly darts his wings forward and upward as the first thump resounds through the woods. This performance is repeated and finally speeded up in the grand finale when the wings beat so rapidly that their movement cannot be followed.

 If you wish to watch this performance find a used drumming log which can be located by the drumming sound in early spring in the hours preceding the dawn. Then hide yourself in some quickly constructed blind of branches and twigs and be prepared for one of the surprises of your life.
 This fine game bird has nearly reached extermination in our state but in recent years it has been staging a remarkable comeback.
 The establishment of the Cumberland National Forest and the elimination of fires which formerly have destroyed food, cover, nests, and eggs have done much to bring about a new era for our grouse.
 True, this game bird is a cyclic species and at present it is reaching the peak as far as numbers are concerned but under the old conditions fires and nest losses it was doomed.
 It is the writers belief that with a little attention from the Department of Fish and Game and assistance from some of the related federal agencies the grouse again may assume a place of importance on the Kentucky list of game birds.

Tourist Boom Now Expected In South

European War To Keep Americans Over Here
An unprecedented influx of tourists into the Southland is expected this winter largely due to the European war. And signs indicate many of those seeking to escape winter's cold will go further southward to give Central and Latin-America a tourist boom. A check-up of steamship lines here today showed the heaviest sailing to Havana, the Canal Zone.

Mexico and Central American countries. Barred from travel in all European winter resort countries the wandering American tourist is boarding banana boats and others to see the lands below the Rio Grande. State Hotel Commissioner W. W. Taylor of Florida forecast 2,300,000 tourists would visit that State.

More than ever, the "X-RIFT-CARRIERS FOR THE NATION"

Extensive displays of the new 1940 truck models, said to be the broadest range of commercial transport equipment ever offered by Chevrolet, will be made in the dealerships, Mr. Fish said, along with various exhibits of mechanical features which distinguish the new models.

"Chevrolet dealers in every city are issuing personal invitations to fleet operators and all truck users to visit their dealerships during truck week, while central office will send out approximately 30,000 wires to individual truck operators by way of further invitation," he added. "We feel that the 1940 line is so complete, every truck user will be interested in the wide range of models, and at the same time will be able to see the particular types best adapted to his personal needs."

The 1940 line, Mr. Fish asserted, includes 56 different models on nine different wheelbase lengths.

CRACKERBARREL COMMENTS . . .

(By Woody Hinton)
plied, "you don't think I would be standing here hitch-hiking do you?" Murvell Croesley found a chick in a doughnut at the Eagles Nest and complained to "Chin." Chin's answer was, "why that ambitious little thing must have thought it was a tire." A little short guy and a girl here in town make me sick talking that baby talk all the time. I tried skating the other day and I am so sore now I feel like a boil up someone's nose.

City Council Orders Census To Be Taken

tion, allows or disallows the added service.
Mayor Daugherty declared he had no doubt but that the census would go well over the 2500 mark. He also pointed out that it was necessary that an immediate census be taken so that the legislation asking for a Fourth Class city could be introduced during this session of the legislature, or it would be necessary to wait two more years until the following legislative meets.
If, as expected, Morehead is made a fourth class city it will enjoy many added advantages, the Mayor set out. Chief of Police and all other officers would be elected by popular vote if the city is made fourth class.

When Day Is Done....
HOW OLD DO YOU FEEL?

It's Easy To Stay Young When Reddy Kilowatt Does All Your Hard Work
Just because you do your own work, must you look old? Must you feel resentful—tired—choked-up inside?
Housework is easy—if you know how. Today we give you countless servants to save your strength and keep you young.
Dishwashers that scour dishes and end wiping. Clothes washers that do everything but mend. Ranges that start and stop automatically, and never heat the kitchen. Vacuum cleaners that penetrate the closest woven rug—and toasters, toasters, coffee makers, laundry irons, sewing machines.
Our local manager (or your dealer) will give you facts and figures on how good appliances pay for themselves. He will help you plan your budget so that you can have the electrical appliances you need to make your life easier.
Ask about time payment plans. Have him explain our electric rates—the more current you use the less it costs per unit. For as little as $2 a week you can buy strength and energy equal to that of 600 working men.
Keep your strength—energy—youth—good looks. Let me do all the hard work in your house.
