
MORE TROUBLE IN ROWAN.

A Sheriff While Attempting an Arrest Is Mortally Wounded.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 7. — Another bloody chapter in the Rowan county factional war was added Monday. Sheriff Rainy, with a posse, attempted to arrest the notorious Craig Tolliver, Cook Humphreys, and Howard Logan, the principals in the trouble. Tolliver submitted quietly, but Logan and his son William and Humphreys opened fire upon the sheriff's posse, who returned the fire. Sheriff Rainy was shot through the body and mortally wounded, while his son Henry and a deputy sheriff were also slightly wounded. Logan's son was also shot, but not fatally. Latest reports say Logan and Humphreys are raising a mob of followers to kill the sheriff's posse. The governor has been telegraphed to send troops to Rowan county at once, where all is fear and excitement.
