

Troops Ordered to Rowan County, Ky.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 10.—At noon Friday Governor Knott ordered the state militia to go to Morehead to arrest the participants in the Rowan county feuds. Seventy-five soldiers from Louisville and Lexington left under command of Maj. McKee, of Lexington, for the seat of war. The troops will remain in Rowan during the trial of the offenders, to protect the court and keep the peace.