MAKE CHARGE OF UNFAIRNESS

Mrs. Cora Wilton Stewart Says $1,400 Was Stolen Printed While She Was Out Of State.

NOT A PENNY OF $1,400 WAS SPENT UNLAWFULLY

PLEASANT, KY., May 19—Mrs. Cora Wilton Stewart, president of the National Association of Colored Women, and one of the women who has made a广泛 attracted national attention in the recent race for the U.S. Senate seat in Kentucky, contended yesterday that she was not guilty of theft, as charged by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, which announced that she had been indicted for embezzlement.

Mrs. Stewart, who is a member of the National Association of Colored Women, and one of the women who has made a widespread aroused national attention in the recent race for the U.S. Senate seat in Kentucky, contended yesterday that she was not guilty of theft, as charged by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, which announced that she had been indicted for embezzlement.

She said that she had been furnished with $1,400 by the executive committee of the National Association of Colored Women, which is the organization to which she had belonged for many years, and that the money was for the purpose of paying the expenses of the convention which was to be held in St. Louis, Missouri. She said that she had not been able to find the money, and that she had tried to find it in various ways, and that she had been unable to find it, and that she had been forced to give up her efforts in that direction.

Mrs. Stewart, who is a member of the National Association of Colored Women, and one of the women who has made a widespread aroused national attention in the recent race for the U.S. Senate seat in Kentucky, contended yesterday that she was not guilty of theft, as charged by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, which announced that she had been indicted for embezzlement.

She said that she had been furnished with $1,400 by the executive committee of the National Association of Colored Women, which is the organization to which she had belonged for many years, and that the money was for the purpose of paying the expenses of the convention which was to be held in St. Louis, Missouri. She said that she had not been able to find the money, and that she had tried to find it in various ways, and that she had been unable to find it, and that she had been forced to give up her efforts in that direction.

She said that she had been furnished with $1,400 by the executive committee of the National Association of Colored Women, which is the organization to which she had belonged for many years, and that the money was for the purpose of paying the expenses of the convention which was to be held in St. Louis, Missouri. She said that she had not been able to find the money, and that she had tried to find it in various ways, and that she had been unable to find it, and that she had been forced to give up her efforts in that direction.