

MSU Faculty and Staff:

This week our University will play host to a number of events and venues as we enter a week-long celebration around 2018 Homecoming. We hope that you can participate in several events throughout the week.

On Tuesday, October 16 we will host our Inaugural W. Terry McBrayer Presidential Lectureship in which Mr. Tim Thomas, the Chair of the Appalachian Regional Commission, will be here from Washington, D.C. to speak at 3:30-4:30 p.m. in Button Auditorium. As an encouragement to our employees to attend, all employees may be excused from their offices during this time should they wish to attend this event.

On Wednesday, October 17 all employees are invited to attend the Campus Spirit Day event in the quad. Those attending are encouraged to congregate on the lawn between Allie Young and the Little Bell Tower to hear the MSU Marching Band and others perform. Any employee wishing to attend this event may be excused from their office from 3:45-4:30 p.m. The performance begins at 4:00 p.m.

Thursday – Saturday:

A multitude of other event times may be viewed at:

<http://www.moreheadstate.edu/homecoming>

Please note that the Homecoming Parade is also scheduled for Saturday morning at 9:30 a.m. along Main Street. We have a very nice number of parade entries and we hope that you, your family, and/or friends will come join us.

We would also encourage you to consider attending Homecoming tailgating Saturday starting at 11:00 a.m. and the Eagle Football game at 2:00 p.m. at Jayne Stadium.

Thanks for all you do -- and we hope that you can make one or more of the events this week as we celebrate 2018 Homecoming at Morehead State University.

Jay Morgan
President