

A Notorious Desperado Shot.

MT. STERLING, Ky., Dec. 28.—News has just reached here by courier that Craig Tolliver, the notorious desperado and leader of the Tolliver faction, who was recently tried here for the murder of Ben Rayburn, was shot in Elliott county, a few miles from Martinsburg, at a party at the house of Peter White. Tolliver was engaged in conversation with the sweetheart of Asbury Crisp, when Crisp entered the room, leveled his pistol at Tolliver and fired, inflicting a fatal wound. Crisp escaped.
