Nunn Names Meade To Key State Office

Former U.S. Representative W. Howes Meade, 54, Paintsville attorney who was graduated in 1939. For three years during World War II, he served in the Navy as a communications officer.

In 1946, Meade was elected to Congress from the Seventh District after a year-long campaign. He was defeated for re-election in 1948, but in 1954, undaunted, he sought the nomination for Congress in the old Eighth District.

Meade was living in Lexington at the time, in the Sixth District, so he used a helicopter, which attracted crowds everywhere, to campaign in the mountainous Eighth District. Eugene Siler, Williamsburg, won the Republican nomination, the November election and served in Congress until he retired in 1965.

Appointed in 1953, Meade served for about a year as Kentucky director of the Federal Housing Administration. In 1957, during the Eisenhower Administration, he again became connected with FHA and served in Washington as FHA commissioner for 19 states and Puerto Rico. Since 1961, he has practiced law in Paintsville.

Meade is a Methodist and a former teacher in the Men's Bible Class at his church in Paintsville. He is married to the former Laura Howard Neel, Morgantown, and they have two daughters, Mrs. Lester Wieland, Phoenix, Ariz., and Laura Lloyd Meade, eight.

Gov. Nunn Warns —

people. Nunn said his veto of a bill passed by the Legislature to repeal the 1960 auto inspection law occurred only after a "thorough and agonizing review of the whole matter."

Vetoing the bill "might not have been the popular and expedient thing to do," Nunn explained. "I did what the time, the conditions and the circumstances demanded that I do."

His veto was motivated, Nunn said, by four factors:

✓ A loss in state road funds over the next four years amounting to a "minimum of $48 million."

✓ The fact a "substantial number" of Kentuckians had voluntarily had their cars inspected in January and February, voluntary months under the law.

✓ The state's "soaring highway accident rate."

✓ His belief the amended bill would have caused a "great inconvenience" to motorists and imposed inspection on fewer vehicles.

Newman and Shirley explained the regulation changes which include:

✓ Elimination of brake lining by wheel removal, toe-in-out of wheels, ball joints and parking brake from the checklist.

✓ A relaxation of standards on wheel shield glass, headlight aiming, and tire inspection.

The tipping dog may be a droll sight -- once. But allowed to take a nip regularly, he may turn into an alcoholic -- and become a menace to himself and others. This warning was issued recently by Britain's Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, after studies showed that alcohol not only takes a physical toll of a dog's life but has other ill effects as well.

A once lovable pet, the Society noted, can become short-tempered and demanding. His acute senses can become dulled by alcohol, exposing him to dangers of various kinds in the environment.

In short, the alcoholic pet, like the alcoholic human, is a sad case, a burden to himself and to those who love him.

BIRTH CONTROL

Does birth control help or hurt business? Here's an answer from one expert: "The development of the pill has done a great deal for the air transportation business. By delaying the family during the early marriage years when both husband and wife are working, we have a combination of disposable income and the desire to travel."

In the view of Harold L. Graham, vice president for cargo sales of Pan American World Airways, "It is not that we advertise birth control; it just happens that it helps business." Mr. Graham made his remarks at a recent meeting of the New York Chapter of the American Marketing Association.

Commented Mr. Graham's assistant to a query from Women's Medical News Service, "I don't know why it shouldn't be true in other business as well. I have five children; I can afford to buy fewer toys for each of them than I could when I had two children. For most of us it's true that the more kids the less money for toys."

HEALTH MYTHS

LAD TO REST

Some common myths about health that can do you harm were exploded recently by the American Medical Association: Heart disease is not necessarily a reason for refusing an operation. Let the doctor decide if and when you need an operation.

There is no medicine which can be taken by mouth to dissolve gallstones.

Grayson Gets $431,500 Aid On Water Job

The city of Grayson, Ky., has been awarded a $431,500 grant by the federal Economic Development Administration (EDA) to expand its water system.

The city will match the EDA contribution for expansion of the system that will include a water-treatment plant, water intake, storage tanks and distribution lines.

EDA said Grayson's request for aid was pegged to the fact that major recreational areas are being developed nearby and that the city would not be able to take advantage of tourism-related business if its water facilities are inadequate.

The water-system expansion will serve residential and commercial areas, as well as a 25-acre industrial site under option to the Grayson Development Corp.

Completion of the expansion is expected in about two years.

TIRED BUT HAPPY! These 23 members of Tau Alpha Epsilon, a men's social club at Morehead State University, seem well satisfied with their effort Saturday, April 6, to focus attention on the Easter Seal campaign by walking from Mayville to Morehead, a distance of 50 miles. Walking in relays, the boys covered the distance in 11 1/2 hours and collected a record $672 for the campaign in Mayville, Flemingsburg and Morehead. The money will be used to help crippled children in Mason, Fleming and Rowan counties. This is the fourth consecutive year the club has made the walk, using as their slogan, "We walk for those who cannot walk."

KU has reduced our rates 6 times since we moved into our new electrically heated home," say Mr. & Mrs. Charles Walker of Rumsey, Ky.

"Most living expenses are going up but electricity actually costs less today than when we moved in," says Mr. Walker. "My wife and I originally decided on electric heat because it was so comfortable and clean and trouble-free. These rate reductions have been an unexpected bonus!"

"You know it really is the cleanest heat, too. I don't have to spend nearly the time on housework these days," adds Mrs. Walker.

COMMUNITY SERVICES FOR

GOOD FRIDAY AND EASTER

Community services for Good Friday and Easter Sunday have been announced by the Morehead Ministerial Association, with the following schedule and speakers:

The Good Friday service will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Friday of this week at the First Free Will Baptist Church, with the Rev. Ted Greene as host pastor. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Kenneth Cole, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The Easter Sunrise service will be held at 6:30 a.m. on Easter morning at the Methodist Church, with the Rev. Larry Buskirk presiding and the Rev. Hart Johnston, pastor of Faith Presbyterian Church, bringing the Easter message. The public is invited to participate in these union services.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH - The First Baptist Church will have only one morning service on the next two days, April 14th and April 21st. Sunday School will be at the regular time of 9:45 and the morning worship hour will be at 10:45.

Training Union will be held at 6:30 p.m. The youth of the church are planning a trip to Richmond, Kentucky for the "Youth Night" program, which will be presented there, April 19th. One of our own members, Mr. Willie "Hobo" Jackson, will be featured on the program.

FIRST CHURCH OF GOD TABERNACLE OF CLEARFIELD will be having our Spring Youth Service starting Monday, April 15. Our youth will be in charge of the Revival but every one is welcome to come. Services will begin at 7:30 p.m. Debra Mullen will be the song director with Brenda Lyons as pianist and Cindy Thomas as the soloist. The guest speaker as chairman will be: Sandra Workman, Charlotte Workman, Norma Porter, and Clifford Plank. Other youth will be singing in the choir and rendering special songs. The evangelist will be the Rev. Monford Neal of Jeffersonville, Indiana, a great young minister that you will enjoy hearing. This meeting will continue until Sunday night April 21. We covet your prayers.

FAITH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH - A Maundy Thursday Communion Service will be held at Faith Church tonight (April 11) at 7:30 p.m., in observance of the Last Supper of Jesus with His disciples. Faith Church welcomes all professing Christians to the Lord's Table, and invites all interested persons to share in this brief hour of devotion with members of the congregation.

Easter worship at Faith Church will be held at 9:30 a.m. on Sunday morning. The second service of worship, usually held at 10:45 a.m., will not be held on Easter or on April 21, as is customary at the Presbyterian Church when the university is not in session. Worshipers are urged to be present at 9:30 a.m. on both of these Sunday mornings.

MOREHEAD METHODIST CHURCH - Wednesday, April 10, 7:30 p.m., Dr. R. L. Anderson, Superintendent of the Maysville District will preach and hold the Fourth Quarterly Conference. Oral reports from all church officials and commission and committee chairmen will be heard.

Thursday, April 11, 8:00 p.m., Maundy Thursday Communion Service and Meditation by the Minister. Note: The Women's Society of Christian Service will meet at 7:00 p.m., in order to conduct their business and program to attend the Communion Service. Mrs. J. Roger Caudill, President.

Saturday, April 13, 7:30 p.m., Buskirk will preach in the Olive Hill Methodist Church, on the Fourth Word From The Cross: "My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken me?" This is a part of the Holy Week Services in Olive Hill in which a different Minister has spoken each night on the Seven Last Words.

Sunday, April 14, Easter Sunday, please note: In addition to the Community Sunrise Service at 6:30 a.m., we will conduct the regular worship services at 9:45 and 11:00 a.m., as usual. The Evening Evangelistic Hour is dismissed. At 3:00 p.m., Rev. Buskirk will preach at Matt Methodist Church in Lawrence County.

About 150 people enjoyed the music and singing, and art exhibit at the Musical "Last Sunday evening, and later shared in refreshments and fellowship. The event was the occasion of the launching of a Pipe Organ Fund as a part of the proposed new sanctuary to be built in the next few years.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH - "He is risen!" This glorious shout of exultant joy was sounded the first Easter morning and with that proclamation men of all ages have started to comprehend the power and the love of God. The Easter message will be proclaimed in word and song this Sunday morning at 10:45. Our splendid choirs will sing this wonderful news. At 9:45 the Easter theme will be the resurrection of our church school. At 7:45 the Easter message will be reconnected during the baptismal service. Just as Christ lived, was buried and rose again to newness of life so is our baptismal service a reconnection of the original Easter as the new Christian is buried in the waters of baptism to rise in newness of life. All of our members and friends are invited to our Easter services. Bring a friend and all come honor our Lord and Saviour.

JESUS OUR SAVIOR CATHOLIC CHURCH - Friday, April 12, in commemoration of Christ's Passion and death, special services will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Sunday to celebrate the Lord's Resurrection, the Easter Sunrise service (Vigil and Mass) will be at 7:00 a.m. and Easter Masses will be at 9:00 and 11:45 a.m.

All are invited to worship with us during this most solemn and joyous time of the year!

ST. ALBAN'S EPISCOPAL - Easter services will be conducted at St. Alban's at 11:00 a.m. on April 14. Our seminary, Mr. Terry Taylor, plans to preach on the subject, "He is Risen!" The anthem will be "Christ the Lord is Risen Again" by Carl Schalk.

Holy Communion will be celebrated at St. Alban's Church on Maundy Thursday, April 11, at 7:30 p.m., since this is the occasion of Christ's Last Supper. The Way of the Cross will be observed at 7:30 p.m., Good Friday, April 12.

The Day of Resurrection, Easter, is certainly the Queen of Feasts and the most important day in Christendom. This is what Christianity is all about. Easter fills the churches. People remember with joy the early morning, the empty tomb, and the Risen Christ appearing to his disciples. "Christ being raised from the dead, he has death no more dominion over him. For since by man came death, by man also the resurrection from the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive."

PENTECOSTAL - The Morehead United Pentecostal Church under Superintendent Donald Lacy and the North Fork United Pentecostal Church under Superintendent Harold Guiley have been engaged in a Sunday School Contest. This contest is expected to last through the summer months.

Weekly Meditation

Easter is the birthday of Hope. Without the Easter fact, there would be no salvation. Without the resurrection, our hope for salvation must be reduced to the despair of the heathen. Thus, salvation is the one message which should be re-emphasized at Easter.

It is wonderful that this is the spring of the year when the birds reign, the flowers appear and the trees bud in nature. But, these are temporary things. We were to mention them only and to pass over the eternal matter presented by Easter. We would be faithless indeed. The contact point in this divinely professed salvation is faith in the resurrected Christ.

Now the fact of the resurrection thus gives meaning to the cross, and faith in the resurrection makes possible faith in the cross. It is at this truth of the resurrection of Christ from the dead that the unbeliever stumbles. In fact, this experience of Christ's death was the one thing that shattered the faith of the disciples. If I start from the life of Christ at Easter, it is easy to believe, but if I start from the life of Christ on Calvary and terminate the story there, it is impossible to believe.

What power could death hold over one who raised other people from the dead, who rebuked the wind and waves, who cast the demons from the possessed, who opened blind eyes and healed the leper and other things? The resurrection was a natural to such a Person.

Paul tells us - "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus Christ and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." Roman 10:9.

To confess Christ as Lord is to personally identify with him, and to believe is to totally commit your life in faith without reserve to Him. When this happens, the fact of Easter in your life becomes your birthday of hope.

Hearing Set For Insurance Rate Change

State Insurance Commissioner Robert D. Preston has called for a public hearing on the application of the Insurance Rating Board for a revision in automobile insurance rates on behalf of its members and subscribers.

The Insurance Rating Board is a licensed rating organization authorized to make filings for about 150 insurance companies who will be affected by this filing. This group writes approximately one-third of the automobile insurance written in the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

The hearing will be conducted at 10 a.m. April 16, in the Hearing Room of the Public Service Commission in Frankfort, Kentucky.

The overall effect of the filing, for family automobile coverage, would be an increase in the present rate structure of plus 2.9 percent. This would amount to a total of $1,727,814 for the 150 companies involved. For the Special Package Automobile Policy, a proposed increase of plus 10.9 percent in the present rate structure would amount to approximately $312,067.

The filing and any supporting information filed will be open to public inspection.

Rowan Soil Conservation

By Don Nelson

Critical areas, or areas that have no vegetation and are hard to get a good stand of grass, trees or shrubs on, should be seeded and stabilized on many small areas. There are several areas such as gullies where new homes have been constructed in and around Morehead, some where landscape work has been done and odd areas.

These areas need to be seeded to prevent erosion, sedimentation, and siltation it will also beautify the area at the same time.

The critical areas across the nation are being more of a major problem each year due to more construction work being performed. In many areas, there is more erosion and sedimentation to our streambanks and kill many of the fish. Research has proven that for every dollar that is spent on these critical areas we get $20 dollars in return across the nation for the preservation of siltation.

There are several grasses, legumes, tree, shrubs that can be used successfully here in Rowan County. The principles involved are: 1. Using the right type of plants for the type of soil that you have. 2. Adequate fertilization and lime. 3. Seeded preparation plan and time. 4. Mulching for moisture control and erosion. 5. Seeding at the right time. 6. Adequate maintenance each year.

The Lake Lewman Association has done an excellent job of critical area seeding on their farm. They have seeded it to fescue, sericea, lespedeza, and annual ryegrass. 1,000 pounds of 12-12-12 and 4 tons of lime was applied. It was also mulched with old fence hay.

If anyone has a critical area around Morehead or in Rowan County, you can contact the Soil Conservation Office here at Morehead and we will be glad to help you solve the problem, and beautify the area.

Fat Children: A Growing U.S. Problem

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (UPI)—That diet the adult struggles with week after week should have started when he was a youngster, Prof. Charles B. Corbin of Texas A. & M. University believes.

Dr. Corbin said studies of overweight among 1,200 grade school children showed percentages of obesity among boys in grades one through seven ranged from six to 17 per cent. Girls showed generally higher percentages of obesity in those same groups.

Similar studies in Canada and Great Britain showed those children had less fat, Corbin said.

"Our kids are less fit and more fat," he said. "By and large, athletic problems are graded-school boys, he said, a fact that would explain the generally larger amount of fat among girls."

The most damaging revelation of the study is that fat problems tend to stay with people. "Our kids are getting fatter as they grow older," Corbin said. "Research shows fat people tend to get fatter. The majority of these kids are not going to trim down in their teen-age years. It is more proof against the 'baby-fat' theory that says, 'Don't worry, he will grow out of it.'"

The study has many implications. "It may mean parents should shut off the television and see that their kids get more physical education earlier," Corbin said.

Flower Tips You Can Use

DAVIS, Calif. (UPI)—Here are a few tips for plant lovers who want to see their cut flowers remain alive for longer periods.

—Recut stems, preferably under water, and allow flowers to become plump and crisp by standing in water in a cool, draft-free location for several hours before using in an arrangement. Doing warm water—as hot as the hand can stand—in the container will speed the conditioning process.

—Conditioning containers and vases should be clean to minimize bacterial and fungus growth that can plug the cut stems. "If a flower preservative is used in the vase water to inhibit bacterial growth it will not be necessary to recut stems daily to prevent stem plugging."

Big Oil Future TULSA, Okla. (UPI)—Domestic oil companies will have to invest up to $200 billion between now and 1980 to meet the anticipated increase in petroleum demand, according to the American Petroleum Institute.

Domestic demand averaged 12.3 million barrels a day in 1967 and the API said this figure is expected to rise to 17.5 million barrels daily in the next dozen years.

Higher Education
Now Predicted
NEW YORK (UPI) - More doctors and nurses will be granted by American universities in the 1968-1978 decade than in the preceding 50 years, according to Dr. H. Richter, research director of the Combined Insurance Company of America.

"The United States now has 66 per cent of its 16 to 19 age group enrolled in school," Richter said. "This is much higher than in many other English-speaking nations. France has 31 per cent of this age group in school while West Germany, Italy and the United Kingdom have less than 20 per cent."

"Back in 1940 only about one out of four, or something over 24 per cent of 18-year-olds older had four or more years of high school. By 1966 that proportion had risen to 46 per cent."

"During the same period, the number of Americans finishing four or more years of college more than doubled - from 4.8 per cent to 9.9 per cent."

Heicher said crowding and overcrowding of schools is a standard complaint but total enrollment in elementary schools has eased off and will remain somewhat stable until 1975, then it will jump another 10 per cent. At the same time, high school enrollment will jump another 20 per cent and college enrollment will skyrocket 40 per cent.

Robert A. Reynolds, who has served as District Ranger here on the Morehead District of the Daniel Boone National Forest, has been promoted to a staff position in the office of Forest Supervisor Robert F. Collins at Winchester. In his new position Mr. Reynolds will be responsible for land functions, which includes special use permits for use of national forest lands for various permitted uses, land acquisition, and land functions such as encroachments, claims, trespass, etc. The transfer is effective the 21st of this month, however, he plans to continue to live here in Morehead until the end of the school year.

Jane McIntyre, Forester here on the district, has been detailed on a temporary assignment to the London District at London, Ky., to help with a large timber cruising project on that district. The project is expected to last four to six weeks.

Heard Not Seen . . .

Wild Turkeys

The elusive wild turkey is more often heard than seen, and the odds aren't too good that a hunter will get close enough to kill one of the wary woodlands birds.

But despite this, wild turkey hunting continues to grow in importance with Kentucky's hunting sportsmen -- probably because it does demand so much skill and stealth on the part of the hunter.

Not many years ago, the gobble of the wild turkey could be heard only in one part of Kentucky, in a portion of what is now the Land Between the Lakes recreation area in western Kentucky. Now huntable populations of the undomesticated species of Thanksgiving fare can be found in that section as well as in a sizable portion of Eastern Kentucky, report Arnold Mitchell, director of Game Management for the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources.

Last spring, according to calculations by biologists for the Department, 32 hunters managed to outwit wild turkeys. Of that total, 27 turkey gobblers were killed by the 659 persons who hunted during a six-day season in the Land Between the Lakes.

The remaining five birds came from the 16 county eastern region.

Three turkeys were known killed last Friday and Saturday (April 5-6) during this year's first hunting season in the Land Between the Lakes area. More than 500 hunters were out during the two days. Remaining LBL seasons are April 12-18 and April 19-20.

In the Eastern region, hunting is scheduled April 20-28. Like in LBL, only gobblers may be killed in the 16 county area.

Following is the section where hunting is permitted: That portion of McCleary county east of U.S. 27 and north of Ky. 92; Pulaski, Perry, Breathitt, Knott, including Robinson Forest Area; Clay, Leslie, Jackson, Owsley, Powell, Wolfe, Bath, Menifee, including Pioneer Weapons Area; Rockcastle, Lee, Rowan and that portion of Whitley county north of Ky. 92.

Four From Rowan Attend EKEA Clinic

A "Team" of four people from the Rowan County school system were among 67 area educational leaders who met in Ashland, Kentucky last Saturday, April 6, in an Eastern Kentucky Education Association Political Clinic. This was "Teachers-in-Politics Day" all over the state of Kentucky and in most of the other states.

"The purpose of the clinic was to study ways in which teachers can be more active in the political process to insure continued progress in our school program," according to the "team" captain, Mary Alice Jayne. Other members of the Rowan County group included Eunice Cecil, Sherman Arnette and Bill Calhoun.

President Lyndon B. Johnson, in an interview filmed especially for this meeting, recalled some of his experiences as a teacher and stressed the need for teachers to become more politically active. Another highlight of the meeting was a keynote speech by Mr. Jesse Stuart, of Greenup, Ky., who told the group that teachers have a responsibility to be fully-participating citizens in their local communities and to join in political action programs.

The Rowan County team was presented with a special Performance Certificate when they turned in a "blueprint" of a plan of action for this spring, next fall, and later. The highlight of the local plan involves:

I. Seeing that all Teachers and personnel in the Rowan County School System are registered before the November election and a check after the election as to the number that voted according to Mrs. Jayne.

II. Assist in getting the 18 year olds registered in the party of their choice.

III. Get to know our legislators better, and know what their stand is toward education.

IV. Follow up "10 point program" as worked out at the April 6 meeting.

We expect to start to work immediately on putting this plan into action, she reports.

Recently there has been quite an interest in coin and stamp collecting. We have several books on these subjects, but I will just mention a few:

"Hidden value in coins", by Hobson.

"Fell's U.S. Coin book", by Andrews.

"Cash for your coins", by Reinhold.

Unidentified flying objects is another subject which interests many people. Here are a few books on this subject:

"The flying saucer reader", by David.

"Flying saucers, serious business", by Edwards.

"The interrupted journey", two lost hours "aboard a flying saucer", by Fuller.

"Flying saucers", by the editors of Look 120 years ago of UFO's—a complete up-to-date roundup.

We have just received a new series of Canadian Films from the Canadian Travel Bureau. One film is about the Yukon, one is about skiing, and the third about Edmonton: Canada's Holiday City. These are 16mm sound films and we invite you to use these for club use or personal viewing. Just call the library

BOATING

By JACK WOLSTON

NEW YORK (UPI)—Insurance policies for boat owners have come a long way since the end of World War II when pleasure boating began its climb to become the nation's No. 1 family sport.

A boat owner today can purchase a single policy which usually covers any risk he might encounter, be it liability, theft, fire or other damage to the boat or its accessories.

It's a far cry from the boat insurance picture of little more than a decade ago, when an owner wanting protection usually ended up with sometimes a half dozen policies from as many companies and then ran into some difficulty which he found was not covered.

In the same half dozen policies there often was an overlap of risks, and the cost of writing that many policies was usually four or five times that of today's single, streamlined policy that takes into consideration almost any risk that might be encountered.

Walter H. Vernier, executive vice president of State Farm Fire and Casualty Company, cited for us recently the cost of a single-package policy for a $1,500 boat, motor and trailer combination home-based, for example, in Maryland.

For all-risk hull coverage (with $50 deductible), $25,000 in liability and $500 in medical payments the cost would be $28. If the motor were less than 40 horsepower, this would be reduced to $22 or, if the craft were more than 18 feet long, $24.

Rates vary by location and the annual costs on a similar rig in California, for example, would be $40, $35 and $27, respectively. In Florida it would run $50, $46 and $40; in Minnesota it would be $28, $25 and $26.

Vernier said his company has put out the same kind of all-risk package for boatmen that the insurance industry has developed for the home owner.

Precisely, the coverages include:

—Liability: Protection for claims arising from injury to other people, or damage to their property, resulting from negligent operation of the boat. Available in amounts of up to $500,000.

Hull: Pays for repairs to a craft if it is damaged by collision, fire, wind, hail, storm, sinking, docking damage and other hazards, plus coverage for theft. An outboard motor is protected from the same hazards, as are boating accessories, such as navigational equipment, steering rigs and other gear.

—Medical Payments: Regardless of liability, the policy will pay $500 for medical costs of guests aboard a boat, or for others who are injured in a boating accident in which the boat owner is involved.

Policies are written on a three-year basis, with premiums paid either annually or every three years, at the boat owner's option. Rates are calculated to allow for the annual depreciation of a boat's value.

Whatever type of boat a person owns, he needs insurance to protect himself against the extra risks he faces in his operation," Vernier said.

One of the most important coverages probably is liability. In a case pending in a Connecticut court, a woman guest who smashed her finger while handling a centerboard on a sailing craft is suing the owner for $100,000.

Sweden Benefits From Switch To Righthand Drive

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — If Sweden has learned anything from its switchover from left-hand driving to righthand driving, conformity with the rest of Europe is that speed limits save lives.

When the switch was made last September, there were ominous predictions of a bloodbath on the roads. In fact, the opposite has been true.

Statistics for the first six months after the change showed that 440 persons died in automobile accidents during the period. But this was 211 fewer than the 651 total for the same period the year before.

Last year the traffic death rate was 3.5 persons per day. In the first six months of righthand driving it was 2.3 per day.

Although the change to righthand driving has worked much more smoothly than at first expected, this isn't what authorities credit for the drop in fatalities. They credit the enforcement of speed limits that went into effect at the same time.

Prior to the changeover the country had no speed limits. Within its limits were imposed of 25 mph in built-up areas, 50 mph on other roads, and 80 mph on motorways. The 25 mph limit later was raised to 30, and the motorway limit to 62.5 mph.

"With this experience," a highways official said recently, "we are not likely to ever go back again to unlimited speed."

Now this Freeze Program is very unpopular among the Welfare people as well as some of the organizations in America. The women claim that if it is carried out, then they will begin this summer, to put little younguns on their doorsteps and walk off, leaving the younguns in our care. Corsey Gabbard says that if a little welfare youngun is left on his door steps, he'll just fetch the littler feller in and give it a good bath and put some britches on it and turn it loose with his younguns. Lots of us Welfare families have more younguns than we really can take care of good and shore wouldn't be able to take care of no more hardly. Of course we would have to take the littler feller in if it were left on our door steps.

Some of the big Union peoples have come out ag'inst the womenfreeze. They claim that the new Welfare measure enacted by Congress must be changed until all of a woman's younguns can be on the Draw and they ain't in favor, it seems, of these women a working a little to keep up their younguns and husband. They want the clamps took off the men too. They believe that if a man can't find no job he likes to work at, then his woman should be allowed to Draw Welfare until he does find a job that he wouldn't mind working a little at. He could still live with his woman while she draws instead of gittin' a court order of a separation and have to sleep back at night, or when the Welfare inspectors ain't looking, to watch his wife's TV and do other home duties. These Welfare Separations do hinder a man's way of life some. Many of his neighbors will complain when his wife is a Drawing because he is gone-- and he ain't gone. So if the Big Unions gets their way with the government--and they usually do--then as men can stay at home while our women Draw and we won't be forced to work unless a job comes along that is suitable to our taste and don't interfere with our endeavors of life. This will provide warmth to a froze up woman.

No wonder the Turnip Bleeders down to Floral Clock, Kentucky have been so busy gittin' more taxes set up than we ever did have. This Congressional freeze from Washington weren't exactly what Kentucky wanted. Kentuckians are very loyal to their women and the other fel-

Auctioneers Elect Lewis Vice President

C. Roger Lewis, of Morehead has been elected first vice president of the Kentucky Auctioneers Association.

Auctioneers attending the 11th annual convention were interested in playing the trade in real estate, livestock, and household property.

According to Lewis auctioneers are getting more chances than ever to do their talking.

"A few years ago my business was about 80 percent direct sales and about 20 per cent auctions. Now it's the other way around," Lewis said.

"The auction method," Lewis said, "is popular because everybody has a chance. And it's good for the seller because a lot of people are bidding the price up on somebody else's judgment."

Other officers elected are Walter Fritz, Mount Sterling, president; Rex Proffitt, Thompsonville, second vice president, and Mrs. Wilma Atterton, Hodgenville, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Vinia Ramey 87, Is Claimed

One of Rowan County's oldest, pioneer and native citizens passed away April 3.

Mrs. Vinia Ramey, 87, died at the St. Claire Medical Center.

She was born in Rowan County December 31, 1880, the daughter of Shud and Rebecca (Stevens) Ramey both deceased.

She married William Henry who preceded her in death.

Mrs. Ramey leaves four sons - Arthur Ramey, Mansfield, O.; Bridget Ramey, Wheelersburg, O.; Marrow Ramey and Robert Ramey both of Clearfield.

Also surviving is one daughter - Sissie Ramey, West Springfield, Pa., 44, grandchildren and 37 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at the Stucky Funeral Home April 6 at 10 a.m. Burial was in the Alfrey cemetery.

Grandsons served as casket bearers.

lars' women sometimes. They want them took real good care of and that is why they had to pass new taxes to warm up the lives of our women on the Welfare.

They don't want little younguns a strayin' and a squallin' on our doorsteps this summer and be left there by some disgruntled and froze welfare mother.

Now they ain't a one of 'em taxpayers but what are in favor of Welfare to provide for needy families made that way thru fate and not a fault of their own. We have a wonderful thing if it left out of the hands of politicians. It could be the finest tool toward benefitting mankind and woman and youngkind if it were out of the hands of politicians and used in a manner that would show respect to the family needing welfare. The Welfare programs are out of hand at present and the majority of us Turnips ain't pleased with the actions of the Turnip Bleeders in the valley of the Floral Clock.

Just where we are going when every year the budget for the State must be raised several billions above the previous budget is beyond the comprehension of most of us pore and dumb taxpayers. Same for the Big Government. When will all our salaries and income go for taxes and we will all become Welfare recipients. Who is scared of the ideologies of Socialism or Communism? In Socialist Countries all the money goes into the governments' hands and is doled out as the leaders warrant the needs. Is it possible that two thirds of America might already like communism or socialism because they really do not understand the terms?

All me and you can say is "Tax the h--- right out of us, we're gittin' so we like it."

No candidate should promise no more taxes. It endangers his soul. Some women need froze real good and the clamps should be put on man's activities.

A handful of salt, thrown on the coals in the barbecue grill, will lower the flames and desfer the smoke from the broiled meat.

Milk won't scorch so easily if heated in a pan which has been rinsed with cold water before the milk is poured into it.

Herbs and spices can do wonders to the flavor of economy meat cuts.

Colored or plain popcorn dropped on a freshly baked cake makes a beautiful dessert for special occasions.

Some cooks find they have better results with margarine if powdered sugar is used instead of granulated.

A good wrap, one that is moisture and vapor resistant, is one of the best ways to protect the quality of frozen meats.

A sticky trap can be made to operate simply if it is run back and forth while hot over a paper on which salt has been sprinkled generously.

Use a paper towel saturated with lighter fluid to remove price labels from plastic containers.

Who Says A House Is Not a Purse?

HOUSTON (UPI) — Have you ever seen a log cabin that flips its lid? Or a Cape Cod cottage that stores lipstick, loose change and other necessary items?

Mercedes Hitchcock, a Houston housewife, designs them. Actually the miniature buildings are handbags. To open them, you simply lift one side of the roof.

Mrs. Hitchcock's husband, Joe, makes the pine wood boxes, and she intricately paints on windows, doors, bricks, trees. The final product is covered with a fine film of plastic glass.

Included in the construction is paper-mache. Mrs. Hitchcock says that her art theory is that you can do almost anything with paper-mache as long as you know what materials to use for special effects.

The mother of four, however, will not reveal the secret technique for making logs and stone chimneys of the cabin-sized handbags so realistic.

Mrs. Hitchcock has a dozen different "houses" most of which she keeps for personal use and display.

Rose Houston ladies, though, have found that for the right charitable cause, Mrs. Hitchcock will commission her services and put what she calls her "art on your arm" up for sale.

Hospital Zoo Spreads Cheer

TORONTO (UPI) — A Canadian hospital plans to use a five-foot, black snake, a budgie, a hamster and some fish to treat child patients.

Their job is to help the children forget their fears.

The snake — of the non-poisonous racer breed — and the other animals are in a small zoo in the children's waiting room at North York General Hospital.

John McKay, administrator of the $12.6 million hospital, said he got the idea from seeing rabbits "running around on the floor of a Pittsburgh hospital."

Jean Taylor, assistant administrator, believes the pet project will work.

"A child who is upset after having his tonsils out can be brought down to the little zoo to help get his mind off his problems," she said.

Research to Benefit Palate

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — If Lionel Farber's research project is successful, fresh crab and shrimp lovers will be able to feast on the seafood delicacies at any time.

Farber, a research biochemist at the University of California's San Francisco Medical Center, is studying better storage methods through the use of heat and other methods to determine whether the shellfish can then be stored under refrigeration without deteriorating.

The storage life of frozen shrimp and crab is limited and they become unpalatable after a few months.

Additionally, "A more efficient and less costly method of preserving shellfish would mean that a greater amount of fish protein could be used than now is possible," he says.
