

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 1, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Recognizing that drug and alcohol abuse is a national, as well as state problem, individuals from across the Commonwealth will meet on Friday, March 5, to address the issue.

The session, entitled "Development of Statewide Higher Education Binge-Drinking Prevention Coalition Utilizing the Ohio Model," will run from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. in 221 Perkins Building on the Eastern Kentucky University campus. Registration is required for attendance.

Among the speakers for the seminar will be Connie Boehm, acting director of student wellness at Ohio State University, and Candace Peters, system development specialist for the Office of Criminal Justice Services. Boehm, who has nearly 20 years experience in drug and alcohol prevention, is a licensed professional counselor and a center associate of the National Higher Education Center for Alcohol and Other Drug Prevention. Peters, who has more than 20 years in criminal justice services, has worked with a variety of groups to develop consensus on possible policy statements and problem solutions.

More than 30 representatives from various colleges and regional prevention centers are accepting the challenge to join in this united effort to combat abuse, according to Judy Krug, coordinator of the Kentucky Region of the Network of Colleges and Universities Committed to the Elimination of Drug and Alcohol Abuse. "We realize that this is a monumental task and that no school can do this alone," she said.

Using a model developed by the Ohio Parents for Drug Free Youth as a guide, the Kentucky contingency hopes to develop a strong network that will utilize its strengths and weaknesses.

Alcohol and other drug abuse is a major problem, affecting all walks of life, noted Krug, who is coordinator of student wellness at Morehead State University. "Not only is there the loss of valuable resources of our youth, but the financial and emotional drain as well. Binge drinking keeps students from being able to perform to their fullest," she added.

Additional information on the prevention program is available by calling (606) 783-5248.

####

Tips

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

HIGHLIGHTS AT MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY

(March 7-13)

Sunday, March 7

1 P.M. EAGLE BASEBALL: MSU vs. Indiana University-Purdue University at Indianapolis, Allen Field; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

2-4 P.M. OPENING RECEPTION: "Paintings by Nan Phelps," Kentucky Folk Art Center; exhibit runs through June 30; gallery hours, Monday-Saturday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Sundays, 1-5 p.m.; admission charge. Additional information: (606) 783-2204.

3 P.M. SENIOR RECITAL: Lori Stewart, bassoon, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

5 P.M. WILMA E. GROTE SYMPOSIUM FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF WOMEN: Opening session featuring best-selling author Sharyn McCrumb as keynote speaker, Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center; 6 p.m. reception; registration fee. Additional information: (606) 783-2004.

8 P.M. JUNIOR RECITAL: Kyle Dixon, trombone, and Aaron Nicholason, euphonium, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Monday, March 8

8 A.M. WILMA E. GROTE SYMPOSIUM FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF WOMEN: Concurrent sessions presented throughout the day, Adron Doran University Center; 6:30 p.m. banquet with keynote address by Dr. Betsy S. Brinson; registration fee. Additional information: (606) 783-2004.

ART EXHIBIT: "High School Art Show," gallery, Claypool-Young Art Building; gallery hours 8 a.m.-4 p.m., weekdays; no charge for viewing. Additional information: (606) 783-5446.

Tuesday, March 9

9 A.M. WILMA E. GROTE SYMPOSIUM FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF WOMEN: Concurrent sessions presented throughout the morning, Adron Doran University Center; registration fee. Additional information: (606) 783-2004.

8 P.M. RECITAL: Jazz Ensemble I, Gordon Towell, director, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

(MORE)

HIGHLIGHTS
2-2-2-2

Wednesday, March 10

2 P.M. EAGLE SOFTBALL: MSU vs. University of Dayton, University Field; free. Additional information: (606) 783-5283.

7 P.M. LECTURE: JOHN DOUGLAS, former FBI serial crime profiler and author of "Mindhunter," Button Auditorium; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2071.

8 P.M. JUNIOR RECITAL: Jessie Wells, guitar, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Thursday, March 11

4 P.M. EAGLE BASEBALL: MSU vs. Rio Grande, Allen Field; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

7:30 P.M. READING BY WOMEN WRITERS, Kentucky Folk Art Center; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2136.

8 P.M. RECITAL: Jazz Ensemble II, Gordon Towell, director, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Friday, March 12

4:30 P.M. SPRING BREAK BEGINS. No classes or office hours, through March 21. Offices reopen and classes resume, March 22, 8 a.m.

####

3-2-99lc

EXHIBIT AT KFAC

Curator Adrian Swain straightens a work in the "Paintings by Nan Phelps" exhibit which is being display at Morehead State University's Kentucky Folk Art Center. A reception, which is free and open to the public, will be held on Sunday, March 7, at 2 p.m. to announce the opening of the exhibit that runs through June 13. Phelps, a native of Laurel County, has exhibited regularly in the Cincinnati area and New York City but gained international recognition among the self-taught artists such as Anna Mary Robertson "Grandma" Moses. Her family donated 26 paintings to the University in 1997. The Kentucky Folk Art Center is open 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Monday through Saturday, and 1-5 p.m., Sundays.

(MSU photo by Tim Holbrook)

3-2-99py

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689 606-783-2030

March 3, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---At its Feb. 26 meeting, Morehead State University's Board of Regents approved residence hall fire safety projects that will be implemented this year and next year for an estimated $1,690,000.

The board adopted resolutions that would allow the university to utilize $400,000 from the University's Housing and Dining System Repair and Maintenance Reserve to be used for the installation of sprinkler systems and upgrade other fire safety systems in two student residence halls, 1999; three halls, 2000, three halls, 2001, two halls, 2002, and three halls, 2003. The Board also approved authorizing the university to issue Housing and Dining System Revenue Bonds in order to complete the project over a five-year period.

Another $1.5 million was allocated for the residence hall improvement projects which will include roof replacements and elevator repairs and upgrades.

The Board also was informed that the renovation projects will mean increase of $35 in residence hall fees per semester.

In other matters, the board approved a lease/purchase agreement with the MSU Foundation, Inc., authorizing the University to acquire an approximate 62-acre parcel of land adjoining the MSU golf course on U.S. 60 east of Morehead. The tract will be used for a soccer field for the women's soccer team, to enhance the driving range and to improve the safety of the existing nine-hole golf course.

Tenure and promotion to associate professor rank was approved for two faculty members: Dr. Lynne Taetzsch and Dr. Timothy Pitts. Sabbatical leaves, contingent upon the availability of funds in the academic department, was granted to Dr. William Green, Dr. Robert Grueninger and Dr. James Smallwood for Spring 2000, and Dr. Sarah Morrison for the coming year.

A preliminary figure of 7,548 was given as MSU's enrollment for the current semester. The final count will be announced at the next meeting.

The board also re-elected the following to serve as officers for the coming year: L.M. (Sonny) Jones of Frankfort, chair; Buckner Hinkle Jr. of Lexington, vice chair, and Carol Johnson of Morehead, secretary. Reappointed by the regents was Porter Dailey, MSU vice president for administration and fiscal services, as treasurer.

#####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 3, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A series of films highlighting the challenges and accomplishments of women will be presented at Morehead State University during Women's History Month.

Each film will be shown in 111 Rader Hall, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

The series begins on Tuesday, March 9, with "My Brilliant Career," hosted by Dr. Nancy Peterson, associate professor of English. In this work, the oldest daughter of a poor Australian ranch family must choose between her aspirations as an artist and a less-than-perfect love affair. Nominated for an Academy Award in 1979, the film was directed by Gillian Armstrong and stars Judy Davis and Sam Neill.

On Wednesday, March 10, the series will feature "Salt of the Earth," hosted by Eric Swank, assistant professor of sociology. The film, written, directed and produced by members of the "Hollywood Ten" who were blacklisted after its release in 1953, documents the struggles of striking mineworkers in New Mexico and highlights the prominent role of women in union activism after the men are prevented from picketing. Directed by Herbert Biberman, the movie stars Juan Chacon and Will Geer.

"The Joy Luck Club" will be presented on Tuesday, March 23, hosted by Dr. Rebecca Katz, assistant professor of sociology. This 1993 film based on the novel by Amy Tan, explores the oppressive treatment of women in traditional China as well as the contemporary generational and cultural conflict among four Chinese-American daughters and their Chinese-born mothers. Directed by Wayne Wang, the film stars Rosalind Chao and Ming-Na Wen.

On Tuesday, March 30, "A Woman Called Moses" will be featured, hosted by Peggy Overly, coordinator of minority student affairs. The life story of Harriet Tubman, this film portrays the bravery of the ex-slave and "conductor" of the Underground Railroad. Tubman made 19 journeys into the Deep South and assisted more than 300 slaves to freedom. Considered the "Moses" of her people, Tubman herself escaped from bondage, claiming that "there was one of two things I had a right to, liberty or death. If I could not have one, I would have the other; for no man should take me alive." Cicely Tyson and Will Geer star in the film.

(MORE)

FILMS
2-2-2-2

Concluding the series on Wednesday, March 31, "The Dollmaker" will be presented, hosted by Kathleen Winter, instructor of English. Jane Fonda won an Emmy for her role as Gertie Nevels in this 1984 film adaptation of Harriet Arnow's story of a poor woman from Kentucky who migrates to Detroit in the 1940s. Nevels deals with discrimination against "hillbillies" as well as poverty but finds salvation in her skills as a whittler of wood. The feature also stars Levon Helm and Geraldine Page.

The film series is sponsored by MSU's Interdisciplinary Women's Studies Program, the Office of Undergraduate Programs, and the Office of the Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs. All presentations are free and open to the public.

Additional information is available by calling Susan Eacker, assistant professor of history and coordinator of women's studies, at (606) 783-2459.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 5, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---For more than two decades, John Douglas has been assisting police departments and prosecutors, becoming both the predator and the prey, as he researched some of the world's most notorious crimes.

On Wednesday, March 10, he will share some of those experiences when he visits Morehead State University for a public lecture that begins at 7 p.m. in Button Auditorium. There is no charge for attending and reservations are not necessary.

Douglas is a 25-year veteran of the FBI where he headed the investigative support unit. During that time, he confronted, interviewed and studied dozens of serial killers and assassins, including Charles Manson, Sirhan Sirhan, John Wayne Gacy, David "Son of Sam" Berkowitz and James Earl Ray.

He developed his first psychological profile of the Unabomber case but his "pioneering techniques" were ignored by others in the field. Today, profiling criminals is standard procedure and has become a popular theme for television shows, among them "The X-Files" and "Millennium."

For his life in law enforcement, the special agent was the model for the Scott Glenn character in "The Silence of the Lambs." He is the author of three national best sellers, "Obsession," "Mind Hunter" and "Unabomber: On the Trail of America's Most Wanted Serial Killer."

Now retired, Douglas travels the country offering an inside look at some of the most intriguing criminal cases in which he has been involved. Drawing from his career, he demonstrates the struggle between investigators and assailants and shows how understanding the mind and motives of an opponent can influence success in any arena.

The program is sponsored by MSU's Student Government Association and Student Activities Council. Additional information is available by calling (606) 783-2071.

####

Photo

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

FRENCHBURG GUESTS VISIT MSU

WMKY 90.3 FM, Morehead State's public radio to the mountains, welcomed its supporters during the holiday open house in December. From left, Janean Freeman, WMKY assistant music director, talked with Eula Klenk and Lexie Collier of Frenchburg. The station will hold its annual Spring Fund Drive March 22-28. Additional information is available by calling (800) 286-9659 or 783-2001.

(MSU photo by Jeff Spradling)

3-5-99py

menifee co. News

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 5, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Swim lessons for all ages and skill levels will again be offered this spring by Morehead State University's Office of Continuing Education.

Saturday swim lessons will be offered in McClure Pool in the Academic-Athletic Center, beginning March 27 at 9 a.m. Classes will be determined by level of experience and skill level. The fee for the six-week program is $50.

Additional information and registration is available by calling (606) 783-2875 before March 27.

####

hm

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 5, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Spring is coming soon and if learning to ride a motorcycle is a personal goal, register now for one of the courses offered by Morehead State University's Office of Continuing Education in conjunction with the Kentucky Motorcycle Program.

Among the courses scheduled is the Basic Riding and Street Skills that is designed for non-riders or those who want to brush up on their skills. The course offers instruction that covers on-cycle maneuvers in a controlled, off-street environment, learning the proper mounting technique and emergency braking. Participants must be at least 16 years of age to register and those under 18 must have parental consent.

RSS will be offered on four weekends during the spring: March 19-21, April 9-11, May 7-9 and June 18-20. Each weekend will follow this schedule; Friday, 6-10 p.m., Saturday, 8a.m. to 4 p.m. and Sunday, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.. The fee for RSS is $60.

For riders who want to fine-tune their street skills, the Experienced Rider Course may be an option. Learning the mental strategies to avoid risk will be discussed in the classroom instruction portion. The course is designed for individuals who have a current motorcycle license, have access to a street cycle and have riding experience.

The advanced class is a one-day offering, held from 9 a.m. to 5p.m. Scheduled dates are April 3, May 15, and June 5. The fee for ERC is $40.

Due to limited class size, early registration is encouraged. All classes begin at the Waterfield Hall Conference Center.

Additional information and registration is available by calling (606) 783-2875 or by mail to the Office of Continuing Education, Morehead State University, Motorcycle Registration, 111 Waterfield Hall Conference Center, UPO 3000, Morehead, KY 40351.

#####

hm

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 5, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, KY.---Morehead State University's Small Business Development Center and the Kentucky-Tennessee District of the Internal Revenue Service will conduct a tax workshop for new and established business owners on Tuesday, March 30.

The session will be held from 3 to 6 p.m. in 210 Combs Building .

Topics to be discussed include filing requirements, basics of record keeping, business use of income, estimated and self-employment tax, withholding of income and social security tax, federal unemployment tax, deposit requirements and electronic federal payment system.

Because of limited seating, pre-registration is necessary. There is no charge for attendance.

The Kentucky Small Business Development Centers are partnership programs with and partially funded by the U.S. Small Business Administration. All training programs, sponsored or co-sponsored by SBDC, are available to all individuals without regard to race, color, sex, creed or national origin. Special arrangements for the disabled will be made if requested in advance.

Additional information and registration are available by calling the University's SBDC at (606) 783-2895.

####

hm

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 5, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.--- The women of Kappa Delta sorority at Morehead State University say, "It shouldn't hurt to be a child."

That's why the group is hosting its annual "KD Klassic Dude" male beauty pageant on Thursday, March 25, at 6 p.m. in Breckinridge Auditorium. Proceeds from the event will go to the National Committee to Prevent Child Abuse, the sorority's national philanthropy. Admission at the door is $2.

Advance tickets will be sold Monday through Thursday, March 22-25, for $1 each.

In the competition, contestants will participate in various categories including sportswear, theme/talent, and on-stage interview. All MSU student organizations are invited to sponsor an entrant to compete for the title. The entry fee is $25.

Additional information is available by calling Brandi Hogg, Whitesburg senior and this year's Shamrock Project chairperson, at (606) 780-9049.

####

hm

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689 606-783-2030

March 5, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The Delta Tau Chapter of Kappa Delta social sorority at Morehead State University has announced 10 new pledges.

Lee Remington, a Louisville junior and vice president membership, welcomed the group that included:

*Marsha Alfrey, a freshman pre-physical therapy major from Clearfield, the daughter of Roger and Lona Alfrey;

*Jaclyn Roberts, a junior business management major from Booneville, the daughter of Wanda and Jackie Roberts;

*Adrienne Raible, a freshman elementary education major from Louisville, the daughter of Larry and Jodie Raible;

*Kim Brannon, a freshman elementary education major from Maysville, the daughter of Charles and Clara Brannon;

*Jennifer Templeton, a freshman accounting major from Maysville, the daughter of Frank and Barbara Templeton;

*Alicia David, a junior biology/pre-physical therapy major from Goshen, the daughter of Chris and Carolyn Davis;

*Kristin Germann, a sophomore electronic media major from Ripley, Ohio, the daughter of Perianne and Robert Germann;

*Sara Johnson, a freshmen pre-veterinarian major from Wellston, Ohio, the daughter of Perry and Diane Johnson;

*Lorabeth Turner, a freshman from Cawood, the daughter of Johnny and Marilyn Turner;

*Heather McKenzie, a junior advertising and public relations major from Paintsville, the daughter of Garry and Pam McKenzie.

Speaking for the chapter, Holly Merrell, a Florence junior and KD vice president public relations, congratulated the new pledges on their accomplishments.

####

hm

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---WMKY-FM 90.3, Morehead State's public radio the mountains, will hold its Spring Fund Drive, Monday, March 22, through Sunday, March 28.

By offering an unduplicated public radio service to this rural region allows WMKY to serve as one place where many communities may connect for a lively and diverse array of entertainment, information and music that is educationally and culturally useful.

The listener is the most important connection that keeps the station going, according to Gordon Nichols, WMKY station manager. "The dollar commitment from our listeners and underwriters has a direct bearing on the grants received annually from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting. The CPB looks at the number of listeners and the amount they give each year."

The entire grant amount goes toward the purchase of programs from National Public Radio, Nichols said.

"Morehead State University invests a substantial amount of money into our operation and support of this station can never be applauded enough," Nichols added. The station is a part of the University's marketing program. Each semester, approximately 25 students are employed, gaining valuable experience in the field of broadcasting.

During the past year, ratings have shown a rise in listenership, Nichols said. "We feel that adding more classical music in the nighttime hours and NPR programs like "Talk of the Nation" in the afternoon has helped listener numbers grow."

Ratings indicate that WMKY listeners have increased the number of hours each week that they tune in, Nichols said. "They depend on the news, information and entertainment that the station provides."

During the spring drive, WMKY will highlight its locally-produced programs. Among them are "Bluegrass Diversion," "Moonlighting" and "Nothing But the Blues." "The weekday listeners have always been faithful to pledge support but the weekend programs have specialized," Nichols said.

To pledge financial support to WMKY, call 1-800-286-9659 or 606-783-2001; mail a check, payable to WMKY Fund, to Palmer Development House, Morehead State University, Morehead, KY 40351. Credit cards will be accepted.

#####

Tips

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

HIGHLIGHTS AT MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY

(March 14-27)

Monday, March 15

SPRING BREAK, through March 19. No classes or office hours; essential staffing only. Offices reopen and classes resume March 22 at 8 a.m.

Saturday, March 20

3 P.M. EAGLE BASEBALL: MSU vs. Murray State University, doubleheader, also Sunday, March 21, 1 p.m., Allen Field; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

Monday, March 22

ART EXHIBIT: "High School Art Show," gallery, Claypool-Young Art Building; gallery hours 8 a.m.-4 p.m., weekdays; no charge for viewing. "High School Art Day," March 24. Additional information: (606) 783-5446.

ART EXHIBIT: "Paintings by Nan Phelps," through June 30, Kentucky Folk Art Center, Monday-Saturday, 9 a.m.-5p.m.; admission charge. Additional information: (606) 783-2204.

WMKY-90.3 FM 90.3 SPRING FUND DRIVE, through March 28; to pledge financial support for Morehead State's public radio station, call (800) 286-9659 or (606) 783-2001.

10 A.M. – 5 P.M. CENTRAL KENTUCKY BLOOD DRIVE, Button Drill Room; also March 23. Additional information: (606) 783-4924 or (800) 775-2522.

Tuesday, March 23

8 A.M. – 2 P.M. WELLFEST, Adron Doran University Center. Additional information: Amy Hall (606) 783-2083.

6 P.M. EAGLE BASEBALL: MSU vs. Thomas More College, Allen Field; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

6 P.M. UNIVERSITY SATELLITE SERIES: "America's Wake-up Call: 47 Years with 'Today'," 116 Breckinridge Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2602.

8 P.M. CONCERT: U.S. Army Band Woodwind Quintet, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

(MORE)

HIGHLIGHTS

2-2-2-2

Wednesday, March 24

6 P.M. EAGLE BASEBALL: MSU vs. University of Kentucky, Allen Field; free.
Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

Thursday, March 25

2 P.M. SIGNING CEREMONY: 2+2 Agreement in Elementary Education, in conjunction with Ashland Community College, ACC Teleconference Room. Additional information: (606) 783-2030.

Friday, March 26

3 P.M. TEACHER EDUCATION REFORM SERIES, newspaper editors will offer opinions on teacher education reform, 419 Reed Hall; free; part five of the seven-part series
"Teaching the Teachers for the 21st Century: A Morehead State University Symposium."
Additional information: (606) 783-2452.

####

3-8-99lc

Photo

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

U.S. ARMY QUINTET TO PERFORM

The United States Continental Army Band Woodwind Quintet will perform Tuesday, March 23, at 8 p.m. in Duncan Recital Hall on the Morehead State University campus. The concert is free and open to the public. Additional information is available by calling (606) 783-2473.

####

3-9-99lc

*Pikeville
Morehead News
Inail Blazer
AD1
Herald Leader (H+E)
Herald Dispatch
Booth Co. Gloyd Co.*

Tips

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

MAY HIGHLIGHTS AT MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY

- May 1, Kentucky Music Teachers' Association Spring Piano Festival, Baird Music Hall, 9 a.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.
- May 1, Eagle Baseball: MSU vs. Southeast Missouri, Allen Field, 3 p.m., doubleheader; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.
- May 2, Eagle Baseball: MSU vs. Southeast Missouri, Allen Field, 1 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.
- May 3, 4, 6 and 7, Final examinations for the Spring 1999 term; reading day, May 5, no exams. Additional information: (606) 783-2008.
- May 4, Estate Planning Seminar, Riggle Room, Adron Doran University Center, 10:15 a.m.; free; speaker Renee Montague of Newberry, Hargraves and Rambicure of Lexington. Reservations and additional information: (606) 783-2033.
- May 5, Eagle Baseball: MSU vs. Belmont, Allen Field, 2:30 p.m., doubleheader; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.
- May 5, All Sports Banquet, Cramer Room, Adron Doran University Center, 6:30 p.m.; ticket required. Additional information: (606) 783-2088.
- May 7, Board of Regents meeting, Adron Doran University Center, time TBA. Additional information: (606) 783-2030.
- May 7, Alumni Awards Banquet, Cramer Room, Adron Doran University Center, time TBA. Additional information: (606) 783-2080.
- May 8, Spring Commencement, Academic-Athletic Center, 10:30 a.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2030.
- May 17, Registration for Summer I classes; classes begin, 8 a.m.; term ends June 11. Additional information: (606) 783-2008.

Due to early press deadlines, some listings subject to change.

#####

3-10-99lc

APRIL HIGHLIGHTS AT MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY

April 1, Senior Recital: Michael Arthur, saxophone, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free.
Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

April 2, Teacher Education Reform Symposium, 419 Reed Hall, 3 p.m., featured speakers will include superintendents, principals and teachers, part six of the seven-part "Teaching the Teachers for the 21st Century: A Morehead State University Symposium." Additional information: (606) 783-2452.

April 2, Eagle Softball: MSU vs. Tennessee State, University Field, 3 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-5283.

April 2, Eagle Baseball: MSU vs. Tennessee Tech., Allen Field, 3 p.m. doubleheader; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

April 3, Eagle Baseball: MSU vs. Tennessee Tech., Allen Field, 1 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

April 3, Eagle Softball: MSU vs. Middle Tennessee, University Field, 2 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-5283.

April 3, International Banquet, Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center, 6 p.m.; admission $7 for adults, $3 for children under 3, or free with a prepared dish. Additional information: (606) 783-2668.

April 5, Senior Recital: Tracy Jordan, flute, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

April 6, Workshop: "Small Business Insurance and Investment Options," Kentucky Folk Art Center, 6-8 p.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2204.

April 6, Phi Kappa Phi Annual Spring Banquet, Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center, 6 p.m.; ticket required. Dr. Agatha H. Burnet, vice president for PKP's North Central Region and president emeritus of Iowa State University's School of Home Economics, is the keynote speaker. Additional information: (606) 783-5102.

April 6, Junior Recital: Daniel Reardon, trombone, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

April 6, Concert: Goo Goo Dolls with New Radicals, Academic-Athletic Center, 8 p.m.; ticket required. Additional information: (606) 783-2071.

April 7, Junior Recital: Dean McCleese, tuba and organ, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

(MORE)

APRIL HIGHLIGHTS

2-2-2-2

April 8, MSU Chamber Singers and Concert Choir, Greg Detweiler, director, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

April 9, MSU Founder's Day: Annual Convocation and Awards Ceremony, Button Auditorium, 10:30 a.m., guest speaker Jody Richards, Kentucky Speaker of the House of Representatives; presentation of Founders Day Award for University Service. Luncheon, Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center, noon, guest speaker Dr. Michael B. McCall, president of the Kentucky Community and Technical College System; MSU fellows and other benefactors of the University to be honored; dedication of Memorial Bricks at Little Bell Tower Plaza, 2 p.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2741.

April 10, Preview Day, Adron Doran University Center, 12:30 p.m. Additional information: (800) 585-6781 or 783-2000.

April 10, Eagle Softball: MSU vs. Austin Peay, University Field, 2 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-5283.

April 11, Eagle Softball: MSU vs. Tennessee-Martin, University Field, 1 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-5283.

April 11, Junior Recital: James Owen, trombone, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

April 12, Red Cross Blood Drive, through April 13, Fields Hall Seminar Room, 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Additional information: (606) 783-5124.

April 12, Phi Kappa Phi Honors Program Showcase, Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center, 5-7 p.m.; reception 7-7:30 p.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2807.

April 13, 15th Annual Morehead State University Regional Foreign Language Festival, competitions at multiple sites including Combs Building, Adron Doran University Center, and Button Auditorium, 8 a.m.-3 p.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2779.

April 13, Eagle Softball: MSU vs. Eastern Kentucky University, University Field, 3 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-5283.

April 13, University Satellite Seminar Series: Crime and Punishment: "Homicide" meets "Law and Order," 116 Breckinridge Hall, 7:30-9 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2602.

April 13, Senior Recital: Vanessa Keeton, saxophone, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

April 13-17, Theatre: "Dancing at Lughnasa," Kibbey Theatre, 8 p.m., also April 18 at 2 p.m.; ticket required. Reservations and additional information: (606) 783-2170.

April 15, MSU Trombone Ensemble, Andrew Glendening, director, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

(MORE)

APRIL HIGHLIGHTS

3-3-3-3

April 16, Junior Recital: Rachel Sams, violin, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

April 17, 1999 Kentucky Science Olympiad, 45 teams will compete for a chance to go to national competition, Adron Doran University Center, 9 a.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2913.

April 18, Senior Recital: Barry Milner, composition, Duncan Recital Hall, 3 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

April 19, Art Exhibit: "Senior Show," through May 6, gallery, Claypool-Young Art Building; gallery hours 8 a.m.-4 p.m., weekdays; no charge for viewing. Opening reception April 21, 7-9 p.m. Additional information: (606) 783-5446.

April 19, University Satellite Seminar Series: Behind the Scenes: "Saturday Night Live," 116 Breckinridge Hall, 7:30-9 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2602.

April 19, Recital: MSU Choirs, Greg Detweiler, director, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

April 20, MSU Jazz Bands "Big Band" Concert, Gordon Towell, director, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

April 21, MSU Faculty Chamber Music Recital, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

April 22, MSU Tuba/Euphonium Ensemble, Stacy Baker, director, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

April 23, Teacher Education Reform Symposium, 419 Reed Hall, 3 p.m., MSU faculty representatives will be featured speakers, part seven of the seven-part "Teaching the Teachers for the 21st Century: A Morehead State University Symposium," free. Additional information: (606) 783-2452.

April 23, Guest Recital: Matt Vaughn, trombone, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

April 24, Fourth Annual Blue/Gold Steer and Heifer Preview Show, Derrickson Agricultural Complex, 1 p.m.; open registration 7-11 a.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2660.

April 24, Eagle Baseball: MSU vs. Middle Tennessee, Allen Field, 3 p.m. doubleheader; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

April 24, Spring Gala: "Jumbalaya Jammin'," Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center, 6 p.m.; ticket required. Additional information: (606) 783-2022.

April 25, Eagle Baseball: MSU vs. Middle Tennessee, Allen Field, 1 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

(MORE)

APRIL HIGHLIGHTS

4-4-4-4

April 25, Academic Awards Convocation, part of Academic Awards Week, Button Auditorium 2 p.m.; reception to follow, lawn of the President's Home. Additional information: (606) 783-2807.

April 25, Concert: MSU Orchestra, Andrew Carlson, director, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

April 26, Research and Creative Productions Luncheon, part of Academic Awards Week, Commonwealth Room, Adron Doran University Center, 11:30 a.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2807.

April 27, Caudill College of Humanities Honors Luncheon, part of Academic Awards Week, Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center, 11:30 a.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2807.

April 27, Eagle Baseball: MSU vs. University of Louisville, Allen Field, 6 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

April 27, MSU OperaWorks: "Die Fledermaus," Roma Prindle, director, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

April 28, College of Education and Behavioral Sciences Honors Breakfast, part of Academic Awards Week, Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center, 7 a.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2807.

April 28, College of Science and Technology Honors Luncheon, part of Academic Awards Week, Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center, 11:30 a.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2807.

April 28, Eagle Baseball: MSU vs. University of Cincinnati, Allen Field, 6 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

April 28, Senior Recital: Tonya Castle, soprano, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

April 29, MSU Concert Band, Susan Creasap, director, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

April 30 College of Business Honors/Scholarship Banquet, part of Academic Awards Week, Commonwealth Room, Adron Doran University Center, 6:30 p.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2807.

Due to early press deadlines, some listings may be subject to change.

####

3-10-99lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689 606-783-2030

March 10, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Morehead State University will be closed for Spring Break, March 15-19; however certain offices and services will be available with minimal staffing.

Regular office hours and classes will resume at 8 a.m. Monday, March 22.

Areas offering services are:

Golf Course: normal operations.

Information Technology: The campus network will be unavailable on March 15 and 16; the administrative computer system (Aims) will not be available March 15-19.

Kentucky Folk Art Center: Monday through Saturday, March 15-20, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

University Post Office: The post office staff will work Monday, Wednesday and Friday, March 15, 17 and 19, from 8 a.m. until noon, sorting mail; no window service available.

Camden-Carroll Library: The library will close at 4:30 p.m. on Friday, March 12 and reopen Sunday, March 21, at 1 p.m.

####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 10, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.--The United States Continental Army Band Woodwind Quintet will perform Tuesday, March 23, at 8 p.m. in Duncan Recital Hall on the campus of Morehead State University.

The quintet is one of many small ensembles whose members are drawn from the musicians who make up the United States Continental Army Band. The group performs several public concerts each year throughout the country, actively recruiting civilian musicians who are interested in a career in music performance.

Based at Fort Monroe, Va., the U.S. Continental Army Band is the successor to bands that have represented that post since 1824. Lieutenant (later Confederate General) Robert E. Lee and his bride were often entertained by the post band during their three-year stay at Fort Monroe. At the end of the Civil War, music drifting from the nearby parade field was one of the few things to break the loneliness of Confederate President Jefferson Davis' two-year confinement at the fort.

A recent recipient of the Army Superior Unit Award, the U.S. Continental Army Band has represented America's Army at such national and international events as the Orange Bowl, Cotton Bowl and Pasadena Tournament of Roses Parades, the 1981 Presidential Inaugural Parade and the World's Fair.

Sponsored by MSU's Department of Music, the woodwind quintet's performance is free and open to the public. Additional information is available by calling (606) 783-2473.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 11, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A free T-shirt, a chance to win a door prize and an opportunity to help others; it's all available at Central Kentucky Blood Center's spring blood drive which is being held at Morehead State University, March 22 and 23.

The drive, which is being held in conjunction with St. Claire Medical Center, will be held in Button Drill Room from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. on the campus. All MSU students, faculty and staff, and members of the community, are encouraged to participate.

This school year has been a banner year for CKBC drives at MSU. Following a successful MSU 101 drive in November, MSU avenged its first-year loss to Eastern Kentucky University by winning the "Battle for Life" challenge in January. Records were broken with 627 pints of blood donated to CKBC.

In addition to door prize drawings, there will be competition for the Greek donor titles for 1998-99. Winners will be announce and prizes awarded at the Greek Awards Banquet.

The goal for the year is 800 pints with the spring goal set at 173 pints. Donors must be in good health, at least 17-years-old and weigh at least 100 pounds. First-time CKBC donors will need to bring an identification card. A pre-donation meal is recommended.

Additional information is available from Randall Combs, campus representative, at 783-4924 or Glen White, CKBC, at (800) 775-2522.

#####

ahn

March 11, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Emma Shader Sample, 98, the last of Morehead State University's seven original faculty members, died Tuesday at the home of a nephew in Louisville.

Funeral services for the former music professor will be Saturday at 10 a.m. at Jesus Our Savior Catholic Church in Morehead, a church she helped establish. Friends may call at the Northcutt and Son Home for Funerals after 7 p.m. Thursday and all day on Friday. Burial will be in Lee Cemetery in Morehead.

She taught at Morehead State Normal School and Teachers College from 1923 through 1929 before marrying William J. (Bill) Sample, a Morehead businessman, who died in 1970.

Mrs. Sample and her six colleagues on the original faculty of the institution were recognized in 1960 when the University named married student apartment buildings for each of them.

Born February 23, 1901, in Springfield, Ky., she was the daughter of the late John Carroll and Sophia Hagen Shader. Her parents and a sister, Mary Louise Shader, also preceded her in death. She is survived by several nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Sample was a graduate of the University of Louisville Conservatory of Music and MSU. She was active in the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs and in local bridge clubs.

Media Advisory

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

EVENT: Licking Valley Extended Campus Center Board of Advisers meeting
DATE: Wednesday, March 24, 1999
TIME: Noon
SITE: Licking Valley Center
1084 Highway 7
West Liberty, KY

Among the items on the agenda will be an update on the site and building project. On hand will be MSU President Ronald G. Eaglin; Dr. Michael Moore, executive vice president for academic affairs; Porter Dailey, vice president for administration and fiscal services; Dr. Dan Connell, associate dean for extended campus programs, and Joe Planck, director of physical plant and site manager for the project.

There also will be a discussion of the third annual golf tournament.

The meeting is open to the public as well as the news media.

#####

3-12-99py

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 12, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Area goat producers, veterinarians and veterinary technicians are invited to attend the Dairy and Meat Goat Symposium on Saturday, March 27, beginning at 8:30 a.m. in 419 Reed Hall on the Morehead State University campus.

Topics for discussion during the morning session will include the use of ultrasound to diagnosis pregnancy in does, practical parasite control for goat producers and wet-lab procedures for parasite identification.

Afternoon topics will include Muslim and East Coast goat meat and dairy consumption markets, Grade A requirements and quality control, healthy issues and benefits of goat meat and dairy products.

Presenters will include Dr. Don Applegate, MSU professor of food animal science; Tom Browning, senior milk inspector from Pendleton County; Ina Hatton, dairy goat producer; Dr. Gil Myers, veterinary parasitologist and meat goat producer, and Barb Lewis and Dr. Philip Prater, MSU assistant professors of veterinary technology.

Four hours of continuing education credit (CEUs) will be offered for veterinarians and veterinary technicians who participate in the symposium.

Registration and additional information are available by calling Dr. Applegate at (606) 783-2671.

#####

lc

March 12, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The Department of Communication at Morehead State University, in association with The Museum of Television and Radio, will present three programs in the continuing University Satellite Seminar Series.

The seminars, which will be presented live via satellite, feature writers, directors, producers and actors from contemporary and historic television programs. Each 90-minute seminar includes highlight clips from the Museum's collection, which offer a basis for the moderated panel discussion. A question-and-answer session gives students at participating locations an opportunity to speak directly to the panelists via telephone.

The spring seminars will include:

- America's Wake-Up Call: 47 Years with "Today," Tuesday, March 23, 6-7:30 p.m.

A ritual for early risers for more than 45 years, "Today" presents the latest developments in domestic and international news along with timely interviews. The show's creative team will discuss the history and production of "Today" as well as how it has defined morning television for more than four decades. Panelists scheduled to appear are: Katie Couric and Matt Lauer, co-anchors; Ann Curry, news anchor; Al Roker, weather reporter, and Jeff Zucker, executive producer.

- Crime and Punishment: "Homicide" Meets "Law & Order," Tuesday, April 13, 7:30-9 p.m. Executives producers Tom Fontana, "Homicide," and Dick Wolf, "Law & Order" will discuss the challenges involved in creating crossover episodes over several seasons, bringing together the casts from both shows and blending their diverse visual and narrative structure while maintaining each show's unique style. they will be joined by Ed Sherin, executive producer, "Law & Order," and director of cross-over episodes.

- Behind the Scenes: "Saturday Night Live," Monday, April 19, 7:30-9 p.m. "Saturday Night Live" and the "Not Ready for Prime Time Players" redefined comedy in the mid-70s with unforgettable characters, devilish impersonations and irreverent humor. Past and present cast members along with the members of the "SNL" creative team will reflect on their experiences on America's landmark comedy showcase. Lorne Michaels, executive producer, will be joined by other panelists.

(MORE)

SEMINARS

2-2-2-2

All seminars may be viewed in 116 Breckinridge Hall on the campus. For more information, contact Thom Yancy, associate professor of electronic media, UPO 791, Morehead State University, Morehead, KY 40351-1689; by calling (606) 783-2602; or by email: t.yancy@morehead-st.edu.

####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 12, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The next meeting of the Morehead State University Quarterback Club will be Tuesday, March 23, at 8 a.m. at Shoney's.

The agenda will include nominations and election of officers. MSU coaches will be in attendance to discuss their season.

The meeting is open to the public.

The Quarterback Club will not meet during MSU's Spring Break, March 15-19.

####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 18, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Across the country and around the state, teacher education reform is a major topic of discussion by individuals from all walks of life. The subject is addressed in most newspapers on a daily basis as Americans voice concerns about ways to revise the educational framework of the state and nation.

What role does the media play in providing information to the public? Can newspapers influence how issues are perceived?

These are among the issues to be discussed when editorial page editors and reporters from the area's leading newspapers speak at the fifth of a seven-part series of "Teaching the Teachers for the 21st Century: A Morehead State University Symposium on the Future of Teacher Education" on Friday, March 26. From its origination point in 419 Reed Hall on the MSU campus, the session will be broadcast on Kentucky Educational Television's Star Channel, beginning at 3 p.m.

The panel of presenters will be John Cannon, editorial page editor for the Daily Independent in Ashland; David V. Hawpe, editorial director for the Courier-Journal in Louisville, and Holly Stepp, higher education reporter, and Linda Blackford, statewide K-12 reporter, with the Lexington Herald-Leader.

The two remaining programs in the series will feature superintendents, principals and teachers from the region on Friday, April 2, and members of MSU's teaching faculty on Friday, April 23.

Additional information on the symposium is available from Dr. Michael Seelig, MSU executive assistant to the president, at (606) 783-2452.

#####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 18, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The calendar of events celebrating Women's History Month at Morehead State University, will feature "Celebrating Women's Voices: A Read-in" on Wednesday, March 24.

The session will run from 11 a.m. until 3 p.m., in the second floor lobby, Adron Doran University.

Members of the MSU family and community are invited to share a reading or performance from a favorite female poet, author, or historical figure. Original works will be accepted as well.

Persons attending may wish to drop by for a few minutes or stay for the duration of the program. Each presentation will be limited to 10-minutes. A sign-up sheet is available at the front desk in ADUC.

As part of the month's activities, a number of scheduled film presentations are on tap. "The Joy Luck Club" will be presented on Tuesday, March 23, with "A Woman Called Moses" on Tuesday, March 30, and "The Dollmaker" on Wednesday, March 31. All films will be shown in 111 Rader Hall beginning at 6:30 p.m.

The Women's History Month activities are sponsored by the Interdisciplinary Women's Studies Program, the Office of Undergraduate Programs and the Office of the Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs. Additional information is available by calling (606) 783-2459.

####

lc

Tips

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

HIGHLIGHTS AT MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY

(March 28-April 3)

Sunday, March 28

3 P.M. GRADUATE RECITAL: Alicia Hudson, horn, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

5 P.M. JUNIOR RECITAL: Shaun R. Popp, saxophone, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

8 P.M. STUDENT RECITAL: Chris Schmidt, senior, tuba, and Jeff Meador, junior, trombone, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Monday, March 29

ART EXHIBIT: "The Paintings of Nan Phelps," through June 30, Kentucky Folk Art Center, Monday-Saturday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m.; admission charge. Additional information: (606) 783-2204.

Tuesday, March 30

10 A.M. GRADUATION FAIR, also March 31, Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2080.

4 P.M. "HOW HARD ARE YOU KNOCKING?": Resume building with Tim Augustine," Riggle Room, Adron Doran University Center; free. Also March 31, Breckinridge Auditorium, 7 p.m. program designed for women; 8:30 p.m., program designed for men. Additional information: (606) 783-2071.

8 P.M. GUEST RECITAL: Dan Burdick, tuba, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Wednesday, March 31

8 A.M. ART EXHIBIT: "Sophomore Art Show," gallery, Claypool-Young Art Building; 8 a.m.-4 p.m., weekdays; no charge for viewing. Opening reception, March 31, 7-9 p.m. Additional information: (606) 783-5446.

2 P.M. EAGLE SOFTBALL: MSU vs. Wright State University, University Field; free. Additional information: (606) 783-5283.

8 P.M. SOPRANO RECITAL: Barbara Parker, senior, and Karen Pescosolido, junior, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

(MORE)

HIGHLIGHTS
2-2-2-2

Thursday, April 1

8 P.M. SENIOR RECITAL: Michael Arthur, saxophone, Duncan Recital Hall; free.
Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Friday, April 2

3 P.M. TEACHER EDUCATION REFORM SYMPOSIUM, 419 Reed Hall, featured speakers will include superintendents, principals and teachers, part six of the seven-part "Teaching the Teachers for the 21st Century: A Morehead State University Symposium."
Additional information: (606) 783-2452.

3 P.M. EAGLE SOFTBALL: MSU vs. Tennessee State, University Field; free.
Additional information: (606) 783-5283.

3 P.M. EAGLE BASEBALL: MSU vs. Tennessee Tech., Allen Field, doubleheader; free.
Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

Saturday, April 3

1 P.M. EAGLE BASEBALL: MSU vs. Tennessee Tech., Allen Field; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

2 P.M. EAGLE SOFTBALL: MSU vs. Middle Tennessee, University Field; free.
Additional information: (606) 783-5283.

6 P.M. INTERNATIONAL BANQUET, Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center; admission $7 for adults, $3 for children under 3, or free with a prepared dish. Additional information: (606) 783-2668.

####

3-22-99lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 22, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The 1999 Boyd, Carter and Greenup Counties Small Business Awards Committee needs your help in identifying candidates for this year's Small Business Awards.

Small business owners and individuals who promote the interest of small business located in Boyd, Carter and Greenup Counties are eligible for nomination.

The deadline for nominations is Friday, April 30. Wnners will be honored at an awards ceremony slated for Wednesday, May 26.

Additional information on the award or to request a nomination packet is available by calling (606) 329-8011.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 22, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ASHLAND, Ky.---Two self-improvement seminars will be offered by Morehead State University's Ashland Extended Campus Center in cooperation with Ashland's Department of Employment Services on Tuesday and Wednesday, March 30 and 31.

"Stress and Time Management" is scheduled for March 30, with "Self-Esteem Building and Assertiveness Training" to be presented on March 31. Debbie Smith of Our Lady of Bellefonte Hospital will be the featured speaker each day.

The sessions, which will run from 1 to 3:30 p.m. each day, will be held at MSU's extended campus center at 1401 Winchester Avenue, Ashland. Both seminars are free and open to the public. Due to limited seating, pre-registration is necessary.

Registration and additional information are available by calling the SBDC office at (606) 329-8011.

All training programs, sponsored or co-sponsord by MSU's SBDC, are available to all individuals without regard to race, color, sex, creed or national origin. Speacial arrangements for the disabled will be made if requested in advance.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 22, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The second annual Steve Hamilton Charity Golf Tournament will be held Saturday, April 24, at SunnyBrook, Morehead State University's public golf course.

Proceeds from the tournament will benefit the American Cancer Society in honor of Hamilton, a former professional basketball and baseball player, who served as director of athletics at MSU for 11 years prior to his death in 1997.

A two-person scramble format will be used in the 18-hole competition. The cost for participation is $70 per team of two. First flight will begin at 9 a.m. with second flight starting at noon.

A complimentary lunch and dinner will be served with an awards ceremony to begin at 5 p.m. Prizes will be awarded for various aspects of competition, including the longest drive and closest initial placement to the hole.

The registration deadline is April 9.

The tournament has been organized by MSU graduate students enrolled in REC 604, Leisure and Recreation, under the direction of Dr. Reginald F. Overton, assistant professor of sports administration and recreation.

Additional information and registration are available by calling members of the class: Joe Crawford, (606) 783-2083; Amy Mazner, 783-5137; Derek Burton, 783-2245, or Dr. Overton at 783-2176.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 22, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Insurance and investment options for small business owners is the focus of a seminar that will be held on Tuesday, April 6, at 6 p.m. at the Kentucky Folk Art Center.

The two-hour program, sponsored by Morehead State University's Small Business Development Center in conjunction with KFAC, is designed to help small business owners develop a workable retirement plan and receive the latest information on investment options, tax laws and interest rates.

Topics for discussion will include what to expect from the business insurance experience and what business owners need to know regarding property and casualty insurance. Life, disability and health insurance issues also will be discussed.

A question and answer session will follow the program, allowing attendants an opportunity to address specific concerns. Each participant will receive a portfolio notebook.

All training programs, sponsored or co-sponsored by SBDC, are available to all individuals without regard to race, color, sex, creed or natural origin. Special arrangements for the disabled will be made if requested in advance.

Additional information and registration are available by calling the KFAC at (606) 783-2204.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 23, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Board of Stewards for the newly established Campus Partnership Fund at Morehead State University has been named.

Serving as members of the board are: Mike Walters, fiscal services, as chair; Al Baldwin, academic affairs; Jeff Barker, environment, health and safety; Jami Hornbuckle, Ashland Area Extended Campus Center; Wayne Morella, industrial education; Ralph Shoaf, teacher education program; Russ Thurman, information technology; Mike Wetherholt, research, grants and contracts, and Robin Wicker, MSU Training Resource Center. Mike Seelig, office of the president, and Mindy Highley, development and alumni relations, will serve as ex-officio members.

The fund was initiated by MSU President Ronald G. Eaglin in 1998 to attract unrestricted contributions which would be matched 50 cents to the dollar by the MSU Foundation. The distribution of the monies would be governed by a Board of Stewards comprised of faculty and staff members selected from donors.

The University's faculty and staff contributed $90,220.04 in gifts and pledges to the "1998 Campus Giving Campaign" during the two-month period last year. Of that amount, $10,649.50 went to the Campus Partnership Fund. The MSU Foundation will match all contributions to the fund received by June 30.

The board is currently considering parameters and strategies for distribution of the funds that will be announced in the fall semester.

####

Photo

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

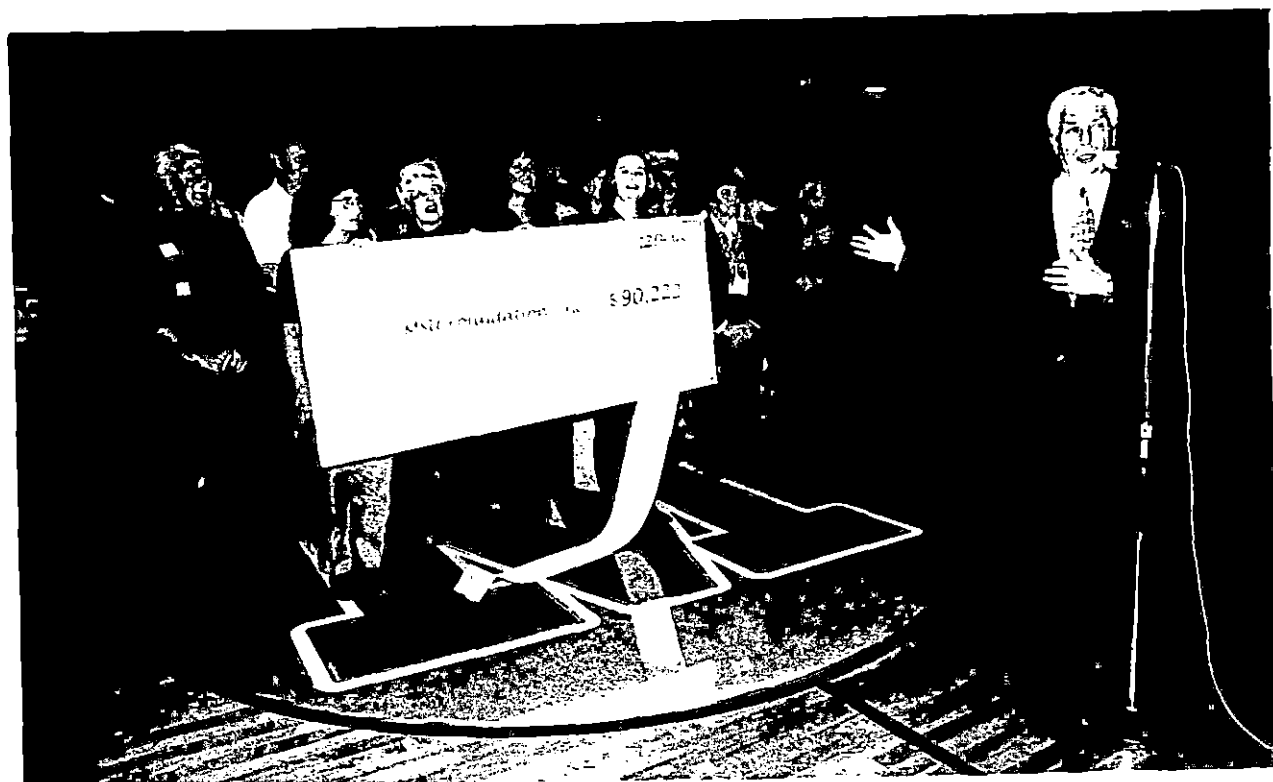

606-783-2030

MSU EXCEEDED GOAL IN CAMPUS CAMPAIGN

In its first campus-wide effort, Morehead State University faculty, staff and students raised $90,220.04 in gifts and pledges in the "1998 Campus Giving Campaign," a 19 percent increase of the $76,000 goal. At the end of the two-month campaign, the 40 volunteers were publicly recognized for their efforts during ceremonies at a home basketball game where the group presented President Ronald G. Eaglin with the large check symbolic of the accomplishment. A Board of Stewards has been established to determine distribution of the $10,649.50 that was contributed for unrestricted use to the Campus Partnership Fund. This fund will be matched 50 cents to the dollar by the MSU Foundation on all monies received by June 30.

(MSU photo by Tim Holbrook)

3-23-99pv

*Morehead News
Statement
Oral Blazer*

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

CANCELLATION

March 23, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The concert by MSU Baird Winds, scheduled for Monday, March 29, on the Morehead State University campus, has been cancelled.

####

py

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 24, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The Listserv for the Teaching, Learning and Technology Roundtable (TLTR) Steering Group at Morehead State University is up and running. A kickoff gathering will be held on Thursday, April 1, from 1 to 4 p.m. in the Eagle Meeting Room and Eagle Dining Room, Adron Doran University Center.

All faculty, staff and students are invited to join in an unmoderated discussion of topics related to the use and integration of technology in the classroom. To join the list, send e-mail to majordomo@morehead-st.edu with a message to Subscribe tltr. The forum will allow attendants to ask questions or offer helpful advice to colleagues.

Join the listserv for updates and additional information.

The TLTR will provide input to institutional leaders to improve educational plans, examine academic policies and allocate resources related to the use of technology in the teaching and learning process.

####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 29, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.--Morehead State University's chapter of the Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi will hold its annual spring banquet on Tuesday, April 6, beginning at 6 p.m. in the Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center.

Dr. Agatha H. Burnet, vice president of PKP's North Central Region, will be the guest speaker at the banquet. She is a professor emeritus of the School of Home Economics at Iowa State University.

Following dinner, freshmen who have achieved a 4.0 grade point average last semester will be honored, scholarships will be awarded to outstanding sophomores, and new members will be inducted.

The cost for dinner is $13 per person. Checks, made payable to Phi Kappa Phi, may be sent to Helen Williams, PKP secretary, Camden-Carroll Library, MSU, Morehead, KY 40351.

Additional information and reservations, which must be made in advance, are available from Williams at (606) 783-5102.

####

lc

HIGHLIGHTS AT MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY

(April 4-10)

Monday, April 5

ART EXHIBIT: "The Paintings of Nan Phelps," through June 13, Kentucky Folk Art Center, Monday-Saturday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Sundays, 1-5 p.m.; admission charge. Additional information: (606) 783-2204.

ART EXHIBIT: "Sophomore Show," through April 9, gallery, Claypool-Young Art Building; 8 a.m.-4 p.m. weekdays; no charge for viewing. Additional information: (606) 784-5446.

8 P.M. SENIOR RECITAL: Tracy Jordan, flute, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Tuesday, April 6

6 P.M. WORKSHOP: "Small Business Insurance and Investment Options," Kentucky Folk Art Center. Additional information: (606) 783-2204.

6 P.M. PHI KAPPA PHI ANNUAL SPRING BANQUET, Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center; ticket required. Dr. Agatha H. Burnet, vice president for PKP's North Central Region and president emeritus of Iowa State University's School of Home Economics, is the keynote speaker. Additional information: (606) 783-5102.

8 P.M. JUNIOR RECITAL: Daniel Reardon, trombone, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

8 P.M. CONCERT: Goo Goo Dolls with New Radicals, Academic-Athletic Center; ticket required. Additional information: (606) 783-2071.

Wednesday, April 7

8 P.M. JUNIOR RECITAL: Dean McCleese, tuba and organ, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Thursday, April 8

8 P.M. RECITAL: MSU Chamber Singers and Concert Choir, Greg Detweiler, director, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

(MORE)

HIGHLIGHTS

2-2-2-2

Friday, April 9

10:30 A.M. MSU FOUNDERS DAY: Annual Convocation and Awards Ceremony, Button Auditorium, guest speaker Jody Richards, Kentucky Speaker of the House of Representatives; presentation of Founders Day Award for University Service. Luncheon, Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center, noon, guest speaker Dr. Michael B. McCall, president of the Kentucky Community and Technical College System; MSU fellows and other benefactors of the University to be honored; dedication of Memorial Bricks at Little Bell Tower Plaza, 2 p.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2741.

Saturday, April 10

12:30 P.M. PREVIEW DAY, Adron Doran University Center. Additional information: (800) 585-6781 or 783-2000.

2 P.M. EAGLE SOFTBALL: MSU vs. Austin Peay, University Field; free. Additional information: (606) 783-5283.

####

lc

March 29, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Some ride a bicycle for transportation, others for the fun of it. Ryan Huff, a Morehead State University junior speech communication major from Marion County, is going the extra mile for those with disabilities.

Make that 700 "extra miles" on a bicycle as part of "Gear Up Florida." On May 14, Huff will join 23 other college students for a 14-day trip from Miami to Tallahassee.

The 1999 Gear Up Florida team are all members of Pi Kappa Phi fraternity. During the trip, they will travel an average of 60 miles each day, making presentations and participating in special events, often meeting those for whom they are riding. It's all being done to promote the message of Push America--improving lives of those with disabilities through service, volunteerism, education and awareness.

Huff became involved in the project during his freshman year at MSU when he joined the group that worked at Camp Hope in Clemson, S.C., making the camp handicapped accessible. When the opportunity to participate in Gear Up Florida came along, he knew he wanted to participate because "those with handicaps are people, too."

Riding the 700 miles will be exhaustive for Huff even though he has been training for the expedition. If an experienced bicycle is an asset, he is making progress. Fraternity brother and MSU alumnus Paul Cantrell of Frankfort, who participated in the project in 1994, has loaned him the use of his bicycle.

Huff, who enjoys hiking and camping, is a volunteer in MSU's Office of Admissions and works for the marketing director in the Department of Athletics.

In addition to raising awareness, the Gear Up Florida Team will raise more than $40,000 for future educational projects and programs for Push America. Huff and the other team members must each raise a minimum of $1,500 to qualify.

Huff, the son of Mary and Michael Huff, has been involved in a number of fund raising activities including toll roads and scaffold raise. He also sponsored a raffle, selling tickets on an autographed basketball.

(MORE)

HUFF
2-2-2-2

Anyone interested in "Going the Extra Mile" may make a tax-deductible donation to Push America, on behalf of Huff. He may be reached at (606) 783-1722.

####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 29, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Arrangements are being finalized for a variety of activities during Morehead State University's Founders Day on Friday, April 9.

The University will recognize those individuals who have made significant contributions to MSU's growth through the years, according to Dr. Sue Luckey, chair of the 1999 Founders Day Committee.

The day will begin with a special breakfast for retired faculty and staff at which MSU President Ronald G. Eaglin will recognize new retirees.

The annual convocation and awards ceremony, set for 10:30 a.m. in Button Auditorium, will open with an academic procession. Presentation of the Founders Day Award for University Service will be made and Jody Richards, speaker of the House of Representatives, will be the convocation speaker. The event is free and open to the public.

An Adair County native, Richards began his legislative career in 1976 when he won the race for 20th district seat in the House, a position he holds today. While in his first term, he was asked to chair the House's Education Committee and later played an instrumental role in engineering the state's education reforms through his positions on the state Task Force on Education Reform, Gov. Martha Layne Collins' Excellence in Education Committee, Southern Legislative Conference's Education Committee and Legislative Advisory Council of the Southern Regional Education Board.

In 1987, Richards was chosen to serve as the Majority Caucus chairman, one of the body's five leadership positions, and in 1995 he was chosen Speaker of the House.

Richards, who once held a teaching position at Western Kentucky University in Bowling Green, earned his undergraduate degree in English from Kentucky Wesleyan College in Owensboro and a master's degree in journalism from the University of Missouri.

Following this event, new MSU Fellows and other benefactors of the University will be honored during a noon luncheon in the Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center. Dr. Michael B. McCall, president of the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, will be the guest speaker. Tickets, at $10 per person, must be purchased in advance.

(MORE)

Founders Day
2-2-2-2

In the afternoon, there will be a dedication ceremony for the installation of bricks in the Memorial Plaza which surrounds the Little Bell Tower. Also, a historical marker for the Navy School will be unveiled on Lappin Lawn.

Ticket information and reservations are available by calling Dr. Luckey at (606) 783-2741.

Serving on the Founders Day committee in addition to Dr. Luckey are Kent Barber, Gene Caudill, Vivian Cyrus, Holly DeMint, Dr. Charles Derrickson, Dr. William Higginbotham, Melinda Higley, Tami Jones, Keith Kappes, Rebecca McGinnis, Dr. Michael R. Moore, Sheree Nichols, Janet Ratliff, Ralph Shoaf and Pauline Young.

####

SALYERSVILLE NATIVE STANDS BIGGER THAN LIFE

Laura Joseph, a junior elementary education major at Morehead State University, is smiling down from a billboard that was recently installed on the Mountain Parkway near her home in Magoffin County. Joseph, the daughter of Joyce and Phillip Joseph of Salyersville, is the granddaughter of the late Ethel Mullins Joseph and G.V. Joseph Sr. of Salyersville and Edwin and Hilda Lacy Benton of Cannel City and the great-granddaughter of Mattie Lacy of Cannel City.

(MSU photo by Tim Holbrook)

3-29-99py

Bath Co. News Outlook
Morehead News
Licking Valley Courier
Salyersville Ind.
Daily Ind.
TB
Raconteur

Media Advisory

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

EVENT: Meeting of the Audit Committee of the MSU Board of Regents

DATE: Friday, April 2, 1999

TIME: 9 a.m.

SITE: Riggle Room, Adron Doran University Center

The committee will meet to discuss audit services for the 1998-99 fiscal year and approve the minimum scope on the annual audit for the year ending June 30, 1999. The group also will receive the internal audit status report.

While the committee is composed of four regents, if a total of six regents are present, this could constitute a special called meeting of the board.

The meeting is open to the public and the media as well.

#####

3-30-99py

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 30, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---What better way to learn about education in the classroom than to ask those who are down in the trenches?

Four education practitioners will serve as panelists for the sixth session of the "Teaching the Teachers for the 21st Century: A Morehead State University Symposium on the Future of Teacher Education" on Friday, April 2. The series is free and open to the public.

Scheduled to participate are Ronnie Back, superintendent of Russell Independent Schools; Diane Johnson, science teacher at Lewis County High School; Helen Pennington, principal of Morgan County Middle School, and Fran Salyer of the Kentucky Department of Education and National Middle School President.

The two-hour program will begin at 3 p.m. in 419 Reed Hall on the MSU campus.

Since the special series began in late January, speakers have addressed teacher education reform at the national and state level, including representatives from the Council on Postsecondary Education, Department of Education and Prichard Committee for Academic Excellence. The last session on Friday, April 23, will feature members of MSU's teacher education faculty.

####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 30, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---If you are tired of the same old menu and would like to sample foods from other lands, perhaps attending the International Banquet, hosted by the Cosmopolitan Club at Morehead State University, would suit your taste.

The banquet, scheduled for Saturday, April 3, at 5:30 p.m. in the Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center, will feature a variety of favorites from around the world.

Admission is free to each person who brings a prepared dish. Tickets also may be purchased at a cost of $7 for adults, $5 for MSU students with a valid I.D., or $3 for children under 12.

Tickets are available in advance from Erman Satriadji, Indonesian graduate student, at (606) 783-4940. Additional information on the banquet is available from Thien-Chee Chaw, Malaysian junior, at (606) 783-3983.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 30, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Morehead's Occupational and Academic Retreat (MOAR) program, hosted by Morehead State University, will participate in the federally funded Summer Food Service Program for Children. The program operates under guidelines similar to those of public school food service programs.

Taking part in this program enables the sponsors to hold down costs so that most families can afford to send their children to camp.

The program is available to the 30 MOAR participants selected by JTPA eligibility, school counselor recommendations, and interviews conducted by the MOAR program director. All children will be served the same meals at no separate charge regardless of race, color, national origin, age, sex, or disability and there is no discrimination in the food service.

The following scale is the current family-size and income criteria used in determining eligibility for children at camp sites:

Family Size	Income Eligibility Standards
1	$14,893
2	$20,073
3	$25,253
4	$30,433
5	$35,613
6	$40,793
7	$45,973
8	$51,153
For each additional family member add	5,032

Additional information on this program is available by calling Charlie Jones, MOAR Coordinator, at (606) 783-2005.

Individuals who believe they may have been discriminated against in the Summer Food Service Program may write to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, DC 20250.

#####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

March 30, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Morehead State University's seventh annual gala, "Jambalaya Jammin'," set for Saturday, April 24, will transport guests to the blue bayou where trumpets blare, the smell of Creole and Cajun cuisine abounds and everyone moves along the French Quarter at a carnival pace.

Invitations have been mailed for this whimsical evening of fun that will benefit the University's academic programs.

"Past galas have raised more than $200,000, enabling various academic departments to purchase equipment, provide enrichment experiences for students and for outreach programs in the region," according to Mrs. Bonnie Eaglin, coordinator of the event. She, along with Dr. Christopher Gallaher and Mrs. Susette Redwine, serve as the gala's executive committee.

Gala-goers may chose between two packages for the evening, both have a reservation deadline of April 9. The deluxe package, which is $125 per person, begins with a 6 p.m. reception at the Adron Doran University Center, followed by dinner at 6:30 p.m. Valet parking will be provided.

Those selecting the second level package, $50 per person, will begin their evening with a light buffet and reception at 7 p.m. in the Patti Bolin Room, Lloyd Cassity Building.

This year's gala-goers will be treated to "Da Big Easy" Musical Revue, featuring the Ragin' Cajun, in Button Auditorium. Afterwards, the entire party moves to ADUC for dancing to rock-n-roll, big band and classical music, fun and delicious cuisine to sample.

For a break from the action, revelers may enjoy a cup of café au lait and beignets at the Café du Monde, peruse items at the silent auction or shop at the River Walk Souvenir Shop.

"The gala is an event that many of the region's residents eagerly await and the evening provides us the perfect venue to showcase the talents of our students, faculty and alumni while raising money for academic programs," Mrs. Eaglin said.

(MORE)

GALA '99

2-2-2-2

“We invite all of the University’s friends to join us as we recreate the fun of New Orleans, Mardi Gras and a springtime jamboree.”

Assisting the gala executive committee with the planning and arrangements for the evening is a steering committee whose membership includes Mrs. Pat Goodpaster of Ashland, Mrs. Kay McGinnis of Greenup, Mrs. Betty Wood of Maysville and the following members of the campus and Morehead community: Al Baldwin, Dr. Yvonne Baldwin, Mrs. Dee Biebighauser, Darin Blackburn, Mrs. Laradean Brown, Robert Franzini, Dr. William Higginbotham, Ms. Jami M. Hornbuckle, Ms. Pauline Hunter, Mrs. Sharon Jackson, Mrs. Tami Jones, Keith Kappes, Dr. William Layne, Mrs. Joyce LeMaster, Dr. Travis Lockhart, Dr. Sue Luckey, Mrs. Julia Martin, Dennis McKay, Mrs. Marilyn Moore, Mrs. Lynne Pack, Mrs. Betty Phillely, Mrs. Janet Ratliff, Dr. Marilyn Sampley, Dan Shute, Jeff Spradling, Dr. Pete Stevens, Mrs. Judy Yancy and Mrs. Pauline Young.

Additional information and reservations are available from the Office of the President at (606) 783-2022.

#####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

RELOCATION

March 31, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The sixth session of "Teaching the Teachers for the 21st Century: A Morehead State University Symposium on the Future of Teacher Education" to be held April 2 at 3 p.m., has been moved from 419 Reed Hall to the Riggle Room, Adron Doran University Center, on the MSU campus.

####

ahn

Photo

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

HOOTENANNY AT KFAC ON THURSDAY

Caney Creek, a local folk group, will host "Hootenanny at the Folk Art Center," a monthly gathering of folk musicians and those interested in listening to, singing, playing various folk instruments, writing or collecting folk music. The first hootenanny will be held at the Kentucky Folk Art Center on Thursday, April 8, 7 p.m. and thereafter on the second Thursday of each month. Admission is free and everyone is invited. Members of Caney Creek include, from left, Russ Ward, Steve Young, Molly Carew and Larry Albert.

(MSU photo)

4-1-99lc

*Morehead News
+Blazer
Journal Eng.
Bath Co.
ADI
West Liberty*

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 1, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Twenty-four new Morehead State University Fellows will be recognized at the University's Founders Day luncheon on Friday, April 9, in the Adron Doran University Center on the campus.

The 1999 Fellows include Donald and Arye Dethmers of Western Springs, Ill.; Sawyer Brown of Franklin, Tenn., Rebecca Graham of Waldo, Fla., Greg, Sally, Sara, Laura and Lindsay Palmer of Laguna Hills, Calif.,

Buckner Hinkle Jr., of Lexington; Dr. Ronald and Pamela Richardson of Louisville; James and Barbara McKenzie of Flat Gap; Dr. Charles M. Rhodes of Ashland, Larry Addington of Ashland, in memory of Robyn Addington; John H. Baird of Pikeville; E. Glenn Fulbright of Mayfield; Chuck and Luana Tenge of Hillsboro, Sydney Annelle McMullen of Greenup; Jeffrey and Melinda Highley of Owingsville;

Dr. and Mrs. Robert L. Albert Jr., William and Melissa Higginbotham, Larry and June Keenan, Beth and Bob Patrick; William and Lovena Richardson; Paul and Kathy Richardson; Rick and Sandi Ruth, Duane and Stephanie Ruth; Dr. Michael Seelig and Jim and Madonna Weathers, all of Morehead.

This brings the total of MSU fellows to nearly 300. To become a part of this elite group, an individual or couple must provide a cash gift of $10,000 or a property gift values at $12,500 or a deferred gift in the amount of $25,000. The cash requirement may be achieved through minimum annual gifts of $1,000.

Also during the noon luncheon, MSU will honor several special friends of the University for their support. The Volunteer Fund Raiser, Johnda Pelphrey of Paintsville, and the Outstanding Faculty/Staff Fund Raisers, Dr. Michael Seelig and Jami Hornbuckle, will be recognized.

Dr. Michael B. McCall, president of the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, will be the guest speaker for the luncheon. As chief executive officer over 13 community colleges and 15 technical colleges in KCTCS, Dr. McCall oversees a system that has an annual budget of nearly $300 million and serves approximately 45,000 credit-seeking students.

(MORE)

NEW FELLOWS

2-2-2-2

A former president of Florence Darlington Technical College in Florence, S.C., and Paul D. Camp Community College in Franklin, Va., he also served as executive director of South Carolina's two-year technical and community college system. He was the chief executive officer of 16 colleges and provided leadership for the state's economic development training programs.

The deadline to purchase luncheon tickets is Friday, April 2. The cost is $10 per person.

To kickoff the Founders Day celebration, MSU faculty and staff retirees will be honored at a special breakfast, hosted by MSU President Ronald G. Eaglin. The annual awards convocation and awards ceremony will begin at 10:30 a.m. in Button Auditorium with House Speaker Jody Richards as the guest speaker. At a 2 p.m. dedication at the Memorial Plaza, which surrounds the Little Bell Tower, 40 deceased faculty and staff members will be honored.

Additional information on the Founders Day celebration and ticket reservations for the noon luncheon, are available by calling the Office of Development and Alumni Relations at (606) 783-2033.

####

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

SUBJECT: MSU Bookstore Survey

RELEASE DATE: Now thru April 19

TIME: 30 sec

ANNOUNCER:

MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY'S BOOKSTORE IS CONDUCTING A COMPREHENSIVE CUSTOMER SATISFACTION SURVEY TO LEARN WHAT STUDENTS THINK ABOUT THE STORE'S OPERATIONS. THE SURVEY WILL BE DISTRIBUTED TO CUSTOMERS ENTERING THE STORE AND TO UNIVERSITY RESIDENCE HALLS, DURING THE SURVEY PERIOD THAT RUNS APRIL 19-30. COMPLETED SURVEYS WILL BE SUBMITTED TO THE STAFF OF THE OFFICE OF STUDENT HOUSING DURING ROOM SIGN-UPS. SURVEY PARTICIPANTS WILL RECEIVE A COUPON FOR 20 PERCENT OFF MSU LOGO ITEMS.

THE GOAL OF THE SURVEY IS TO IMPROVE STORE OPERATIONS AND SERVICES TO ITS CUSTOMERS, ACCORDING TO BILL REDWINE, DIRECTOR OF AUXILIARY SERVICES. FOR MORE INFORMATION, CALL 783-2081.

####

4-1-99ahn

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 1, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---From textbook availability and pricing, to the selection of computer software, store hours and involvement in campus activities, Morehead State University's Bookstore wants to know what MSU students think about the store's operations.

The bookstore is conducting a comprehensive customer satisfaction survey on the campus. The survey questionnaires will be distributed to customers entering the store and to University residence halls, beginning Monday, April 19. Completed surveys will be submitted to the staff of the Office of Student Housing during room sign-ups on April 20, 22 and 27. Survey participants will receive a coupon for 20 percent off MSU logo items. The survey will run through April 30.

All surveys will be compiled, tabulated and analyzed by the research staff of the National Association of College Stores (NACS). The University Bookstore is a member of NACS, a non-profit trade association for college and university bookstores across the country.

Bill Redwine, director of auxiliary services, says the goal of the survey is to improve store operations and services to its customers. The bookstore has conducted other surveys and focus groups, but Redwine says this is the most comprehensive study of customer satisfaction in several years.

Additional information is available by calling (606) 783-2081.

The University Bookstore is a full service retail bookstore serving the students, faculty and staff of Morehead State University. Located on the first floor of the Adron Doran University Center, the bookstore is open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday-Friday, with a complete supply of course materials and Eagle merchandise.

####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 1, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Eighty students from two introductory nutrition courses at Morehead State University prepared food packages which were donated to the Christian Social Services Inc. for its Food Pantry program.

As a community service project under the direction of Dr. Brenda Malinauskas, registered dietician and assistant professor of nutrition/dietetics, the students prepared 37 care packages for families in need. They selected easy-to-prepare recipes, provided information on the nutritional content of their recipes, and included all non-perishable ingredients for preparation of the foods, Dr. Malinauskas said.

Paul Semisch, case manager for Christian Social Services, Inc., visited the classes where he discussed services offered by the organization.

Kristin Barber, an Owingsville freshman pre-physical therapy and athletic training major, participated in the project. "One concept I learned from this is that doing something as small as giving a box of food to less fortunate families might not be a big deal to me," she said, "but to the family that needs it, it means a tremendous amount."

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 2, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Area high school students and their families are invited to sample college life at Morehead State University during Preview Day, on Saturday, April 10, from 9:30 a.m. until 1 p.m. at the Adron Doran University Center.

The Preview Day program provides an opportunity for students and parents to meet with University officials and discuss academic programs, financial aid and residence hall life as well as the admissions and registration processes.

Guests will be welcomed by Mike Mincey, vice president for student life and athletic director; Dr. Michael Moore, executive vice president for academic affairs, and Leslie Engle, Pikeville sophomore, leadership student.

Visits to the academic departments will be conducted, giving campus guests the opportunity to ask questions and learn about the many areas of study available at MSU and to meet with faculty members.

Mini-classes will offer future students an inside look at the college classroom experience. A variety of classes will be offered for these sessions that simulate a realistic college schedule.

Campus tours will provide information about the physical layout and structure of the University, detailing classroom and administration buildings, as well as recreation facilities and residence halls. Both walking and shuttle tours will be available.

Additional details and registration information are available from Cheryl Million, assistant director of admissions/recruitment, at (606) 783-2514 or toll free at (800) 585-6781.

####

lc

April 2, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The Morehead State University Choirs and Chamber Orchestra will present a spring tour concert program on Thursday, April 8, at 8 p.m. in Duncan Recital Hall on the campus. The program is free and open to the public.

The vocal groups include a 45-voice Concert Choir and 12-voice Chamber Singers. Accompaniments are provided by a West African style percussion ensemble and the Chamber Orchestra. The Thursday evening performance precedes a three-day concert tour through Kentucky.

The Concert Choir will open the concert with the vibrant "Building Song" by Ben Allaway. The piece, based on African culture, is a celebration of the place where the community gathers, the Bandari. It is written in an Afro-Caribbean style and orchestra will then present a series of sacred pieces including "Why are Thou So Heavy, O My Soul?" by Henry Loosemore, "Ave Verum Corpus" by Mozart, "Let Thine Hand Be Strengthened," a Coronation Anthem by Handel, and "Sing and Rejoice" by Knut Nystedt.

In the second half of the program, the Chamber Singers take the bird calls from the opening "Building Song" and build a varied set of pieces about birds. They begin with three Renaissance madrigals including the monumental French chanson, "Song of the Birds," or "Le Chant Des Oyseaux," in which the choir imitates a host of bird calls. Bird sounds also appear in Thomas Vautor's "Sweet Suffolk Owl" and in the delightful "Woodpecker" by the contemporary Canadian composer, Stephen Chatman. The singers also will present a jazz arrangement of "A Nightingale Sang in Berkeley Square," "Like as the Culver on the Bared Bough" by Halsey Stevens and "Birds Are Never Soaring Too High" by Lars-Erik Larsson.

The Concert Choir will conclude the program with the spiritual "My Lord, What a Mornin'" and a gospel setting by Ralph Hunter entitled "I'm Gonna Sing."

The Concert Choir and Chamber Singers will be directed by Dr. Greg Detweiler, assistant professor of music, who is in his first year of teaching at MSU. In addition to these groups, he also conducts the University Chorus, Women's Chorus and Men's Chorus.

(MORE)

CHOIR
2-2-2-2

Originally from Pennsylvania, Dr. Detweiler has held the position of director of choral activities at Albertson College, Idaho State University, Southeastern Louisiana University and Mercer University.

Additional information on the concert is available by calling Dr. Detweiler at (606) 783-2480.

####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 5, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Old-time recipes and folk remedies are being sought for the 1999 Recipe Contest sponsored by Morehead State University's Appalachian Celebration.

Members of the community are invited to submit their grandmothers' or grandfathers' favorite recipes or any folk remedies they might have shared. The 24th Appalachian Celebration will publish a cookbook with the recipes and remedies.

Stories about the recipes and folk remedies also will be accepted and published along with the names of the contributors.

Ten finalists will be notified in writing or by telephone by June 15. A "taste off" will be held on Saturday, June 26, at 3 p.m. at the Kentucky Folk Art Center. The contest winner will receive a $100 cash prize.

Entry forms and additional information are available by calling Barbara Bookholt, at KFAC at (606) 783-2204. The fax number is (606) 783-5034.

####

April 5, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Several Morehead State University honors students will present sessions during the third annual Phi Kappa Phi Academic Honors Showcase on Monday, April 12, at 5 p.m. in the Adron Doran University Center.

Four concurrent sessions will be held with a reception, that is free and open to the public, concluding the activity. Presenters and their presentations include:

“Living with Death” by Jeremy King, Tollesboro sophomore; John David Lee, Clarkson, sophomore; Crystal Love, Vanceburg sophomore; and Michael Tyree, Whitesburg sophomore. The presentation will describe a death-anxiety survey administered to Morehead State University students, followed by a guided discussion of the survey’s results.

“Women’s Roles Across the Millennia” by JoEllen Martin, West Liberty sophomore, and Cassie Montgomery, Oldtown sophomore. Traditional roles for women in Ancient Greece and the current millennium will be discussed.

“Bridges to a New Millennium: Tools for Success in the Distance Education Classroom” by Dr. Dayna S. Brown, associate professor of health, physical education, and recreation, and Gena Henry, West Liberty senior. The presentation will review tools and techniques that help facilitate a smooth transition from the traditional classroom to the virtual classroom.

“Bridges to a New Millennium: A Case Study in Health Care” by Dawn Brown, Kewanee, Ill., junior; Jason Damron, Weeksbur junior; Tami Damron, Dryhill junior; and Beth Stinson, Isonville junior. In this workshop, participants will apply a specific model in order to make a decision about a contemporary health case.

“Justice, the Mind, and Knowledge in the ‘Republic’” by Carey Johnson, London freshman. First-year students in the MSU Honors Program will give an overview of topics considered in their initial honors course, “The Age of Classicism.” Discussion will focus on aspects of Plato’s psychology and his conception of knowledge and justice as found in the “Republic.”

(MORE)

HONORS SHOWCASE

2-2-2-2

“Friendship Through the ‘Ages’” by April Fugett, Louisa freshman; Leanne McHenry, Denton freshman; and Miranda Opel, Louisa freshman. In this session, an analysis of friendship in Aristotle’s “Ethics” and Augustine’s “Confessions” will be used to examine relationships in television’s “Friends.”

“Darwinism and Evolution in the New Millennium” by Jonathan Fields, Blaine biology major; Thomas Frazier, Louisa biology major; Stephen Reeves, Wittensville biology major; and Lance Williams, Franklin Furnace, Ohio, psychology major. Panelists will bridge the gap between Darwinian myth and reality. After an examination of evolutionary evidence, the session will conclude with an open-ended discussion of the continuing influence this theory is likely to have in the 21st Century.

“Champion of Justice/Fugitive from the Law: Jean Valjean, a Hero Bridging the Gap” by Lee Remington, Mt. Washington junior. Guilt is often difficult to define, and the circumstances of a crime are relevant. In “Les Miserables”, Jean Valjean is a criminal and a hero whose message, born in the 19th Century, transcends time and will still be meaningful in the 21st Century.

“Study Abroad and the National Student Exchange Program” by Meghan Bradley from the University of Memphis and Stacey Longo, MSU junior, Memphis, Tenn. Panelists will acquaint session participants with their experiences in overseas study and the National Student Exchange Program. Emphasis will be placed on the contribution these activities make to an enhanced appreciation of the global civilization which will emerge in the 21st Century.

“Blaise(ing) Our Way into the Millennium: An Examination of the Implications of Pascal’s Wager on Millennial Fear” by Roger D. Hicks, West Liberty senior. The presenter will examine the theological and psychological implications of Pascal’s Wager on the millennial fears of religious fundamentalists.

“Education by Age Level in Plato’s ‘Republic’” by Shannon Brown, Richmond freshman; John Holloway, Lexington freshman; and Kaleb Hypes, South Charleston, W.Va., freshman. The purpose of this presentation is to analyze aspects of Plato’s theory of education as outlined in the “Republic.”

Each of the sessions were presented at the Southern Regional Honors Council Conference in Little Rock, Ark., in late March.

Additional information on the showcase is available by calling (606) 783-2807.

####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 5, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Approximately 1,000 students are expected to participate in Morehead State University's Regional Foreign Language Festival on Tuesday, April 13.

The students will represent 12 senior high schools and four middle schools throughout Eastern Kentucky, according to Mary Jo Netherton, MSU associate professor of French and festival coordinator.

High schools participating include: Bath, Fleming, Russell Independent, Paul Blazer, Menifee County, Rowan County Senior High, Paintsville High, Boyd County High, Johnson Central High, East Carter High, Elliott County High, Raceland High School and Middle School, Boyd County Middle, Simons Middle and Holy Family Middle School.

The event includes academic competition in listening, speaking and writing proficiency; literary recitation; extemporaneous prose reading; drama; and construction models in French, German, Latin, Russian and Spanish. Non-academic events include frameable art, realia, costumes, and chorus in the same languages.

Faculty members from MSU's Department of English, Foreign Languages and Philosophy, as well as graduates of the University and area residents, will serve as festival judges. Assisting Netherton will be Vandy Trent, departmental secretary; Rita Atiase, Morehead junior, and Steven Taylor, Morehead freshman, as student directors; and MSU foreign language students as judges' assistants.

Additional information is available by calling (606) 783-2779 or 783-2582.

####

Tips

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

HIGHLIGHTS AT MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY

(April 11-17)

Sunday, April 11

1 P.M. ART EXHIBIT: "The Paintings of Nan Phelps," through June 13, Kentucky Folk Art Center, Monday-Saturday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Sundays, 1-5 p.m.; admission charge. Additional information: (606) 783-2204.

1 P.M. EAGLE SOFTBALL: MSU vs. Tennessee-Martin, University Field; free. Additional information: (606) 783-5283.

8 P.M. JUNIOR RECITAL: Drew Kline, horn, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Monday, April 12

8 A.M. PREREGISTRATION FOR SUMMER TERMS AND FALL SEMESTER, in departments; through April 16. Additional information: (606) 783-2008.

10 A.M. - 4 P.M. RED CROSS BLOOD DRIVE, Fields Hall Seminar Room, also April 13. Additional information: (606) 783-5124.

5 P.M. PHI KAPPA PHI HONORS SHOWCASE, Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center; reception 7-7:30 p.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2807.

Tuesday, April 13

8 A.M. 15TH ANNUAL MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY REGIONAL FOREIGN LANGUAGE FESTIVAL, competitions at multiple sites including Combs Building, Adron Doran University Center and Button Auditorium. Additional information: (606) 783-2779.

3 P.M. EAGLE SOFTBALL: MSU vs. Eastern Kentucky University, University Field; free. Additional information: (606) 783-5283.

7:30 P.M. UNIVERSITY SATELLITE SEMINAR SERIES: Crime and Punishment: "Homicide" meets "Law and Order," 116 Breckinridge Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2602.

8 P.M. SENIOR RECITAL: Vanessa Keeton, saxophone, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

8 P.M. THEATRE: "Dancing at Lughnasa," through April 17, Kibbey Theatre, also April 18 at 2 p.m.; ticket required. Reservations and additional information: (606) 783-2170.

(MORE)

HIGHLIGHTS

2-2-2-2

Thursday, April 15

8 P.M. RECITAL: MSU Trombone Ensemble, Andrew Glendening, director, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Friday, April 16

8 P.M. JUNIOR RECITAL: Rachel Sams, violin, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Saturday, April 17

9 A.M. 1999 KENTUCKY SCIENCE OLYMPIAD, Adron Doran University Center; 45 teams will compete for a chance to go to national competition. Additional information: (606) 783-2913.

#####

4-5-99lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 5, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RUSSELL, Ky.---The Morehead State University Choirs and Chamber Orchestra will present a concert on Tuesday, April 13, at 7:30 p.m. at Meade Memorial United Methodist Church in Russell. There is no admission charge.

The vocal groups include a 45-voice Concert Choir and two smaller ensembles, Chamber Singers, and OperaWorks, MSU's opera ensemble. The groups will be accompanied by a West African style percussion ensemble and the Chamber Orchestra. The Russell performance is part of a three-day concert tour through Kentucky.

The Concert Choir will open the concert with the "Building Song" by Ben Allaway. The piece, based on African culture, is a celebration of the place where the community gathers, the Bandari. It is written in an Afro-Caribbean style using percussion, bird calls from the choir and audience participation.

The choir and orchestra will then present a series of sacred pieces including "Why are thou so heavy, O my soul?" by Henry Loosemore, "Ave Verum Corpus" by Mozart, "Let Thy Hand Be Strengthened," a Coronation Anthem by Handel, and "Sing and Rejoice" by Knut Nystedt.

OperaWorks will present excerpts from Act II of Johann Strauss' delightful Viennese comedy "Die Fledermaus," a story of intrigue, disguise and love. Selections to be performed include three choruses that celebrate the gaiety of the party being given by Prince Orlofsky: "What a joy to be here", "A Toast to King Champagne", and "Sing to Love".

In the second half of the program, the Chamber Singers take the bird calls from the concert's opening piece, "Building Song," and perform a varied set of pieces about birds. The singers begin with three Renaissance madrigals including the monumental French chanson, "Song of the Birds" or "Le Chant Des Oyseaux," where the choir imitates a host of bird calls. These sounds also appear in Thomas Vautor's "Sweet Suffolf Owl" and in the "Woodpecker" by the contemporary Canadian composer Stephen Chatman. The singers also will present a jazz arrangement of "A Nightingale Sang in Berkeley Square," "Like as the Culver on the Bared Bough" by Halsey Stevens, and "Birds Are Never Soaring Too High" by Lars-Erik Larsson.

(MORE)

CHOIR
2-2-2-2

The Concert Choir will conclude the program with the spiritual “My Lord, What a Mornin” and a gospel setting by Ralph Hunter entitled “I’m Gonna Sing”.

Dr. Greg Detweiler, director of the Concert Choir and Chamber Singers, is in his first year of teaching at Morehead State University. In addition to these groups, he also conducts the University Chorus, Women’s Chorus and Men’s Chorus. Originally from Pennsylvania, he has held the position of director of choral activities at Albertson College, Idaho State University, Southeastern Louisiana University and Mercer University.

Dr. Roma Prindle, director of OperaWorks, is a Kentucky native. Her concert and recital experience includes solo performances in 30 states and in Europe. She has performed with several American opera companies including Minnesota Opera, Connecticut Opera, Goodspeed Opera, Opera Roanoke, Connecticut Concert Opera, and Connecticut Opera Express.

Dr. Prindle organized OperaWorks in 1993 when she began her tenure at MSU. She has recently written a new work for the group entitled “A Kentucky Mummer’s Play,” which will tour throughout Kentucky and the British Isles.

MSU students from the Russell/Ashland area include Cathi Lohman, Melissa Salyers, Doris Bolt, Tonya Castle, Michelle Napier, Barbara Parker, and Rick Pannell.

#####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 6, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A former director of the University's Personal Development Institute will be the 1999 recipient of the Morehead State University Founders Day Award for University Service.

Carolyn Stephens Flatt, a 27-year faculty and staff member, will receive the award during the annual Founders Day Convocation and Awards Ceremony on Friday, April 9, at 10:30 a.m. in Button Auditorium. She will be the third woman to be presented this award.

Mrs. Flatt, known for emphasizing the positive aspects of any situation, is an educator, service provider, wife, parent, grandparent and friend. An accomplished writer, she has produced articles for journals and authored a textbook for the Personal Development Institute, "A Guide to Personal Development." Most recently, she was a proofreader for "A Light to the Mountains" and "Winning Through to Fame and Glory," both publications written by her husband, Dr. Don Flatt, professor of history.

Upon the retirement of her mentor, Mignon Doran, who established the Personal Development Institute, Mrs. Flatt assumed the role of PDI director in the late '70s. In an effort to promote the program, she accepted numerous invitations to speak to campus groups and she was never too busy to counsel students. She has been described as completing each day by teaching her students social etiquette as well as a way to live, a way to forgive and a way to make the world a better place.

Active in numerous professional organizations throughout her career, she was involved in the American and Kentucky Association of Family and Consumer Sciences, the University's Department of Human Sciences alumni chapter and the Kentucky Mansions Preservation Foundation. On campus, she worked with several student groups including Phi Kappa Phi and Pinnacle honor societies. She served as the faculty adviser to Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority for more than 20 years.

A native of Parkersburg, W.Va., Mrs. Flatt taught in public schools in Carter and Fleming counties in Kentucky and Wood County in West Virginia, before coming to MSU in 1971. She holds bachelor's and master's degrees from MSU and an associate degree from Freed-Hardeman College in Henderson, Tenn.

(MORE)

Carolyn Flatt
2-2-2-2

She and her husband are the parents of two children, David, an attorney in Sandy Hook, and Missy Flatt Spivey, an instructor at Ohio Valley College in Parkersburg, W.Va. The Flatts have nine grandchildren.

Speaker of the House Jody Richards will be the guest speaker for the convocation. The event is free and open to the public.

At a noon luncheon following the convocation, new MSU Fellows will be honored and volunteer fund raisers will be recognized by the Office of Development and Alumni Relations. Dr. Michael B. McCall, president of the Kentucky Community and Technical College System, will be the guest speaker.

Also scheduled for the day will be a dedication ceremony honoring 38 faculty and staff members with the installation of personalized bricks in the Memorial Plaza that surrounds the Little Bell Tower. The program begins at 2 p.m.

Additional information on Founders Day activities is available by calling (606) 783-2233.

####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 6, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The Teaching, Learning and Technology Roundtable (TLTR) at Morehead State University will hold an open forum of discussion on Monday, April 12, at 5 p.m. in 419 Reed Hall. The session is open to all administrators, faculty, staff and students. Information on joining the roundtable will be available.

####

PSA

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

SUBJECT: MSU Founders Day

RELEASE DATE: Now thru April 9, 1999

TIME: 30 sec

ANNOUNCER:

YOU'RE INVITED TO JOIN MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY FOR FOUNDERS DAY 1999 ON FRIDAY, APRIL 9. THE DAY BEGINS WITH A 10:30 A.M. CONVOCATION FEATURING REP. JODY RICHARDS, SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE, GIVING THE ADDRESS. AN ACADEMIC PROCESSION WILL LEAD THE WAY TO BUTTON AUDITORIUM. THE EVENT IS FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC. AT THE NOON LUNCHEON THAT FOLLOWS, 24 NEW FELLOWS WILL BE RECOGNIZED ALONG WITH OTHERS WHO HAVE PLAYED KEY ROLES IN THE HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY. COME JOIN THE FUN AND FELLOWSHIP AS MSU CELEBRATES ANOTHER MILESTONE.

####

4-6-99py

Media Advisory

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY WILL CELEBRATE FOUNDERS DAY 1999, FRIDAY, APRIL 9, AS FOLLOWS:

- EVENT: Convocation and Awards Ceremony
- TIME: 10:30 a.m.
- PLACE: Button Auditorium
- SPEAKER: Rep. Jody Richards, 21st District, Speaker of the House
- AWARD: The Founders Day Award for University Service will be presented to Mrs. Carolyn Flatt, former director of the University's Personal Development Institute. A 27-year member of the faculty and staff, Mrs. Flatt is an accomplished writer and authored a textbook for the Personal Development Institute, "A Guide to Personal Development."
- EVENT: Luncheon
- TIME: Noon
- PLACE: Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center
- SPEAKER: Dr. Michael B. McCall, president of the Kentucky Community and Technical College System
- AWARDS: 24 new MSU Fellows will be recognized and awards will be presented to the Most Valuable Giver, Volunteer Fund Raisers of the Year and Outstanding Faculty/Staff Fund Raisers.
- EVENT: Dedication ceremony for installation of personalized bricks for 38 faculty and staff members
- TIME: 2 p.m.
- PLACE: Memorial Plaza, Little Bell Tower

####

4-6-99py

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 5, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MAYSVILLE, Ky.---The Morehead State University Choirs and Chamber Orchestra will present a concert on Sunday, April 11, at 5 p.m. at First Presbyterian Church in Maysville. There is no admission charge.

The vocal groups include a 45-voice Concert Choir and two smaller ensembles, Chamber Singers and OperaWorks, the University's opera ensemble. Providing accompaniment will be a West African style percussion ensemble and the Chamber Orchestra. The Maysville performance is part of a three-day concert tour through Kentucky.

The Concert Choir will open the program with the "Building Song" by Ben Allaway. The piece, based on African culture, is a celebration of the place where the community gathers, the Bandari. It is written in an Afro-Caribbean style using percussion, bird calls from the choir and audience participation. The choir and orchestra will then present a series of sacred pieces including "Why are thou so heavy, O my soul?" by Henry Loosemore, "Ave Verum Corpus" by Mozart, "Let Thy Hand Be Strengthened, a Coronation Anthem by Handel, and "Sing and Rejoice" by Knut Nystedt.

OperaWorks will present excerpts from Act II of Johann Strauss' Viennese comedy "Die Fledermaus" that tells a story of intrigue, disguise and love. Selections to be performed include three choruses that celebrate the gaiety of the party given by Prince Orlofsky. The choruses are "What a joy to be here," "A Toast to King Champagne" and "Sing to Love."

During the second half of the program, the Chamber Singers take the bird calls from the opening "Building Song" and build a varied set of pieces about birds. The singers begin with three Renaissance madrigals including the monumental French chanson, "Song of the Birds" or "Lee Chant Des Oyseaux," where the choir imitates a host of bird calls. These sounds also appear in Thomas Vautor's "Sweet Suffolk Owl" and in "Woodpecker" by the contemporary Canadian composer, Stephen Chatman.

The singers also will present a jazz arrangement of "A Nightingale Sang in Berkley Square," "Like as the Culver on the Bared Bough" by Halsey Stevens, and "Birds Are Never Soaring Too High" by Lars-Erik Larsson.

(MORE)

CHOIR

2-2-2-2

The Concert Choir will conclude the program with the spiritual “My Lord, What a Mornin” and a gospel setting by Ralph Hunter entitled “I’m Gonna Sing”.

Dr. Greg Detweiler, director of the Concert Choir and Chamber Singers, is in his first year of teaching at the University. In addition to these groups, he also conducts the University Chorus, Women’s Chorus, and Men’s Chorus.

Originally from Pennsylvania, Dr. Detweiler has held the position of director of choral activities at Albertson College, Idaho State University, Southeastern Louisiana University and Mercer University.

Dr. Roma Prindle, director of Opera Works, is a Kentucky native. Her concert and recital experience includes solo performances in 30 states and in Europe. She had performed with several American opera companies including Minnesota Opera, Connecticut Opera, Goodspeed Opera, Opera Roanoke, Connecticut Concert Opera and Connecticut Opera Express.

Dr. Prindle organized OperaWorks in 1993 when she began her tenure at MSU. She had recently written a new work for group entitled “A Kentucky Mummer’s Play,” which will tour throughout Kentucky and the British Isles.

MSU students from Maysville who are performing with the singers are Jayne Davis, junior; Karen Pescosolido, senior, and Brian Silvey, senior.

####

Tips

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

JUNE HIGHLIGHTS AT MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY

June 1-13, Art Exhibit: "The Paintings of Nan Phelps," Kentucky Folk Art Center, Monday-Saturday 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Sundays 1-5 p.m.; admission charge. Additional information: (606) 783-2204.

June 2-July 6, Upward Bound. Additional information: (606) 783-2611.

June 4, Board of Regents meeting, Riggle Room, Adron Doran University Center, time TBA. Additional information: (606) 783-2022.

June 6-11, Summer Flute Experience, Baird Music Hall. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

June 6-11, Golf Camp, SunnyBrook, MSU's Public Golf Course. Additional information: (606) 784-7067.

June 11, Summer Orientation, Advising and Registration (SOAR), Button Auditorium, 10 a.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2000

June 11-13, Kyle Macy Basketball Camp, Teen Camp I, cost $110 for commuters or $130 with overnight accommodations. Registration and additional information: (606) 783-2087.

June 13-18, Kentucky Boys State, sponsored by American Legion, campus. Additional information: (502) 223-3288.

June 13-19, Gifted and Talented Program for middle school students, Ginger Hall. Additional information: (606) 783-2598.

June 13-July 24, MOAR Program, campus. Additional information: (606) 783-2005.

June 14, Registration for Summer II; classes begin, 8 a.m.; term ends July 9. Additional information: (606) 783-2008.

June 14-17, Kyle Macy Basketball Camp, half-day camp, 8:30-11:30 a.m., for boys and girls, ages 6-15, cost $65. Registration and additional information: (606) 783-2087.

June 14-17 Universal Cheerleaders Association Dance Camp, Button Drill Room. Additional information: (800) 947-3101.

June 14-19, Minority Teacher Education Summer Program, campus. Additional information: (606) 783-2833.

June 14-July 2, Summer Institute, Fields Hall Seminar Room. Additional information: (606) 783-2393.

(MORE)

HIGHLIGHTS

2-2-2-2

June 14-25, Summer Institute for Arts, Baird Music Hall and Claypool-Young Art Building.
Additional information: (606) 783-2713.

June 17-19, Kyle Macy Basketball Camp, Teen Camp II, cost $110 for commuters or $130 with overnight accommodations. Registration and additional information: (606) 783-2087.

June 18-20, Football Camp I, Jayne Stadium. Additional information: (606) 783-2020.

June 19, Summer Orientation and Registration (SOAR), Button Auditorium, 10 a.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2000.

June 20-25, Astronomy Workshop, Lappin Hall. Additional information: (606) 783-2212.

June 20-26, 23rd Annual Appalachian Celebration. Highlights include: opening reception and presentation of Appalachian Treasure Award to Billy C. Clark, June 20, 7 p.m., Commonwealth Room, Adron Doran University Center; noon concerts throughout the week on the Laughlin lawn; workshops and demonstrations, and Arts and Crafts Market, June 26, 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Laughlin Health Building. Additional information: (606) 783-2204.

June 20-26, Art Exhibit: "Images of the Mountains," Appalshop Exhibition, gallery, Claypool-
Young Art Building; gallery hours 8 a.m.- 4 p.m., weekdays. Additional information:
(606) 783-5446.

June 20-26, Art Exhibit: "Quilts Out of the Closet," Garland and Minnie Adkins Gallery, Kentucky Folk Art Center, Monday-Saturday 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Sundays 1-5 p.m.; admission charge. Additional information (606) 783-2204.

June 20-27, Elderhostel Program. Additional information: (606) 783-2875.

June 20-26, Gifted and Talented Program for middle school students, Ginger Hall. Additional information: (606) 783-2598.

June 22-25, Universal Junior Cheerleaders Camp I, Academic-Athletic Center. Additional information: (800) 947-3101.

June 23-July 22, National Youth Sports Program, campus. Additional information:
(606) 783-2180.

June 27-July 1, Kyle Macy Basketball Camp, overnight camp for boys, ages 10-17, cost $240.
Registration and additional information: (606) 783-2087.

Due to early press deadlines, some listings may be subject to change.

#####

4-7-99lc

April 7, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.----Those traveling westbound on the Mountain Parkway near Salyersville are seeing a familiar face since the latest billboard was installed.

There, bigger than life, is the smiling face of Magoffin County's own Laura Joseph, a junior elementary education major at Morehead State University.

The caption reads, "My name is Laura and all my professors know it." It is a message that she wants to share with future students who travel along the Parkway, emphasizing one of the advantages of attending MSU, the low student/faculty ratio.

Joseph admits she was "embarrassed" when she saw the billboard, even before her family and friends began commenting on it. Now, when someone speaks to her, she makes a quick mental note to determine if that is a new face or an old friend.

Assisting with the University's marketing efforts has been a part of Joseph's learning experiences since arriving on campus. Last year, she and her sister, Marci Joseph Wells, were featured in an ad on WSAZ-TV that was shown throughout Eastern Kentucky.

While touting the advantages of MSU, Joseph also is promoting the place where she has lived all her life. "I don't like it when people put down Eastern Kentucky," she says. "The people have strong family values."

She offers the advice, "Don't get above your raising," something that she believes is still important in today's society. "You need to be true to yourself," she says. "I don't like it when I hear people say they're depressed. If you're helping others, you're helping yourself."

One of the faults of college, Joseph notes, is that too often students lose sight of who they really are. "You don't have to be like someone else to be popular," she adds.

After completing her studies at the University, Joseph hopes to stay in the region and teach. "I want to be a different kind of teacher," she says with enthusiasm. As she works toward fulfilling that goal, she has already decided that she wants to add art, music and drama to her lesson plans.

(MORE)

Joseph
2-2-2-2

Describing herself as studious, but not organized, Joseph believes she is still a kid at heart and that children like her because she treats life like a playground.

Joseph recalls that teaching has not always been her first career choice--even though it was in her blood. Her father was a high school principal in Magoffin County before he retired; her mother currently teaches at Salyer Elementary School, and her grandparents were teachers as well.

"I refused to think about being a teacher for a long time. I never wanted to do it," she adds with a sigh. "But, it's my calling. Little kids just flock to me."

As she studies for her career choice, the future teacher notes that learning can be fun. "You need to know the basics before it can be applied," she said. Looking at all avenues of instruction, she accompanied her mother to an education workshop last year. She got more than she anticipated when the session, based on "integrating bluegrass into content area," was taught by country music great Ricky Skaggs.

Joseph came to MSU on a Regional Honors I Scholarship as she was valedictorian of her class at Magoffin County High School. She also received an Alumni Award as her parents were graduates of the University.

While she has very little free time, Joseph continues to teach Sunday school in Cannel City and enjoys performing arts and dance, especially clogging. Actively involved in music all her life, she sings and plays the violin.

She likes to spend time with friends and enjoys helping others. Life is good, according to Joseph, noting that there is only one part missing. "It is really hard to be home now that Marci has gotten married," she said of her only sister, whom she calls her best friend. But soon home will change again as Joseph was recently engaged to MSU alumnus Anthony Todd Fraley of Ashland.

Joseph, the daughter of Joyce and Phillip Joseph of Salyersville, is the granddaughter of the late Ethel Mullins Joseph and G.V. Joseph Sr. of Salyersville and Edwin and Hilda Lacy Benton of Cannel City and the great-granddaughter of Mattie Lacy of Cannel City.

####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 7, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HAZARD, Ky.---The Morehead State University Choirs and Chamber Orchestra will present a concert on Monday, April 12, at 7:30 p.m. at the Feltner Center on the Hazard Community College campus. There is no admission charge.

The vocal groups include a 45-voice Concert Choir and two smaller ensembles, Chamber Singers and OperaWorks, MSU's opera ensemble. A West African style percussion ensemble and the Chamber Orchestra will accompany the groups. The performance in Hazard is part of a three-day concert tour through Kentucky.

The Concert Choir will open the concert with the "Building Song" by Ben Allaway. The piece, based on African culture, is a celebration of the place where the community gathers, the Bandari. It is written in an Afro-Caribbean style using percussion, bird calls from the choir and audience participation. The choir and orchestra will then present a series of sacred pieces including "Why are thou so heavy, O my soul?" by Henry Loosemore, "Ave Verum Corpus" by Mozart, "Let Thy Hand Be Strengthened," a Coronation Anthem by Handel, and "Sing and Rejoice" by Knut Nystedt.

OperaWorks will present excerpts from Act II of Johann Strauss' Viennese comedy "Die Fledermaus," a story of intrigue, disguise and love. Selections to be performed include three choruses that celebrate the gaiety of the party being given by Prince Orlofsky: "What a joy to be here," "A Toast to King Champagne" and "Sing to Love."

In the second half of the program, the Chamber Singers take the bird calls from the concert's opening piece, "Building Song", and perform a varied set of pieces about birds. The singers begin with three Renaissance madrigals including the monumental French chanson, "Song of the Birds" or "Le Chant Des Oyseaux" in which the choir imitates a host of bird calls. Bird sounds also appear in Thomas Vautor's "Sweet Suffolk Owl" and in "Woodpecker" by the contemporary Canadian composer Stephen Chatman. The singers also will present a jazz arrangement of "A Nightingale Sang in Berkeley Square," "Like as the Culver on the Bared Bough," by Halsey Stevens, and "Birds Are Never Soaring Too High" by Lars-Erik Larsson.

(MORE)

Choir
2-2-2-2

The Concert Choir will conclude the program with the spiritual “My Lord, What a Mornin’” and a gospel setting by Ralph Hunter entitled “I’m Gonna Sing”.

Dr. Greg Detweiler, director of the Concert Choir and Chamber Singers, is in his first year of teaching at Morehead State University. In addition to these groups, he also conducts the University Chorus, Women’s Chorus, and Men’s Chorus. Originally from Pennsylvania, he has held the position of director of choral activities at Albertson College, Idaho State University, Southeastern Louisiana University and Mercer University.

Dr. Roma Prindle, director of OperaWorks, is a Harlan native. Her concert and recital experiences include solo performances in 30 states and in Europe. She has performed with several American opera companies including Minnesota Opera, Connecticut Opera, Goodspeed Opera, Opera Roanoke, Connecticut Concert Opera and Connecticut Opera Express.

Dr. Prindle organized OperaWorks in 1993 when she began her tenure at MSU. She has recently written a new work for the group entitled “A Kentucky Mummer’s Play,” which will tour throughout Kentucky and the British Isles.

MSU students from the Hazard area who will be performing include Aaron Bowling, Steven Brashear and Shaun Popp.

####

Tips

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

MAY HIGHLIGHTS AT MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY

Now-June 13, Art Exhibit: "The Paintings of Nan Phelps," Kentucky Folk Art Center, Monday-Saturday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Sundays, 1-5 p.m.; admission charge. Additional information: (606) 783-2204.

Now-May 6, Art Exhibit: "Senior Show," gallery, Claypool-Young Art Building, gallery hours 8 a.m.-4 p.m. weekdays; no charge for viewing. Additional information: (606) 783-5446.

May 1, Kentucky Music Teachers' Association Spring Piano Festival, Baird Music Hall, 9 a.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

May 1, Eagle Baseball: MSU vs. Southeast Missouri, Allen Field, 3 p.m., doubleheader; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

May 2, Eagle Baseball: MSU vs. Southeast Missouri, Allen Field, 1 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

May 3, 4, 6 and 7, Final examinations, May 5, Reading Day, no exams.

May 4, Estate Planning Seminar, Riggle Room, Adron Doran University Center, 10:15 a.m.; free. featured speaker Renee Montague of Newberry, Hargraves and Rambicure of Lexington. Reservations and additional information: (606) 783-2033.

May 4, Senior Recital: Jennifer Hughes, piano, Duncan Recital Hall, 8 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

May 5, Eagle Baseball: MSU vs. Belmont, Allen Field, 2:30 p.m., doubleheader; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

May 5, All Sports Banquet, Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center, 6:30 p.m.; ticket required. Additional information: (606) 783-2088.

May 7, Nursing Program Pinning Ceremony, Button Auditorium, 7:30 p.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2296.

May 8, Spring Commencement, Academic-Athletic Center, 10:30 a.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2008.

May 17, Registration for Summer I; classes begin 8 a.m.; term ends June 11. Additional information: (606) 783-2008.

Due to early press deadlines, some listings may be subject to change.

#####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Members of the campus and community are invited to participate in the activities offered during the celebration of Mathematics Awareness Week, April 12-16, sponsored by Morehead State University's Department of Mathematical Sciences.

"Mathematics and Biology" is the theme of the celebration which will emphasize the importance of math skills in one's daily lives. A variety of activities are planned for all age groups.

A mathematical mini-fair will exhibit math and biology students' projects throughout the week on the second floor of the Adron Doran University Center.

Problem-solving competitions will allow participants an opportunity to test their skills in three categories: pre-algebra, pre-calculus and calculus. To participate and compete for prizes, students may pick up the problems at the mini-fair and submit their answers to the math office in 105 Lappin Hall by 4:30 p.m. on Friday, April 16.

A special session, entitled "Fun with Mathematics and Computers" will be held on Tuesday evening, April 13. Children, parents and teachers are invited to attend this program which runs from 5 to 7 p.m. in 213 Ginger Hall. Refreshments will be served.

Among the events on Wednesday, April 14, will be a mathematical carnival from 11:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m., on the second floor of ADUC. Puzzles, games and problem solving competitions will highlight this event with prizes to be awarded. Dr. Dennis E. Davenport will present "Non-Euclidean Geometry" from 4 to 5 p.m., in 213 Lappin Hall. No prerequisites are needed and everyone is invited to attend.

Thursday's highlights will include the Liberal Arts Academic Bowl, open to all students. Teams may sign up in 105 Lappin Hall and report to 203 Lappin Hall at 4 p.m. for the competition.

Rounding out the week will be the MSU Mathematics/Biology Potluck Luncheon, Friday, April 16, 11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m. All mathematics and biology faculty are cordially invited to attend. In addition, the MSU Math Club will sponsor attendance to a hockey game at 6 p.m.

Additional information regarding Mathematics Awareness Week is available by calling Dr. Dora Ahmadi, assistant professor of mathematics, at (606) 783-2919.

####

Photo

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

'DANCING AT LUGHNASA' AT MSU

Morehead State University theatre students will present Brian Friel's "Dancing at Lughnasa," Tuesday through Saturday, April 13-17, at 8 p.m., and Sunday, April 18, at 2 p.m. in Kibbey Theatre. Appearing in the production are Beth Kouns, Flatwoods senior, as Christina; Matt Morpew, Lexington sophomore, as Gerry, and Amy Adkins, (foreground) Catlettsburg senior, as Agnes. Reservations are necessary and may be made by calling MSU's Theatre Box Office at (606) 783-2170.

(MSU photo by Tim Holbrook)

4-8-99lc

Greenup Co.

ADT

Herald-Leader

TB

Morehead News

Bath Co. News

Floyd Co. Times

App. News Express

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Morehead State University theatre students will present Brian Friel's "Dancing at Lughnasa," Tuesday through Saturday, April 13-17, at 8 p.m. and April 18 at 2 p.m. in Kibbey Theatre.

Winner of the 1992 Tony Award for best play, this is an ensemble masterpiece of modern Irish drama, according to Dr. Travis Lockhart, MSU director of theatre. "Five unmarried sisters struggle for a living in a small Irish village in 1936. It is the time of the festival of Lughnasa, which celebrates the Pagan god of the harvest with music and dancing. Their story is revealed through the memory of the young son of one of the women, as they dance and dream amidst a bitter existence, he said.

Phil Ponder, Crittenden senior, is the scenic designer; Elizabeth Payne, South Point, Ohio, junior, is costume designer; Dr. Mark Mallett, assistant professor of theatre, is assistant technical director. Dr. Mallett and Christina Swanson, Ashland senior, are the lighting designers, and Kristopher Castle, Lowmansville sophomore, is the properties designer.

Tickets are $6 for adults, $2 for students and senior citizens, and free for MSU students with a valid I.D. card. Because of limited seating, reservations are necessary.

Additional information and reservations are available by calling MSU's Theatre Box Office at (606) 783-2170.

#####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Two Boyd County residents were among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

The students were:

Erin Back of Flatwoods displayed two pencil drawings, "The Sweetest Thing" and "Years Gone By" as well as a paper cutout collage, "Rain or Shine," and an ink drawing, "The Dreamer."

Jonathan Phillips of Ashland displayed five mixed media pieces. The works were entitled "A Winter's Rest," "Childhood Fiction," "Sweet Dreams," "Christmas Cubs" and "Instrumental Dragons."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Bath County resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Peggy Spencer of Owingsville displayed two cardboard three-dimensional pieces entitled "Once Upon a Dream" and "Egypt Recycled;" a marker drawing, "Gray Marker Rendering;" a pastel composition, "Sweet Dreams," and an acrylic painting "Multi-Personality."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

#####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Bell County resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Drew Maciula of Middlesboro displayed three pieces of art, including a tie wire entitled "Dirty Bird," two cardboard three-dimensional constructions, "Casablanca" and "Rearrangement," and a mixed media piece entitled "Flock in Flight."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Carter County resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Benjamin Kiser of Olive Hill displayed five pieces of art, including three pencil drawings, a marker drawing entitled "Dracula," and a colored pencil drawing entitled "Lizzy's Mind."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Clermont County, Ohio, resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Courtney Stephens of Batavia, displayed four pieces of art, including two black and white photographs entitled "Shining Through" and "Farm on the Corner," an oil painting, "Untitled," and a pencil, charcoal and ink drawing entitled "Inside."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Fleming County resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Shalita Compton of Flemingsburg displayed four pieces of art, including an acrylic painting entitled "Pleasures," a graphic design piece entitled "Vanity Salon," and two black and white photographs entitled "Juana" and "Rocks and Shadow."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Two Floyd County residents were among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

The students were:

John Haywood of Martin displayed five black and white photographs, including "Portrait of Yes," "Uncle Johnathan," "Whitt's Opaque Inn," "Side o' House," and "No Smoking No Shoes."

Michael Sexton of Garrett displayed four acrylic paintings entitled "Leaves," "Looking Out My Back Door," "Blast from a Cartoon Past," and "Lion-O."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Harrison County resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Melissa Smith of Cynthiana displayed four charcoal drawings entitled "Lazy Dayz," "Deep Thought," "Suburban Princess," and "Untitled."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Jefferson County resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Stephen Horlander of Louisville displayed two ink drawings and four pieces of computer-generated art.

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Two Johnson County residents were among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

The students were:

Paul Daniel of Paintsville displayed five pieces of art, including a watercolor painting entitled "Touching the Heart," an acrylic painting entitled "Family Foreseen," two intaglio pieces entitled "America the Sinister" and "Wealthy Religious Mob," and an enamel on steel composition entitled "Starship Angel Fish."

Cindy Muncy of Williamsport displayed three black and white photos entitled "Kathy," "Tune Up" and "Daddy" and three graphic designs entitled "The Acers' Storyboard," "The Acers' Advertisement," and "Cyndi Lauper Ad."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Kenton County resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University.

Katherine Byrley of Taylor Mill displayed six pieces of art, including two acrylic paintings entitled "Still Life" and "Self Portrait in the Style of Matisse," a lithograph entitled "Umbrella," a pastel drawing entitled "Nude Study in Pastel," a collage entitled "Collage in Blue," and a ceramic piece, "Untitled."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Knott County resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Janell Carmody-Short of Emmalena displayed four pieces of art, including two black and white photographs entitled "Keys" and "4th Floor View" and two colored pencil drawings entitled "The Time of Innocence" and "Many Years and 13 Grandchildren Ago."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Lawrence County resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Mandy Kitchen of Louisa displayed three black and white photos entitled "Field #2," "The Grave" and "The Falls" and an acrylic painting entitled "Obsessive Compulsive."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Lawrence County, Ohio, resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Elizabeth Payne of South Point displayed six pieces of art, including a mixed media set design for "Big River," two black and white photos entitled "Jenny-D" and "Misty," an acrylic painting entitled "Set Design for 'War,'" and two pencil and charcoal drawings entitled "Figure Study" and "Amy's Room."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Letcher County resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Joseph Fields of Letcher displayed three pieces of art, including an oil painting entitled "Still Life," a pencil and ink drawing entitled "The Truth About Marat," and a pencil and colored pencil drawing entitled "Subjective Self Portrait."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Two Morgan County residents were among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

The students were:

Debi Horton of West Liberty displayed five pieces of art, including a stone carving entitled "Cut From the Same Stone," an acrylic painting entitled "Up or Down," a black and white photograph entitled "The Horton Boys," a watercolor painting entitled "Pieced Memories," and a pencil drawing entitled "Stairway to Heaven."

Frankie Spencer of Ezel displayed seven pieces of art, including a pastel drawing entitled "Cubic Triangle," two acrylic paintings entitled "Still Life" and "Impressionist Interpretation," an acrylic mixed media piece entitled "Buffalo Spirit," and three black and white photographs entitled "Morning Service," "Good Overlook," and "Mid-Evening Peace."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Pike County resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Angel Scott of Pikeville displayed four pieces of art, including a charcoal drawing entitled "Still Life with Bone," a pastel drawing entitled "Sunset at Cave Run," a colored pencil drawing entitled "God's Love," and a graphite drawing entitled "Still Life with Pitcher."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Rowan County resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Eiko Kamo of Morehead displayed six pieces of art, including three black and white untitled photos, two marker drawings entitled "Kate Moss" and "Audrey Hepburn," and a colored pencil drawing entitled "Kocha."

Also exhibiting was Susie Anderson of Berkshire, Hungerford, United Kingdom, who displayed five pieces of art, including three mixed media pieces entitled "A Thought," "Issues" and "Untitled" as well as two charcoal drawings entitled "Alone" and "Sleeping Peacefully."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Woodford County resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Heidi Ruf of Versailles displayed six pieces of art, including an acrylic painting entitled "His Name," a colored pencil drawing entitled "The Promise," an oil painting entitled "Tranquility," a charcoal drawing entitled "Far from Home," a bronze sculpture entitled "I Turned Away," and multiple ceramic pieces entitled "Instruments."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Warren County, Ohio, resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Kelli Thompson of Mason displayed four pieces of art, including a pencil drawing entitled "Abstraction," an intaglio entitled "Betta," a marker drawing entitled "James Bond," and a cardboard three-dimensional construction, "Untitled."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Miami County, Ohio, resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University.

Emily Price of Tipp City displayed four pieces of art, including a raku piece, "Untitled," a marker drawing entitled "Clark Gable," an acrylic painting entitled "Fallen Leaves," and a collage entitled "Reconstructing Mary Cassatt."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Muncie, Ind., resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Kambi Meyer displayed six pieces of art, including two chalk pastels entitled "Evening Solitude" and "Chalk Dust Torture," an acrylic painting entitled "Complementary Nuts," a colored pencil drawing entitled "The Crescent Rose," and two black and white photographs entitled "A Sharper Image" and "Broke Leg Falls."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---One Gorham, N.H., resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Amie Tanguay displayed five pieces of art, including three acrylic paintings entitled "Just Your Average Day," "Untitled" and "Leaf Study," a pencil drawing entitled "The Wild Fields of Songo," and a cardboard three-dimensional construction entitled "Clown Shoe/Step Ladder."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 8, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Vienna W.Va., resident was among 29 second-year art students who displayed their work in the "Sophomore Show" in the Claypool-Young Art Building at Morehead State University recently.

Andy Beane displayed five pieces of art, including a mixed media piece entitled "No," a computer generated image, "Untitled," two untitled photographs, and an acrylic painting entitled "Copy of Dali."

Exhibiting in the sophomore show is part of a requirement for a degree in art for all art majors and minors who have completed at least 45 credit hours but less than 75 hours of classes. Additional information is available from Jennifer Hart, gallery coordinator, at (606) 783-5446.

####

lc

MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP COMPETITION RENAMED AT MSU

A scholarship at Morehead State University, the A. Frank and Bethel C. Gallaher Memorial Music Performance Competition, has been renamed to honor the lives of two individuals who believed strongly in education, music and competition. The scholarship, established in 1987 by the Gallaher children in memory of their father, was renamed following the death of their mother in 1998. The annual competition is open to MSU junior music majors who have at least a 2.5 grade point average. The winner, who receives a $1,000 cash prize, has the honor of performing at MSU's Academic Honors Convocation. The performance will be held on Sunday, April 25, at 2 p.m. in Button Auditorium. The Gallahers, who were business owners in Ashland, pursued personal interests in music throughout their lives.

(MSU photo)

4-9-99lc

Morehead News
Magazine
Sandy News
head statement
enup Co. News
Smooth Daily
2nd - Dispatch

April 9, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A scholarship that rewards musical performance and competition at Morehead State University has been renamed to honor the lives of the late A. Frank and Bethel C. Gallaher.

The competition was established through a $10,000 endowment to the MSU Foundation, Inc., by the children of A. Frank Gallaher following his death in 1987. With the passing of their mother in July 1998, the family renamed the scholarship to honor the lives of both parents, who believed strongly in education, music and competition.

The Gallahers were business owners in Ashland, starting a drive-in restaurant in the late 1940s and expanding their interests to include a market, now Ashland Foodfair, and a pharmacy, still known as Gallaher's Pharmacy. While neither was a professional musician, the Gallahers pursued personal interests in music throughout their lives and encouraged their children to do the same. As a result, two of their three children became professional musicians while the third became active in the family business.

"Mother loved to play the piano," said Dr. Christopher Gallaher, chair of MSU's Department of Music. "She played mostly by ear and would play a song in whatever key her hands landed on. I remember one time I bought her a 'fake' book with a number of familiar songs. She used the table of contents as a reference point, then chose a song and played it without looking at the music. She was a remarkable woman," he said.

After her husband's death, Mrs. Gallaher traveled extensively, visiting every continent and making several excursions to the North and South poles. "She visited each of the Pacific Islands where Dad had fought in World War II," Dr. Gallaher said.

This year the A. Frank and Bethel C. Gallaher Memorial Music Performance Competition at MSU featured 10 semi-finalists, the most entrants in the 12-year event, with the five finalists competing for the $1,000 cash prize. The winner will perform at the University's Academic Honors Convocation on Sunday, April 25, at 2 p.m. in Button Auditorium.

(MORE)

Gallaher Scholarship Competition
2-2-2-2

Finalists in this year's competition included: Julie Ackman, Falmouth junior, oboe, accompanied by Rebecca Hopper on piano, performing "Concerto for Oboe in C Major, K.314" by W. A. Mozart, first movement, Allegro aperto; Julia Graepel, Uhdingen, Germany, junior, flute, accompanied by Mary Ellen McNeill, performing "Sonata for Flute and Piano" by Eldin Burton, first and third movements, Allegretto grazioso and Allegro giocoso; Chi Wai Kam, Wan Chai, Hong Kong, junior, violin, accompanied by McNeill, performing "Scene de Ballet" by Charles de Beriot, three movements, Tempo di bolero, Adagio, and Allegro appassionato--Piu animato; Dean McCleese, Portsmouth, Ohio, junior, organ, performing "Toccata and Fugue in D minor, BWV 585" by J.S. Bach, and Jason Wiley, Flatwoods junior, trombone, accompanied by McNeill, performing "Arrows of Time (1997)," Movement I, by Richard Peaslee.

Judges for the semi-final competition were associated with the University. Included were Dr. J. E. Duncan, dean emeritus; Leo Blair, associate professor emeritus; and Myron Doan, dean of students. To maintain objectivity, judges for the final round of competition will be selected externally.

All full-time music majors with at least a 2.5 grade point average may compete for the Gallaher Scholarship. To participate, the student must perform from memory a work that is 8 to 10 minutes in length.

Contributions to the A. Frank and Bethel . Gallaher Memorial Music Performance Competition may be made through the MSU Foundation, Inc. by calling (606) 783-2031. Information on the competition is available from the Department of Music at (606) 783-2473.

####

Representative Copy: 10 similar releases sent to hometowns.

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 9, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Three Boyd County students will participate in the Morehead State University theatre students production of "Dancing at Lughnasa," April 13-18 in Kibbey Theatre on the MSU campus.

The students are:

Amy Adkins, a Catlettsburg senior math and theatre major, will play the role of Agnes. She is a member of the MSU Players and Theta Alpha Phi theatre honor society.

Beth Kouns, a Flatwoods senior, will appear as Christina. The daughter of Tom and Malissa Kouns, she is a member of the MSU Players and Theta Alpha Phi theatre honor society.

Michael Moore, an Ashland senior theatre major, will appear as Jack. The son of Marilyn "Mousie" Moore, he also is a member of Theta Alpha Phi.

Winner of the 1992 Tony Award, the play is a contemporary drama that portrays the lives of five unmarried sisters and their struggle for a living in a small Irish village in 1936 during the festival of Lughnasa.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, April 13-17, and 2 p.m. on Saturday, April 18. Because of limited seating, reservations are necessary. Tickets are $6 for adults, $2 for students and senior citizens, and free for MSU students with a valid I.D. card.

Additional information and reservations are available by calling MSU's Theatre Box Office at (606) 783-2170.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 9, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Three Boyd County students will participate in the Morehead State University theatre students production of "Dancing at Lughnasa," April 13-18 in Kibbey Theatre on the MSU campus.

The students are:

Amy Adkins, a Catlettsburg senior math and theatre major, will play the role of Agnes. She is a member of the MSU Players and Theta Alpha Phi theatre honor society.

Beth Kouns, a Flatwoods senior, will appear as Christina. The daughter of Tom and Malissa Kouns, she is a member of the MSU Players and Theta Alpha Phi theatre honor society.

Michael Moore, an Ashland senior theatre major, will appear as Jack. The son of Marilyn "Mousie" Moore, he also is a member of Theta Alpha Phi.

Winner of the 1992 Tony Award, the play is a contemporary drama that portrays the lives of five unmarried sisters and their struggle for a living in a small Irish village in 1936 during the festival of Lughnasa.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, April 13-17, and 2 p.m. on Saturday, April 18. Because of limited seating, reservations are necessary. Tickets are $6 for adults, $2 for students and senior citizens, and free for MSU students with a valid I.D. card.

Additional information and reservations are available by calling MSU's Theatre Box Office at (606) 783-2170.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 9, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Campbell County student will participate in the Morehead State University theatre students production of "Dancing at Lughnasa," April 13-18 in Kibbey Theatre on the campus.

Victoria L. Hein, a senior theatre major, will serve as sound designer for the production. The daughter of Charles and Nona Hein, she is a member of the MSU Players and Theta Alpha Phi theatre honor society.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, April 13-17, and 2 p.m. Sunday, April 18. Because of limited seating, reservations are necessary.

Tickets are $6 for adults, $2 for students and senior citizens, and free for MSU students with a valid I.D. card.

Additional information and reservations are available by calling MSU's Theatre Box Office at (606) 783-2170.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 9, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Fayette County student will participate in the Morehead State University theatre student production of "Dancing at Lughnasa," April 13-18 in Kibbey Theatre on the campus.

Matt Morpew, a Lexington sophomore theatre major, will play the role of Gerry in the production. A member of MSU Players, he also will assist with sound.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, April 13-17, and 2 p.m. Sunday, April 18. Because of limited seating, reservations are necessary.

Tickets are $6 for adults, $2 for students and senior citizens, and free for MSU students with a valid I.D.

Additional information and reservations are available by calling MSU's Theatre Box Office at (606) 783-2170.

#####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 9, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Grant County student will participate in the Morehead State University theatre students production of "Dancing at Lughnasa," April 13-18 in Kibbey Theatre on the campus.

Phil Ponder, a Crittendon senior theatre major, will serve as scenic designer for the production. He is a member of MSU Players and Theta Alpha Phi theatre honor society.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, April 13-17, and 2 p.m. Sunday, April 18. Because of limited seating, reservations are necessary.

Tickets are $6 for adults, $2 for students and senior citizens, and free for MSU students with a valid I.D. card.

Additional information and reservations are available by calling MSU's Theatre Box Office at (606) 783-2170.

#####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 9, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Harrison County student will participate in the Morehead State University theatre students production of "Dancing at Lughnasa," April 13-18 in Kibbey Theatre on the campus.

Emily B. Moses, a Cynthiana junior journalism major, will appear as Maggie in the production. The daughter of Steve and Marsha Moses, she is a member of the MSU Players and serves as opinion and managing editor of "The Trail Blazer," MSU's student newspaper.

Showtime is 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, April 13-17, and 2 p.m. Sunday, April 18. Because of limited seating, reservations are necessary.

Tickets are $6 for adults, $2 for students and senior citizens, and free for MSU students with a valid I.D. card.

Additional information and reservations are available by calling MSU's Theatre Box Office at (606) 783-2170.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 9, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Jessamine County student will participate in the Morehead State University theatre students production of "Dancing at Lughnasa," April 13-18 in Kibbey Theatre on the campus.

Audra Johns, a Wilmore junior theatre major, will appear as Kate in the performance. The daughter of Bradley and Donna Johns, she is a member of MSU Players and the Newman Center.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, April 13-17, and 2 p.m. Sunday, April 18. Because of limited seating, reservations are necessary.

Tickets are $6 for adults, $2 for students and senior citizens, and free for MSU students with a valid I.D. card

Additional information and reservations are available by calling MSU's Theatre Box Office at (606) 783-2170.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 9, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Two Johnson County students will participate in the Morehead State University theatre students production of "Dancing at Lughnasa," April 13-18 in Kibbey Theatre on the campus.

The students are:

Kristopher Castle, a Lowmansville sophomore theatre major, will appear as Michael in the production. The son of Gale and Carolyn Castle, he is a member of MSU Players and Theta Alpha Phi theatre honor society. He also will serve as props designer.

Elliott Van Hoose, a Tutor Key freshman communications major, is the assistant stage manager. The son of Kevin VanHoose and Robin Ward, he is a member of MSU Players and serves as sports announcer on WMKY FM 90.3, MSU's public radio station.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, April 13-17, and 2 p.m. Sunday, April 18. Because of limited seating, reservations are necessary.

Tickets are $6 for adults, $2 for students and senior citizens, and free for MSU students with a valid I.D. card.

Additional information and reservations are available by calling MSU's Theatre Box Office at (606) 783-2170.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 9, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Two Nelson County students will participate in the Morehead State University theatre students production of "Dancing at Lughnasa," April 13-18 in Kibbey Theatre on the campus.

The students are:

Misty Abel, a New Haven junior biology and psychology major, will serve as stage manager for the production. The daughter of Eddie and Faye Abel, she is a member of the Honors Program.

Angie Ford, a Cox's Creek junior art major, will serve as assistant stage manager for the production. The daughter of Tony and Carolyn Ford, she is active in the Kentucky Art Educators Association and the National Art Education Association. She also serves as secretary of MSU's Art Educators Group.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, April 13-17, and 2 p.m. Sunday, April 18. Because of limited seating, reservations are necessary.

Tickets are $6 for adults, $2 for students and senior citizens, and free for MSU students with a valid I.D. card.

Additional information and reservations are available by calling MSU's Theatre Box Office at (606) 783-2170.

#####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 9, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A Rowan County student will participate in the Morehead State University theatre students production of "Dancing at Lughnasa," April 13-18 in Kibbey Theatre on the campus.

Keith Allen McCormick II, a Morehead senior theatre and speech major, will appear as Michael in the production. The son of Keith and Beverly McCormick, he is a member of MSU Players and Theta Alpha Phi theatre honor society.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, April 13-17, and 2 p.m. Sunday, April 18. Because of limited seating, reservations are necessary.

Tickets are $6 for adults, $2 for students and senior citizens, and free for MSU students with a valid I.D. card.

Additional information and reservations are available by calling MSU's Theatre Box Office at (606) 783-2170.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 9, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Melissa Mattingly of Corbin will participate in the Morehead State University theatre students production of "Dancing at Lughnasa," April 13-18 in Kibbey Theatre on the campus.

Mattingly, a junior art and theatre major, will appear as Rose in the production and serve as assistant costume designer. She is a member of the MSU Players and Theta Alpha Phi theatre honor society.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, April 13-17, and 2 p.m. Sunday, April 18. Because of limited seating, reservations are necessary.

Tickets are $6 for adults, $2 for students and senior citizens, and free for MSU students with a valid I.D. card.

Additional information and reservations are available by calling MSU's Theatre Box Office at (606) 783-2170.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 9, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---A South Point, Ohio, student will participate in the Morehead State University theatre students production of "Dancing at Lughnasa," April 13-18 in Kibbey Theatre on the campus.

Elizabeth Payne, a junior theatre and art major, will serve as costume designer for the production. The daughter of Gerald and Rebecca Payne, she is a member of MSU Players, Theta Alpha Phi theatre honor society and the Honors Program.

Show time is 8 p.m. Tuesday through Saturday, April 13-17, and 2 p.m. Sunday, April 18. Because of limited seating, reservations are necessary.

Tickets are $6 for adults, $2 for students and senior citizens, and free for MSU students with a valid I.D. card.

Additional information and reservations are available by calling MSU's Theatre Box Office at (606) 783-2170.

#####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

April 9, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Morehead State University's Men's Chorus, Women's Chorus and University Chorus will present a Spring Concert on Monday, April 19, at 8 p.m. in Baird Music Hall on the campus.

The program, under the direction of Dr. Greg Detweiler, MSU assistant professor of music, is free and open to the public.

The featured work of the evening, performed by the University Chorus, will be "Rejoice in the Lamb" by Benjamin Britten, described as his most engaging and delightful choral works. Student soloists for the piece will be Carrie Hegge, Williamstown senior; Erin Jesse, Louisville senior; Tony Wise, Covington, Ohio, freshman, and Brent Sammons, Lovely junior. The University Chorus also will present "Set Me as a Seal" by Rene Clausen.

The Men's Chorus will open the program with a rousing "Brothers, Sing On." They will continue with two settings of the words of King David and two arrangements by a great American choral conductor, the late Robert Shaw. The pieces are "David's Lamentation" by William Billings, "The Last Words of David" by Randall Thompson, and Shaw's "Gentle Annie" and "What Shall We Do with the Drunken Sailor."

The Women's Chorus will perform "Laudate Pueri Dominum" by Mendelssohn, "The Blue Eye of God" by Nancy Telfer, "The Comic Duet for Two Cats" by Rossini, and an arrangement of the Mountain Ballad, "Will He Remember." "The Blue Eye of God" is an intense setting of a powerful poem by the Canadian, Barbara Powis, according to Dr. Detweiler. "The poem envisions the sea creature killed by man rising up and confronting their killers," he said.

Additional information is available by calling (606) 783-2480.

#####

April 12, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky:---Students, faculty members and graduates of Morehead State University's Department of Music will perform during the University's annual gala, "Jambalaya Jammin'," which will be held on Saturday, April 24, on the campus.

A variety of music will be highlighted, including Cajun, Creole, blues, big band, rock-n-roll and classical, according to Dr. Christopher Gallaher, department chair. Among the performers (listed alphabetically) will be:

Michael Acord, assistant professor; Julie Ackman, Falmouth junior; Mike Agee, Englewood, Ohio, senior; Wendy Amburgey, Lebanon, Ohio, freshman; Nicola Augsburg of Lexington; Nicholas Basham, Portsmouth, Ohio, junior; Wayne Bishop, Rowdy alumnus; H. Leo Blair, associate professor emeritus; Suanne Blair, assistant professor; Rob Brockman, Englewood, Ohio, junior; Dr. Jon Burgess, associate professor; Emily Butterfield, instructor; Andrew Carson, assistant professor; Darrin Connoroe, Hamilton, Ohio, senior; Wayne Coots, London junior; Dr. Sue Creasap, assistant professor; Duwayne Dale, Mt. Sterling graduate student; Margaret Davidson of Lexington; Nick Diedrichsen, Stratford, Conn., sophomore; Kyle Dixon, Greenup sophomore; Adria Dowd, Bardstown senior; Travis Gates, Cincinnati sophomore; Dr. Andrew Glendening, associate professor; Brian Hall of Institute, W.Va; Dr. Curt Hammond, associate professor; Sarah Hitch of Lexington; Sarah Hill of Lexington; Derek Hinderliter, Hamilton, Ohio, senior; Ed Holmes, Morehead; Rondecca Kam, Hong Kong junior; Dave Kazee, Salyersville alumnus; Larry Keenan, professor; Vanessa Keeton, Wurtland senior; Chris Kennedy, Newark, Ohio, sophomore; Rebecca Kiekenapp of Lexington; Chris Lafferty, Prestonsburg senior; Robert Lancaster of Lexington; Dr. Ricky Little, assistant professor; Janet Lowman, Ashland alumnus; Stacy McGoodwin of Lexington; Dr. Richard Miles, professor; Matt Moon, Belfry freshman; Peter Neubert of Lexington; Bradley Nunn, Buckner graduate student; Frank Oddis, associate professor; James Owen, Covington sophomore; Dr. Robert Pritchard, associate professor; Daniel Reardon, Danville junior; Ed Reid,

(MORE)

Musicians

2-2-2-2

Frankfort freshman; Ray Ross Jr., assistant professor; Rachel Samms, Hamilton, Ohio, junior; Brian Shultz, Cincinnati, sophomore; Jessica Sergent, Jenkins sophomore; Brian Silvey, Maysville junior; Christina Simpson of Lexington; Reed Smith of Lexington; Andrew Spinazzola, Newark, Ohio, freshman; Monica Workings-Stock of Lexington; Daniel Stupakiewicz, Pickerington, Ohio, senior; Dr. Paul Taylor, associate professor; Dr. Gordon Towell, assistant professor; Jeremiah True, Corinth senior; Dr. John Viton, associate professor; Jesse Wells, Red Bush junior; Jason Wiley, Flatwoods junior, and Matthew Young of Lexington.

Additional information on the University's gala is available by calling (606) 783-2033.

####

Photo

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

606-783-2030

'JAMBALAYA JAMMIN' AT MSU

With Cajun and Creole cuisine, a zydeco band and Da Big Easy musical revue, Morehead State University will be rocking New Orleans style during "Jamablaya Jammin" at the 1999 annual gala on Saturday, April 24. Gala-goers will enjoy the excitement of a carnival in the French Quarter and making a purchase at the Riverwalk Market or the silent auction on this special evening. All proceeds will benefit the University's academic programs. Checking out the beads and bangles in preparation for the occasion are, seated from left, Susette Redwine and Dr. Yvonne Baldwin. Standing is the Ragin' Cajun, a.k.a. Andrew Carlson, and Dr. Christopher Gallaher. Additional information is available by calling MSU's Office of Development and Alumni Relations at (606) 783-2033.

(MSU photo by Tim Holbrook)

4-12-99py

*Morehead News
Hoyd Co. Times
Bath Co. News
Trail Blazer
Mt. Sterling Advocate
Winchester Sun*

HIGHLIGHTS AT MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY

(April 18-24)

Sunday, April 18

3 P.M. SENIOR RECITAL: Barry Milner, composition, Duncan Recital Hall, 3 p.m.; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Monday, April 19

8 A.M. THIRD ANNUAL MSU EAGLE BASKETBALL GOLF TOURNAMENT, Eagle Trace Golf Course, $75 per person, includes lunch. Additional information: (606) 783-2593.

ART EXHIBIT: "Senior Show," through May 6, gallery, Claypool-Young Art Building; gallery hours 8 a.m.-4 p.m., weekdays; no charge for viewing. Opening reception April 21, 7-9 p.m. Additional information: (606) 783-5446.

7:30 P.M. UNIVERSITY SATELLITE SEMINAR SERIES: "Behind the Scenes: 'Saturday Night Live,'" 116 Breckinridge Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2602.

8 P.M. CONCERT: MSU Choirs, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Dr. Greg Detweiler, director. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Tuesday, April 20

8 P.M. CONCERT: MSU Jazz Bands "Big Band," Duncan Recital Hall; free. Gordon Towell, director. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Thursday, April 22

8 P.M. CONCERT: MSU Tuba/Euphonium Ensemble, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Stacy Baker, director. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Friday, April 23

3 P.M. TEACHER EDUCATION REFORM SYMPOSIUM, 419 Reed Hall, MSU faculty representatives will be featured speakers, part seven of the seven-part "Teaching the Teachers for the 21st Century: A Morehead State University Symposium;" free. Additional information: (606) 783-2452.

4 P.M. GUEST RECITAL: Matt Vaughn, trombone, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

(MORE)

HIGHLIGHTS

2-2-2-2

Saturday, April 24

1 P.M. FOURTH ANNUAL BLUE/GOLD STEER AND HEIFER PREVIEW SHOW, Derrickson Agricultural Complex; open registration, 7-11 a.m. Additional information: (606) 783-2660.

3 P.M. EAGLE BASEBALL: MSU vs. Middle Tennessee, Allen Field, doubleheader; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

6 P.M. ANNUAL SPRING GALA: "Jambalaya Jammin'," Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center; ticket required. Additional information: (606) 783-2033.

####

4-12-99lc

MSU SERVICE HONOREES

Several Morehead State University employees were honored recently for attaining milestones in their years of service with the University. MSU President Ronald G. Eaglin congratulated each employee as he awarded a service pin symbolic of their achievement. Among those participating were, front row from left, Suzanne Hogge, 10 years; Alta Blair, 15, and Debra Morris, 10. Middle row from left, Dr. Eaglin, Georgia Grigsby, 20; Michelle Hardin, 10; Valerie Ousley, 10, and Lonnie Morris, 10. Back row from left, Keith Kappes, 30; Phyllis DeHart, 15; Vanessa Weikel, 10; Dr. Don Applegate, 15; Norwood Caudill, 25, and David Tackett, 20.

(MSU photo by Tim Holbrook)

4-12-99ahn

*Morehead News
Trail Blazer*

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 13, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The Morehead State University jazz bands will present a concert of Big Band Swing music on Tuesday, April 20, at 8 p.m., in Duncan Recital Hall on the campus.

Featured in this performance will be MSU's two 18-piece jazz bands, performing some of the greatest hits from the 1930s, '40s and '50s as recorded by the bands of Duke Ellington, Count Basie, Glen Miller, Benny Goodman and Stan Kenton.

The Jazz I Band is directed by Dr. Gordon Towell, assistant professor of music. Jazz II is directed by Bradley Nunn, MSU graduate student from LaGrange.

The concert format will be the traditional "battle of the bands" with both ensembles on stage, combining for a rendition of "Sing, Sing, Sing" as the concert closes.

The performance is free and open to the public. Additional information is available by calling MSU's Department of Music at (606) 783-2473.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 13, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---An estate planning seminar, sponsored by Morehead State University's Office of Development and Alumni Relations, will be held on Tuesday, May 4, beginning at 10:15 a.m. in the Riggle Room of the Adron Doran University Center.

"Estate planning affects us all, regardless of our income level," said Dr. William Higginbotham, special assistant to the president. "It is one of the most important issues we face as we plan our retirement or try to maximize our finances in our senior years."

The featured speaker for the seminar will be attorney Renee Montague of Newberry, Hargraves and Rambicure in Lexington, an MSU alumnus. "Mrs. Montague will address the complete range of estate planning options," Dr. Higginbotham said.

Lunch, at a cost of $5 per person, will be served following the program. While there is no charge for the seminar, reservations for the session and the luncheon are requested by Monday, April 26.

Additional information and reservations are available by calling (606) 783-2033.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 13, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The Third Annual MSU Eagle Basketball Golf Tournament will be held Monday, April 19, at Eagle Trace Golf Course in Morehead.

Registration for the scramble begins at 8 a.m. with a shotgun start at 9 a.m.

Following completion of the tournament, lunch will be served for all participants, and an awards ceremony will honor the day's winners.

Cost for the event is $75 per person. Proceeds from the tournament will benefit the MSU's men's basketball program.

Participants also may register now for the Sixth Annual MSU Eagle Basketball-Pepsi Tournament to be held at the Players Club in Lexington on Monday, Aug. 2. The cost of registration for this event is $100, but participants who register for both tournaments before Friday, April 16, will receive a $25 discount.

Additional information regarding upcoming golf outings is available from Brian Hutchinson, MSU's athletic development director, at (606) 783-2593.

#####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 13, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.----Morehead State University will host more than 700 high school students from Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana for the annual Eastern Kentucky Future Farmers of America Field Day Judging Contest scheduled for Friday, April 30.

The program, sponsored by MSU's Department of Agricultural Sciences, will begin at 9 a.m. at the Derrickson Agricultural Complex.

Competition in individual and team judging will include livestock, dairy, horse, tractor driving, soils, tobacco grading and auctioneering and horticulture. Also, this year there will be competition in agriculture mechanics skills, demonstrations and public speaking.

Plaques and ribbons will be awarded in each division. The winners are eligible to compete in state level contests to be held later this year.

Additional information is available from Dr. Don Applegate, MSU associate professor of agriculture and field day coordinator, at (606) 783-2671.

####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 13, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Susette Redwine, university center and events program coordinator at Morehead State University, has been elected chair of the board of directors for the National Association for Campus Activities (NACA). Her term begins May 1.

As chair, Redwine will preside at all NACA national meetings, board of directors meetings and executive committee sessions. She will be responsible for appointing all standing, special and ad hoc committees and commissions, as well as serving as an ex-officio member of all committees.

Redwine's involvement with NACA began in 1984. Since then, she has represented the organization in a number of capacities, including serving as regional coordinator for the Great Lakes Region, chair of the commission for campus activities and member of the finance committee. She is currently serving as chair-elect.

A national not-for-profit membership association, NACA has been linking students and campus activities professionals with talent agencies, self-represented artists, lecturers and promotional specialities firms since 1960. NACA is committed to inspiring excellence in student leadership development and programs outside the classroom, advancing the campus activities profession and enhancing the campus activities marketplace.

The professional organization, headquartered in Columbia, S.C., includes nearly 1,200 colleges and universities across the country and more than 600 talent, lecture and promotional agencies nationwide.

In her current role at the University since 1985, she formerly served as assistant director of student activities and organizations, 1980-85, and as assistant director of the university center, 1978-80.

She is a two-time graduate of MSU where she earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education and a master's degree in higher education with an emphasis in administration.

#####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 13, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Dr. Beverly McCormick, professor of real estate and assistant vice president for retention at Morehead State University, is serving as national president of the Real Estate Educators Association (REEA).

REEA is an international organization serving professional real estate educators, proprietary school owners, college and university instructors and state real estate commission education directors by providing quality education programs, publications and networking opportunities, according to Dr. McCormick. Its purpose is to promote a thriving real estate marketplace through quality education.

Dr. McCormick, who has been a member of the organization since 1986, helped form Kentucky's chapter and served as its first president. She also has served as regional vice president, secretary, treasurer and president-elect prior to her current office in the organization.

"I have really enjoy being associated with REEA," she said. "It is on the cutting edge of information in the real estate industry and the presentation skills of the educators, speakers and trainers are phenomenal."

Communication among real estate educators is the primary value of the organization, according to Dr. McCormick. "People share everything they do," she said. "It is a cooperation and exchange of a variety of professional ideas."

A Web page and chat service allows communication among REEA members around the globe. A monthly newsletter features articles written by members about their successes, methods for improving educational skills and the latest information from REEA headquarters. "Through these services, members have access to the very latest information regarding the industry and are up-to-date on national real estate trends," Dr. McCormick said.

In addition to her work with REEA, she also serves on the selection committee for the Distinguished Real Estate Instructor designation and works with the Kentucky Real Estate Commission regarding real estate education and law.

Dr. McCormick will preside over REEA's national convention during the first week of June. The annual conference features a combination of concurrent workshop sessions and information networking opportunities, bringing members face-to-face with colleagues from around the world.

####

April 14, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Morehead State University faculty and alumni as well as artists, journalists and lawyers are encouraged to apply for the Fulbright Senior Scholar Awards for U.S. Faculty and Professionals: 2000-2001 Competition.

Opportunities for lecturing or advanced research in more than 125 countries are available to college and university faculty as well as to professionals outside academe. Many of the awards, which range from 2 to 12 months, are flexible to the needs of grantees. In addition, a number of open awards allow applicants to suggest their own grant activities and host institutions.

"The Fulbright Program provides educators and professionals the opportunity to immerse themselves in a culture very different from their own for an extended period of time," said Dr. Michael Seelig, special assistant to the president at Morehead State University. After receiving a Fulbright Senior Scholars Program grant in 1990, he took a sabbatical from teaching to conduct research regarding child welfare issues in Ethiopia.

"It was one of the greatest experiences of my life," Dr. Seelig said. "I would especially encourage our junior faculty to apply as soon as they are eligible for sabbatical."

Every year, grants are awarded to faculty at all types of institutions and at all academic rankings, including emeritus. International education administrators regularly receive Fulbrights, as do independent scholars, artists, and a wide range of professionals from the public and private sectors.

"I have found that the recognition of being a Fulbright Scholar opens the doors to several other opportunities in higher education," Dr. Seelig said. "I have also found that the Fulbright experience is very much available to MSU faculty."

Dr. Seelig suggests that applicants use a strategy for selecting a lecture/research destination. "In developing countries, more opportunities are available whereas applications to European countries are much more competitive," he said. "The booklet published by the Fulbright Program details, by country, what types of services and how many researchers and lecturers are needed. It also gives a history of the number of applications received and how many are accepted in each country. This helps in developing a strategy for the application process," he said.

(MORE)

Fulbright Scholar
2-2-2-2

The deadline for lecturing and research grants for 2000-2001 is Aug. 1. Other deadlines are in effect for special programs: distinguished Fulbright chairs in Europe and Canada, May 1, international education administrators programs and the Fulbright German studies seminar, Nov. 1, and NATO advanced research fellowships and institutional grants, Jan. 1, 2000.

The basic eligibility requirements for a Fulbright senior scholar award are U.S. citizenship and the Ph.D. or comparable professional qualifications such as a terminal degree in fine arts. For lecturing awards, university or college teaching experience is expected. Foreign language skills are needed for some countries but many lecturing assignments are in English.

Funding for the Fulbright Program is provided by the United States Information Agency, on behalf of the U.S. government, and by cooperating governments and host institutions abroad.

For further information and application materials, contact the USIA Fulbright Scholar Program, Council for International Exchange of Scholars, 3007 Tilden Street, NW, Suite 5L, Washington, DC 20008-3009 or by telephone at (202) 686-7877.

Additional information is available from Dr. Seelig at (606) 783-2452.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 14, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The Veterinary Technology Program at Morehead State University has received continued full accreditation from the American Veterinary Medical Association's Committee on Veterinary Technician Education and Activities through Dec. 31, 2001.

A biennial report was submitted to the AVMA this year which detailed the program's progress in meeting national standards, according to Dr. Scott Rundell, coordinator of MSU's Veterinary Technology Program.

"Accreditation is absolutely essential to the success of the program," Dr. Rundell said. "Achieving that standard is an ongoing effort. It really demonstrates the dedication and hard work of our faculty and staff."

The program is scheduled for a complete evaluation and site visit in 2001.

Additional information about the program is available by calling (606) 783-2326.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 14, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The Morehead State University Concert Band will present a concert on Thursday, April 29, 8 p.m., in Duncan Recital Hall.

The 100-member band will be directed by Dr. Susan Creasap, MSU assistant director of bands and assistant professor of music education.

The program, which is free and open to the public, will include works by Fred Allen, Ray Steadman-Allen, James Barnes, Jacob de Haan, Clare Grundman, and John Phillip Sousa.

A highlight of the performance will be the selection, "Trail of Tears," by James Barnes. This work describes the tragic journey of more than 4,000 Native Americans who were removed from their sovereign lands in the dead of winter and relocated to Oklahoma in 1838, according to Dr. Creasap. "The band performs this moving composition in hopes that by remembering our previous acts of inhumanity, we may learn to become more humane," she said.

Additional information is available by calling Dr. Creasap at (606) 783-2488 or the University Bands office at 783-2486.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 14, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The Department of English, Foreign Languages and Philosophy at Morehead State University is sponsoring two literary readings at the Kentucky Folk Art Center later this month.

Performance poet C. D. Collins and Pincurl will entertain on Tuesday, April 20, at 7:30 p.m. in celebration of April as American Poetry Month.

A Kentucky Writers Day Reading, which is slated for Friday, April 23, at 7:30 p.m., will feature local writers. Among the readers will be Matt Branham, Phil Bachus, Kathy Winter, Ken Casper, Eric Collins, Alan Perkins, Shannon Collins and Chris Turner.

The programs are free and open to the public. Jayro MacNeil will provide the entertainment and refreshments will be served. Additional information is available from Carol Mauriello, instructor of English, at (606) 783-5166.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 15, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---The Upward Bound Program, hosted by Morehead State University, will participate in the federally funded Summer Food Service Program for Children. The program operates under guidelines similar to those of public school food service programs. Participating in the program enables sponsors to provide lower program costs.

The program is available to eligible Upward Bound students 18 years of age and younger. All participants will be served the same meals at no separate charge regardless of race, color, national origin, age, sex, or disability and there is no discrimination in the food service.

The following scale is the current family-size and income criteria used in determining eligibility at camp sites:

Family Size	Income Eligibility Guidelines
1	$ 14,893
2	20,073
3	25,253
4	30,433
5	35,613
6	40,793
7	45,973
8	51,153
For each additional family member, add $5,180

Persons who believe they may have been discriminated against in the Summer Food Service Program may write the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, DC 20250.

Additional information on this program is available by calling Jennifer Cady, MSU Upward Bound project director, at (606) 783-2611.

####

MSU SPRING GALA INCLUDES SILENT AUCTION

Among the highlights at the spring gala at Morehead State University will be a silent auction, featuring a variety of art works and specialty items. The gala, "Jambalaya Jammin'," will be Saturday, April 24. Bidding on silent auction items will not be limited to gala guests, but also will be open to the public. Area residents may preview and place bids on the items which will be displayed in East Rooms A and B in the Adron Doran University Center on Thursday, April 22, 10 a.m.-6 p.m.; Friday, April 23, 10 a.m.-4 p.m., and Saturday, 10 a.m.-2 p.m. The auction is being coordinated by MSU's College of Business and Department of Art. Bob Franzini, chair of the Department of Art, displays some of the items which are for sale. Among the items are a miniature bronze reproduction of a galloping horse that will be installed in Lexington, a reproduction of the first Chinese emperor's chariot, a handmade work by alumnus Jerri George of Olive Hill and an original watercolor landscape by alumnus Sam McKinney of Elliottville.

(MSU photo by Tim Holbrook)

*Morehead News
Olive Hill
Ledger-Independent*

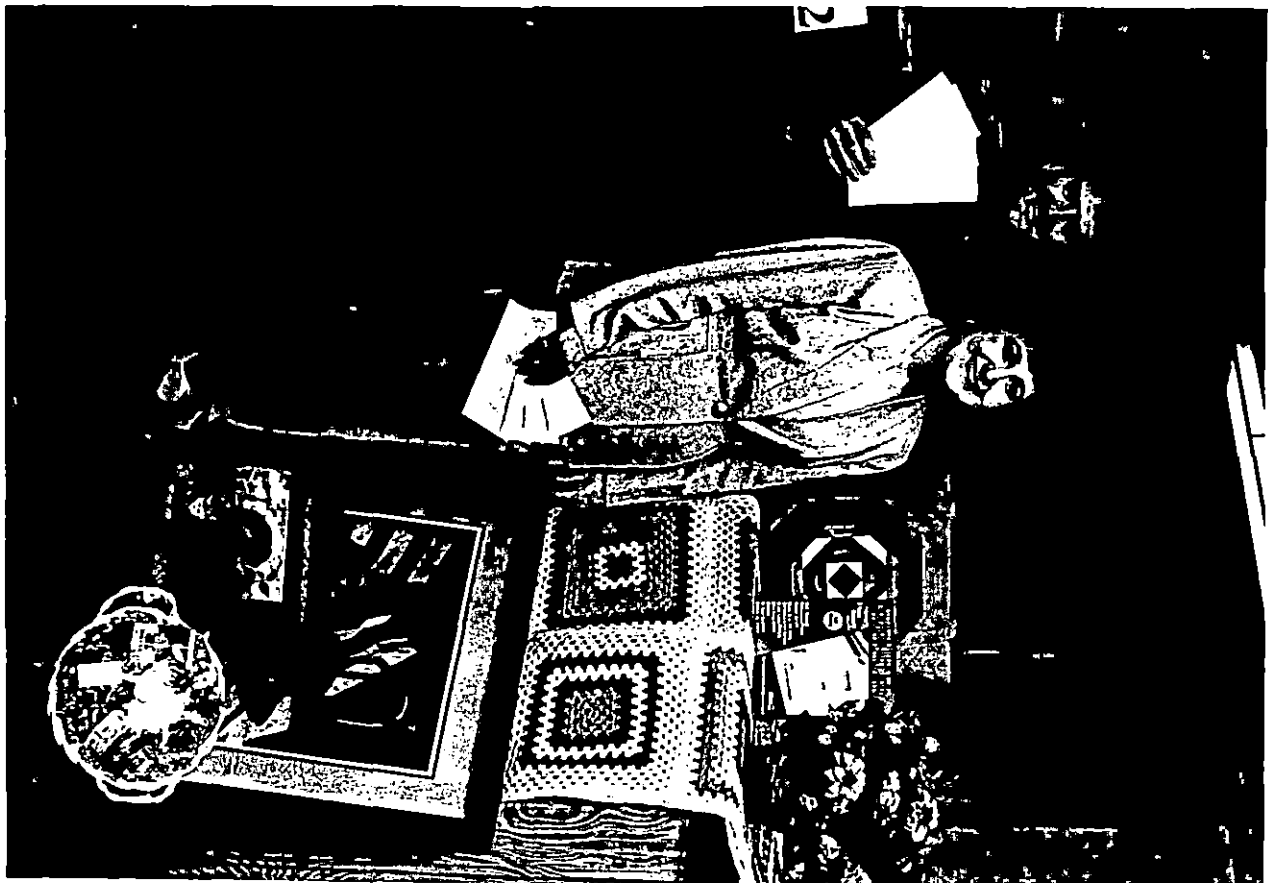

MSU SPRING GALA INCLUDES SILENT AUCTION

Among the highlights at the spring gala at Morehead State University will be a silent auction, featuring a variety of art works and specialty items. The gala, "Jambalaya Jammin'," will be Saturday, April 24. Bidding on silent auction items will not be limited to gala guests, but also will be open to the public. Area residents may preview and place bids on the items which will be displayed in East Rooms A and B in the Adron Doran University Center on Thursday, April 22, 10 a.m.-6 p.m.; Friday, April 23, 10 a.m.-4 p.m., and Saturday, 10 a.m.-2 p.m. The auction is being coordinated by MSU's College of Business and Department of Art. Dr. Bob Albert, interim chair of the College of Business, and Janet Ratliff, economic education program director, share some of the items that are up for bid. Included are an autographed script by Linda Gray, Ray Harm print, sports memorabilia, UK basketball tickets, golf packages and weekend getaway packages to Pigeon Forge/Gatlinburg.

(MSU photo by Tim Holbrook)

*Morehead News
Licking Valley Courier*

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 16, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Dean McCleese, a junior music performance major from Portsmouth, Ohio, was the winner of the 1999 A. Frank and Bethel C. Gallaher Music Performance Competition at Morehead State University.

As the competition winner, he will be the featured performer at the University's Academic Awards Convocation on Sunday, April 25, at 2 p.m. in Button Auditorium. The event is free and open to the public.

McCleese competed against four other finalists to win the $1,000 cash scholarship. "I was so shocked," he said regarding the award. "The other performances were absolutely spectacular. I really didn't feel that I would be the one who would win."

Although his primary instrument is the tuba, McCleese played the organ in the competition, performing J. S. Bach's "Toccatina and Fugue in D minor, BWV 585." While he had worked on this piece of music before, this was the first time he had ever performed it in competition.

"Larry Keenan (MSU professor of music) is my keyboard professor and we had been working on this piece for three years," McCleese said. "He encouraged me to enter the Gallaher competition. When I won, I was even happier for him than I was for myself, to know that he had taught me, not just to play the notes, but to play music."

McCleese began playing the organ in high school. "We had a Hammond C-3 organ at Clay High School in Portsmouth. I became interested in that sound, so I began teaching myself to play a few songs," he said.

His interest in band performance began when he was a youngster, going to basketball games with his parents. "Everybody else was there for the game but I wanted to see the band play." He began playing trumpet in his elementary school band, but "during my eighth grade year, the band needed a tuba player, so I took up the tuba," he said. "I didn't really get serious about it, though, until I was a senior in high school." He has been playing the tuba for about seven years and currently studies with Stacy Baker, assistant professor of music at Morehead State.

(MORE)

Gallaher Award Winner
2-2-2-2

McCleese is the son of Dr. Howard and Sue McCleese of Portsmouth, Ohio and the grandson of Dorothy Curtis of Sciotoville, Ohio.

The Academic Awards Convocation is the first in a series honoring students for academic achievement. The weeklong celebration, which runs April 25-30, will feature the Caudill College of Humanities Luncheon on Tuesday, April 27; College of Education and Behavior Sciences Breakfast on Wednesday, April 28; College of Science and Technology Luncheon on Thursday, April 29, and College of Business Honors/Scholarship Banquet on Friday, April 30.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 16, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Morehead State University will recognize scholastic achievement by students and faculty during its 15th annual Academic Awards Week, April 25-30.

Throughout the week, the colleges and various departments will recognize outstanding endeavors by their students. Kicking off the activities will be the traditional Academic Awards Convocation at 2 p.m. on Sunday, April 25, in Button Auditorium.

Awards for excellence will be presented by many of the University's academic departments to their outstanding graduate and undergraduate students at the convocation.

Gena Henry, Morehead senior, will be the student speaker. A dean's list student, she is active in the Academic Honors Student Association where she has held the offices of vice president and secretary. A freshman and sophomore honoree of the University's chapter of Phi Kappa Phi honor society, she was a resident adviser for the Kentucky Governor's Scholar's Program in 1996 and 1997.

An English and philosophy major, Henry, the daughter of Gordon and Sheila Henry of Ezel, is the wife of Michael D. Muncy. A graduate of Morgan County High School, she is a candidate for the Bachelor of Arts degree in May. She was recently accepted for the graduate program in communications at the University of Kentucky where she will begin coursework in the fall.

A member of the Honors Program since coming to the MSU campus in 1995, Henry has given presentations at the national, regional and state level. She addressed success in distance education at the Southern Regional Honors Council Conference, held in Little Rock, Ark., earlier this month. She also spoke at the National Collegiate Honors Council Conference in Atlanta and Southeast Regional Honors Roundtable in Baton Rouge, La., in 1997, national conference in San Francisco, Calif., and regional meeting in Norfolk, Va., in 1996.

Currently completing a cooperative education experience at the "Morehead News" where she does reporting, feature writing and photography, Henry has worked in the University's Marketing Support (formerly Office of Publications) where, as an editorial assistant, she wrote and edited copy, compiled brochures and conducted interviews for university publications.

(MORE)

Academic Awards Convocation

2-2-2-2

The recipients of the University's most prestigious faculty honors—Distinguished Teacher, Distinguished Researcher and Distinguished Creative Productions awards—also will be announced at the convocation.

Established by the Alumni Association, the Distinguished Teacher Award recognizes an educator, selected by a faculty/student committee, as one whose contributions to the student educational experience are truly outstanding.

Created by MSU's Research and Creative Productions Committee, the Distinguished Researcher and Distinguished Creative Productions awards are designed to recognize special achievements in research and creative productivity.

Dr. Michael R. Moore, executive vice president for Academic Affairs, will present the faculty awards while the outstanding student awards will be announced by Dr. Marc Glasser, associate vice president for Academic Affairs and dean of Graduate and Undergraduate Programs.

Dr. George M. Luckey, Jr., Academic Honors Program director and professor of philosophy, will preside at the convocation and MSU President Ronald G. Eaglin will present the graduate and undergraduate awards. A reception will follow.

In addition, students maintaining perfect grade point averages and graduating seniors in the Academic Honors Program will be recognized, along with the winner of the A. Frank and Bethel C. Gallaher Memorial Music Performance Competition Award, Dean McCleese, Portsmouth, Ohio, junior, who will perform.

Additional opportunities are scheduled throughout the week in the Adron Doran University Center to honor outstanding achievement, including a luncheon on Tuesday, April 27, to honor students in the Caudill College of Humanities, while the College of Education and Behavioral Sciences will recognize its students at a 7 a.m. breakfast on Wednesday, April 28. Students in the College of Science and Technology will recognize its students at an 11:30 a.m. luncheon on Thursday, April 29, while the College of Business has scheduled an honors/scholarship banquet for 6:30 p.m. on Friday, April 30. Faculty and staff research will be recognized during the Research and Creative Productions Luncheon at 11:30 a.m. on Wednesday, April 28.

####

py

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 19, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Members of the community are invited to celebrate New Year's Eve in April with an OperaWorks performance of Act II from Johann Strauss's Viennese comedy, "Die Fledermaus" ("The Revenge of the Bat") on Tuesday, April 27, 8 p.m., in Duncan Recital Hall on the Morehead State University campus.

This performance will serve as a kick-off for 11 MSU students who will be studying in Austria this summer with the Kentucky Institute for International Studies in Salzburg.

The event is free and open to the public. A raffle and drawing for a VCR will be held during the performance to benefit the students' expenses for the five-week summer program.

The action of "Die Fledermaus, Act II" takes place at a grand party at the home of eccentric Prince Orlofsky. A celebrated pants role for mezzo-soprano, Orlofsky is played by Barbara Parker, Louisa senior. Other featured performers in the production are: Jonathan Adkins, Morehead junior, as Dr. Falke, the perpetrator of the action in this evening of disguise and comedy; Tonya Castle, Ulysses senior, as Rosalinda Eisenstein, who masquerades as a mysterious Hungarian countess; Chris Conley, Mt. Sterling freshman, as the countess' husband, Gabriel, who, not knowing who she is, falls in love with her at the party; Janean Freeman, interim station manager at WMKY 90.3 FM, as their naughty chambermaid, Adele; Carrie Hegge, Williamstown senior, as Sally, her sister, a ballerina; Norvel Perkins, Owingsville senior, as Prison Governor Frank; and Drew Slone, Mt. Sterling freshman, as Ivan the Major-Domo.

Members of the ensemble include Michelle Agee, Mt. Sterling sophomore; John Bender, Portsmouth, Ohio, freshman; Doris Bolt, Louisa freshman; Jennifer Daugherty, Union freshman; Alicia Flinchum, Irvine sophomore; Sandi Hunt, Morehead graduate student; Christine Meyer, Leipsic, Ohio, sophomore; Michelle Napier, Louisa senior; Rick Pannell, Louisa freshman; Keith Reid, Manchester freshman; Veda Ruggieri, Tipp City, Ohio, sophomore; Tanya Thacker, Pikeville freshman, and Kellie Wilson, Mt. Sterling sophomore.

(MORE)

"Die Fledermaus"

2-2-2-2

Featured dancers in the production are Amanda Layne, Raccoon senior, and Stephen Brashear, Jeff sophomore. Special mystery guests will add to the intrigue of the evening with gypsy music and other surprises. Jennifer Hughes, West Van Lear senior, is the accompanist for the production.

OperaWorks is directed by Dr. Roma Prindle, professor of music. Additional information regarding the performance is available by calling (606) 783-2481.

####

lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 19, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Morehead State University faculty members have studied teacher education programs from across the country and throughout the state during the last four months. They have heard success stories and discussed alternatives for improvement.

On Friday, April 24, the University's faculty will share their findings at the last session of the "Teaching the Teachers for the 21st Century: A Morehead State University Symposium on the Future of Teacher Education." The program begins at 3 p.m. in the Riggle Room, Adron Doran University Center.

Members of the University's Teacher Education Council will discuss the status of the teacher education program. Presentations and presenters scheduled are:

"Brief commentary on the state of the art of teacher education," by Dr. Cathy Barlow, chair of the Department of Elementary, Reading and Special Education, and Dr. Deborah Grubb, assistant professor of education,

"Arts and Sciences Perspective" by Dr. Nancy Peterson, associate professor of English.

"Faculty Issues and Concerns" by Dr. Wayne Willis, professor of education.

"Reflections and Directions" by Rosemarie Gold, director of the Clearinghouse of School Services and Certification.

During the seven-part series, which was proposed by MSU President Ronald G. Eaglin, educators have heard from the chancellor of the University System of Maryland; president of the Council on Postsecondary Education; commissioner of the Kentucky Department of Education, and representatives from the Kentucky Professional Standards Board.

Additional information is available by calling (606) 783-2452.

####

Tips

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606)783-2030

HIGHLIGHTS AT MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY

(April 25-May 1)

Sunday, April 25

1 P.M. EAGLE BASEBALL: MSU vs. Middle Tennessee, Allen Field; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

2 P.M. ACADEMIC AWARDS CONVOCATION, part of Academic Awards Week, Button Auditorium; reception to follow, lawn of the President's Home. Additional information: (606) 783-2807.

3 P.M. SOPHOMORE RECITAL: James Owen, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

8 P.M. CONCERT: MSU Orchestra, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Andrew Carlson, director. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Monday, April 26

ART EXHIBIT: "Senior Show," through May 6, gallery, Claypool-Young Art Building; gallery hours 8 a.m.-4 p.m., weekdays; no charge for viewing. Additional information: (606) 783-5446.

Tuesday, April 27

11:30 A.M. CAUDILL COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES LUNCHEON, part of Academic Awards Week, Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center. Additional information: (606) 783-2807.

6 P.M. EAGLE BASEBALL: MSU vs. University of Louisville, Allen Field; free. Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

8 P.M. MSU OPERAWORKS: "Die Fledermaus," Duncan Recital Hall; free. Dr. Roma Prindle, director. Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Wednesday, April 28

7 A.M. COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES BREAKFAST, part of Academic Awards Week, Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center. Additional information: (606) 783-2807.

11:30 A.M. RESEARCH AND CREATIVE PRODUCTIONS LUNCHEON, part of Academic Awards Week, Commonwealth Room, Adron Doran University Center. Additional information: (606) 783-2010.

(MORE)

HIGHLIGHTS

2-2-2-2

6 P.M. EAGLE BASEBALL: MSU vs. University of Cincinnati, Allen Field; free.
Additional information: (606) 783-2881.

8 P.M. SENIOR RECITAL: Tonya Castle, soprano, Duncan Recital Hall; free.
Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Thursday, April 29

11:30 A.M. COLLEGE OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY LUNCHEON, part of Academic Awards Week, Crager Room, Adron Doran University Center. Additional information: (606) 783-2807.

8 P.M. MSU CONCERT BAND, Duncan Recital Hall; free. Susan Creasap, director.
Additional information: (606) 783-2473.

Friday, April 30

6:30 P.M. COLLEGE OF BUSINESS HONORS/SCHOLARSHIP BANQUET, part of Academic Awards Week, Commonwealth Room, Adron Doran University Center. Additional information: (606) 783-2807.

#####

4-21-99lc

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

SUBJECT: SENIOR ART SHOW OPENING RECEPTION

RELEASE DATE: NOW THRU 7 P.M. TODAY

TIME: 30 SEC.

ANNOUNCER:

MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY'S DEPARTMENT
OF ART WILL HOST A RECEPTION FOR THE
OPENING OF THE "SENIOR SHOW" ON WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21, FROM 7 TO 9 P.M., IN
THE GALLERY OF CLAYPOOL-YOUNG ART
BUILDING. MEMBERS OF THE CAMPUS AND COMMUNITY ARE INVITED TO JOIN IN THE CELEBRATION OF THE ARTISTIC ACHIEVEMENTS OF THESE SENIOR STUDENTS.
REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED. THE SHOW
WILL BE ON DISPLAY THROUGH MAY 6.

####

4-21-99lc

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 22, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Morehead State University's Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation will host the 20th Annual National Youth Sports Program, June 23-July 29, on the campus.

The program is available to 275 participants who are age 10-16 years and live within a 10-county radius of Morehead. The camp operates under federal guidelines, the same as those of public school food service programs. All children will be served the same meals at no charge regardless of race, color, national origin, age, sex or disability.

The following is the current family size and income criteria used in determining eligibility at camp sites:

Family Size	Income Eligibility Guidelines
1	$ 14,893
2	20,073
3	25,253
4	30,433
5	35,613
6	40,793
7	45,973
8	51,153
For each additional family member, add $5,180

Additional information on the National Youth Sports Camp is available by calling Chris Thornsberry in MSU's Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation at (606) 783-2599.

####

lc

April 22, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Students in Morehead State University's chapter of Phi Beta Lambda brought home 19 awards and two members were elected to state offices at the Kentucky State Leadership Conference held recently in Louisville.

The students were recognized for their accomplishments during an awards ceremony. MSU's students will represent the state of Kentucky at PBL's national leadership conference in Chicago in July.

The individual event winners were:

FIRST PLACE: Christy Crouch, an Owingsville sophomore, Accounting I; Jim Jarrells, a Morehead senior, Computer Concepts; Jason Robbins, a London junior, Information Management, Randi Jo Sturgill, an Ashland junior, Ms. Future Business Teacher.

SECOND PLACE: Sheldon Kozee, a Grayson freshman, Mr. Future Business Teacher; Rob Lymangrover, a West Chester, Ohio, junior, Finance, and Michael Muncy, an Inez senior, Telecommunications; THIRD PLACE: Neal Purvis, a Salt Lick senior, Accounting II; Melissa Pugh, a Mt. Olivet senior, Human Resource Management; Kent Lewis, a Lexington senior, Telecommunications.

FOURTH PLACE: Terry Burton, a Brooksville junior, Management; Holly Merrell, a Florence junior, Marketing, and Jason Robbins, a London junior, Parliamentary Procedure.

FIFTH PLACE: Susan Arnold, a Mt. Sterling junior, Business Law.

In the team event competition, the winners were:

Business Decision Making: Arnold, Lymangrover, and Merrell, first place.

Parliamentary Procedure: Candace Snowden, a Mt. Sterling freshman; Tori Pasley, a Clay City freshman; Pugh and Robbins, fourth place.

Outstanding Chapter Award, fifth place.

(MORE)

Phi Beta Lambda

2-2-2-2

In other competitions, Randall Campbell, a Mt. Sterling junior, was named to the Who's Who Among Kentucky Phi Beta Lambda. Sturgill was elected secretary of the state organization, and Rob Nester, a Mt. Sterling freshman, was elected reporter.

Additional information on Phi Beta Lambda, including how to support MSU's chapter of PBL, is available by calling Dr. Randall McCoy, assistant professor of Computer Information Systems and PBL Adviser, at (606) 783-2163 or Merrell, PBL secretary, at (606) 780-0577.

####

.hm

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 22, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ASHLAND, Ky.---Morehead State University's Ashland Small Business Development Center will offer three hands-on computer workshops designed for the small business owner.

The sessions, which will be held at MSU's Ashland Area Extended Campus Center, are:

*Wednesday, May 5, MicroSoft Word I, 9:30 a.m.-noon.; $15 registration fee; and MicroSoft Excel I, 1-3:30 p.m.; $15 registration fee.

*Wednesday, May 19, Internet--Navigating the Web, 1-3:30 p.m.; $10 registration fee.

Keva Wright-Berry, general management consultant with the University's SBDC, will serve as instructor for all three workshops.

The Kentucky Small Business Development Centers are partnership programs with and partially funded by the U.S. Small Business Administration. All training programs, sponsored or co-sponsored by SBDC, are available for all individuals without regard to race, color, sex, creed or national origin. Special arrangements for the disabled will be made if requested in advance.

Because of limited seating, preregistration is necessary. Reservations may be made by calling the SBDC office at (606) 329-8011.

####

hm

Photo

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

MSU'S DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD RECIPIENTS

Morehead State University presented its Distinguished Service Awards to a faculty and staff member during the University's 15th annual Academic Honors Convocation. Dr. Alban Wheeler, professor of sociology, received the 1999 Distinguished Faculty Service Award while Ruth C. Robinson, secretary to the director in Camden-Carroll Library, was recognized as the 1999 Distinguished Staff Service Award recipient.

(MSU photo by Tim Holbrook)

4-23-99py

Morehead News
Daily Lead.
Journal Engineer
Bath Co. News
Appalachian News-Express
Elliott Co. News
Ledger-Lead.
Floyd Co. Times
Herald Leader
Mt. Sterling Adv.
Huntington
Greenup Co. News

Photo

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

COLLEAGUES RECOGNIZE TRIO

Enjoying a light moment are three Morehead State University faculty members who were recognized by colleagues for distinguishing themselves in their respective fields. The honorees are, from left, Dr. Richard B. Miles, director of bands, the 1998-99 Distinguished Creative Productions Award recipient; Dr. Bruce A. Mattingly, chair of the Department of Psychology, the 1998-99 Distinguished Researcher, and Dr. L.K. Williams, professor of accounting, the 1998-99 Distinguished Teacher. The awards were presented April 25 during MSU's 15th annual Academic Awards Convocation which launched a week-long tribute to scholastic achievement on campus.

(MSU photo by Tim Holbrook)

4-23-99py

Morehead News
Daily Lead.
Journal Engineer
Bath Co. News
Appalachian News-Express
Elliott Co. News
Ledger-Lead.
Floyd Co. Times
Herald Leader
Mt. Sterling Adv.
Huntington
Greenup Co. News

April 23, 1999

EMBARGOED FOR RELEASE AFTER 4 P.M. ON APRIL 25

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Morehead State University recognized five individuals who have been selected by their colleagues as recipients of the University's most prized awards during the 15th annual Academic Awards Convocation held Sunday, April 25, in Button Auditorium. The event launched a week-long tribute to scholastic excellence campus-wide.

Dr. L.K Williams, professor of accounting, who encourages students to seek an education because "the ability to learn is a lasting hallmark of an educated person," was named the 1998-99 Distinguished Teacher.

Dr. Bruce A. Mattingly, chair of the Department of Psychology, who has been studying the neurochemical and behavioral effects of chronic stimulant abuse for more than a decade, was selected as the 1998-99 Distinguished Researcher.

Dr. Richard B. Miles, director of bands, who has received national and international recognition for his compositions of artistic merit, has earned the 1998-99 Distinguished Creative Productions Award.

Dr. Alban Wheeler, professor of sociology, who is a former department chair, program director and dean, is the 1999 Distinguished Faculty Service Award recipient.

Ruth C. Robinson, secretary to the director in Camden-Carroll Library, who is noted for her willingness to serve MSU and the community, is the 1999 Distinguished Staff Service Award recipient.

Dr. Williams, an MSU faculty member since 1988, received the 1998 Dean's Citation for Teaching Excellence within the College of Business. In addition to teaching, he has served as a faculty mentor, chaired several committees within his college, and was a member of others including Faculty Promotion, Rank Confirmation, Assessment, and Accounting Curriculum, Recruitment and Retention. He is described by his colleagues as having a great deal of concern for his students and consistently giving them personal attention.

(MORE)

Honorees

2-2-2-2

Author of numerous works for professional publications, he has made presentations at state and national conferences. A member of the American Accounting Association and American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, he has served as session moderator, member of selection committee and reviewer of papers for conferences for the accounting profession.

Active in community involvement, he is a member of the Morehead/Rowan County Chamber of Commerce, Morehead Area Habitat for Humanity Board of Directors, Morehead Kiwanis Club and as coach for t-ball, little league and youth soccer and basketball.

A certified public accountant since 1983, Dr. Williams earned a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from the University of Kentucky, a Master of Business Administration degree in marketing from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, and the Doctor of Business Administration degree in accounting from UK.

Dr. Mattingly, a member of the psychology faculty since 1980, has received numerous research grants, including the first National Institutes of Health grant awarded to a University faculty member. He also has received several National Science Foundation EPSCoR grants and was the University's 1987 Distinguished Researcher Award recipient.

Recognized internationally for his studies of behavioral stimulants, he is described by his colleagues as "a person who is extremely talented in both teaching and research with a firm commitment to both." Noted for encouraging students to assist in research activities, he is the author or co-author of more than 50 articles published in various scientific journals and more than 100 papers at state, regional and national conferences.

A faculty representative on MSU's Board of Regents from 1993 to 1998, Dr. Mattingly earned a Bachelor of Science degree in psychology and mathematics at MSU. He completed the Master of Science and Ph.D. degrees, as well as completed post-doctoral work at the University of Kentucky.

Dr. Miles, who came to MSU in 1985, has published five books, 15 articles and three reviews and has national and international editorship. His text series, "Teaching Music through Performance in Band," Volume I and II, as well as the accompanying six compact disk recordings, is a best seller in the instrumental music field.

In addition to serving as director of bands, he teaches undergraduate and graduate conducting and other courses in music education and serves as director of the Symphony Band which has been selected by audition to perform for conferences of the Music Educators National Conference, the National Band Association and College Band Directors National Association. In May, he will accompany the Symphony Bánd and Percussion Ensemble on a two-week tour of the People's Republic of China where the group will perform in several locations including the internationally renowned Beijing Concert Hall.

(MORE)

Honorees
3-3-3-3

He has given more than 30 presentations at regional and national conferences and made appearances at nearly 80 national and international engagements as a guest conductor, including three international concert tours. On more than 50 occasions, he has attended national and international conferences, serving as a clinician, adjudicator and/or consultant.

A member of Phi Kappa Lambda, Phi Beta Mu and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, Dr. Miles earned the Doctor of Philosophy degree from Florida State University. He received the undergraduate degree from Appalachian State University and a graduate degree from University of Illinois.

Dr. Wheeler came to MSU in 1972 as head of the former Department of Sociology, Social Work and Corrections and advanced to the position of dean of the former School of Social Sciences four years later. He also served as director of Undergraduate Regional Programs for one year and was the faculty representative on the University's Board of Regents from 1987 until 1993.

Involved in other areas on the MSU campus, he has served as a member of several of the University's committees including promotion and tenure, undergraduate curriculum, honors, academic computer users, academic programs and international affairs. A member and former president of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, he also served as an academic adviser to Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity and faculty adviser to the campus chapter of Young Democrats.

Active in the community, Dr. Wheeler was a member of the Morehead Area Habitat for Humanity, Gateway Council of Kentucky Cancer Program and Rowan County unit of the American Cancer Society, Morehead Police Review Board and advisory committee on domestic violence for Pathways, Inc.

Majoring in sociology, Dr. Wheeler earned his B.A. and M.A. degrees from Mississippi College and the Ph.D. from Mississippi State University.

(MORE)

Honorees
4-4-4-4

Robinson, who has been at MSU for 25 years, is described as “proven to be very dedicated and concerned with doing what is best for her co-workers and community.” In the library, she has served on numerous committees, including automation, social and security.

Her service to the University also includes more than 10 years on the Staff Congress, serving seven terms as an officer and she currently holds the office of secretary. She has chaired the credentials and elections committee, job classification appeals and the ad hoc task force for performance evaluation.

In the community, Robinson has played an active role in the Elliottville Fire Department Ladies Auxiliary including three terms as president, three as reporter and a stint as secretary and one as vice president. She has served as chair of various committees for the fire department, including Teddy Bear which makes homemade toys for children at St. Claire Medical Center; Food/Clothing, which assists those in the community who have lost their homes through disaster, and Charity Auction, a fund raiser.

A two-time graduate of MSU, Robinson earned an associate degree in office management and a bachelor’s degree in university studies as an honor graduate.

At the convocation, the outstanding graduate and undergraduate students, those who have maintained a perfect 4.0 grade point average and graduates of the Honors Program also were recognized.

During the week, each of the four colleges will recognize students in their respective areas, at a special ceremony.

####

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 23, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Morehead State University's Symphony Band and Percussion Ensemble will perform a Spring Benefit Concert on Sunday, May 2, at 3 p.m. in Duncan Recital Hall on the campus.

The benefit concert will preview the musical selections from their upcoming performance tour which will run May 12-25 in the People's Republic of China. More than 70 students will participate in the tour, accompanied by three faculty conductors: Dr. Richard Miles, director of bands and director of the Symphony Band, Dr. Susan Creasap, assistant director of bands and assistant director of the Symphony Band, and Frank Oddis, coordinator of the percussion program and director of the Percussion Ensemble.

Music for the tour will feature the national anthems of both countries as well as "My Old Kentucky Home." Works by Berlioz and other classical composers and American standards from the Big Band era, George Gershwin and the "Star Wars Trilogy" will be highlighted as well as modern percussion pieces such as a tribute to Broadway's "Stomp."

The two-week tour will center primarily in Beijing, the capitol city, which is home to more than 12 million residents and covers more than 6,488 square miles.

The Percussion Ensemble and Symphony Band will give seven performances on the tour with concerts open to the public at concert halls, universities and schools, including a performance at the internationally renowned Beijing Concert Hall. To refine their performance of the Chinese national anthem, the MSU students will rehearse with Chinese guest conductors at each location.

The tour also will include many sightseeing and educational activities that will allow performers to experience the culture of one of the world's oldest continuous civilizations, spanning more than five thousand years. Included on the travel agenda are the famous Great Wall, the Ming Tomb, the Forbidden City, Tiananmen Square and the Beijing Zoo.

In preparation for their journey, students are rehearsing daily to refine the music they will present, much of which they have performed during their three campus concerts this year, according to Dr. Miles. They also are educating themselves on Chinese culture by studying history, geography, etiquette and basic survival language skills.

(MORE)

Symphony Band
2-2-2-2

More than 4,000 pounds of equipment will be shipped to China for the tour, according to Oddis. "Because many of the percussion instruments we use are not as prevalent in their culture, the instruments are either unavailable or not of the same quality as we use in performance, so we have to ship everything," he said. "The students are contributing many extra hours to assist with getting the equipment to Beijing. They are building cases especially for this equipment to make it flightworthy. We have to weigh and measure each piece and provide a detailed description for Northwest Airlines in order to ship the equipment as luggage."

More than 1,400 contributors have provided sponsorship of the students to make the concert tour possible, according to Dr. Miles. "This is an independently funded student adventure," he said.

Contributions to help fund the tour may be made through the MSU Foundation, Inc. Additional information regarding the Spring Benefit Concert is available by calling (606) 783-2485.

####

lc

April 23, 1999

EMBARGOED FOR RELEASE AFTER 4 P.M. ON APRIL 25

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Morehead State University honored outstanding graduate and undergraduate students from various its various departments during the 15th annual Academic Awards Convocation on Sunday, April 25, on the campus. The event launched a week-long tribute to scholastic excellence campus-wide.

Selected to receive Outstanding Graduate Student awards from their departments were: Samantha Griffith, Flatwoods, Art; E. Christopher Goshorn, Lexington, Biological and Environmental Sciences; Jason Myers, Westview, Communications; Amy Dettmer, Morehead, Elementary, Reading and Special Education; Naomi Kazee, Ashland, English, Foreign Languages and Philosophy; Angela Geraci, Edgewood, Health, Physical Education and Recreation; Jammetta Meade, Pikeville, Leadership and Secondary Education; Alicia Hudson, Morehead, Music; Courtney Cieslak-Mullins, Morehead, Psychology; Richard Crosby, Morehead, Sociology, Social Work and Criminology, and Steven M. Koutoulas, Pine Ridge, Vocational Education;

Presented departmental awards as Outstanding Undergraduate Students were: Elizabeth Kristy Noble, Jackson senior, Accounting, Economics and Finance; Connie M. Dixon, Sadieville senior, Agricultural Sciences; Karen Killeri, Mt. Sterling senior, Art; Megan L. Klaas, Mellbourne senior, Biological and Environmental Sciences; Joseph (Jody) Streible, Morehead senior, Communications; Sharon Bolt, Morehead senior, Elementary, Reading and Special Education; William J. Hamilton, Morehead senior, English, Foreign Languages and Philosophy; Bryan Morrow, Burnside senior, Geography, Government and History; Kelly Kulick, Union, N. J., senior, Health, Physical Education and Recreation;

Shannon L. Smith, McCarr sophomore, Human Sciences; Kevin L. Beck, Grayson senior, Industrial Education and Technology; Kent Stephen Lewis, Lexington senior, Information Systems; Emmanuel Justin Daniels, West Liberty graduate student, Leadership and Secondary Education; Barbara Tennille Bowling, Pikeville, senior, Management, Marketing and Real Estate; Gregory P. Hicks, Webbville graduate student, Mathematical Sciences; Breck Tarr, Wurtland senior, Military Science;

(MORE)

Academic Awards Convocation Honorees
2-2-2-2

Adria Dowd, Berea senior, Music; Douglas M. Spears, Paintsville junior, Nursing and Allied Health Sciences; Eric R. Hudson, Lost Creek senior, Physical Sciences; Connie Armstrong, Olympia senior, Psychology, and Pamela Simmons, Mt. Sterling junior, Sociology, Social Work and Criminology.

Gena G. Henry, Morehead senior, was the student speaker for the convocation. Also on the program was presentation of the Distinguished Creative Productions, Distinguished Researcher and Distinguished Teacher awards, as well as the Outstanding Faculty and Staff Service awards.

####

ahn

Photo

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

MSU IS HOME TO STUDENTS FROM OTHER LANDS

Morehead State University is "home away from home" for students from around the world. Anupa and Jerry John, originally from Calcutta, India, have been at the University since June 1998 where they are graduate students working on a degree in business administration. Before returning to their homeland, the couple hopes to gain job experience in the U.S.

(MSU photo by Tim Holbrook)

4-26-99py

*morehead News
Bath County
t. Blayer
Ledger - Ind.
Floyd Co.*

News

University Communications

Pauline Young, Director

Morehead State University

UPO Box 1100

Morehead, KY 40351-1689

(606) 783-2030

April 26, 1999

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOREHEAD, Ky.---Anupa and Jerry John traveled halfway around the world to study business administration at Morehead State University, a relationship that was facilitated by the Internet.

Originally from Calcutta, India, they were full-time international students at Ashland University in Ohio where their resources were being drained paying out-of-state tuition. While browsing on the Internet for an institution that would offer an assistantship, they learned about MSU.

They previewed the campus and met with Dr. Marc Glasser, dean of graduate and undergraduate programs. With his help, they selected MSU as the place to pursue their master's degrees. The couple enrolled in June 1998 and are currently working as graduate assistants: Anupa works in Career Services where she coordinates cooperative education opportunities for students and Jerry works in the Office of Institutional Planning, Research and Effectiveness.

Before coming to the MSU campus, the couple held jobs in their homeland. Anupa worked in advertising and Jerry in marketing and distribution. "We had both reached a certain stage as managers and we realized that in order to advance, we needed a professional degree," she said.

Jerry began his career in Calcutta with Nestle India but later took a position in circulation and marketing for the "Times of India," the sixth largest newspaper in the world. During that time, Anupa was working in advertising for a yellow pages company. When she advanced from copywriting to assistant manager of publishing in two years, several members of the company's trade union thought she had been promoted too quickly.

"Trade unions are very active there and can be volatile," Anupa said. To avoid controversy, she moved to a job with a large ceiling fan company in Calcutta. "Jerry was working for 'Times of India' and we often met at advertising events," she recalled.

(MORE)

John
2-2-2-2

As sometimes happens when cultures are joined, the pair experienced initial resistance from their families when they married in 1994. Anupa was Hindu, as are 80 percent of Indians and in Hindu tradition, marriages are arranged by the parents. "I went out of the way and married a Christian, so it was pandemonium at my house," she said. "My parents were so upset because not only was I marrying on my own, but he was outside my religion," she said.

An only son attending a Jesuit school, Jerry was encouraged by his parents to meet different girls. "I did, because of my parents, but it never worked out," he said. "When I told them that I wanted to marry Anupa, a Hindu, they were quite upset, but eventually they came around."

During a visit with relatives in the Middle East, Jerry contacted "Gulf News" and was offered a position as a distribution executive, so the Johns moved to Abu Dhabi.

"The Arabs rule the country but about 80 percent of the population are expatriates (immigrants)," Anupa explained. "Because the Arabs fear that the expatriates might take over the country, the government does not allow them to settle in the country. They can never own property; they cannot own a house."

"There are numerous advantages and disadvantages of living in Abu Dhabi which is home for people from all over the world," Jerry said. "Everyone works for the Arabs and it is a very oil-rich country. The income is tax-free so you can make a lot of money," he noted. "But you cannot change jobs easily. I received a company car but I could not get a driver's license during the first year."

In Abu Dhabi, Anupa worked for Team Advertising, creating marketing strategies for Florsheim Shoes and J.C. Penney. "It was great fun but every ad had to meet government approval," she said. "As it was against their religion for a woman to show her bare arms, if the dress was sleeveless, we had to use the computer to make sleeves to cover the arm for the ad." All publications that came into the country were censored.

Ads for Saudi Arabian publications were worse, Anupa noted. All women outside their homes must be completely covered from head to toe and could not be shown in the ads. "I had to promote women's clothing without showing women," she said.

After living in Abu Dhabi for three years, the couple decided it was time to continue their careers by way of an MBA degree. "We could have studied in the Middle East at the local American University and kept our jobs," Jerry said, "but we decided that we wanted American degrees from the U.S. so we could climb the corporate ladder when we return home."

(MORE)

In India, the education system is based on the British system and very different, according to Anupa. “My undergraduate degree in English literature took three years there. Students are pressured and overworked because exams are given only once—at the end of each year, so you study only at the end of the year and it is not an accurate measure of your intellectual capabilities,” she said.

“Here it is very different,” she continued. “Examinations are staggered and you have marks for class participation, assignments and for the way you do your presentations. I prefer the system here so much that I wish I could get my whole family to study at this university. I keep telling my nephews and nieces, ‘Keep your grades up and I will help you come to MSU.’ They are so excited.”

Anupa’s enthusiasm includes the two classes she has taken via the Internet. “I’m having a wonderful time. My professor in managerial communication, Dr. Donna Everett, (assistant professor of business communication) is really good. I have even asked questions by e-mail at 11:30 at night and she has responded within 15 minutes. Some professors may think that it is less work for them when their classes are offered on the Internet, whereas, some professors realize they have to work even harder with Internet students. The most important component of the Internet course is the professor,” she said.

Before making their next move, the Johns have expressed an interest in gaining some job experience in the United States. After they graduate, they would like to get at least one year of practical training. “We want to get American work experience; then we plan to go back to our country,” Anupa said.

“India is opening up economically, encouraging business ventures with large international companies, including American firms. It is becoming a very vibrant economy,” she added.

#####