

Trucks Haul Garbage For Clean Up Week

Trucks, furnished by the city of Morehead, will haul away all trash and garbage on Thursday, Friday and Saturday as Morehead's annual Clean-Up week comes to a close.

The Rowan County Women's club and the Morehead Woman's club are cooperating with Mayor Warren Lupton and the city council in the clean-up drive. They are also being assisted by the local Boy Scouts organization.

All trash and garbage which citizens want hauled away should be placed by the curb in containers. If it is not in containers the garbage trucks will pick it up.

It has already been noted that many unsightly places in the city have taken on a better appearance as a result of the clean-up drive. The Health Department has also stressed the fact that this cleaning up will greatly help in sanitation and will also mean less flies, bugs etc. this summer.

It is likely that a garbage truck will be provided by the city during the rest of the year while there has been some discussion of the city buying a piece of ground outside the city limits for dumping.

Farmers Respond To Health And Diet Hints

Families in this section forming under the rural rehabilitation program of the Farm Security Administration are responding with a great deal of interest to suggestions offered to help them keep well, says Mrs. Frances Word, Flemingville, Kentucky, Home Management Committee for Fleming, Rowan, and Nicholas Counties.

Better gardens, more milk, and more fresh eggs, for improving the diet; adequate storage structures for conserving food; screens for keeping flies and mosquitoes out of wells and sanitary privies and proper medical care are among the things listed as minimum to plan to get the best selection of farm necessities of this sort are looked after and where necessary for the family's rehabilitation such items are included in the family budget.

Often the family's health is endangered by being crowded into too small a space. Sometimes a dark and ill arranged kitchen makes the mother's life harder to carry. When a farmer has advanced to

Morehead 11 Gets Praise For Play Saturday

Freshmen Force Marshall To Limit; Outlook Good This Fall

The "wise" boys had it all figured out that the law of averages would catch up with Coaches Ellis Johnson and Len Miller at Morehead this year; that the Eagle coaching combination, in its first year, would drop on the gridiron after three highly successful ones in which a Johnson-Miller team has been beaten by only one club, Murray.

There was considerable foundation for the assumption that Morehead's football star was growing dimmer. Graduation took eight out of the eleven that started last year; the Eagle games last year and in all but seven lettermen. Only a skeleton of the good teams that Morehead has had for the last three years remained.

Today however, as the Eagles swing into the final week of spring practice, the general sentiment is that Morehead may be even stronger next year than they have in the past. The reason for this change of heart is the Morehead Freshmen, aided by only three lettermen of last year, lost by only two touchdowns Saturday at Marshall to the reputed strongest varsity that the "Thundering Herd" has ever had. Ellis Johnson took 22 players to Huntington and 19 of them were first year players; every man in (Continued On Page Five)

City Merchants Meet Monday At City Hall

Plans Will Be Drawn For This Year's Awarding Of Prizes To Shoppers

A total of $1,500 in cash awards will be given this summer to loyal shoppers by the Merchants Assn. according to tentative plans announced today.

The awarding of the money will be along about the same lines as in past years with $50 being given five each Saturday, starting May 6. The prizes will be awarded thirty consecutive weeks.

Coupons are to be given by Morehead Stores on each purchase of twenty-five cents. As in the past, it will be necessary that the person whose name is called be present at the drawing.

Final plans for the holding of this year's prize plan will be drafted at a meeting of the merchants association Monday evening. It is probable that the merchants will start giving tickets next Tuesday.

Just how many awards the $50 in cash will be divided into each week has not been ascertained but it is probably be about the same as last year with no person permitted more than one prize each week. A place has been reserved for the prizes to be announced following the merchants meeting Monday.

Evans Urges People To Come 1st Day Of X-Ray Clinic

Tuberculosis Tests Will Be Given May 2-3

Dr. T. A. E. Evans, Rowan County's Health Doctor, is urging all persons who planned to be examined at the tubercular X-Ray clinic here next week to come the first day, if possible. The clinic is scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

Those who come the first day will naturally receive better service according to Dr. Evans.

Last year 650 persons were examined here for tuberculosis. Thanks for the tuberculin tests, although a charge of $1.25 is made for those desiring X-ray pictures.

Of the 650 persons who were examined here last year, 500 showed positive symptoms of tuberculosis. Seventy-five X-ray pictures were taken at that time. The charge made for the tuberculin test is only to cover the actual expense, Dr. Evans stated, and is only a fractional part of what they would cost elsewhere.

Brown Outlines Pension Platform

"Our old people today represent our pioneers," he stated. "Our workers, and our builders of yesterday. They built our cities, our roads, they cleared our forests and produced our food. Today their eyes are dimmed, their shoulders are drooped, their feet are faltering. Time has taken its toll, and today they are but helpless humans, and they are a by-product of a fast speeded civilization. I cannot conceive of a better candidate for our aid than these old people who are so helpless and so in need of our aid. It is our duty to care for those whom it has used, so completely abused, and because of the frailties of age has cast aside."

The second question on old age pensions the Former Congressman declared was "Can we afford old age assistance?"

Citing statistics from the Bureau of Labor, the speaker said it cost American taxpayers on the average of $38.00 per inmate, per year to maintain aged dependent in poor houses and like forms of charitable institutions. Under the Federal Social Security Act, he said, the State would pay $180 per month per person, and the Federal Government would allot a similar amount. The total cost to the taxpayers, he

Senior Senator May Come Out With Statement Later In Campaign

Senator Alben W. Barkley remains undecided of the forthcoming gubernatorial election when he addressed a gathering of approximately 400 persons at a Jefferson Day dinner in Ashland Saturday evening. The majority floor-leader and prospective candidate for President confined his remarks to an eulogy of the Democratic party and the principles of Thomas Jefferson.

He was introduced by Ben Williamson, long an eastern Kentucky political leader, as "the next president of the United States."

It is known that Barkley's hat is in the ring for President, although he is not one of the front-running candidates. It has been continually reported that he is the choice of President Roosevelt as his successor.

Congressman Joe Bates preceded Senator Barkley on the platform. Congressman Bates endorsed the New Deal and declared, "The Republicans thing they can lick us in 1940, but this is a false hope. They haven't a chance to beat the party that has been the only friend the laboring man, the farmer and the average individual has ever had."

Leonard Fielder, chairman of the Democratic party in the Eighth Congressional district, presided at the dinner. Among those from the county who attended were: County Chairman, Lester Hogge, V. D. Flood, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holbrook, Corrie Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Wells and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Clark.

Chaney Gives Hints On Security Of Workers Should Present Cards To Employers

Persons who plan to seek employment in construction and other lines which hire new workers in the summer season should obtain social security numbers before looking for jobs. This advice was given today by Mr. J. A. Chaney, manager of the social security board field office in Ashland, Ky.

"Many employers now demand that new workers produce social security numbers before going to work," Mr. Chaney said.

"It is usually more convenient for a worker to get his number before applying for a job than it is for him to return to our office for this purpose."

"We suggest that every one who takes a new job present his social security number to his employer, the latter must report this number when he pays the taxes which are imposed under the old age insurance system. Even where workers are employed for only a few days as is often the case in construction and other lines, the number should be given the employer, to make sure the worker receives credit for deductions made from his pay under the old age insurance plan."

The Ashland social security office is in the Second National Bank and Rowan, Elliott and Morgan Counties are in this district.

Commission Agrees To Cut Tax Raise Half

Following the appearance of seven Rowan County citizens before the State Tax Commission last week at Frankfort, the commission agreed to slash its anticipated raise of taxes here to one-half the original figure. County Judge J. E. Caudill said today that the Rowan delegation would not agree to even this percentage of increase, pleading that the taxation schedule remains as is.

Originally the tax commission planned to effect a raise of 20 percent on land, 10 percent on town lots and 10 percent on tangibles. After the local group had presented its reasons why there should be no increase the commission agreed to 10 percent increase on land, 5 percent on town lots and 5 percent on tangibles.

The situation is hanging fire now with the Rowan group protesting and the local group grounds that taxes are already too high here, considering the poor condition and low productivity of land in Rowan county.

Those from Rowan County who formed the delegation protesting the increase were: Judge Peltrey, Charles Goff, Attorney Lester Hogge, Circuit Judge D. B. Caudill, J. E. Caudill, and Frank H. Jones. J. A. Lewis, County Clerk C. W. Albright, Arthur Barber, and Squire Mobley.

Property To Be Sold Monday For Back Taxes

Sheriff Ben McBrayer will mount the court case steps here today and proclaim that the following property is being offered for sale to satisfy delinquent taxes. In a monotone voice he will read off a list of real estate life 700 names, and then ask for bids.

There likely won't be any bids—there never are. However, after several years of neglect the property becomes that of the county, and if anyone wants to bid it in they can possess it if the taxes are not paid for seven years.

Morehead Gets Praise Saturday

The starting lineup was a Freshman. Even Johnson expected each green material to lose by 40 points to the Huntington team.
The 13 points that Marshall did score did come because they overpowered Morehead. Rather one of them came after a recovered fumble on the 2 yard line while Marshall's other score was made on a forward pass, followed by three laterals, which works about once in a lifetime and would probably not have been successful in Morehead's club had they had a little more experience.

With all seven lettermen available next fall, aided by this group of freshmen who will then be sophomores, the Eagles chances are excellent for another great season.

Farmers Respond To Health Hints

to show marked improvements but, by a large majority, the families show a willingness to take suggestions and to try to improve their standards of living.

In helping the families to make out their farm and home plans, the first thing to be stressed is the production on each farm of plenty of wholesome food. This means that attention is given to the family garden. In some neighborhoods there is considerable friendly rivalry to see who can have the first green peas, or ripe strawberries; to see who can produce the greatest variety of vegetables and see who can have the best year-round garden. There is also lively competition among the families to see who can put up the most cans of surplus vegetables. During the year FSA borrowers who need it are advised by the County Supervisors as to the best methods of making a good garden, just as they are assisted in adopting good farming practices for their field crops. Supervisors advise correct fertilization or rough manures to use best kind of seed, manure requirements for health production of vegetables, and how to combat insects and diseases.

To because a FSA borrower of this county a farmer should apply to the County Rehabilitation Supervisor, Mr. John L. Zachary or Assistant Supervisor Robert Galtskill at the Court House.
Farm owners, share-croppers, and land laborers, who need financing and guidance which they cannot obtain from any other public or private agency, are being helped through rehabilitation. These families must own or be able to rent land on which they can make a living. If the borrower is a tenant he should be able to get a written lease for the period of the loan. The family must also be willing to cooperate with the County Supervisors in working out a sound plan for farm and home management.

Often a number of families in the same neighborhood need certain equipment or services which no one of them can afford alone. In such cases the Farm Security Administration makes a loan to the group to enable it to buy equipment which all its members can use. For example group loans have been made to finance the purchase of tractors, lime crushers, spraying equipment, washing machines, and pure-bred breeding stock.

In conclusion the candidate asked, "What are the benefits of $30.00 a month old age pensions to the pensioners and to the public?"
Stating that he shall recommend to the Legislature an Act which will take full advantage of the Federal Security Act which will take full advantage of the Federal Social Security Act, which provides $30.00 a month old age pensions and aid to the blind and dependent children, Mr. Brown said he would recommend repeal of the present Kentucky law requiring aged persons in the event they own property to deed that property to the State in order to be eligible for old aged pensions.

The speaker cited the fact that there were very few families in the State who didn't have some aged person dependent on them for support. Payment of adequate old aged pensions, he said, would considerably lighten the burden on these families as well as put to work approximately 60,000 younger persons who could replace the old persons who now are forced to do various forms of work because of the lack of adequate pensions.

THE RECORD... Facts That Concern You

No. 6 of a series.

ONE INCOME THAT'S INCREASED MIGHTILY SINCE 1932!

KENTUCKY'S INCOME FROM BEER TAXES IN 1938 $1,013,316 74

IN 1932 (last year before repeal) BEER'S TAXES WERE PRACTICALLY NOTHING!

*Data from Dept. of Revenue, license fees included.

BEER helps even those who do not drink it! To the tune of a million dollars a day nation-wide, beer tax revenue reaches back into every community, to help pay for relief, for public works, for education... and to lift a burden that would otherwise rest directly on the taxpayers.
To this, add a million new jobs made by beer. And a 100 million dollar farm market.
How can we keep these benefits... for you and for us? Brewers of America realize this depends on keeping beer retailing as wholesome as beer itself. They want to help public officials in every possible way. They cannot enforce laws. But they can—and will—cooperate!

May we send you a booklet telling of their unusual self-regulation program? Address: United Brewers Industrial Foundation, 19 East 40th Street, New York, N. Y.

Zaza To Show At Cozy Theatre

Here is entertainment "Zaza" contains the time-distilled and imperishable essences of that unflinching sex triangle story which is to be had by compounding the conflicting components of love and duty. It has the alluring actress, the tempted husband, the dutiful wife, the adorable child. It is perhaps well to record that Miss Claudette Colbert shows all her good points and turns in a better performance under certain restraints than one might have expected. Memory will not serve you about the plot. This time "Zaza" and her new love come to parting, and if for a while she is to be her "happy ending" for her it's because she's a super-woman with a super-conscience. Sin is not rewarded, permanently this time. The curtain falls with all where they belong according to convention, with the decision left to the audience, which will not be sure about the answer. That ought to be satisfactory. The musical components of the show are pleasant, contributing importantly to the flow. The best number is a ballad, "Hello Darling," which is woven into the slight if intense tale in a manner calculated to give it about all the plot responsibility that a ballad can carry—maybe an ounce or two more.
