

Morehead believes the six regional basketball tournaments to his campus this weekend. We hope you enjoy your visit with us and that you will be able to bring your team games to let us show you our campus.

For high school students or as parents of high school students, we are interested in college. We have a program with its opportunities for you. If you are a high school student planning to go to college, we are holding college camp next year or within a few years, and you're beginning to look around and make plans for college. We are. We invite you to inspect Morehead State Teachers College, the basic training center for other colleges you know.

The campus is a beautiful one, and we offer many things and programs that are unique and very attractive. The courses of study are related according to recognized national standards, and have the breadth of Morehead graduates have distinguished themselves in the basic training center.

Morehead offers to future college students, training not only for teaching, but also for other careers. We offer precollegiate training, engineering, home economics, and all specialized fields. The campus is a beautiful one, and we offer many things and programs that are unique and very attractive. The courses of study are related according to recognized national standards, and have the breadth of Morehead graduates have distinguished themselves in the basic training center.

Libraries is adequately equipped with books in most of the reference books and fiction.

In cooperation with national organizations, Morehead will adopt a quarter system to replace the present semester system. The change to a quarter system will be made in June. This quarter system will allow students to graduate in three years and save at four different times each year.

Morehead has also established night classes, more extension work and a special two year program called "Physician's Education is being stressed at Morehead in answer to President Roosevelt's request that all college students be trained in physical education.

Look around our campus to see the many things that we have to offer you around, and agree with us that Morehead State is the best college to choose for your college career.

Look around our campus today, ask us questions, let us show you around, and agree with us that Morehead State Teachers college is a logical choice for your college career.

Finals To Be Played
At 8 P. M. Tonight

Mt. Sterling and Clark county advanced to the semi-finals to be played this afternoon at 3:00.

by defeating Catlettsburg and Haldeman in the first round of the Sixteenth Regional tournament.

Senior staged Friday afternoon basketball games in the college gymnasium.

Mr. Sterling smashed a small basket ball into the net by a tally of 45-26. The high school team scored 20-21. The orange and white held the lead only once during the entire fracas, but the Spurs, flashy Wildcat forward, overtook the scoring with fifteen points.

For the first time, the Trojans countered. Jackson led the Trojans in attack with three field goals and six gratis throws.

In the second tussel of the afternoon, Clark county noses out the Trojans.

Civilian Defense Unit To Be Organized

At the forum on Thursday night, the audience decided form some kind of a civilian defense organization on the campus to cooperate with the defense unit being organized out in town.

It was decided that the matter would be put before the students in chapel next week and that another discussion would be held to select the leaders of the student organization.

C. B. McCullough, head of the defense organization in town, promised the forum audience that the town would furnish as much equipment as possible to the student civilian defense organization and that some of the experienced firemen would hold a class teaching the rudiments of firefighting and use of fire equipment.

The forum audience emphasized the fact that the camp needs some sort of defense organization, if for nothing but to make the students more acutely conscious of the war.

The Contemplible Linc Cutter

We hate to keep harping on the subject of lint cutting. It is an unpleasant subject dealing with unpleasant people. However, too much lint cutting has been going on in the cafeteria, recently.

Lint cutters may, perhaps be divided into three classes: the very selfish, the dishonest, and the non-thinkers.

To the very selfish: It is said that everyone is born selfish and that all babies are selfish. This is probably true, but you are not any longer. If your development has been arrested, don't show it by cutting lint. Most people will never suspect that you haven't grown up if you try to act normal.

To the dishonest: Perhaps you are dishonest and can't help it. You naturally try to take things that don't belong to you. However, dishonest you are, you wouldn't attempt to steal someone's property with him watching you. That's what you do every day in the cafeteria line, steal someone's rightful place.

To the non-thinkers: This is the largest group and the most prevalent lint cutters. Next time you start to cut lint, make an effort to think. If you decide you are doing right by cutting, then you belong in one of the above groups.

Try Reading Sometime

Why don't you read a little? You would really be surprised at the words you may find in books. Oh, you probably scan the newspaper every day or so and occasionally glance at a magazine of news pictures. But that certainly isn't reading. That isn't even following current events very closely.

You crab about the lack of books in the library where you occasionally are unable to find a reference book, but you never comment on the books that are there since you so seldom read. Of course, there are always those who read recent best sellers, and little else but recent ones. It is better than not reading at all. But it is no way to broaden your knowledge to any extent. Contemporary writings have not been tested by age, as to their worthiness, and all you have to depend on is your own judgment (which is often uncertain) and that of the editor who are too often wrong.

You complain of having nothing to do, of being eternally bored. Some day, when life is just too, too pointless, weave your way to the library and delve about in the books. You will find many that you would like to read, books that have lived as great ones. Read them, draw your own conclusions only don't let it be a too conclusive one.

Discuss the book with others (there really are others who read them), and it will make you feel a little less lonesome than if you had lolled about the cafeteria all afternoon crying over the pity of it all.

Well, they were rather young at the time.

This one was discovered by Bill Black in the Ashland Daily Independent:
"Frankfort, Ky., March 6. (AP) — Which was stolen by burglars Wednesday night, was recovered. — We are happy to report that Frankfort is still intact and so is the Associated Press, but March 6 is gone beyond recovery."

"What would you do," said Mr. Fair, "if you ran across a problem like this on a test?"
"Skip to the next problem," quipped Hennesey.

ALUMNI NOTES

By EKKER ROBINSON

Director of Public Relations

A letter from Oscar Palmer,

Columbia, S. C. has just reached me.

Oscar writes, "I enclose check for alumni dues, and I hope you have all the success in the world. Experience has taught me that the alumni make a college. I am proud of MSTA."

Oscar is teaching at the College of Charleston. He has an enrollment of around 1,400 students in the last three grades. He is enjoying his job, and asks to be remembered to his many friends here.

One of the most interesting letters I have ever received came from Larry Greenholz.

Larry has made good in the service of Uncle Sam. A complete story of his life will be in the Trail Blazer soon. May I quote from his letter? "There are two things that would completely satisfy me within. Naturally, I should like to see my family before all else, and my second wish would be to spend a year on the best of all campuses in the world, and I mean Morehead. It is dear to me because it was there that I met, enjoyed and prized by so many wonderful friendships. Yes, I do think of them when I treasure those friendships more, than anyone could or will ever realize. To those people who were so kind to me, I owe much of the success that has been mine."

Larry Greenholz is another Morehead boy making good. He is Lieutenant L. R. Greenholz of the Medical Department, located at Camp Hovey, Alaska. The Trail Blazer will go to Larry with news of the campus he loves so well.

What have you done since paying your alumni dues for the you a member yet? Your dollar bill will pay your dues for one year from the time I receive it. What are you doing that would be of interest to your friends? Tuesday evening I met with the officers of the association, and we set our goal this month at 60 members. This will make 200. As we called the roll of our graduates, we could easily select more than 200 names of friends we knew on the campus who would give us a dollar for each if we could see them, but when our letters reach them they just think aside and forget that we are counting on them. Act now and be in the front of the Honor Roll next week.

The Trail Blazer will carry pictures this week of our graduates and the role they are playing in the defense of our country. Watch for information about Morehead's fighting men.

A correction: A few weeks ago I stated that Hanna Ozy was located at Lyman, Kentucky. This was wrong as she is at Lyman, Wyoming. She has been teaching there two years and likes it very much. "The mountains are magnificent," especially when covered with snow, but to me there is no place quite so beautiful as Kentucky.

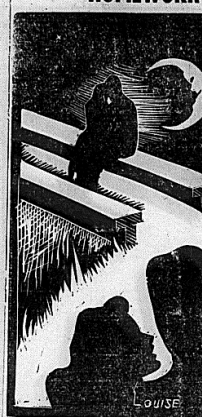

Regional Tournament

parted tied up 11-11 at the intermission. Both quadrants ended in seven corners in the third quarter and three in the fourth. The final score was 25-25. The game was tied in the two-minute extra time. Stevenson awarded the victory.

Shaver noted time to pace the winning Cardinals while the other gathered fire for the losers.

HOMEWORK

FLOOR SWEEPINGS

The janitor bears from confidential reports that it's no use in Kansas that the trees are going to the dogs.

Pete M. succeeded in getting a date with Pyle Lyon last Thursday night. We don't believe the W. C. has great deal to worry about though.

Owings Kincaid, the noble young gentleman who stayed in the room all but semester with a chemistry book, broke out the last few weeks and began courting up a storm. He did off with a date with Joyce Flannery, then he announced that he was to have a date with Lois Cary. He had the date and liked her so much he has been spending every spare minute with her. Walter Carr has been attempting to lure her away with the Air Corps uniform. David Hennesey, the three star flash, has dropped out of the running and Sherry's yellow convertible is no longer seen parked in front of Fiddle Hall.

Let's remark that at last returned from the boy friend, Charlie Wilson.

MEM — Let's Marvin, full of fun shot sister Dorothy with a gun. Mamma said, "You naughty little pest."

Frances Dammann's schedule of dates for last week was, Sunday night, Earl Combs; Monday night, Lloyd Blake; Tuesday night, Jim Alexander; Wednesday evening, Murray Martin; Thursday evening, Mervyn Hines.

The schedule for the coming week has not been fixed. However, the Janitor has received an official report that the period from 4:30 p. m. to 5:15 p. m. is not yet taken.

Bob Sharpe, the fastest gun on the campus, couldn't live without his presence last week so he went home with a woman.

We Wonder As We Wander: Who did the fire warden chase the fire tower last Saturday night? Could Sander be it?

Have you seen Ruth's new girl friend? Who was the girl the other new Mormon Stone with last Saturday night? Why don't you ask her? She's a date. Does Justice Jones get her hair styled up every Saturday afternoon? Maybe he is divest.

Adelle Glan Is Hostess At Fields Hall Dinner

Tuesday evening Miss Adelle Glan was hostess with a flourish in the kitchenette of the Fields hall. The table was beautifully arranged and a delicious course was served to Miss Curle Smith and Miss Patti Boly. Her guests were of honor. Other guests were Dorcas Leona Fife, Alice Walker and Carolyn Blair.

Mrs. Beverly Varney Honored With Party

Mrs. Beverly Varney was honored with a marvelous party in the lobby of Fields at eight o'clock Tuesday. Her guests were Miss Curle Smith, Miss Donna Cochran, Mrs. Lester Hogue and Mrs. Robert Laughlin.

A Green and White color scheme, representing St. Patrick's day, was used for the decorations.

About forty guests were present and Mrs. Varney received many lovely gifts.

Mrs. Charles Smith, a student here last semester, visited friends on the campus several days this past week.

Mrs. Steve Sargent was in Lexington, Kentucky Tuesday of last week. Mr. Sargent was called there to take his physical examination for induction in the army.

Mr. John Fitch of Carlisle, Kentucky, visited friends here last weekend.

Miss Lavina Waters spent last weekend as guest of Miss Frances Boyd of Fidelity hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Waver called on their friends here last Saturday.

Home Ec Club Gives Benefit Bridge Party

A benefit bridge was given by the Home Economics club in the science building Monday, March 8. There were five tables of bridge. Jack Jones was high scorer. Things was also played. The bridge prize was won by Columbus Norris. Delicious home-made luncheon and cookies were served by members of the club.

Miss Eber Robinson shopped in Lexington Monday.

The following girls are home for the weekend: Nancy Fife, Kate McCallister, Virginia Hutchison, Peggy Hove, Katherine Brown, Thelma Dunn and Thelma Turner.

WAA

WAA conducted its regular business meeting. The two most important factors discussed were deciding definitely on the club plan, and to organize and sponsor a Junior WAA for the girls from the training school.

Wednesday evening a Junior WAA was organized. Much interest manifested by these girls. They are good players.

Thursday evening a volleyball tournament was begun. The large number of girls are playing, many members to make four teams including the Junior WAA. As well as competition, much fun is derived from the tournament.

KAPPA MU

The Kappa Mu club held a hunt for all the children of the Sunday school will be held that night. When the hunt is over, every evening, the younger folks of the church will present a play in the church auditorium.

Alice Young Hall Has Air Raid Drill And Black Out

Saturday night the girls of Alice Young hall had an air raid drill. The girls were alerted by Miss Robinson to go to their rooms and be under their usual duress. A bell was rung and everyone turned out her lights and came to the job by as quickly and quietly as possible. Results were better than anticipated. All lights were out on the second trial.

Although air raids seem a faraway possibility to us at Morehead, such a drill will tend to establish habits of calmness and alertness which are good when air raids do happen. This is precisely our stationery location.

Little practice won't hurt any.

By Cracky

March 14, 1942. In two more weeks spring will really be here. Then what will that mean to us?

And I have rung. You can't see it. Most split a lung. And snail my tongue. I'm all unwitting.

To you've changed. My heart live hung. My pin live hung. If me you're strung. You need it wrong.

CAMPUS CHARACTER: Charlie Traxum, better known as the Great White Father, is doing Mary Martha. He is a student of Mens hall. He has stumped our fair campus for several years, and will remain here because Uncle Sam isn't bothering to call. Charlie, who considers himself quite dramatic, can be distinguished from the rest of the student body by his suit, topcoat, hat and shoes. We could easily write pages about our lovely Charlie, but we won't. We'll just let you that he is MOST interesting to converse with by it and prove it for yourself. Don't take our word for it.

SAYING OF THE WEEK: "When does navy men smelt?"

ODE TO: Frances, Tuesday. How fat she is! She used to be! The fence is! She dally doesn't.

CAMPUS CURIO: The newly formed F.D.A. (Frances Dundan Anderson's) club is full of wit. Frances is being rotated by Earl Combs, Mervyn Hanes, Murray Imms, Lloyd Banks, Bill Smart, Bill Blair, and Jim Alexander. (I) Each has his day. The club is limited as to membership, but those wishing to become members must be President Dundan. Limited membership! Well, there are only seven days in each week.

It has been rumored that some people are so dumb they think "Hardship" is a concrete noun. Well, what kind of a beast!

CAMPUS QUESTIONS: When is the telephone operator named Kathleen, that M. M. conversed with so frequently? And does his new flame, Ruth Edmiston object? What were Squid and Erlene doing when they were walking out from you know where? Has Elwood Traxum been in the "Hole in the Market"? Has Cooper finally got a girl? Did Blanche court Keith while they went home? Has Lois Cere dropped Keith? What about What about this Opa Caudill? Laura Wheeler affair? Is Grace Danmore courted by Arthur Stewart? Did Amy and Rosie take Stony and our dear doctor to the show or vice versa? Is Steve courted? Did Helen Coughlin studying more for the show? Just accounting since Blanche is gone? Who is Erlene going to date now? The Charlie and Lela have made up. Could it be Squid? And if they get around making up if it wasn't in the library?

We'll close with a word to the wise, dear children. Even a bricklayer gets where he is by hard work. So keep him flying and buy your defense stamps.

By Cracky.

Twelve Arts Books Recently Acquired by Our College Library

Some of the useful Arts Books, that our college library has recently acquired, will be the subject of our discussion today. They are as follows:

1. Phillips, M. C. "Sixth Degree." Vanguard Publishing Company, $2.00. The book, like "100,000 Questions Plain," tells you the subject of our discussion today, in trade circles or among select, about face powder, rouge, talcum powder, soap, cold cream, lipstick, nail preparations, hand lotions, hair restorer, depilatories, eyelash dyes, hair dyes, etc.

2. Larson, Carl W., and his late putney, Fred S. "Dairy Cattle Feeding and Management." Wiley Publishing Company. The third edition of this book is a masterpiece of fact and teachable form. The more important findings of the field of dairy husbandry.

Brownell, Kathryn. "Textbook of Practical Nursing." Saunders Publishing Company. $3.00. This book brings together in one volume the principles, technique and methods of practical nursing. It is concise, easily understood, and well written by an author who, both as a teacher and as a nurse, is especially well qualified to present the essential information needed in caring for the sick in the home.

The author would appreciate any comments the readers of this series might have. Address all communications to Mrs. B. B. Morehead, Kentucky.
