The Dogs of War

The Rowan County Trouble Breaks Out Aftershock

Sheriff Humphreys Mortally Wounded
One Man Killed—Craig Towler Wounded

(Motorized by the Courier-Journal.)

MONROE, April 25—The war broke out again at Monroe yesterday morning when a man was killed and another mortally wounded, with the result that hostilities are expected to continue.

The murder was committed by two men who had been discharged from the employment of Tivolier and his friends. The incident occurred in the town of Monroe, where a man was killed and two others were wounded.

The man who was killed was a friend of Tivolier and his friends. He was shot in the head with a double-barreled shotgun and died instantly. The other man, who was also a friend of Tivolier, was shot in the arm and is expected to recover.

The shooting caused the greatest excitement in the town, and the next day another attempt was made to capture Humphreys. A posse was organized, and Humphreys was finally captured after a long and complicated chase. He was shot in the leg and is expected to recover.

It is feared that the worst is yet to come, and the other men who have been involved in the affair are expected to take up arms again. The situation is tense, and the local authorities are on high alert.

Since then several other deaths have occurred in the area. County Attorney Young was shot and killed in cold blood by a man who had been released from prison. Investigator John Anderson was also killed by a man who had been released from prison. Deputy Sheriff Sam Bingham was shot and killed while on duty, and several other men have been injured.

The war is expected to continue for some time, and the local authorities are on high alert. The situation is tense, and the people are afraid to go out of their homes.