A MURDERER MOLTS

John Martin, alias Toller, of Winchester, was shot dead in Morehead, Kentucky, this morning, his head being covered with弹丸. The origin of the quarrel is unknown, but it appears that Toller and Martin were partners in crime, and that Toller had threatened to betray him. The murder was committed by Martin, who fled from the scene of the crime. The body of Toller was found in a field near Morehead, with a bullet wound in the head. The murder has caused a great deal of excitement, and the police are searching for the killer.

FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

Mr. Skelton, Ky., Dec. 3.---There was a notable event in the town of Morehead last night. Toller and Martin were engaged in a dispute over a piece of property, and in the course of the argument, Martin shot Toller. Toller died instantly, and Martin was arrested. The murder has caused a great deal of excitement, and the police are searching for the killer.

At Farm's Rowan county, Morehead, last night, Toller and Martin were engaged in a dispute over a piece of property. In the course of the argument, Martin shot Toller and died instantly. The murder has caused a great deal of excitement, and the police are searching for the killer.