

TROOPS ORDERED HOME

From Rowan County—Citizens Afraid of More Trouble—The Day Brothers Have High Words With Cook Humphreys.

[Special to the Courier-Journal.]

MOREHEAD, Aug. 18.—Orders were received here this evening by Maj. McKee for the troops on active duty to be returned to their respective posts, and the troops will move from here to-morrow morning. The citizens are very sorry that no soldiers are to remain, and are afraid of the renewal of trouble as soon as the soldiers leave. The Castleman Light artillery fired a salute this evening in honor of Maj. McKee, the officer in command of the forces here.

The two remaining prisoners in jail here were released to-day—one by the order of the County Judge, and the other went out on bail.

The two Day brothers came into camp to-day and accosted Cook Humphreys. They had some very high words. Humphreys will leave here to-morrow morning with the troops, being afraid to remain here without their protection.
