Young Democrats To Hold Convention In Louisville

Gov. Johnson, Sen. Barkley To Attend Meeting Of State Wide Clubs

The Young Democratic Club of Kentucky, which holds its biennial convention Friday and Saturday, November 17 and 18, at the Kentucky Hotel here in Louisville have arranged a two day program to include besides the regular business election of new officers and rounds of Democratic victory celebrations, the introduction of Kentucky's new official family.

For the first time since they were swept into office in the Democratic landslide last week, the official family, which is now awaiting inauguration in December, will be united. All have been invited by Charles Epperson of Pikeville, president of the State Clubs, to attend and make their bow to the younger element in their capitulation.

Governor Keen Johnson is scheduled to make the principal address at the Friday afternoon session of the convention. Senators Allen W. Barkley and A. Chandler, both of whom are vacationing from their duties at Washington, are expected to make addresses.

Delegates from each of the Commonwealth's 120 counties are expected to be represented at the meeting. Registration of delegates will start Thursday at the Kentucky Hotel, where all executive sessions will be held. County and district caucuses are scheduled for Friday morning and the keynote address will be heard that afternoon.

A stag party has been arranged for the men and a tea for the women on Friday and a dance is planned for Friday night. The convention ball, the highlight of the social activities, will be held Saturday night.

A. has purchased for them. Each child is working on a present to be given to each P. T. A. member as Christmas.

The P. T. A. met October 26th with a large crowd present. The members have finished their appetizers and now sit in the next meeting will be November 23rd.

The pupils have begun to think about Santa Claus. A program is being planned for Christmas.

Visitors at our school this month were Bro. and Sister Leaver, Dorothy Hamilton, and Violet Evans from Midland.

The pupils who received testimonials are: Maxine Calloway, Doris Royce, Eldon Lowe, and Gladys Hamilton.

Hallowe'en night. Over one hundred people were present. The pupils presented a Hallowe'en puppet play. Contests were held for the masqueraders. Great stories were told, and marshmallows were roasted over bonfires. Hallowe'en games, cracker eating, apple bobbing, and owl and cat mimic contests were participated in.

Johnson Lead In State Grows As Results In

(Continued From Page One) sending his father who died shortly after being elected to office, and Mr. Meredith succeeding Beverly Vincent who was appointed to Congress to fill out an unexpired term. Both were elected to office in the year following their appointment in 1937 and have served since that time.

Governor Johnson is owner and publisher of the Richmond Reporter, published at Richmond, Kentucky. He is the first newspaper publisher to be elected to the Governorship of Kentucky. He has long been recognized as one of the outstanding publishers of the state, and was elected to the office of Lieutenant Governor in 1935, in the Chandler land slide, in spite of the fact that he was on the Rhinston at that time. Practically every publisher in the state gave him wholehearted support in that race, such upsetting what looked like a sure victory for his opponent.

Elliott Piles Up Large Democratic Majority

Harry F. Gaynor, Democrat, polled 1043 votes in the race of Railroad Commissioner of the third district, and John W. Langley, Republican, received 702 votes.

For circuit judge of the 37th district, Lewis Littleton, Republican, received 915 votes.

For Representative of the 90th district, Walter VanSant, Democrat, polled 1057 votes, and Roscoe Parsons, Republican, polled 723 votes.

The Big Kicks in Not Being Rich. YES, it's a Buick you have a lot of money to spend. But don't forget there's also plenty of fun to be had "on the way up" to affluence. There's the satisfaction of achieving something better than you're used to stepping up, for instance, to this smart, swift, solid Buick after you've been driving run-of-the-mill cars. Just you feel the silk-smooth surge of its great 107 horsepower micropoise-balanced straight-eight engine - and you know that all that went before was only preliminary to this big thrill. You flip the firm, easy gearshift - and the click of its action under your hands says

"Best buy's Buick!" BROWN MOTOR CO.
