

A Lumber Mill Burned.

[Special to the Courier-Journal.]

OWINGSVILLE, Ky., Dec. 4.—Yesterday morning the large lumber mill at Cross Roads, Rowan county, known as the Beaver Run mill, the property of Buckwalter Bros., was entirely destroyed by fire, together with all the machinery and a large lot of lumber. The mill had not been in operation for a month past, and as there had been no fire about it in that length of time, it is generally supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. The owners had usually kept the property heavily insured, but it is reported that the time of their policy had expired but a few days ago, and all that was destroyed is, therefore, a clear loss. The Buckwalters are Ohio gentlemen. The loss is not less than $8,000.
