John H. Newman Is New Agriculture Teacher In County

Mr. John F. Newman, of Owensboro, Kentucky, has been employed to replace Mr. Carl Wade as vocational agriculture instructor in Morehead and Haldeman High Schools.

He has held the office of "State Farmer" in Daviess County, and is now a member of the Kentucky Farm Bureau. For the past two years he has been employed in the Mason County School system, teaching in the Lewisburg School.

Farmers Urged By FSA Supervisor To Check Fire Hazards

Pointing out that the nation's farmers lost ten cents out of every dollar they earned last year, three of our most serious agricultural losses, K. Rose, County Supervisor for the Farm Security Administration, urged farmers to check for fire hazards.

"The annual bill for farm accidents is estimated at one billion dollars or roughly one-tenth of the gross farm income," (By the Way) Rose said. "These accidents on the farm cost the lives of 4,000 farmers last year."

Emphasizing that fire is one of the farmer's costliest enemies, Mr. Rose pointed out that October 1940 people, and causing a hundred million dollars damage. Mr. Rose said, adding that the isolated location of many farm homes and their distance from city fire fighting apparatus caused the toll on farm property to be particularly high.

He warned farmers to check carefully on lighting and wiring facilities in their homes and barns; to check construction of chimneys and flues; to make sure stoves and stove pipe connections were safe, and that roofing material is fire-proof, if possible. He also warned against careless handling and storing of gasoline and kerosene—two common causes of farm fires. Sparks may ignite unwept litter should be avoided. He stressed the importance of keeping several good fire extinguishers handy, as well as buckets and pails placed in convenient locations.

"Any farmer who would like information about spotting fire hazards and fire fighting methods, may call on a meeting in his office in the Court house building for the United States Department of Agriculture leaflet number 44 on fire prevention."

Grand Jury Files Report For October Term Of Court

Present Session Of Court To End Friday, October 17th

The Grand Jury for the October term of the Rowan Circuit Court, after having been in session five days, returned a complete report to Special Circuit Judge Francis M. Burke, on Tuesday, October 14. During that period the jury returned twenty indictments.

The October term of Court will end Friday, October 17. The complete grand jury report follows:

Rowan Circuit Court, Morehead, Term, 1941

Hon. Francis M. Burke, Sp. Judge, Rowan Circuit Court

We, the grand jury, make the following report:

We have been in session five days and have returned into open court twenty indictments. We have caused to be sworn before us witnesses from all sections of the county and have returned true bills in each case when the facts justified.

We have investigated the reports of the officers of the northwestern of the county and find that they are in order with the exception of Magistrate Arthur Barber who has no report before us. We ask that this matter be brought before the next grand jury for such investigation that they may deem just.

We find that there is less crime in the county than usual. The public buildings have all been investigated by us and found to be in good condition, sanitary and clean, for which we compliment the officers responsible.

We wish to express to the family of Richard M. Clay our deepest sympathy and we find that his death was a great loss to the county.

Eagles Take Davis-Elkins Into Camp 26-7, Last Saturday

Workman Is Outstanding For M.S.T.C. Harper For Davis-Elkins

Playing to an estimated Morehead crowd of 2000, the Morehead College Eagles soundly defeated the Davis-Elkins "Hurricane" here Saturday afternoon, by a score of 26-7.

Larry Workman, sophomore back, from Fort Gay, West Virginia, living up to Morehead Coach Ellis Johnson's expectations, passed the Eagles with two touchdowns—one in the second quarter and one in the third.

Morehead opened up its big scoring game in the second quarter of play, when Workman returned a punt from the forty-second yard line to the end zone.

Five minutes later, Justice plunged from the one-yard line to put dirt for the second score of the game. Zschern boosted the extra-point.

While making nineteen first downs on passes and 307 yards on rushing, Morehead lost 122 yards on penalties. Davis-Elkins gained sixty-seven yards via the serial route, and forty-seven yards running. They were penalized a total of fifteen yards.

Coach Johnson, seeing at the outset of the game that his opponents were somewhat outclassed, changed the line-up and the entire team six times during the game, with the exception of Adams, Eagle Captain, who holds down the back.

Harper, of Davis-Elkins, returned the kick-off in the third quarter on a free ten-yard line and scored nine yards during the hurricane touchdown of the game. Morehead territory was invaded by the Davis-Elkins line and the first half, when Harper raced from the forty-nine to the ten-yard strip. Then Oliver's pass came in and the end zone was short by a mere six inches.

W.P.A. Workers Are Required To Accept Private Employment

Persons accepted to WPA are expected to accept bona fide offers of private or public employment, whether of a permanent or temporary nature. If the work provided is a full-time job, the wage offered is the prevailing wage for such work in the community.

Workers who refuse to accept private employment under these conditions will be denied employment on WPA in accordance with established procedure.

In like manner persons certified to WPA are expected to accept assignments to training in occupations important to the defense program. They are qualified for such training and if schools or plants offering such training are located a reasonable distance from their homes.

Persons who leave a WPA job to accept private or public employment will be offered another assignment as soon as this employment is terminated provided such employment is only terminated through the fault of the worker.

Constitutional Amendment No. 1 Would Provide Major Improvements For Schools

J. H. Powers Makes Formal Statement To Rowan Voters

Complete Announcement Is Published Below

J. H. Powers, Republican candidate for the office of County Attorney of Rowan County makes official announcement of his candidacy and sets forth the major points of his platform in the formal announcement published below:

Mr. Powers has been a life-long resident of Rowan County, and since leaving manhood and entering into political circles in the county. He has also been very active in civic enterprises, especially with regard to the county school system, having served as Superintendent of the Rowan County schools.

Mr. Powers formal statement follows:

TO THE VOTERS OF ROWAN COUNTY:

Some time back I planned to present a statement setting forth my position on several matters that vitally affect the future of Rowan County and the part I propose to play in the event of my election to the office of County Attorney. About this time I was invited to publish this statement.

Now that I have active opposition I feel I should make a statement for the benefit of those interested in our county.

The County Attorney is responsible for the proper enforcement of all violations of the law that come before the lower courts of the county. If I am honored by being elected to this office I shall fairly and impartially discharge these duties with the desire that the law shall prevail.

It is my belief that all laws on our Statutes are enforced, that justice, tempered with mercy, should be meted out to the innocent as to punish the guilty.

Better roads is the most important matter for the consideration of the voters.

Sportsmen Urged To Save Old License Holders This Year

Shortage Of Metal Makes Economy Necessary Says Wakefield

Kentucky hunters and fishermen were urged today to "hang on" to use their metal license holders and to use them again, according to S. A. Wakefield, director of the Division of Game and Fish.

"Because of Federal Government priorities on metal of all kinds, it is almost impossible to get metal for common consumption," Wakefield pointed out, "and as the holders were originally designed to be used indefinitely over a period of years, I hereby ask that the license contains not be used just for the duration for a fishing or hunting license but that the old license be replaced in the next few days, thereby fulfilling the job for which the holders were created."

Wakefield stated that all hunters and fishermen be more careful in the handling of their holders and make a special effort against losing them or misplacing them in the future, thereby helping the Division of Game and Fish to save money from the expenditure for such holders and assisting in the national defense program as well by saving metal.

1. Lerner, Max. "Ideas Are Weapons." Viking Press, $3.50.
The history and uses of ideas is discussed in this interesting book. Written with a full realization of the problems of the present, and with a full knowledge of the heritage from the past, "Ideas Are Weapons" makes explicit and useful the hitherto undefined ideological background against which modern men and women are working out their destinies. The book contains incisive sketches of men, both American and European, who have created and shaped the modern world of ideas.

Double the convenience. You, and even much more than that. You'll agree that there is no convenience that gives you so much for so little as electricity.

Double the help. And, with electric water cut about 50% you can take advantage of these electric heaters at half what it would have cost you 10 to 15 years ago.

Double the light. Today you can enjoy twice as much light as you did 10 or 15 years ago for the same money.

Double the speed. Electric appliances brought through a day's work in less than half the time it used to take - at least half the time.

Double For Your Money

... that's about the bargain electricity under business management gives you today

Is it news to you that your residential electric rate has been cut about 50%? No doubt it is, because this reduction has come about gradually over the past 10 to 15 years.

Then, you might ask, "Why hasn't my bill gone down?" Because, if you are like most families, you are using much more electricity than you did 10 to 15 years ago. Today you probably have a refrigerator, an electric iron, a toaster.

Perhaps a washing machine. Certainly a radio. Indeed, if the amount of current you're using today were figured on the basis of 10 to 15 years ago, your bill would probably be about twice as much as it is now.

What is responsible for this reduction? Efficient business management of the electric companies. Your electric company and its employees. The same people who are conscientiously working your service so that every year it is better than the year before... the people whose aim is to keep on bringing you more and more of the benefits of electricity at less and less cost.

Ky. State Fox Hunt To Begin October 20 At Renfro Valley

Nationally Famous Event Will Last Five Years

The Kentucky State Foxhunting Association will hold its thirtieth annual state fox hunt and field trials and horse show at Renfro Valley, Kentucky, October 20-25, according to a statement issued today by Raymond Power, president of the organization and office secretary for the division of Game and Fish.
 The Kentucky State Fox hunt is known throughout the United States and hunters from all sections of the country are expected to be at Renfro Valley to join in the chase and to show the merits of their fox hounds.
 The Derby for hounds under twenty-one months of age starts at daylight Monday, October 20 and will continue for three days.
 The All-Age stake will begin Thursday morning at daybreak and continue for three days.
 One of the highlights of the hunt will be the bench show which will be held Monday night, October 20, with Roger Stone, Lexington, Kentucky, as judge.
 The horse show will be held on Tuesday afternoon, October 21st, at one-thirty, with three classes for saddle horses and four classes for hunters. The saddle horses will be judged by Robert J. Walker of Paint Lick, Kentucky, and the hunters will be judged by Churchill Newcomb of the state of Virginia.
 Powers stated that the hunt will be held on Tuesday night and a Barn dance will feature the entertainment program for Friday evening.
 Other features, both social and sporting, will be on the program. Saddle horses may be obtained from John Lair, Renfro Valley, Kentucky.
 Nothing is being overlooked to afford all visitors a warm welcome. Renfro Valley, and needless to say, the hospitality of this institution is famous from coast

Wage Record Card May Be Had By Asking, Says Bohon

A suggestion to workers and their families was offered today by Elbert M. Bohon, manager of the Ashland, Kentucky, field office of the Social Security Board. He said:
 "Workers may calculate their old-age and survivors insurance benefits by taking a simple step in their own behalf. All they need to do is call or write to our office in the Second National Bank building here in Ashland, and ask for a wage record request card. We shall issue the cards which are used by workers to obtain statements of the wages of the various individuals. At the same time we shall issue a circular which tells how to calculate benefits under old-age and survivors insurance."

Medals and decorations in the United States Navy are, for the most part, worn on the left breast. This custom may be traced from the practice of the Crusaders of the Middle Ages wearing the badge of honor of their orders near the heart.

"Then when the report of wages is received by the worker he can use the circular to estimate his average pay to date and thus get a good idea what he is likely to receive at age sixty-five, or what certain specific survivors might receive in the event of his death before reaching that age."

DO YOU KNOW that in every trade, profession and business there are successful men—who earn five, ten and even twenty thousand dollars a year—who will tell you that they owe their success largely to the training they received in the United States Navy?

There are three good reasons for this. First, Navy service develops the essential qualities of leadership, efficiency and accuracy which are the backbone of success in or out of the Navy.
 Second, you can't beat Navy instruction. The American Navy is the finest in the world, and this means every individual—whether he is radioman, electrician, machinist or cook—must be tops in his line. Third, the Navy makes men. Healthful spots, good food, expert medical and dental care will build you up physically to the rugged health that is typical of Navy men.

EARN NAVY PAY WHILE YOU LEARN

Instruction in many fields today runs into hundreds and sometimes even thousands of dollars. The Navy not only pays this instruction free, but will give you regular Navy pay while you are learning! And remember this:

of our people. During the past four years the Fiscal Court, reason of a Federal injunction which tied up the road money, has labored under a great handicap in their efforts to improve the roads. This debt has been paid and the handicap removed and there is no reason why the next administration should not make many needed improvements on our roads. If I am elected to this office I shall attend each meeting of the Fiscal Court, and although the County Attorney does not have a vote and has no power over the expenditures for the county it is his duty to counsel and advise the court. I shall start my own campaign to that end and that all roads in the county shall be put in such condition that they may be traveled over the year through and the bridges now down, an acre of the flood, shall be erected where they will serve the citizens of the county. To that end I shall lend my co-operation, in every way, to the Rural Highway Board of the W.P.A., and all other organizations that have for their object better roads for the county.

It is the duty of the County Attorney to assist the Commonwealth's Attorney in the preparation of all cases for presentation to the Circuit Court. If elected, I shall discharge this duty to the best of my ability.

A great many of our citizens are desirous of knowing the position of the various candidates in regard to Union labor. During my entire life I have never been employed by any corporation in any capacity. Neither has any member of my family and consequently I have no entanglements derived by many of my friends through collective bargaining in better wages and better working conditions. If I am honored by election to this office I shall try to that Labor is protected in this right and the every protection is thrown around them in their efforts for better working conditions for the laboring man. Having lived in this county all my life and knowing the citizenship of this county and the justice of your verdict at the polls on November 4, 1941. I submit my cause for your consideration and assure you that I shall appreciate your vote and influence.
