

A. M. Bowling Sent Up for 21 Years —Other Notes.

[Special to the Courier-Journal.]

LEXINGTON, June 29.—Ellis Dean, Sheriff of Montgomery county, arrived in the city to-day and took A. M. Bowling to the State prison at Frankfort. It will be remembered that Bowling murdered a Deputy Marshal at Mt. Sterling, on New Year's day, 1886. He was tried for the offense and sentenced to 21 years in the State prison. The case was taken to the Court of Appeals, where the decision of the lower court was confirmed. Bowling goes to penitentiary with the hope that he will be pardoned at the expiration of Gov. Knott's term.

At half-past 8 o'clock to-night Miss Nettie Armstrong and Mr. Albert Gilbert, of this city, were married at the First Baptist church in the presence of a large number of friends of the contracting parties.

Miss Fannie Lisle, of this city, entertained her guests, Miss Bruce, of Louisville, and Miss Briggs, of Nashville, in a most charming manner this evening. It was one of the most brilliant entertainments ever given in this city.

About 300 of our citizens will attend the Odd Fellows' celebration at Winchester to-morrow.
