

CRACKER BARREL COMMENTS
BY WOODY HINTON

I am indeed very happy this season of the year with all of you a very Merry Christmas with all the trimmings. We have had a lot of fun and we have had many a laugh over nothing. I have not said anything I am sorry of. Some of the things I have said has kindly rubbed the red the wrong way but it was all said in a joking way and I did not mean to hurt any one's feelings. I am very sorry and if I did not make someone mad I am sorry, for you only see me at their best when they read my mad. Claude Clayton leaves on the sixth and has already said he will not sell out until the seventh of January. Loretta Perdue, who has been boarding with Alby Hardin in the county jail handed me this piece of poetry that he wrote while in jail. Hardin's Hotel on Jailhouse Street, is the place where they serve you lima beans and salt meat. Dog, it's so tough, it barks when you bite. Gravy that's sour for it's kept overnight. Coffee so strong, it's bitter you see. You take one drink and three men you will see. Then everyone says you have been on a spree. You can kick and complain all you want to. But he keeps shooting the beans and the dog right at you. Quality is bad, the quantity is less. Hungry when through eating than you were at first. Pockets are so dirty you can't even sleep. Bugs crawl all over you from your head to your feet. The soap, it is the Democrats. And the floors are worse. Blankets are grimy. Mattresses full of dirt. We asked for clean blankets and mattresses you got. But the answer we bet was, "The County is in debt." Poor treatment of prisoners makes a bad campaign. If a man gets defeated he has only himself to blame. Campaign promises are nothing new. But this little song is the Jailor's new.

Glad to see you out, Lionel, and I am sure that in the future you will have any Democrat. Caudill is going to furnish feather beds, and serve fried chicken three times a day. A young little piece should care for many of us throughout this County to the prospective prisoners of our jail here. You know the Democrats will starve a fellow to death. They have no mercy on a Republican and have not had since the Bull Moose.

Most Rowan Tobacco Will Be Marketed Before Christmas

The marketing of tobacco from Rowan County is taking place at a rate that indicates that most of it will be sold before the holidays. Most crops have brought a price satisfactory to the grower. Some have got splendid yields and a good price. The following cases are a good example of this type crop.

R. F. "Fultz" Hicks, of the Sharkey community raised 3234 pounds of tobacco on 2.3 acres of land or 1406 pounds per acre. He received 34.91 per hundred pounds which gave him $1128.78 for his 1941 crop. The tobacco was No. 16 White Burley. Mr. Hicks grew his tobacco on land that had been previously planted and had been in a grass and Korean sod for the past six years. There was a liberal application of manure and

Dr. Bach Opposed To Hitler Regime, Predicts Downfall

Dr. Ernes Bach, has for the past ten years been head of the Foreign Language Department of Morehead College. He was born in Bern, Switzerland, where he lived and studied until 1909. While at the University of Bern, he became a member of the League of Nations and better opportunities in America than in the old country, so she decided to sail for America.

She has since been a member of our large colleges and universities but she said, "I am happier in America than I have ever been in my life." She has found Morehead a friendly place to live, and has bought property on Second Street, where she has just completed her new home.

Dr. Bach came to America at first to study, and planned that he would some day go back to his native Switzerland, but in 1921 she decided to take the necessary steps to become an American citizen. Switzerland is a little democracy, and is one of the few neutral countries in the world today.

Dr. Bach is bitterly opposed to the Hitler regime. She feels confident that it cannot last, and that Germany will be defeated. She is a great lover of animals, and thinks the steel trap should not be used to catch them, but she expressed the wish that Hitler could be caught in one of the strongest.

Willie Irvin Hamm Wounded In Action

Effect of the United States-Japanese War struck home this week when Melvin Hamm, of this city, was notified that his son, Irvin Hamm, was wounded in action, somewhere in the Pacific. Irvin is a coxswain in the United States Navy.

The notification, received by Western Union, follows: Mr. Melvin Hamm, Morehead, Kentucky.

The Navy Department deeply regrets to inform you that your son, Willie Irvin Hamm, Coxswain USN, has been wounded in action in the performance of his duty in the service of his country. The department appreciates your great anxiety and will furnish you further information promptly when received.

To prevent possible confusion, please do not divulge the name of his ship or station.

Demand For Wood In Cumberland National Forest

Increased coal prices encourage use of wood. Word was received this week from another boy in the armed forces, stationed at Manila, P. I., Theodore R. Luster, son of John Luster, who called his father that he was "safe, no injuries. Don't worry."

When coal prices per ton increased from $ 25 to $ 75 per ton higher than 1940 prices, many local people went back to burning wood in both heating and cooking stoves, and Forest officials believe that the trend may continue that way in sections where coal mines are scarce.

A few timber operators like Nelson Caudill of Wertz, Ky., are looking into the possibility of furnishing wood to neighboring communities which have been affected by increased coal prices.

Dan Dyer of Clearfield has made a deal with Ranger Stoller for fuelwood and has gone into the charcoal business to supply Morehead residents with the same.

The development of stoves which use most of the latent heat present in wood has been of interest to stove manufacturers for a number of years and relatively efficient wood-burning stoves are now on the market. It should be remembered that there is almost as much heat produced in a standard

Selective Service Changes Policy

It has always been our policy to publish all the information available as to who and when men of this county would be called for the armed forces, but under a recent ruling by the War Department, Selective Service System is not allowed to give information as to future calls and quotas. It will be our aim to cooperate in any way to aid national defense, we therefore will not publish more information regarding calls and quotas.

W. H. Vaughan Says College Ready To Help In Emergency

Dr. William H. Vaughan, President of Morehead State Teachers College, in a convocation talk, urged the student body and faculty to be calm in the grave crisis we are facing.

"America needs clear thinking, wise action, educated men and women to match the hour for wild, emotional hysteria, but a time for everyone to continue the work he is doing until he is called or called into other active fields of service."

When interviewed later, Dr. Vaughan stated that Morehead College is ready with its facilities to help in this grave emergency.

For several months, he stated, "The Red Cross has had room in the Administration building to carry on sewing projects, and that other work will be provided as the work is expended. Every student and citizen of Rowan County will be given an opportunity to assist in the work of the Red Cross and other branches of defense."

Dr. Vaughan believes that "Education in Defense," and that the future as well as the present, requires skilled and highly trained men and women to fill important positions. He stated that, "today, educated men and women to match and compete with the war tactics of other nations, but the American soldier is the best educated soldier in the world."

"We may be in for a long war," he stated, but "victory will be ours, because we believe in freedom and justice for all."

Public Statements By H. H. Jacobs And Rev. B. H. Kazee

In view of the fact that there has been considerable comment throughout the community concerning me and some things which I am supposed to have said I wish to make public the following statement:

"I have never said anything against our government in any way. I am as loyal as any other American and am ready to pledge my life for the service of our country if necessary."

The only thing I ever said in any way concerning the steps taken by the government was two months ago or more, when we first sent troops to Ireland. I did say that I thought had enough to do at home without concerning ourselves with other nations troubling us.

I believe that most people will agree with me on that point that was entirely within my rights, in fact statistics show that eighty-three percent of the people in the United States were opposed to our taking sides in the war until it was forced upon us.

You will recall that various members of our congress were opposed to it and I would hesitate to say that they were disloyal.

Now that it has been forced upon us we are all heavily favored of what has been done by our president and congress. These attempts at leading my friends and neighbors to believe these malicious falsehoods are for personal and business reasons altogether.

Signed: H. H. JACOBS, Jr.

American Legion To Give Christmas Presents

Funeral Services Held For Mrs. Paulina McKenzie

Mrs. Paulina Caskey McKenzie, 62, died at the home of a sister, Mrs. Willie Dehart, where she and her mother were making their home. Death was a result of pulmonary tuberculosis.

Her husband, John McKenzie, preceded her in death five years ago.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. George Ratliff, Louellen, Kentucky, and Hazel McKenzie, Morehead; five brothers, Alf Caskey and H. Caskey, Morehead; Will Caskey, Clearfield; Olive Caskey, Salt Lick, Kentucky; Frank Caskey, Pomeroy, Kentucky; one sister, Mrs. Willie Dehart, Bluestone, Kentucky; and her mother, Mrs. Louise Caskey, Bluestone.

Funeral services were held here December 16, at two o'clock, with the Reverend Henry Hall, pastor of the Centennial Church of God, in charge.

Burial was made in the Caudill Cemetery.

Citizens Urged To Save Old Papers And Magazines

Do not throw away or burn any old papers, magazines, or card-board boxes. They are in demand for defense use, and are being collected for this purpose by a truck from the Morehead Stockyards.

Magazines, newspapers, and others who have an accumulation of old papers can have them hauled away at once by placing them in some available place, such as the front porch, and calling the Midland Trunk Garage, Phone 350, to send the truck around.

Morehead Stockyards Next Sale Will Be January 1

There will be no sale at the Morehead Stockyards next week due to the regular sales day falling on December 20th, which the management observes as a holiday. Thus, Thursday, December 20, will be the last sales day for 1941.

Regular weekly sales will be resumed on Thursday, January 1, 1942.

Special Service Planned For Young People

A special service is being planned for the Young Peoples Service Club of citizens at a time such as Sunday evening. The theme will be "A Perfect Life." There will be special songs and readings.

To WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Inasmuch as rumor has it that H. H. Jacobs, a citizen of our town, has been questioned as to his loyalty as an American citizen, and inasmuch as I feel that the origin of such rumors is due to the "war hysteria" which is so prone to misinterpret the acts and statements of citizens at a time such as the present.

I should like to state that I have personally known the Jacobs family, of Cumberland, Kentucky, from which family the said Mr. H. H. Jacobs comes, for a period of about twenty years. They have so far as I have known, always been loyal citizens, and have so been regarded by their fellow-citizens in their home community. Members of this family have for years been active in the work of Baptist churches, and I have had occasion to know them in this relationship. We all have our opinions about government, and if we differ in our views, that is the privilege of the American people. Mr. Jacobs has never been regarded by my fellow-citizens as anything but a citizen. It is my opinion that all the rumors arising on this matter have no actual grounds, and that we should not injure the reputations of any citizen without more reason than this case affords.

U.S. Senate Votes To Draft Men 19 To 45

Registration Of Those 18-65 Approved; Volunteer Enlistments To Be Halted

The Senate responded this week to an army appeal for young soldiers of enthusiasm and stamina, voting to make all men from 18 through 44 years old liable for military service and to require the registration of males from 18 through 64.

The bill now goes back to the House, which is expected to route it to a joint conference committee for adjustment of differences, chief of which was the House-established minimum age of 21 for active service.

County Burley Growers Harvest Big Tobacco Crops

Carless Harris, Wm. Estep Raise Crops Above Average

Carless Harris of the Sharkey neighborhood sold 675 pounds of No. 16 White Burley Tobacco on 6 acre. This is about 1770 pounds per acre. Mr. Harris raised 500 pounds per hundred, and he also raised 371.70 for his crop. This is one of the best yields and prices received by a Rowan County farmer this year.

Mr. Harris grew his tobacco on land that was limed in 1939 and had been in Korean and grass sod for two years. He had also been treated with forty-seven percent phosphate at the rate of 222 pounds per acre in 1940. He used a liberal application of manure and broadcast twenty percent phosphate at the rate of five hundred pounds per acre, and a slightly higher application of a tobacco fertilizer in the row. This method of soil management is giving good results in every section of the county.

William Estep, of the Pine Grove neighborhood, sold 675 pounds of tobacco from one-half acre of land. A part of it was damaged in curing and approximately 200 pounds of it had to be discarded because of heuristics. This tobacco was a splendid crop of White Peppercorn tobacco, and would have made an outstanding yield but for the curing damage.

The crop was grown on land limed and phosphated. It was a heavy clover, grass, and Korean sod in 1937, 1938, and 1939. It was in tobacco and followed by vetch and rye, which was turned under as a green manure crop. This green manure crop was turned under and a heavy application of barnyard manure was made and disked into the soil. The soil was then limed and phosphated. The land was also treated with phosphate broadcast and tobacco fertilizer in the row in liberal quantities.

Chandler declared men over 24 are "not so good for dive bombing and for handling machines of air moving 350 or 400 miles an hour."

Secretary of War Stimson said his department was planning to make the increase. He said, "We are trying to do it with the least disturbance to industry and the entire economic setup."

"In the light of this purpose, the age limits in the new Selective Service legislation now before Congress are important. That is why we ask that the minimum age limit be set at 19."

"The war is a young man's game," the Secretary added. "All voluntary enlistments are being stopped. The department cannot guarantee any delivery of Christmas parcels if mailed after December 20, instead of closed at the usual 2:00 o'clock time, it was announced today by Postmaster W. E. Crouch.

The Postmaster said that the office had been notified by the Chief Clerk of the Railway Mail Service that the department could not guarantee any delivery of Christmas parcels if mailed after December 20. This was due to anticipated heavy movements of troop trains.

Post Office Will Remain Open Until 5:00 P. M.

To take care of extra heavy Christmas mailings and to accommodate the public, principally those from rural sections, the Morehead post office will remain open until 5:00 o'clock p. m., Saturday, December 20, instead of closing at the usual 2:00 o'clock time, it was announced today by Postmaster W. E. Crouch.

The dinner is held each year by Justice Vinson's many friends. Justice Vinson served for many years as Congressman of this district and became one of Washington's Congressional leaders. He was appointed to the Circuit Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia four years ago.

Post Office Will Remain Open Until 5:00 P. M.

THIS WEEK IN DEFENSE

While its evils discussed with Secretary of State Hull means of maintaining peace in the Pacific, Japan's forces attacked the Hawaiian Islands, the Philippines, Wake and Midway Islands, Guam, Hong Kong and Malaya. In the attacks on American possessions there were approximately 3,000 casualties, one battleship and a destroyer were sunk, several other U. S. ships severely damaged and a large number of planes put out of commission.

Stating that "always will we remember the character of the onslaught against us," the President asked Congress to declare a state of war between the United States and the Japanese Empire. Following Congress's affirmative action, Germany and Italy—in accordance with their agreement with Japan—declared war on the United States. Almost immediately declared war on the European members of the Axis.

Addressing the nation by radio, the President said "it will not only be a long war, it will be a hard war. . . . Not only must the shame of Japanese treachery be wiped out, but the sources of international brutality, wherever they exist, must be absolutely and finally broken. With confidence in our armed forces, with the unbounding determination of our people—we will gain the inevitable triumph. . . . We will win the war and we are going to win the peace that follows."

The President announced he had instructed the Army and Navy to take all steps necessary to United States defense. The War and Navy Department announced that the Army and Navy had beaten off attempted Japanese troop landings in the Philippines, sunk a 29,000-ton Japanese battleship, a cruiser and a destroyer, scored hits on the battleship KONGO; the Marine garrisons at Midway and Wake were holding out; that Navy Secretary Knox had flown to Hawaii.

Both the Army and Navy announced volunteer enlistments at a record level. The War Department asked Congress for legislation to register all men eighteen to sixty-four years old and to permit use of men eighteen to forty-five for military service. Selective Service Director Hershey said it may be possible to raise the number of selectees in service from the present 800,000 to about 3,000,000 without using other than the "twenty-one to twenty-eight age groups. If Congress approves the induction of those from twenty-eight to thirty-five, now registered but deferred, another 1,000,000 might be raised. General Hershey said 65 national headquarters directed all local boards to reclassify ex-Service men who have been deferred because of prior service.

Congress passed legislation removing the ban on U. S. Army men from serving outside the hemisphere. Congress also granted the Army and Navy permission to hold enlisted men for the duration.

Following air raid alarms in San Francisco and New York, the Office of Civilian Defense ordered all Pacific and East coast and District of Columbia air raid volunteers on the alert. OGD Director LaGuardia announced enrollment of 950,000 air raid wardens and other volunteers, and called for three times the existing permanent fire personnel plus one air raid warden for every five hundred persons.

The War Department asked all Governors to be "on the alert" with home guards and state troops available to meet any situation; instructed special plant protection services to protect all arsenals, factories and storage depots against sabotage.

Director McNutt of Defense Health and Welfare Services asked Governors to complete mobilization of State health and welfare services. He also issued a call for young women to enroll in schools of nursing to meet critical shortages of professional nurses for the Army, Navy and civilian requirements.

The Navy initiated censorship on all outgoing communications and forbade publication of any naval information that might be of value to the enemy. The Army restricted information of troop movements except when announced by the War Department. The Maritime Commission requested the press, radio and other news channels to refrain from publishing information about merchant vessels in any waters.

The President authorized the Defense Communications Board to designate radio facilities of the nation for use, control, inspection or closure by Federal agencies. The Federal Communications Commission prohibited operation of amateur radio stations in all U. S. Territory.

The Army and Navy announced casualty lists with when and how many losses the United States has sustained. Families of casualties, however, will be notified immediately whenever possible.

The White House issued a statement that "the Lend-Lease program will continue in full operation." The statement said it was the German hope that if the United States and Japan could be pushed into war, that such a conflict would put an end to the Lend-Lease program. Germany and Japan, the President said, "are conducting their military and naval operations in accordance with a joint plan. The American people must realize it can be matched only with similar grand strategy."

The State Department asked the Pan-American Union to call a conference of Western Hemisphere nations in Rio de Janeiro in January. By December 12, Great Britain, Canada, Costa Rica, Guatemala, Australia, Belgium, Canada, China, Cuba, Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Free France, Greece, Haiti, Honduras, Netherlands, India, New Zealand, Nicaragua, Panama, Poland, South Africa, and the Soviet Union had either declared war on Japan, severed relations with that country, or expressed willingness to cooperate with the United States.

Under Secretary of War Patterson called for production of all munitions on a twenty-four hour a day basis. The SPAB issued a declaration that the defense program had been replaced with a victory program. OPM Director Knudsen told his press conference the victory program calls for 1,000 heavy four-engine bombers a month and a 168-hour week for the plane, tank, gun, ammunition and shipbuilding industries as fast as men, materials and machines are available. Director Odium of the OPM Contract Distribution Division, speaking in New York, said war production will double in 1942. Civilian Supply Director Henderson cut auto production to sixty percent of December last year.

The President invited industry and labor leaders to meet in Washington, December 17th, to reach an agreement to prevent labor disputes.

The President told his press conference the very great shortage of most metals will necessitate use in our war production of at least fifty percent of the metals now going into civilian use. The Secretary of Agriculture issued a statement "we enter this struggle with greater reserves of food, feed and fiber than at any other time in our history." OPM Priorities Director Nelson prohibited sale of new auto tires from December 11 to December 22 to stop a "buying wave" which started after Japan's attack. Price Administrator Henderson placed ceiling prices on flashlights, bulbs and batteries and asked purchasers of "mist" items in coastal areas to be alert for raids to report profiteering. He also asked for a nationwide campaign to conserve and accumulate waste paper.

The Economic Defense Board prohibited exports to Japan and Japanese occupied territory, to Japanese nationals all over the world, and to China—except for shipments to the Burma Road via Rangoon. The Board also stopped exports of all rubber until further notice except in connection with Lend-Lease and to United States forces.

Treasury Secretary Morgenthau ordered a halt to any commerce or communication with Japan and her allies, ordered all borders closed to Japanese and froze all assets of Japanese nationals or businesses.

Stating that defense expenditure increases will have to be matched by increases in purchases of defense bonds and stamps, Mr. Morgenthau ordered an intensive sales campaign.

The President designated by proclamation all nationals of Germany, Italy and Japan as "enemy aliens" and authorized the Justice Department to take into custody those considered dangerous. The Justice Department requested that all State and local officials leave the handling of aliens to Federal authorities to prevent persecution of law-abiding and peaceful enemy nationals. All but 2,303 of the 1,100,000 Axis nationals in the U. S. were allowed to remain free subject to arrest on the slightest provocation, the Department said. The others, considered dangerous, were taken into custody and will be placed in concentration camps supervised by the Army.

Employers Must File Wage Earnings Of Part-Time Workers

All employers who hire part-time workers in stores or other commercial establishments must report the wages earned by such employees when old-age and survivors insurance taxes are paid. This warning was issued today by Elbert M. Bohon, manager of the Ashland, Kentucky, office of the Social Security Board. Commenting on this subject he said: "Many stores hire part-time workers during the Christmas holidays. The wages of such workers must be reported and their social security account numbers given when the old-age and survivors insurance taxes for the final quarter of 1941 are paid in January of the new year. There are no exceptions to this rule, except in the case of certain types of family employment.

"We advise employers to copy the social security numbers of all part-time workers, using the individual's account card for this purpose and making sure the name and number are copied exactly as they appear on the card. The Collector of Internal Revenue will not complete any tax return which does not have this information for all employees. Minors are covered by the act when working in stores and other places of business, there being no age limits for coverage under old-age and survivors insurance. Employers of one or more pay taxes and must make these returns."

Did you know that the American railroads haul a ton of freight one mile for an average revenue of less than one cent? Less than the cost of a post card—and out of that they pay all their own costs and taxes besides!

Don't let fickle winter weather spoil your holiday travel plans—plan to go Chesapeake and Ohio! You'll enjoy far greater comfort and safety, and economy too, for coach fares are amazingly low at 2¢ a mile and less!

Over the past 14 years the railroads used more iron and steel than any other industry—18.7 per cent of the total United States production!

The first "railroad" in the U. S. is said to have been a short inclined track used as early as 1793 to convey brick and clay products from kiln on Beacon Hill in Boston to a street below. It was 35 years later, however, before the actual railway era began with the charter of several common carrier railroads in 1830.

Coal from mines along the Chesapeake and Ohio is known as "All-Purpose Coal" because it'll meet the exacting needs of your furnace as well as the many requirements of modern science and industry.

Chessie wishes to take this opportunity to wish her many good friends and patrons a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy, Prosperous New Year!

The average locomotive contains approximately one mile of boiler tubing!

New Fiction Books in Modern Setting

Today the subject of our article is fiction books, that have come off of the press within the last few months. The setting of this group of books are laid in the present. They are as follows:

1. Stead, Christiana. (The Man Who Loved Children.) Simon and Schuster Publishing Company, $2.75.

(The Man Who Loved Children) is the portrait of the complete egotist—his wife, and his six children. The author has turned from the fantasy of "The Salsburg Tales" and the world of international finance in "House of All Nations," to the contemporary American setting of Washington, D. C.

2. Shute, Nevil. (Landfall.) Morrow Publishing Company, $2.50.

A feeling of tenseness and reality pervades this wartime romance of Jerry, young flying officer in the Royal Air Force, who is on dangerous patrol duty over the channel, and Mona, a barmaid at the Royal Clarence. This book is by the author of "Ordeal" and "Kindling."

3. Feiner, Ruth. (Three Cups of Coffee.) Lippincott Publishing Company, $2.50.

The portrait of a man as he appears to the three women who know him best—the woman who married him, the woman who failed him, and the woman who loved him. (Three Cups of Coffee) is by the author of "Cat Across the Path."

4. Keyes, Frances Parkinson. (Fielding's Folly.) Messner Publishing Company, $2.50.

The whirlwind courtship of Eunice Hale of Vermont and Frances Fielding of Virginia does not end in a martial idyll, for New England character and Southern temperament clash with dramatic force.

Relaxation Of Navy Physical Standards Are Announced

Minor Physical Defects To Be Corrected If Necessary

A relaxation of physical standards for enlistments in the United States Navy and the Naval Reserve was announced this week by the Navy Department. In commenting on this action, the Navy Department announcement stated that numerous men who in past months have sought to enlist and minor physical defects will, because of the modification of physical standards be encouraged to re-apply for enlistment in either the regular Navy or the Naval Reserve for the duration of the emergency.

The Navy Department has requested that any person knowing of young men who had been barred from enlistment in the Navy or the Naval Reserve because of minor physical reasons should bring this modification in physical requirements to the attention of these young men.

Applicants with varicose veins will be acceptable under the changed standards, this varicose condition to be corrected, if the condition is painful, at the Naval Training Stations to which the new recruits are sent. Hydrocele, another defect that formerly ruled out numerous applicants, will be corrected, if necessary after enlistees arrive at Training Stations. Applicants suffering from hernia will be accepted provided their L. Q.'s are seventy-five or better. Recruits suffering from hernia will be treated at the Training Stations and will be enrolled for schooling during their periods of emergency.

Employees Of Gov't Branches Are Not Under Wage Law

Political And Sub-Divisions Guards, Etc., May Disregard Restrictions

The Federal Government, States, counties, municipalities or other political sub-divisions of States are not "employers" under the Fair Labor Standards Act, and men hired as guards by States or political sub-divisions of States during this war emergency may be employed without respect to the requirements of the Wage and Hour Law, it was announced today by Baird Snyder, Acting Administrator of the Wage and Hour

Division, United States Department of Labor. Numerous inquiries reached the Division yesterday and today on the requirements with respect to the employment of special additional guards by cities, utilities, and other employers.

Where employers other than the political sub-divisions of States above mentioned, either employ additional guards or, because of the lack of available man-power, lengthen the hours of guards already employed, the wages paid to such guards as are engaged in interstate-commerce or in the production of goods for commerce, must meet the minimum requirement of thirty cents an hour—that is, $12.00 for a forty-hour week—unless a wage order sets a higher hourly rate (not over forty cents an hour of $16.00 a week) for the industry. Time and one-half the hourly rate must be paid for hours worked over forty each week. Guards or watchmen hired by employers who are in commerce or producing goods for commerce, and whose work it is to protect such activities conducted by their employers, are subject to the Fair Labor Standards Act, the courts have held, even though they do no productive work.

convalescence. Other physical defects which formerly prevented men from being accepted as recruits, but which now are waived, are seasonal hay fever; correctable nasal deformities or nasal deformities of such a degree as not to interfere with breathing; undernourished and underdeveloped applicants, provided the condition is not due to organic disease; and minor surgical defects which can be corrected within a month. Applicants who possess eighteen natural serviceable teeth, with at least two molars in functional occlusion and not more than four incisors missing, will be acceptable. Dental treatment will be given at the Training Stations.

Any applicant who has been rejected because of any of the defects noted above is urged to re-apply for enlistment in the Army or Naval Reserve immediately. All applicants accepted with defects requiring correction will be hospitalized. After correction of these defects recruits will be returned to their Training Stations at the earliest practicable time. These modified physical standards will apply for all applicants for enlistment in either the regular Army or the Naval Reserve with the exception of applicants for enlistment in classes for prospective commissioning.

The appearance of our building has been very much improved by two coats of white paint, and one coat of red paint on the roof. The school buildings have also been painted white with red roofs. The work was done by Mr. John Poston and Mr. Everett Caldwell who have also done a well on the school grounds and walled it in with tile. This is a cement form and a pitcher pump. The well is the only source of water supply the school has ever had, and every one is very glad it has been dug up.

The following equipment has been purchased for the school: A new water cooler, and a set of maps containing eight maps on a steel tripod stand with funds raised for a new supper held in October. Merry Christmas To All America must preserve the Christmas spirit for future generations. The world would be dark indeed, if somewhere the bells did not ring out to herald the coming of this glad day.

The Star of Bethlehem still sheds its light down through the centuries. The time will surely come again when there will be peace on earth. Candles on the tree are symbols of a brighter era. We must keep them burning here.

All of us at the Peoples Bank of Morehead join in wishing you a very Merry Christmas.
