

Normal School Notes.

The young men in Burgess Hall and in Button Hall, the two dormitories, have organized a senate for their own government, and the entire control of these buildings has been placed in their hands. The experiment is being watched with interest.

Simon P. Miller, member of the junior class, preached at Willar today.

Andrew Sharp, the Y. M. C. A. delegate to the Volunteer convention at Nashville, has returned.

The mission study class on Saturday night discussed the third chapter of "Sunrise in the Sunrise Kingdom," on the religions of Japan.