

TODAY is the 58th birthday of Frank Christopher Button, of Lexington, who was born November 19, 1863 at Oquawka, Ill. He was educated in public schools and was graduated from the theological department of Transylvania University in 1887. December 24, 1889 he married Miss Hattie Bishop, of Morehead, Ky. He was founder and principal of Morehead Normal school until 1911. He has been state supervisor of rural schools since 1911. He is a member of the board of trustees of the Kentucky Female Orphan school. Besides his other activities he is the author of several books among them being, "The History of Education in Kentucky" 1914, "Elementary State Course of Study in Kentucky."