

YOUNG LOGAN BURIED.

His Mother in a Precarious Condition — A Quiet Sunday at Morehead.

[Special to the Courier-Journal.]

MOREHEAD, July 25.—Young William Logan was buried this morning, his funeral taking place at 11 o'clock. The little church was crowded with friends. Mrs. Logan, mother of the deceased lad, is in a precarious condition. She also lost a grown daughter about eight months ago. It has been a very quiet Sunday in Morehead, and no intoxicated persons have been seen about town. Mr. Caruth went home yesterday afternoon, but Judge Cole remained here. The grand jury is said to have several indictments ready to be reported to-morrow, and court will be opened promptly at 9 o'clock in the morning.
