Stockyards Will Hold Stockholders Meeting, Feb. 9th

A meeting of stockholders of the Morehead Stockyards, Incorporated, will be held in the incorporated office on Monday evening, February 9, at seven o'clock, according to J. R. Wendel, Secretary-Treasurer. The Board of Directors includes: C. Z. Bruce, W. H. Carter, Glenn Friley, W. L. Jayne, W. H. Layne, Ray Lytle, E. McBrayer, W. J. Sample, J. R. Wendel, and V. H. Wolford.

The trip up here on the bus Sunday was very uneventful. I lost my ticket before I got to Farmers but the bus driver let me ride anyhow. So in Lexington we changed drivers and I told the new one the same story and he let me ride to Cincinnati. When we changed drivers I got a good seat in the middle of the bus. There was very few vacant seats so I just grabbed that one and did not realize for a while that I was sitting next to a very attractive girl in a beautiful fur coat. That kinda made me nervous and in getting through my pockets in a nervous way I found my ticket. We had a delightful conversation on the bus the following very intelligent. Our conversation went something like this: "I said, 'Snowing'." She replied: "About six miles farther I said: 'Tired'." She said: "Yes." I don't believe she would have said "no" if she had known I was going to get down to the other end of town. It was too cold to go anyhow, as I had my pants and shoes and got downstays who should I run into but John Horton Lee."

Salvage Campaign Gets Underway As Statewide Drive

Kentuckians anxious to help America drive the war will get their chance in the "Salvage for Victory" campaign now getting into full swing. At first the campaign will be concentrated on putting to use old scrap iron, rubber and paper. Other waste materials such as tin and glass probably will come later.

"Our purpose," said McClain, "will be to reach into every Kentucky county, to get out of every home to gather these materials so necessary to the production of munitions and other implements of war."

Eagles Drop Second Murray Encounter 44-40, Wednesday

Murray encountered much stiffer opposition from the Morehead Eagles here Wednesday night, but the home club, forced to play the last ten minutes without their star Earl Duncan, dropped the second straight in so many nights to the Thoroughbreds. The score was 44-40 and marked Morehead's third successive loss and practically eliminated them from the KIAC race, and installed Murray as the "red-hot" favorite for the crown.

Rouse, County Supervisor for the Farm Security Administration."

Retreaded Tires May Be Rationed

Rationing of retreaded tires as well as new tires and tubes may be required Monday by an official statement from Government sources. While spokesmen for the Office of Price Administration, in which is vested all rationing authority, would not comment on the multiplying reports that retread rationing is in the immediate offing, other sources confirmed that only delays in deciding on the final form of the order has deferred its issuance.

Farm Machinery Conservation Meet To Be Held Feb. 10

While this meeting is being held, it is estimated that farmers will only be able to buy about two-thirds of the machinery that they will need to buy early. This means strict economy and thrift will have to be practiced in operating our present farm machinery, all serviceable machinery should be repaired; all worn-out machinery sold for scrap iron; all serviceable parts retained to repair other machinery with and order all new machines and parts early. Everyone interested in Farm machinery is urged to attend this meeting Monday, Feb. 10, at 9:30 a. m. Calves: Top Value, $135; Medium, $120; Common and Large, $110-115.

National Defense Increases Work Of Social Security

The National Defense program has increased the activities of the Social Security Board to such an extent that an extra five hours per week was ordered for all field offices of the Board administering the old-age and survivors insurance program. This information was released today by Elbert M. Bohon, manager of the Ashland, Kentucky field office. "Effective immediately, our office in the Second National Bank building will be open from 8:30 to 5:00 on week days and until 12:30 on Saturday," Mr. Bohon said.

All employees of the Ashland field office have pledged semi-monthly purchases of defense stamps and bonds, as well as being engaged in civilian defense work. "Full cooperation with the local and state authorities in the operation and administration of the defense program is part of our schedule," Mr. Bohon added.

Repairing Old Farm Machinery Saves Strategic Metals

Repair farm machinery and put more guns in the hands of the fighting forces. This is the suggestion made by C. B. Turner, chairman of the Rowan County USDA War Board, who points out that every piece of old farm machinery that can be reconditioned and put to use in 1942 means critical materials saved for a new implement of war.

The Office of Production Management recognized the vital importance of farm production in the war effort by allocating for farm machinery and repair parts as much as possible of the materials needed for guns, tanks, planes, and ships, Mr. Turner said.

But every farmer who repairs any old machine, instead of buying a new one to replace it as he might do in normal times, is giving two-fold aid to the fighting forces by releasing essential materials for war use as well as producing food for the war effort, Mr. Turner explained.

In the campaign now under way for the repair of old farm machinery in Rowan County, time is the essential element, Mr. Turner emphasized. Farmers can be sure of getting repair parts for planting, cultivating and harvesting this year's crops only by checking all machinery now and ordering repair parts immediately, he said.

Fish, Game Clubs Urged To Appoint Quil Liberators

Game and Fish clubs over the State of Kentucky were urged today by S. A. Wakefield, Director of the Division of Game and Fish, to appoint their quilt liberators immediately and send the names of said committee members to the Division offices in Frankfort at once. Wakefield also asked that the names of newly appointed officials of the Conservation clubs be forwarded to his office at once. With names of club officials in the hands of the Division personnel, contacts and correspondence between the Division and County Game and Fish clubs can be simplified. Attention is again called to the advisability of collecting old shoe boxes and other paper containers for the distribution of the Bob White Quail around the first of April. Shortage of such cardboard containers is becoming acute and by spring they will probably be a thing of the past and for that reason sportsmen's clubs should act immediately to secure a supply of such boxes sufficient for their quotas of quail.

Members of Mason County homemakers' clubs attended an exhibit of forty woolen, rayon and cotton dress materials.

LOW What Kind of Funny Business Is This? A cartoon illustration showing a man carrying a large sack labeled 'PAYROLL' and another labeled 'COST OF PRODUCTION'. A line graph shows the cost of production rising sharply while the payroll remains relatively flat.

YOU'VE BEEN HEARING about the cost of living going up by leaps and bounds. The prices of food, clothing, fuel, rent and almost everything have been rising steadily—everything, that is, except electric service. The situation inspired our artist to draw this cartoon which graphically tells the story. In the last seven years our company has cut the electric rates eight times, and these slashes have saved you customers all told $1,420,309 each year. . . . a pile of money not to be laughed at. For the twelve months ending in June, 1941, our 84,679 residential customers each used an average of 33 kilowatt-hours of electricity more than they did in the previous twelve, but paid for it an average of 61 cents less. In the same period our commercial electric customers each used an average of 37 kilowatt-hours more and paid an average of $3.11 less. In spite of higher taxes and operating costs, we have been able by careful management and higher operating efficiency to pass these savings on to you.

 local clubs and groups over the state, will be asked to enlist in the McClain explained campaign basis as "both giving and receiving."
 "The people," he said, "can give their iron, rubber or paper to any of these local groups helping in the collection or they can sell it to a junk dealer.
 "If, however, they give it to the local organizations, they will be helping out these groups because money released from the sale of these things to junk dealers will go into their treasuries.
 The main purpose, McClain said, is to put the waste materials into commercial channels, through which they will find their way into factories.
 Local civilian defense councils, which Governor Johnson said already had been organized in one hundred of Kentucky's counties, also will be asked to aid in the work.

 colleges, universities, high schools, and elementary schools—practices activities that are in conformity with democratic principles. Too frequently individuals have distorted or unintelligent conceptions of democracy. Democracy is a "social organization that aims to promote co-operation among individuals and among groups on the basis of a mutual recognition of interest." There is too much lip service rendered in the name of democracy. Democracy in practice, like charity, must begin at home.
 Our country has little to fear from Communism or any "ism," if those who are involved and are concerned with our school procedures use democratic principles. We still have too many dogmatic individuals and dictators in our public school systems. Many teachers and administrators who quote catch-phrases and slogans of democracy are for the most part profoundly ignorant of its fundamentals.
 In a democracy, therefore, our chief concern probably should be with curriculum re-education rather than merely with construction.
 The curriculum adopted by a board of education shapes the thinking of the future citizens of any community. Therefore, it is important that leadership needs to be pooled. And leadership includes classroom teachers of tonight, the supervisors of tomorrow, the superintendent (successively possible), the college expert, those in bureaus of research, those interested in teacher training, and school patrons.

 Dr. Miller then outlines how local newspapers, civic leaders, intelligent laymen, and school teachers, may and should work out a curriculum democratically.

Cumberland Forest Increases Revenue $12,638 On Timber

Booms Results From Lumber Need And Forest Facilities
 Uncle Sam earns another $12,638, seventy-five percent of which is available for the War effort! Kentucky's Cumberland National Forest increased its receipts by seventy-one percent from the sale of timber to private industry during the past six months as compared to the same period last year, Mr. H. L. Borden, Supervisor of the National Forest, United States Department of Agriculture, announced today at his headquarters, Winchester, Kentucky, receipts from this source totaled $12,638.00 for the past six months, representing a cut of $2,034,000 that.

This boost in timber sales results from an impetus in the lumber industry taking part in the National Defense Program and the increased facilities of the Forest to handle more business. The total cut for the year ending June 30, 1942, is estimated to be 10,000,000 feet, which, Mr. Borden said, would be the biggest year in the history of the Forest.
 This likely increase in timber sales will result in higher returns to the sixteen counties within the National Forest as a result of their being entitled to twenty-five percent of the gross receipts for roads and schools.
 The cutting program is being conducted in compliance with the sustained production of the Forest which will provide timber for furniture cutting and conversion. This, Mr. Borden said, is highly significant, and local wood-using industries and people dependent upon those industries for a livelihood should feel assured that war timber is being provided for years

Here Goes "All-Out" For War Production

It seems that since Donald Nelson took over the reins of war production a few days ago, even the hens are co-operating on a hundred percent for maximum production.
 An English White Leghorn hen, owned by Mrs. A. L. Willen, of Route 69, one-half mile east of Morehead, laid a double-yolk egg on Sunday, then in a major effort to raise production even more, on Monday the hen laid her masterpiece.

 The egg was a moonmoth oversized one, with a soft shell on the outside, filled with white only, but to cap the whole thing off, on the inside of this was a hard-shell egg with a double yolk!

11 REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD OPPOSE THIS BILL

1. There is no need for the Legislature to pass the pending bill for the sale of Tennessee Valley Authority electricity in this State because there is no law prohibiting TVA from coming into Kentucky. Its own arbitrary rules alone prevent it from doing so. Why not change the rules and not the law?
2. Kentucky Utilities Company is not opposing TVA's coming into Kentucky, but it does strongly oppose the special privileges which TVA demands before it will come.
 The reason for this objection is that the enactment of such a law will ultimately and surely destroy taxpaying electric utility systems in Kentucky as it has in Tennessee.
3. The proposed act is special legislation because—
 - (a) It permits TVA to come into Kentucky entirely free of any regulation or control. It permits it to come under its own terms and conditions, accountable to no one in the State.
 - (b) It denies these special privileges to municipalities which generate their own electricity or buy power from anyone else.
4. TVA has no surplus electricity now. Kentucky Utilities and other companies are supplying millions of kilowatt-hours to the TVA system. Why not wait until TVA has power to sell? Conditions at that time may be entirely different than they are now—WHY RUSH TO PASS THIS BILL?
5. Where will the Federal Government and the State of Kentucky replace the following taxes now paid by the private electric utility companies:
 - State Income Tax . . .
 - Federal Income Tax . . .
 - State Unemployment Tax . . .
 - State Old Age Benefit Tax . . .
 - State Gasoline Tax . . .
 - Capital State Tax . . .
 - Chain Store Tax . . .
 - Corporation Commission Tax . . .
 - Miscellaneous Operating Tax . . .
6. Many taxing districts in Tennessee are not getting as much ad valorem taxes as they got under private operation.
 The Pineville Sun reports that as a result of withdrawal from taxation of lands flooded by TVA's Norris Lake, the tax rate on farms in Claiborne county, Tenn., jumped from $2.25 to $3.41 on the $100 valuation, and assessments for many property owners were more than doubled.
7. TVA is an electrical system owned by the Federal Government and is supposed to operate for profit. Yet TVA denies to cities using its power the right to make a profit for their general fund.
8. Proponents of TVA advocate control of electric service because it is universally used. The same might be said for food, medicine and clothing. The government with all its advantages could probably sell all such things cheaper than any private company.
 If it is a good thing for electric service, why not place all essential services and products under government operation and control?
9. The use of Hydro-Electric-Power will replace thousands of tons of coal mined in Kentucky by Kentucky miners and hauled by railroads whose employees are Kentuckians.
10. The sponsors of this special legislation have nothing at stake. We of Kentucky Utilities Company have our "Business Life in Kentucky" at stake, along with the welfare of our families and our home communities.

Geared to the GO of America!

AMERICA... born as thirteen little colonies huddled on the shore of a wilderness. Born with a dream in its heart... and a voice at its ear saying: "It's yours... get it!"

Young America... pushing the wilderness aside like a curtain—and earning itself a continent.

Older America... eating up distance to the tune of wheels humming along steel rails. For the railroads helped build America. And they'll help keep America for us today!

One of these is Chesapeake and Ohio—a railroad that changed an Indian trail into a great artery of commerce... that helped join the East and the West, to keep ours a continent ruled by one people. Through wars and peace, through rich years and lean, Chesapeake and Ohio Lines have grown with the resilient "Go!" of America... sharing the dream, the struggle, the achievement.

As a deep-rooted part of our country, this railroad today faces an armed challenge to America's history. And we face it well prepared!

For years now, Chesapeake and Ohio Lines have been building a greater railroad... keeping it tuned up to the pitch of perfection... ready in advance for any service America shall need... now and always "Geared to the GO of America!"
