Red Cross Rules on Sending Messages Abroad, Explained

Local Chapters Have Available Forms For This Service

The American Red Cross this week announced regulations under which it will accept messages to residents of enemy, or enemy-occupied territory. Under the terms of the Office of Censorship communications may be forwarded only through the international channels of the Red Cross. All messages must be sent, and regulations covering them have been sent by the censor organization to its 3,700 chapters throughout the nation.

1. Letters can not be accepted. The communication must be in the form of a message as provided by the chapter. 2. Messages must be of a purely personal or family nature. They must be confined to twenty-five words and should be in English. 3. Abbreviations, nick names, or phrases or acronyms or other customary references, or descriptions of a person, firm, or location, or other similar information must be avoided. 4. No mention may be made of politics or military subjects, defense matters, shipping or weather conditions. 5. Persons employed on munitions or other government work, or those in the armed forces in writing abroad. 6. No mention may be made of geographic names or business.

The forms, available at Red Cross chapters, are in triplicate. Wherever possible the original only—the latter language being adopted as an international language in this instance. Space is provided on the back for first blank for a return message. This message, which may be addressed to civilians in Germany, Japan, Italy or enemy-occupied nations, will be mailed through International Red Cross channels. Wherever possible the original message from the United States will be shown to the addressee and may be written on the back of the blank. The message will be handled through the Red Cross Societies of the respective nations. More than 100,000 inquiries of a similar nature had been handled by the Red Cross Inquiry Service, prior to America's entry into the war. The work has been extended to the relatives and friends of Americans in Axis-occupied nations.

Red Cross chapters and senders of messages are asked to exercise good judgment in the frequency with which messages are sent by any one individual, since the Red Cross cannot handle the volume of correspondence that normally would be expected through the regular postal channels. Persons who desire to send business documents, powers of attorney or other legal papers should apply to the Office of Censorship, Washington, D. C.

Messages will not be accepted for residents of neutral or friendly countries as the regular postal channels are open to such communications. Inquirer in regard to the welfare of prisoners of war, interned civilians or men in the American armed forces, is handled under different regulations by the American Red Cross, through its chapters.

35 Percent Of WPA Work In Kentucky Is For Defense

2544 Men Now Employed On Fort Knox Projects
Announcement was made lately by George Goodman, War Projects Administrator, that thirty-five percent of all WPA effort in Kentucky was devoted to defense work. Mr. Goodman expects this percentage to increase as other projects are completed and new ones set up to win the war. WPA new has 2544 men doing every conceivable kind of job at Fort Knox to help the war program along and to release other workers for active duty in the armed forces. It was this group of workers to whom Fort Knox officers, in charge of construction, referred to several days ago in the press: "The unused help of WPA workers at Fort Knox since 1937, in barracks and have their own mess halls the same as soldiers. The Army furnishes medical attention. Special trains operated from West and Southeastern Kentucky every two weeks for the benefit of this group. Each WPA worker pays his own railroad fare and board and is paid by check at the end of each two week work period when he returns home for two weeks and a new group is installed. President Roosevelt announced whose plants could be converted to arms production. The House passed and sent to the Senate the new $32 billion War Appropriation Bill which provides $23 billion for the Army and more than $5 billion for Land-Lease. The Senate passed a bill to authorize payment of allotments for one year to dependents of military personnel captured or listed as missing. Voluntary enlistment in January totaled 90,000—double that of the previous year. Secretary of War W. V. Root said that the country in regard to French aid to Russia were in North Africa, to provide aid considered unsatisfactory. Mr. Welles said the French Ambassador had reported, however, no commitments have been made by the French to Japan in regard to Madagascar.

The war production board announced war production of the "big three" automobile companies—General Motors, Chrysler and Ford—will be running at a rate of almost eleven billion when they reach peak production on production orders. The companies will need 900,000 to 1,000,000 workers to be employed with a peacetime peacetime force of 550,000. The board said war expenditures authorized by Congress, including pending bills and Land-Lease, totaled $145 billion on February 15. Chairman Nelson issued a set of regulations regarding the employment of dollar-cost men by the Government. The Army Ordnance Department ordered ordnance units in the fourth district of the United States to provide engineering assistance to small manufacturers.

mit reclassification of Class 1-A of thousands of men now deferred due to teeth and eye defects. SS Director Hersey instructed local draft boards to refer labor leaders and Government labor liaison men to permit continuance of their work in aiding war production and to defer men engaged in maintenance of essential agricultural activities. Men registered February 16 will be called for induction only after local boards have exhausted their existing lists, he said. A battery in March will determine the order of classification and induction. Questionnaires on vocational experience will be sent to every registrant who has not yet been called for service. General MacArthur reported continuous fighting on the Bataan Peninsula and battery attacks on the fortifications throughout the week. The Navy announced the destroyer Shaw, previously reported lost at Pearl Harbor December 7, arrived at a U. S. West coast port, is being repaired and within a few weeks will be in service again on the high seas. A U. S. tanker was torpedoed in the Atlantic area, while United States forces inflicted enemy losses which included ten planes, one large and one small enemy transport and one 5,000-ton cargo ship sunk, and two enemy barges destroyed. Navy Secretary Knox said the Atlantic operating over three-fourths of the globe under the heaviest burden in its history, must now protect U. S. shores and coastal commerce, strategic areas vital to our defense, the American Republics and the flow of supplies to Great Britain. It must check Japanese aggression until "we can master our forces and send it hurdling back whence it came."

Third of these are Japanese from California, Oregon and Washington. The SPAB froze all stocks of new mechanical refrigerators except those in the hands of retailers in preparation for conversion of this $280,000,000 industry and its 36,000 workers to war production. All refrigerator production will end April 30, the board said. It also assumed full control of the entire 1942 raw cane sugar supply, curtailed use of critical materials in manufacture of all musical instruments, and restricted use of natural gas.

Revenue Office To Remain Open Daily Until March 16

The Internal Revenue office at Ashland, Kentucky, has been open for the purpose of filing income tax returns since February 1st, and the response of the public has been gratifying to the deputies in this work. Beginning Saturday, February 21st, the office will be open each day, Sundays excluded, from 8:30 a. m. to 5:15 p. m. I would suggest that everyone attempt to do the best fill out schedule "C" when they use form 1040. This schedule for the purpose of 1-1/2 time taxes and interest paid and donations to the charitable organizations. Each donation should state the name of the organized charity to which it was given. The interest when interest is paid. Taxes, interest, and contributions should be listed in such a way that the total can be carried forward to the front page. In regard to form 1040-A, this form should be used in all cases where the credit for dependent deduction will exempt the taxpayer from paying tax. A common error in the deduction of taxes taken is that of cigarette tax, whiskey tax, cosmetic tax, retail fur tax, and retail jewelry tax. These are all exempt taxes and not deductible by the purchaser. The end of the filing period is usually midnight, March 15th, but as the fifteenth this year comes on Sunday, midnight March 16th will be the end of the filing period. All returns received after this date will be assessed the usual penalty. For several days before the close of the period, the office will be open for a few hours after six o'clock. The dates will be mentioned in this paper later.

Deferment Decline Expected As Army Relaxes Standards

Teeth And Eyesight Defects No Longer Cause For Deferment

About seventy percent of all selective service registrants classified so far have been deferred. Brig. General Lewis B. Hersey reported, but that percentage is expected to drop sharply as a result of the army's recent relaxation of standards for teeth and eyesight. The selective service director, however, made plain that the supply of essential civilian workers, such as farm laborers, should not be depleted by the draft. Questioned by the House Agriculture Committee in a study of a threatened farm labor shortage, he said that many farm boys were reluctant to seek deferment lest they be thought un patriotic. "One of the hardest men you have to convince that he is a specialist in the farmer," Hersey declared. "Farmers are patriotic. They don't try to get exemptions."

He added that the problem was one for local draft boards to handle and suggested that their agriculture members be more active in opposing 1-A classifications for essential farm workers. Representative Flannagan (D., Va.) told Hersey that the country is getting fed up on suggestions, and "would appreciate it if you would assert your authority and tell some of the draft boards where to head in." Representative Creal (D., Ky.) warned that the food production program would bow down next year unless something is done to assure an adequate labor supply.

Fire Wardens Meet At Morehead

On February 20th a meeting of the Licking River District Fire Wardens of the National Forestry was held at Morehead at the Courthouse. Those who attended the meeting were: Johnnie Adkins, Wyatt Stone, Nathan R. Myrnbier, Clett Jones, Tilden Caudill, Herb Bowman, W. H. Rice, W. B. Rose and Karl M. Stoller. Each warden reported on the number of Fire Fighters available, the time required to assemble them and the transportation available. W. H. Rice reported for the State Teachers College crew and advised that it was probable that a twenty-man crew could be rounded up on short notice. A fire whistle has been installed at the power house to round up the student.

Co-operation of the WPA and the Soil Conservation CCC Camp to provide fire fighters has also been secured, and it is hoped that needs for fire protection formerly supplied by the CCC Camp at Redburn will thus be met. Twenty-two forest fires were fought last spring in Rowan County by National Forest crews. The cost of fighting these fires and said he knew of no exemptions granted in the district to keep workers on the farms.

NEWS and FACTS . . . of Statewide Interest

ARE YOU A QUIZ EXPERT?

This quiz is full of facts. Here are the questions, and we think you will be interested in the answers.

- Q: What social and economic benefits does the state derive from Kentucky's $20,000,000 beer industry?
A: Beer provides jobs for 15,000 Kentuckians, pays salaries and wages exceeding $10,000,000 a year, and, since 1935, has paid the State of Kentucky over $6,275,000 in taxes.
Q: Is beer rightfully considered a beverage of moderation?
A: Eminent authorities, after scientific investigation have proved that beer is a beverage of moderation.
Q: What is being done to weed out undesirable beer outlets?
A: The Kentucky beer industry, through our Committee, is cooperating with law-enforcement authorities to eliminate all undesirable retail beer outlets. To date on our recommendation, 30 retailers have lost their licenses, 8 have had their licenses suspended, and 4 have had their outlets padlocked.
Q: Will this "clean up or close up" program be continued?
A: It will! The Kentucky beer industry is determined that conditions in all retail beer outlets shall be as wholesome as beer itself.

CHURCH NEWS

An invitation is extended to all interested in the Church of God to be present Sunday morning. This will be the last message the pastor will deliver to the Church for about three months. He has evangelistic arrangements engaged in several northern states which will keep him busy every evening for three months. Sunday evening he will talk to the young people at 8:30. There will be no evening service at 7:30 due to the fact that all churches have been invited to meet at the college for united services.

Easter Plans At Methodist Church

This Easter the congregation of the Christian church will launch a campaign of loyalty and spiritual enrichment to extend through the month of March until Easter Sunday. Sunday morning and evening during this period, the Pastor will preach a series of sermons, the theme of which will be "Christ: the Hope of All Men." Matrimonial and chorist and Sermon at 8:30 a. m. Monday, March 2nd; School of Prayer at 9:00 p. m. All are welcome.

Besides loyalty to Church Service

The Congregation will pledge to read daily scriptures which illuminate the series of sermons. As a physical symbol of their loyalty all are being asked to place their name upon a large cross placed in the sanctuary.

Young People Present Excellent Service

The Young Peoples Guild of the Methodist Church, last Sunday morning, before a large congregation, presented their annual Youth Day Service.

Twenty young people participated in the service, performing the duties ordinarily led by the Pastor and the Church officers.

Leading the Young People was Mr. Ollie Lyon who presented an excellent message on the subject, "The Life That Counts." Paul Reynolds presided over the service, and Joyce Wolford and Mary Jane Puckett led in scripture reading and prayer.

Lavinia Waters offered the solo: "I Rest In The Lord," by Mendessohn, and Helen Croaley and Abbaiah Lawson were the duet, "We've A Story to Tell," by Starnes.

Home Economics

Some of the women of the county have requested meetings in the rural schools to acquire more housekeeping knowledge. It is to be obtained in the employment of the agent. In answering this request, five or more meetings will be held at a time to be announced in the near future. The communities selected so far are: Farmers, Holdeman, Elliottville, Morehead, Pine Grove. Excellent programs are being planned and from all reports a good crowd is expected at 4-H club meetings work in slides will be used to illustrate the work done by the Home Economics agent.

Numerous counties in eastern Kentucky and other mountain counties have had a home economics agent for some time. Some of these counties are Mason, Green-up, Boyd, Johnson, Breathitt, Harlan, Bell, Pike and others. Let Rowan County fall in line with educational progress and take her place in leadership along with the others.

The salary of the Home economics agent will be paid by the Agricultural Experiment Station. The car expenses would be handled by the county. In other words, Rowan County would receive approximately three dollars for each one appropriate. The employment of the agent would not mean an increase in taxes but would really lead to a better standard of living which would enable farm families to better pay the taxes now collected.

Cover crops of balbo rye, rye grass and crimson clover are growing well in Shelby county.

The Warren County Farm Bureau discussed the subject, "Sheep - A Substitute for Money Crop."
