

JEFF. BOWLING, formerly of Rowan county, is under sentence of death in Ohio for the murder of his father-in-law, and the date of execution is set for Friday. Great efforts have been made by BOWLING's relatives and friends to secure a commutation of his sentence, but without effect. A dispatch from Columbus states that Gov. FORAKER had an interview with BOWLING yesterday, leaving the impression upon those hearing it that he will have to meet his fate Friday.

---