

The Morehead Normal School was founded 13 years ago and has been controlled by the Kentucky Christian Missionary Convention. Recently it has been transferred to the National Board of the C. W. B. M., headquarters at Indianapolis. Prof. F. C. Button has been placed in charge. He briefly reviewed the establishment of the school and told of the plans for the future.