

Eagles To Meet Murray At Ashland

Two Strong Contenders For State Honors To Battle It Out Saturday Night

The second great test of the Morehead Eagles comes Saturday night under the bright lights at Armo Field, Ashland when the Eagles meet their old and as yet unvanquished foe, Murray State Teachers College in what is expected to be one of the outstanding upheavals of the season.

The game is being played at Ashland under the auspices of the Ashland Kiwanis Club. It will be the only college game scheduled for that city and a huge turnout is expected, both as an honor to the Morehead Coach Ellis Johnson, who during his high school career at Ashland was in large measure responsible for the high rating Ashland attained in both football and basketball, and to see the Eagles in action.

The Eagles, since their opening with Marshall College at Huntington two weeks ago, have been idle, spending their practice session in spirited scrimmages and in brushing up hastily planned and not well advised in the Huntington game.

Outside of a few minor bruises the Eagles are in good condition. They expect a real battle with Murray, who, in 1939, defeated last year's team in the hands of Louisiana Teachers, who are no set-up in any body's language. The Eagles on the other hand are not set up either. Both teams were defeated in their opening games, and both by strong teams. Last Saturday, Marshall defeated V. M. I. 18-0, which indicates that the Eagles actually are in a position to repeat.

It is safe to say that two teams are meeting at Ashland Saturday night. Morehead incidentally has the incentive to win, the incentive of being the underdog, due to four previous losses at the hands of Murray. The boys will undoubtedly be out there fighting to take this game and break the (Continued On Page Three)

Sunday School To Be Reorganized

The Sunday School of the Christian Church will be completely reorganized next morning. At the same time promotion of children to other classes will take place, and there will be a recognition service for workers in the school.

Additional teachers have been added to the teaching staff of the Church School, providing classes for all age groups: These teachers and their classes are: Cradle Roll; Adults; Ladies; and Senior Boys; Junior Ladies; Intermediate Girls; Lavina Waters; Senior Girls; Clara Bruce; Women; Inez Humphrey. Serving as substitutes for the children departments are Mrs. Ross Anderson and Mrs. Joyce Robinson.

Morehead P. T. A. Hold First Meeting Of Year

Program For Years Work Is Outlined Based On Democracy Theme

The first meeting of the Morehead P. T. A. was held last Thursday evening at the gym. There were about fifty parents and teachers present. The program was the first of a series on "Democracy" outlined by the National Parent Teachers magazine. The next P. T. A. meeting will be on the Fourth Thursday of October, as the fourth Thursday in each month was selected as regular meeting night. The next month's program will be "The PTA—Its Unique Function in a Democracy." The members who will take part will be announced later.

Fire Injures Contents Of Isaac Blair Barn

Fire, said to have been caused by spontaneous combustion injured the hay in the Isaac Blair barn on Fifth Street Tuesday morning. Out side of the damage to the hay very little damage was done, due to the prompt arrival of the fire department.

New hay had been stored in the barn, which, heating caused the blaze.

E. E. Maggard Chosen To Be Candidate

Taxpayers Of City Meet And Endorse Candidate For Office Of Mayor

At the Tax Payers meeting held in the court house Tuesday night, E. E. Maggard was chosen to represent the group as candidate for Mayor of Morehead in the coming election in November. Only a small group was present at the meeting, due probably to the fact that it was hurriedly planned and not well advertised.

Proctor announced his candidacy to those gathered, and explained his platform, prominent among the planks of which was a proposal to "unincorporate" the city, do away with the police force, rent the city hall, and fire the city hall. He stated that he was a candidate for the office of mayor, but that if some one else were selected he would withdraw and support the candidate agreed upon.

Ballots were passed out, and the result gave Mr. Maggard the majority endorsement. He did not receive a vote. The meeting last night was merely an endorsement meeting. A petition will have to be circulated and fifty signatures obtained in order to have Mr. Maggard become a candidate. This is now being done.

So far no opposition has developed, and no other candidates have been mentioned prominently for the office. The mayor elected this fall will serve for a period of one year, filling out the vacancy caused by the resignation of W. C. Lappin. Mr. Lappin resigned in October of last year, too late to place the name of a candidate on the ballot. E. D. Patton was appointed to fill out the year, but on his departure, he would appoint C. B. Daugherty to the office. Mr. Daugherty will serve until his successor is elected. He is not a candidate for re-election.

Clearfield Team To Battle For Little World Series

Meet Mt. Sterling Sunday In Game To Decide Winner Of Season

The World Series may be on in Cincinnati this week, and the battle for the pennant may be raging between the Reds and the Tigers, but Clearfield is immune to all such rumors and reports. For Clearfield is interested in a Little World Series of their own. In spite of the lack of publicity which was largely their own fault, Clearfield has a baseball club that has gone through the season with a healthy win column 50 healthy in fact. The teams evenly matched for the championship. Mt. Sterling and Clearfield tangled at Clearfield Sunday afternoon, and the result was a draw. The game will depend on the Little World Series. If Clearfield wins the game it will leave the season all tangled up with Clearfield and Mt. Sterling tied for the leadership. The World Series will become necessary and will be played off. The game will depend on the results of Sunday's game and Clearfield fans are determined to root their team to a win and a chance for the play-off.

Baptists Plan To Enlarge Bible School

A big day is set for the Morehead Baptist Church next Sunday. It is the beginning of their fall Bible School Enlargement Campaign. W. A. Gardiner, Louisville, Kentucky, Baptist Bible School Secretary in this state and Mrs. Gardiner Elementary, Secretary of Baptist Sunday School work, will be here Sunday morning to assume the leadership of the campaign. Mr. Gardiner will speak at the morning preaching hour, and probably in the evening.

On Sunday morning, during the Bible School Mr. Gardiner will observe the school. Every teacher and officer has been urged by the pastor to seek a full of labor and study is expected attendance, and to make this Sunday a great day for the school. Classes will be and officers now active being asked to attend the service at which training but many prospective the preaching hour, at which workers are to be trained.

Six F. F. A. Boys Attend Day School

Meeting Gave Special Instruction To Officers Of F. F. A. Work

By Rufus Flannery

We are "Learning to Go. Doing to Learn. Earning to Live and Living to Serve."

Six boys from our local chapter attended a one day training school held in Paintsville last Saturday. Those attending were: Rodney Johnson, Glen Giffen, Dof Marshall, Billy Stidom, Rufus Flannery, and Murvel Fisher of Haldeman school.

The purpose of the meeting was to give special instruction to different officers as to how they could best perform their duties as a Chapter officer. From all prospects the Rowan County Program of Vocational Agriculture is developing into a worthwhile and progressive organization.

The years program of work has not been set up as yet but the Chapter plans to sponsor several projects. We invite all who are interested to attend the meeting this year. We will try to entertain you and help ourselves. The F. F. A. work offers many opportunities to farm boys, we have discussed several times boys maintaining high honors, for example: The first year (Continued On Page Three)

Old Subscribers Stage Mock Battle

Again the battle of "The Old-timer remember that when I was Est Subscribers rages anew." For now comes J. T. Bunk I gave him a ten dollar bill and Mr. Evans, returned to the paper Turner entered the lists and as long as that amount would presented his claim to, being pay for it.

"I have started to send it ever since. I still think I hold the record." (He pays every year now however.) Mr. Turner when last we talked to him was equally positive that he had subscribed the long time. Apparently there is only one solution to the problem. That is for some one to appear who out of either Mr. Evans or Mr. Turner's right to contribute another ten dollars, the manager Bill Schooler. In fact I firmly believe that I was the first subscriber he signed up. I distinct-time Mr. Gardiner will present the challenge for a greater Bible School and a greater church. On Sunday afternoon a complete religious census of the town will be taken. On Monday evening at 7 o'clock classes will begin in which Mr. Gardiner will offer a course in Sunday School Work. Classes will last from 7 to 9 o'clock each evening with an intermission for refreshments during this period. The course will continue from Monday through Friday nights. During the present pastorate the Baptist Church has enjoyed a steady growth, and this week of labor and study is expected to produce an increased effective attendance, and to make this Sunday a great day for the school. Classes will be and officers now active being asked to attend the service at which training but many prospective the preaching hour, at which workers are to be trained.

Funeral Of Vansel Hicks Held Wednesday

Son Of Thurston Hicks Killed In Truck Accident Last Monday

Vansel Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hicks of Sharkey was accidentally killed Monday, Sept. 23 about sundown.

The accident occurred about two miles east of Hillsboro in Fleming County. Vansel who had helped cut corn at home until noon had gone to help his cousin, Delmar Eldridge, move Bill McClain.

On the way to McClains the boys Mr. and Mrs. McClain and Vansel got out of the cab to let them ride. Vansel was on the running board. The road (Continued On Page Three)

Enrollment At College Shows Gain

Considerable Improvement Expected By Close Of Enrollment Period

Increased enrollment in the Morehead State Teachers College is bringing expressions of satisfaction to the college authorities, who, under the circumstances, would have been highly gratified if they had succeeded in only holding their own this semester. The actual figures have not been released and will not be until the close of the enrollment period.

However the enrollment is definitely improved, and the authorities are pleased. It is felt that the college is on the road to a more solid position, freer from political domination, and on the road to being built upon sound educational principals. The fact that this policy is being appreciated is evidenced by the increase in interest as well as enrollment.

Methodist Young People Elect Officers

On Sunday morning at 9:45 the Young Peoples division of the Methodist Church will hold its annual election of officers. All Methodist young people, both local and college groups are urged to be present and to participate in this service.

On Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock the intermediate group of Methodist Young People will meet in the church parlor to organize an intermediate league. All young people between the ages of twelve and sixteen years of age are urged to meet with this group.

52 Purged From Voters Lists In County

Purgation Board Removed Names Of Those Who Have Died Here

Fifty two names were purged from the registration lists in the office of County Clerk, C. V. Aftrey, Tuesday by the newly appointed Purgation Board. Only the names of those who have died were removed from the lists, as many of the registrants who have moved away, still retain this county as their voting places.

Of those purged 25 were Republicans and 27 were Democrats. This still gives a registered Democratic majority of approximately 600. Democrats in this county, however maintain that the county is much more evenly balanced than that, and that if an actual party affiliation were made, they would find that the Republican party held a slight edge in the county. That of course is a Democratic claim, that cannot be substantiated, since the only records of party affiliation available is the Registration record in the office of the (Continued On Page Two)

Balfson Drug Store Opening Is Success

Two Days Of Bargains Attracts Huge Crowds To Newly Remodeled Store

The formal opening of the Balfson Drug Store following the remodeling job recently completed was held Friday and Saturday of last week, and during the entire two days was pronounced one of the most successful opening sales that have ever been held in this city. From morning until night the store, which had been decorated for the occasion, with cut flowers, was jammed with visitors and customers. In connection with the opening Mr. Balfson had arranged a cut price sale. Gifts were made to every customer who visited the store during the opening sale. Cut flowers and boxes of candy were presented to the ladies, and cigarettes to the men. Twenty five hundred roses were given away during the two days. Much credit for the successful opening goes to Mr. A. J. Bond who arranged the affair. Mr. Bond, an experienced and successful manager, is also responsible for the arrangement of the store which has caused so much comment. The new Balfson Drug Store is a model of efficiency, and a management which has not only made the store more convenient but which has provided almost double the floor space.

Rev. Landolt To Preach On Sunday

Rev. Arthur Landolt, who was absent from the Christian Church last Sunday as the result of an appendix operation, will be in the pulpit next Sunday to conduct the morning services.

Universal Service Plans Made Known

Rowan countians, interested in the working of the draft program, which is scheduled to register all men between the ages of 21 and 35 years on October 16 are expecting the names of the local draft board to be announced momentarily. The board will be selected from lists submitted to Governor Johnson several weeks ago by a number of local citizens. The board will not be appointed by Governor Johnson, but according to our information, and the appointments will come direct from Washington. They will however be appointed from the names submitted by the Governor.

Program Of County Fair Is Released

Exhibits, Parade, Award Of Prizes To Occupy Two Days Of School Fair

The following is the program of the School and Agricultural Fair being held this week, on Friday and Saturday.

By Mabel Alfrey Friday, Oct. 4, 10:00 a. m. The parade will form and move over the course already described and arranged by the Parade Committee.

It is the intention of the Committee to have the parade at the Public School. As each school marching in formation arrives at the end of the route Mr. Laughlin will direct them to a position either on the Public School Grounds or the Tippet lot adjoining, where they will remain together as a group. When the last group has assembled on the grounds there will be a brief patriotic program or ceremony as follows: (1) The College Band will play the Star Spangled Banner as a salute to the American flag as a group, in union, will repeat the "Pledge of allegiance to the flag. This pledge will be led by the American Beautyful" (3) At the call of the Judging Committee those schools who are competing for the prize to be awarded to the school rendering the best singing of one verse "America the Beautiful" will come forward and sing.

This contest is open to every Public School in the County. Each school must sing as a group (no special classes or selected groups). The committee is asking that this be done so that large or schools that might have an advantage of larger groups from which to select representatives, singers, will not be given an unfair advantage. Each school may sing any verse of America the Beautiful which they choose. Only one verse may be sung by each school. A competition will be held between the winners. The prize will be a large American Flag to the winner, to be used in their school. If they should already have a flag, substitution of a picture of Washington or other suitable prize may be made.

Every school in the county is asked to participate in the contest. It will make a beautiful day for all. (Continued On Page Four)

"BILL OF DIVORCEMENT"

CONSUMER PROFITS HERE Today much of the world faces pale the grim specter of famine. But here in the United States we have the blessing of plenty.

A Department of Agriculture survey shows that abundant supplies of nearly all foodstuffs will be available for the coming year. Increases in production of edible fats and oils are expected to continue. The fresh fruit supply will be slightly above last year, and large wheat and rice crops are anticipated.

Other surveys indicate that the demands of war material production in our factories will not seriously dislocate production of consumer goods. We may have to do without a few manufactures luxuries as time goes on, but there will be plenty of the necessities.

If our productive facilities are to prove of maximum benefit to the consumer, another factor must enter in. That factor is the distributor. Abundance on the farm is wasted unless the crops can be delivered to the buyer at minimum cost. And efficiency in the factory can be offset by inefficiency and waste in distribution.

But the consumer need not worry. The American distribution machine, like the American productive machine, is the most efficient in the world. Our complete system, with all kinds of distributors, chain and independent, seeking to outserve each other, must be given credit for this. When you enter a store and see a purchase you're getting more for your money, all things considered, than the buyer in any other nation.

From NYA Headquarters Employment on the school work program of the National Youth Administration will enable needy students in 5 schools of Rowan County.

NYA school work is planned to offer part-time employment to persons between the ages of sixteen and twenty-four, inclusive, who would otherwise find it impossible to attend school. Students employed on the program will work at jobs assigned them by school officials.

"No student may be put to work before he has executed the Oath of Allegiance," Mr. Salvers stated. He went on to say that the oath could be administered to student workers by the official in charge of the NYA program in each school. "But the official must have executed the oath himself, in the presence of some member of the State or Area NYA staff, before he is qualified to administer it to the workers in his school," he added. Mr. Salvers urged that school officials make necessary arrangements to take the Oath of Allegiance as soon as possible to avoid delay in starting this year's work program.

Many types of work are performed by NYA workers, under the supervision of teachers and school officials, including clerical work, construction, ground and building maintenance, research, library assistance, home economics, and laboratory assistance tutoring and recreational leadership.

The following Rowan County Regulations and rules have been set up, and Governors of the various states have been asked to cooperate with the Federal government in setting up the machinery.

Buyers of wheat in Kentucky are violating the law in the use of illegal measures for the purpose of grading wheat according to a survey just completed by Mr. Jett, Director of Markets of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture.

Mr. Jett stated that during a caretaker check it was discovered that many of the grain grading devices now in use were antiquated, dented, broken, improperly repaired and generally unfit for an accurate determination of the grade of wheat being purchased.

When the draft bill--officially called the selective military service act--came before Congress, it was known that the great majority of the American people are in favor of it. So did most of our citizens, including both President Roosevelt and Contender Willkie. The country looked in wonder at the standards set by the United States for the purpose of grading wheat.

"Under legislation enacted by the 1940 session of the Kentucky General Assembly the Division of Markets of the Kentucky Department of Agriculture is authorized to make rules and regulations for the grading of the Kentucky farm products and to enforce such rules and regulations."

It didn't--Congress has seldom given more time to debating and measure. And there is a very good reason for that. Congress does not want the draft bill--the great majority of the Senators and Representatives voting for it did so with deep regret. They supported it in brief, because they felt that it necessarily demanded it. And they knew that, once the bill became law, a great and as yet unrealized change would have come to the American scene.

This country has always been dead set against compulsory military service in peacetime. It has always felt that forcing men to take up arms when they were not at war was in direct violation of the democratic process and the democratic tradition. It has looked with a mixture of pity and contempt at the totalitarian powers where for centuries every able-bodied man has been required to give a year of his life, war or no war, to the state.

SAVING VEGETABLE SEED Time was when a common sense part of the gardener's outfit was next year's seed supply but in this era of speed and convenience the art of saving vegetable seed has become for most men a lost one. This is rather a pity, for there are many reasons, and still are, why it should be done.

One of the reasons was that it would be important for some economy of it. Although it is not so now, those who have difficulty in meeting the combined expense of seed and fertilizer, and who accordingly perhaps may skip on the ground. Another reason is that risk of using misnamed seed is removed. For example, seed saved from tomatoes that have given a good account of themselves in the garden, will give the same kind of performance next time.

Rowan county men are showing interest in the seed saving effect of the Universal service law passed by Congress recently. It has been signed by the President and becomes a law. Regulations and rules have been set up, and Governors of the various states have been asked to cooperate with the Federal government in setting up the machinery.

In Kentucky the state government has been ready for five weeks to start action as soon as the bill becomes law, and "Go ahead" signal given. Draft boards in the various counties have already been selected from lists submitted to the Governor several weeks ago. Frank Rash, arch-pet the weevil with which as state chairman of the draft boards. Local boards have not yet been announced, but are expected to be within the next few days. The registration of all men between the ages of 21 and 35 inclusive will be required to register for service.

According to the latest ruling, the registrants will be separated into the various classes of service. Married men, without dependent children, or whose wives are employed will not be given deferred classifications, according to the regulations.

Further information will be published in the News as soon as the machinery is set up and the system established.

After which the procedure is the same as for tomatoes. The seeds just named may reasonably be expected to "come true" but not that of seetecorn whose pollen blows from plants to plant often over long distances. The same is so of the melon and watermelon, cantaloupe, muskmelons squash and cucumber. There the pollen is mixed by the breeze visits. The growing of these seeds is best left to professional who have facilities for securing isolation as does not obtain in gardens crowded with many vegetables.

The fact remains, however, that many of the vegetable seeds gardeners may produce and save, and this is so well worth doing, it should be done.

Kroger Foundation Gives Insurance Of Food Quality

Laboratory Tests Insure Quality Of Foods Purchased During Sale

"Added insurance of quality in merchandise handled by Kroger stores during the insured value carnival sale now under way in all Kroger stores is provided by the Kroger Food Foundation, according to Charles L. Arnold, director of the foundation which is located in Cincinnati.
"Obviously it would be impossible to offer a guarantee of satisfaction with Kroger merchandise were it not for the extensive laboratory tests conducted by the Food Foundation," Arnold explained. "Of course, our laboratories do a great deal of original research on food products but they also conduct hundreds of routine tests in controlling the quality of all items sold in Kroger stores," he continued.

More than 21,000 routine tests were completed last year by the foundation including sampling products of goods sent to the branches of the company from outside manufacturers, as well as samples taken from production lines in Kroger factories.

In all, foundation technicians worked on more than 750 specific projects last year, completing careful research studies or developing products suggested by customers or employees.
Recently the foundation moved into a new building equipped with numerous laboratories and testing apparatus has been provided for the organization's staff. These added facilities are said to make the Kroger Food Foundation one of the most complete food testing laboratories in the world, according to Arnold.

Silhouette for 1941

Buick SPECIAL 6 passenger 4 door Sedan $1052 delivered at Flint, Mich. Wheel shields and white sidewall tires, extra.

AS surely as the new Buick FIREBALL® straight-eight engine sets the performance pace for the coming season, the graceful silhouette of the new Buick SPECIAL and CENTURY cuts the automotive style pattern for another half decade.

The reason is not alone the grace of its Buick-created lines, nor the appearance of solid substance in action that gives this honey the look of a speedster straining at its leash.

It is the practical quality of great room enclosed in sleek and flowing lines—more room for legs, for elbows, for heads, more room for entrance and more room for carrying luggage—that makes this the silhouette the cars of the future will seek to achieve.

Why wait for that—when in this Buick you travel in a car that, like time and tide, obviously isn't waiting for any man?

*According to the Encyclopaedia Britannica, a super motor which travels with a driving explosion like the sleek waves of a great geyser is called a "Fireball."

Buick SPECIAL 6-passenger Sedan, $1006 delivered at Flint, Mich. Wheel shields and white sidewall tires, extra.

Buick prices begin at $935 for the Business Coupe delivered at Flint, Mich.

★Transportation based on rail rates, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices subject to change without notice.
