

POSED AS BOY

GOLDIE CANTRELL WAS EXPELLED FROM SCHOOL—COMMERCIAL TRAVELERS WILL TAKE CARE OF HER EDUCATION.

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., April 18.—Miss Goldie Cantrell, the young Ceredo girl, who was discovered attending the Eastern Kentucky Normal school at Morehead, Ky., in male attire, will be allowed to complete her education. She stood first in her class and at the same time found time enough to earn money to pay her tuition. The pseudo boy roomed with another of the opposite sex for four months until the affair was made public by a traveling man who recognized her. Now the United Commercial Travelers are raising funds to pay for the girl's education. When it was discovered Miss Cantrell was a girl she was expelled. She is now with her aunt, Mrs. William Ramsey, at Ceredo but just as soon as the funds are raised she will be sent to a school.
