FSA Merit Award To Be Given To Eligible Farmers

Certificate Will Stand For "Exceptional Service Under Difficulty"

A "Merit Award" will be given next fall to all Farm Security Administration borrowers who reach production goals set for them this year in the national Food for Freedom campaign.

Morris P. Caudill, County Farm Security Supervisor, said a certificate will be given as evidence that the farmer has put forth the extra effort asked by the Secretary of Agriculture to help win the war by all-out food production.

The merit award certificate, printed in red, white and blue, is suitable for framing, is an impressive word of commendation.

"Our own objectives are clear: the object of enmeshing the militarism imposed by war orders upon their enervated peoples—the objective of liberating the subjects from the nationalistic and establishing and securing freedom of speech, freedom of religion, freedom from fear, and freedom from want elsewhere in the world."

"On the whole the families have set high goals, when one considers the difficulties faced by many of these farmers. The award will be the Department of Agriculture's recognition of exceptional Service under difficulty."

Nearly half a million workers will be recruited and trained for war jobs in Michigan, Ohio and Kentucky before the end of this year. This statement was made recently by Edward W. Keenan, regional representative of the United States Employment Service, on the basis of a tri-state survey recently completed by the federal agency.

Professor Neville Finckel represented Morehead State Teachers College at a recent joint meeting of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps Board, held in Columbus, Ohio, July 16. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the enlistment of college students in the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the Army, including the Air Corps.

The War Department advocates that under existing conditions a substantial number of students should remain in college until the necessity of war demands that all members of the Enlisted Reserve be called to active service.

Dean Warren C. Lappin is Michigan State University's faculty sponsor for the Enlisted Reserve program for all military branches.

Dr. Frank L. McVeay, chairman of the 1942 United States Government war fund campaign in Kentucky, reported that collections totaled $130,346.98.

Claude D. Kessler In Marine Corps

CLAUDE DILLON KESSLER

One of Rowan County's boys serving in the armed forces of the United States is Claude Dillon Kessler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kessler, Sr., of this city.

Claude Dillon enlisted in the Marine Corps on January 12, 1942, thirty-five days after Pearl Harbor, and was transferred immediately to the training base at San Diego, California, where he is stationed at the present time.

He is in perfect physical condition, weighs 168 pounds and states that he has plenty to eat. He is stationed only seventy miles from his brother, Ligon Kessler, who is at Santa Ana. They spent the Fourth of July together, and hope that they spend a number of weeks together in the coming months of training.

Miranda advocates service severance pay for soldiers.

Post-war severance pay of $500, cash, plus $100 for each month served, for service men was advanced here tonight by H. J. Miranda, Ashland, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the eighth district.

City Council To Discuss Proposed Blackout Ordinance At Next Meeting

According to C. B. McCullough, head of the Civilian Defense Committee in Rowan County, a Civilian Defense Training School will be held at Morehead on August 16, 17, 18 and 19.

Seventeen counties in Eastern Kentucky will be represented by at least three persons from each county, whose duty it will be to return to their respective counties and instruct the civilian population in blackout procedure, organization of air raid protection and the air raid warden system, how to promulgate such orders, rules, and regulations as may be necessary to insure the success of the blackouts, including traffic movements, evacuation of residents and organization of auxiliary police forces where necessary demands extra law enforcement personnel.

The following ordinance, which empowers the major to order blackouts and air raid protection measures to be discussed at the next regular meeting of the City Council, and is expected to be passed by unanimous vote:

An Ordinance Entitled An Ordinance Authorizing Blackouts and Air Raid Protection, Orders, Rules and Regulations; Prescribing Penalties for Violation Thereof; and Declaring an Emergency.

WHEREAS, the United States of America is now engaged in a War with foreign powers and the defense of our Nation is in the hands of the Army and Navy; and WHEREAS, in modern warfare no city, however distant from the enemy, is free from attack; and WHEREAS, blackouts, when ordered by the Army or Navy, or Civilian Defense authorities when acting with the sanction or approval of the Army or Navy, are essential to the preservation of life and property in this city, and it is imperative that the City of Morehead, the Army and Navy and Civilian Defense authorities by all possible cooperation and assistance;

Sub-Committee Of Salvage For Victory Formulates Plans

A sub-committee of the Kentucky Salvage for Victory Advisory Committee met in Frankfort on July 10 and formulated plans for the opening of the kitchen fat salvage program as part of the General Salvage work in connection with the Bureau of Industrial Conservation.

Members of the sub-committee representing the Home Makers Club, the County Home Demonstration Agents, the Home Economics Association, the Ladies Auxiliary of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs, Mid-South Chain Stores Council, the Parent-Teachers Association, the Home Demonstration Agents, and other allied organizations were asked to meet with a committee representing the meat packers and processors of the State.

Judge E. C. O'Neal, State Chairman of the Salvage Committee, announced that the plan for the program would move forward with a complete organization beginning the week of July 13 and continuing on a weekly basis.

Beer, Pop Trucks And Others To Lose Tire Eligibility

Tire Sales To Trucks Hauling Non-Essentials Prohibited

Tire rationing rules were revised to prevent beer, soft drink and other non-essential trucks from getting new or recapped tires after July 28th.

Also cut from the eligibility list by action of the Office of Price Administration were all privately operated trucks carrying alcoholic beverages, tobacco, candy, flowers, fur, radios, confections, musical instruments and other luxury goods—unless the hauling of such items is only incidental to the main service performed by the truck.

promote the kitchen fats salvage program. Mr. Ivan Jett, who is the Agricultural Counsel for the Mid-South Chain Stores Council, pledged the support of his entire organization toward providing the necessary collecting agencies throughout the State. Independent dealers also will provide other facilities for collecting and disposing of the kitchen fats.

The plan is to encourage the housewife to save all kitchen greases, place them in a tin container and deliver them to her meat dealer, who will pay her a minimum of four cents a pound, according to the cost of collection and the location. The meat dealer will in turn dispose of the fats to a rendering company on the basis of an additional one cent, which it is estimated will pay the cost of handling. The rendering companies will visit the meat dealers from time to time and make their collections and will dispose of the product through the proper channels.

Approximately eighteen percent of the kitchen fats, after being put through the rendering process, will go into the glycerine industry for war purposes. The residue will be used in making the soaps. Judge Carter states that two pounds of kitchen fats contain enough glycerine to fire five anti-tank gun shells.

Mr. Leslie Cooper had three acres of winter oats that yielded seventy-five bushels.

The estimates of help required take into consideration impending layoffs of persons now employed. Except in construction fields future layoffs will be relatively small, it is believed. The estimates do not make provision for men called into military service. Any losses of war plant personnel because of such calls will increase the number of additional workers who must be found or trained, Keenan declared.

Bevins Revises Estimates, Declines to Effort Gaining Decline in Tax Receipts

WITHOUT THE BEER TAXES IT WOULD BE 20% WORSE!

Kentucky Needs Every Dollar of Taxes from its Legal Industries!

War is costly, and you, as an individual, may be called upon to make up the deficit in tax revenue the Commonwealth will suffer this year. Most sources of revenue are shrinking. But one, the legal industry of brewing, will pay into our treasury more than it paid last year! Here are the figures for the past five years:

Fiscal Year	Amount
1937-38	$1,113,952
1938-39	1,071,769
1939-40	1,099,962
1940-41	1,234,164
1941-42 (estimated)	1,500,000

Think what these taxes mean to Kentucky today--with other sources of revenue drying up.

To preserve the important benefits of legal beer to Kentucky, the brewing industry is cooperating with State and local law-enforcement officers to maintain wholesome conditions wherever beer is sold.
During the past two years, 36 retail beer licenses have been revoked for law violations; 10 have been suspended; 4 places have been padlocked and 4 put on probation--all on our recommendation. With your cooperation, the remaining few undesirable beer outlets can be closed up or cleaned up--without eliminating the great majority of respectable, law-abiding beer retailers.

Quarterly Police Conference To Be Held At Winchester

F.B.I. Invites Law Officers From Thirty-five Surrounding Counties
H. K. Moss, Special Agent in charge of the Louisville Field Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, announced that the next F.B.I. Quarterly Police Conference, which will be held at Winchester, Kentucky, on July 28, 1942, in the City Court Room, City Hall, Winchester, Kentucky, between the hours of 1:30 p. m. and 3:30 p. m., (Central War Time) will be devoted principally to a discussion of the provisions of the May Act, which was signed by the President of the United States on July 11, 1941, becoming Public Law No. 48 of the 77th Congress. Captain Elmer Smith, Superintendent of Police Training of the Kentucky Highway Patrol, Frankfort, Kentucky, will address the assembled officers on the subject, "Control of Venereal Disease by Police Agencies."

Dr. Arthur T. McCormack, State Commissioner of Health, State Board of Health, Louisville, is cooperating with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, in connection with the holding of the conference, and Dr. Russell E. Teague, director of the Bureau of Venereal Disease." These police officers are being invited by the F. B. I. from approximately thirty-five counties surrounding the City of Winchester, Kentucky, to attend this F.B.I. Quarterly Police Conference. Invitations to attend this conference are sent to duly constituted law enforcement agencies in these several counties adjacent to Winchester, including representatives of the Kentucky Highway Patrol, Sheriffs, Chiefs of Police, constables, and members of the Railway Police.

Mr. Moss stated that the May Act provides that under certain conditions the practicing of Federal offense within certain areas adjacent to Military or Naval establishments, provided the Secretaries of War or Navy believe that such a determination is essential to the efficiency, health, and welfare of the Army and Navy personnel. The provisions of the May Act penalize not only those individuals actually engaging in prostitution but likewise operators of houses of ill fame or persons who knowingly rent premises for the perpetration of prostitution. Under this criminal statute the offense is deemed a misdemeanor and can be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year or both.

Mr. Moss stated that the procedure outlined by the War Department is to be followed by the Army under the May Act in those areas where there is a rising venereal disease rate, is for the Post Commander of the military establishment to first request the cooperation of local police authorities to clean up these surrounding vice conditions. In the event this request of the local law enforcement agencies proves ineffective, the Post Commander then reports the situation to the Corps Area Commander who in turn requests the Federal Security Administration to conduct a survey of conditions in the area complained of. Thereafter, further orders are made to local authorities to enlist their aid in order to alleviate the prostitution situation. In the event that these preliminary steps fail to produce the desired reduction in the venereal disease rate in the military establishment concerned, the Federal Bureau of Investigation is then required to enforce the penal provisions of the May Act.

On May 20, 1942, faced with a rising venereal disease rate, and failure on the part of some local authorities to cooperate, the War Department issued the necessary Bulletins and orders invoking the May Act making prostitution and related matters unlawful in twenty-seven counties surrounding Camp Forrest, Tennessee. Since that date the F.B.I. has been automatically charged with the responsibility of enforcing the Act inasmuch as the necessary conditions involving the F.B.I.'s jurisdiction had been fulfilled. Investigation was conducted by the F.B.I. in the vicinity of Camp Forrest and fifty-two persons charged with violation of the May Act in Tennessee were arrested, and medical examinations determined that twenty-seven of the fifty-two had social venereal diseases.

Mr. Moss emphasized the fact that the purpose of having the May Act further discussed at this conference was to permit local law enforcement agencies to take cognizance of the penal provisions of the May Act as well as to acquaint them with the preliminary procedure toward invoking the penal provisions of the Act in certain designated areas.
Similar conferences are being scheduled by the F.B.I. to be held as follows:
July 22--Louisville.
July 27--Newport.
July 28--Owensboro.
July 30--Gilbertville.
Some of the principal espionage and sabotage cases recently handled by the F.B.I. will likewise be briefly discussed at these conferences. A sound movie film on venereal disease will also be exhibited. It is expected that approximately one hundred representatives of police agencies will be in attendance, according to Moss.

War Research

In war the advantage is on the side with the best weapons. The work of scientists in America's research laboratories, developing new materials and new equipment, means a lot to our fighting men.

- It takes years to build up and equip a large, organized, and able staff for research. Fortunately, industry did this long ago.
- Long before Pearl Harbor, laboratories like General Electric's were serving their country--solving technical problems of war.
- History repeats! In the last war "wireless" was developed for military needs--to become, with peace, a giant broadcasting industry.
- So it will be this time. Research will help to win the war, and its many wartime discoveries will help to build a better future.

General Electric believes that its first duty as a good citizen is to be a good soldier.

HOW THE WAR AFFECTS YOUR ELECTRIC SERVICE

YOUR electric company, like other industries, is unable to do business as usual. Urgent war needs have cut down our stock of repair materials and our use of critical materials, such as rubber, copper and steel. The use of automobiles has been limited. The armed forces have taken many of our skilled workmen.

LONGER SERVICE INTERRUPTIONS--These conditions make it impossible for us to give you service as promptly as we wish. When equipment is damaged by wind and lightning storms, or due to other causes, we often do not have necessary replacement parts in local stocks but must send to another town for them, as our stock of replacement parts is limited. For some customers this means longer service interruptions than before the war.

LIMITED LINE EXTENSIONS--Urgent war demands make it impossible for us to carry out fully our former policy of making extensions and expansions to serve your new and increased needs.

Our Manager will be glad to tell you about present limitations that have been prescribed by the War Production Board, which has been charged with the responsibility of making the fairest possible allocation of critical material between war and civilian needs.

If you are unable to get an extension to serve your new or increased requirements, it means that the necessary materials are being fabricated into guns, ammunition, tanks, planes and ships to slug the Nazis and Japs.

We all have a date with VICTORY... but first we have a stupendous job to do!

AND LET'S NOT FOOL OURSELVES--it's going to need some real doing.

However, America has what it takes. Proof of this we've seen... when our forces have gone into action... when war production meshed into gear... when the railroads showed what they could do, transporting men, supplies and materials... when Uncle Sam's civilian nieces and nephews revealed the power of American morale on the home front.

We needn't tell you that railroad business is not as usual. Railroads are a vital arm of America's fighting power. Our country looks to our railroads as The Mainline of Freedom. That's the first job of Chesapeake and Ohio Lines... and every other railroad.

So if you, as a civilian, are asked to restrict your traveling... to give up a reservation... or to experience occasional inconvenience or delay... we know you'll do it cheerfully... and understandingly. Being patriotically patient is one more way in which you can help keep America's date with Victory!
