

MOREHEAD

MOREHEAD, Ky., Dec. 7.—Hon. Will A. Young was a visitor in Lexington Wednesday.

Mr. J. Ed Reynolds, of Lexington, who has been visiting the family of Judge R. Tussey, has returned home.

The Morehead Normal School will add a department of Telegraphy, and has secured the services of Mr. Carl Clayton as teacher.

Mr. James Armitage, Postmaster at Frenchburg, has been visiting Judge and Mrs. Jas. E. Clarke.

Hon. F. P. Blair, Representative-elect from this legislative district, has been visiting in Frankfort and Louisville this week.

Judge R. Tussey has moved from his home on Second street to his country home recently erected on the Bradley farm near Clearfield.

Hon. Osmond F. Byron, of Ashland, was here this week in the interest of his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Congressman to succeed Hon. J. B. Bennett. Mr. Byron was reared in the neighboring county of Bath, and is a clean, active politician. It is predicted, that he will make the race warm for Mr. Bennett.
