DOUGLAS PEACISH.
Great Law and Order Meeting of Citizens at Harrisburg.

The meeting was held in the Centennial Hall. The chairman was Major J. B. McPherson, who opened the meeting by reading a letter from Governor Campbell, expressing his regret that he was unable to attend. The meeting was addressed by several speakers, including Mr. John A. Logan, who spoke in favor of the measures proposed by the meeting. The meeting adjourned without action.

THESE RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

On Sunday, June 2, 1861, the meeting adopted the following resolutions:

1. That the people of this county are resolved to maintain the Union at all hazards.
2. That the people of this county are resolved to support the government in all its measures.
3. That the people of this county are resolved to support the constitution of the United States.

THEY ARE MCDONALDS PASS.

The Three Men Pulled at Alpaca, and One Killed.

Sunday evening, six men were in a steamboat near the mouth of the river. The boat was swamped and the men were thrown into the water. One of the men, named McDonald, was killed. The other men were rescued and taken to the hospital.

CAPTAIN'S DEATH.

A new captain has been appointed to the ship "Metropolitan." The captain, named William McDonald, is a native of Scotland. He has been in the service of the government for many years and is highly respected.

A BIZBAR BUSINESS.

Mr. A. B. Burgh, who has been in the business of buying and selling goods for many years, has opened a new store in the town. The store is well stocked with a variety of goods and is sure to be a success.

THE THREE MEN PULLED AT ALPACA, AND ONE KILLED.