

Hon. A. G. Caruth Resigns.

Yesterday Hon. Asber G. Caruth tendered in writing his formal resignation of the office of Commonwealth's Attorney of the Ninth Judicial district, to take effect to-day. The letter of resignation was handed to Judge Jackson, who will not give it to the public until this morning, when a pro tempore incumbent of the office will be appointed and the proper orders made. It is generally understood that Mr. Kohn will be the gentleman selected by the court. Mr. Caruth will at once begin the general practice of law, and his friends feel no doubt that his marked abilities will make him as great in defense as he has shown himself to be in the prosecution of the pleas of the Commonwealth.
