QUIET REIGNS IN ROWAN.

No Signs of a Conflict Between Soldiers and Citizens at Muncie.

Reported Outrage By Masked Men Unaccompanied by the Great Jany.

MUNCIE, Aug. 1.—(Special.)—The scene of the recent affray at Muncie is rapidly subsiding. The excitement which has prevailed here for the last few days is being gradually quieted, and the county is again in its usual condition.

Much of the trouble which has occurred has been due to the fact that the army has been in the county, and the citizens have been opposed to its presence. The soldiers, however, have been most cordial, and have done everything possible to maintain peace.

The soldiers have been very active in their work, and have done a great deal to improve the county. They have been especially active in the construction of roads and bridges, and have done much to improve the county.

LENTZ CROPS.

The United States Department of Agriculture has issued a circular giving the results of the recent crop investigations. It shows that the crop is somewhat better than usual, and that the production of corn is up.

The report also shows that the production of wheat is down, and that the production of oats is up. The report also shows that the production of beans is up, and that the production of potatoes is down.
