The Upward Look

By Rev. B. H. Kuzee

QUESTION: Does God punish sinners in the same way as we sinners?

ANSWER: This question could be interpreted in certain ways which make one feel that the answer is yes. But in the strictest sense, I would say no. God is not in the age of punishment for sin. The judgment of God is delayed for the time being, though the method and means of His judgment are fixed. For this is the day of God's mercy, an interval that day sorrow and provide for us a stock of patience and experience through which God can demonstrate faith in Himself. The case of Job is a shining example of this.

Announces For Sheriff

To the Republican Voters of Rowan County: I wish to announce that I am a candidate for the nomination to the office of Sheriff of Rowan county, subject to the action of the Republican voters. I am a world war veteran, have always lived in Rowan county, and am the son of one of Rowan county's pioneers. I have always been a friend to prayer and confession of sin, and I cannot bring forth anything but what is sworn.

In the second place, God will let sin turn out in its natural results of suffering and punishment in order to wean us from sin. This is an act of mercy on God's part. Sometimes we feel that we have prayed for God to remove a habit of sin, and God so will influence your sup- habit brings us sorrow and suffering. By this means He weans us from the sin; makes us sick of it.

Thus, when a man who has lived sinfully finds that trouble and sorrow are falling upon him, he may say that God is punishing him to make him pay for his sins. When death comes into the home or other great sorrows, we may look back over our lives and conclude that God's judgment has fallen upon us, and we are being punished for our sins. Remember that we do all our suffering here for our sins. This is not true.

While sorrow may fall upon us because of our sins, it is not to make us pay for our sins. Nothing short of eternal punishment in hell can pay for sin. Suffering equal to that which it cost my Lord to redeem me from sin.

When a Child Needs a Laxative!

SYRUP OF BLACK-DRAUGHT is a tasty liquid that most children will welcome whenever they need a laxative. What's more important, it has the same main ingredient as BLACK-DRAUGHT, its older companion. Perhaps that's why it usually gives a child such refreshing relief from the familiar symptoms which show a laxative is needed. Comes in two sizes: 25c-50c.

Rowan Men Leave

The list of those who left for camp Tuesday were published in the last issue of the News. Sixty-eight registered in Rowan county on July 1 for the new registration of selectees who had reached the age of 21 since the first registration of these eleven was from other places who happened to be in Morehead at the time. There registrants are listed in the warded to their place of residence. A peculiar feature of the registration was that, after the local board had checked the records, they found they still had 68 new registrants. The number of Rowan county boys who had registered elsewhere and whose records were returned to Morehead, exactly equalled those of boys from other places who had registered here.
