Boys, I would not miss that baseball game in Griffin next Sunday for anything. Those Gray boys are certainly getting their punishment and are awfully good sports. They really wanted to play Clearfield, again after being beaten last Sunday by a team of 16 boys. Well they didn't know we were playing our second team and this coming Sunday we are really going to turn on One of the best players, Bud, who has been from Lexington where they have when "Peckewick" Hall was on first base with Morris Hall. Morris hit 7 two-bags, putting "Peckewick" on third. Next speaker was Frank Young, Mountain. Elam who hit a home. Morris and Beck had a long chat between third and home and Elam had one of the boys bring him a bottle of pop. This was the first time that Coach Johnson expressed a vote of confidence in the boys. It was one of the most exciting of optimism concerning football on either side ever seen for this fall. He said that the John Francis ball team on Sunday night at the home of the varsity team. Jack Heiney was on the field. The only reason I did not

Carl Wade Explains Purpose Of Smith Hughes Agriculture Program In County Schools

Plans And Purposes Of Farm Vocational Education Disclosed
Many people have wondered as to the value of the program being conducted by the Farm Vocational Education Act. The following article by C. Wade, who has charge of the work being done under the Smith-Hughes Act in Rowan county, is therefore particularly timely. The first National Vocational Education Act, the Smith-Hughes Act, which was passed by Congress and signed by Woodrow Wilson on February 23, 1917, recognized the necessity for Farm Family Building. Section 10, Public Law 347, 64th Congress, says that such education shall be of less than college grade and be designed to meet the need of persons over 14 years of age who have entered upon or who are prepared to enter upon the work of the farm or to assume responsibility for training farm families in the future will be composed of individuals who have special training for the various farm occupations. The training that will be provided develops not only the desirable attitudes of the farm home but also the work knowledge and a sympathetic point of view toward the responsibilities of the various farm occupations. # Tribute Paid To Red Cross Nurses

Nurse Heroes Lost In Atlantic, Given High Praise In Memorial Message
The following tribute to the Red Cross nurses who are being paid by the government for the eight who lost their lives in the hazardous sea, will find an echo in the heart of every true American. "American Red Cross nurses who have reached England, number seventeen, while during the past month two ships carrying Red Cross nurses have been torpedoed and sunk in the Atlantic. Nineteen of the nurses were rescued but the lives of seven nurses and the house mother were lost. "Each one of these women volunteered to go to England in order to help in a way that only a nurse can help. Each one knew that what she would do there was greatly needed. None had any illusions as to the safety of her journey across the ocean, or of her life after she would reach England. All of them knew what was before them, and they went in a spirit of high courage and with a degree of valor that must make every American proud.

Asa Adkins Gets Air Corps Commission

Son Of Local Doctor Is Lieutenant In Aviation Corps Of Army
Perhaps this is old news to some, but to most of Rowan county it is not only news but good news. The first Rowan county boy to receive his wings in the Air Reserve is Asa Adkins. Asa is the son of Dr. A. W. Adkins of this city. He graduated from the Air School at Sheavesport, La., on August 15, Dr. and Mrs. Adkins are proud of their son's achievement and have just returned from that trip and a side trip to see their first and only grandson. # Attention At Rural Schools Above Average

Fewer absences have been reported during the first month of school this year than ever before since the attendance law was passed. Parents all over the county are interested in giving their children the opportunity of an education. A very few have not yet entered the school, but an effort on the part of every teacher is being made to enroll every child in the district between the ages of seven and eighteen. Miss Golda Dillon returned from the University of Kentucky where she had been studying the problem of crippled children throughout the county.

WANTED: Several Hundred Acres Of Rowan County Woodland

I wish to buy several hundred acres or more of Rowan County rough unimproved woodland for a week-end lodge and Private Game Preserve. I am not interested in property with buildings or tillable acreage if it, nor property from which the timber has been recently sold. It does not matter how rough the land is as I do not intend to cut the timber.

The property must have one or more streams on it that do not dry up during the summer and which can be dammed up to make a small lake. Pure drinking water must be available on property either in the form of uncontaminated year around springs or by shallow drilling.

The land must not lie more than several miles from good auto road and must be directly accessible from public road. I will pay not to exceed One Thousand Dollars cash for the right property. Write

A GOOD NAME

A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches.—Proverbs

Yes, a good name is something to be proud of, something to be guarded jealously, to be protected at whatever cost.

Kentucky's $20,000,000 legalized beer industry is proud of the good name enjoyed by beer, the wholesome beverage of moderation. Hence, we do not want the patronage of Kentucky's few law-breaking retail beer outlets.

In order to eliminate such places, Kentucky's beer industry is cooperating with state and local law-enforcement officials to maintain clean, wholesome conditions wherever beer is sold.

Results to date: 18 retail beer licenses revoked; 7 suspended; 2 outlets padlocked forever; 4 licenses refused.
