The Coaches

Laura L. Litter

2001-02 Ohio Valley Conference Coach of the Year

The building process finally started to pay off last season for Laura L. Litter, as the Lady Eagles won 21 games and nearly doubled the total victories over the last four seasons. For her efforts, the Ohio Valley Conference recognized her as its Coach of the Year.

The Lady Eagles set a number of impressive marks last season. Among the Lady Eagles' 2001-02 achievements are setting school records with 10 OVC wins and 11 victories in the Ellis T. Johnson Arena, while collecting its first 20-win season since 1981-82 and best league finish since 1982-83. In addition, MSU set a new mark for one-season turnaround by winning 11 more games than the previous year.

Statistically, the fast-paced Lady Eagles averaged better than 77 points per game for the second straight season and either set or tied new school records in made three-pointers, free throw percentage and blocked shots.

Entering her sixth year at the helm of the Lady Eagle program, Morehead State head coach Laura L. Litter is ready to take the next step in the OVC. Having earned a berth in the league's "Final Four" in each of the last two seasons, Litter's goal is to win a conference title.

Litter expects to build upon her previous successes during stints as the head coach at Sullivan College and Lees College. In her 21-year coaching career, Litter has been one of the most successful mentors in the game. As a player and assistant coach at MSU in the late '70s and early '80s, Litter experienced some of the program's greatest successes. Now, having returned to Morehead and laid the foundation, she looks to return the Lady Eagles to the successes of the past and build a championship team at MSU like she had done at her previous stops.

The two-time Morehead State University graduate was hired on April 7, 1997, and proceeded to lead her team to a 7-19 record in her first campaign. In 1998-99, the Lady Eagles collected a 5-21 mark, followed by a 2-25 injury-marred campaign in 1999-2000. In 2001-02, the team finally showed some of its potential, finishing with a 10-19 record, before breaking through last season with a 21-8 record. Those first four years are the only non-winning seasons in her 21-year career.

With an overall career record of 481-177, Litter's teams have posted 17 seasons with 20 or more wins. In six years, her teams have won 30 or more games, while competing in the national tournament four times, including finishing third in the nation in 1993-94. She entered Morehead State with a career winning percentage of 84 percent.

Her most recent stop prior to MSU was as the eight-year mentor at Sullivan College in Lexington, Ky. There, she began the program and proceeded to notch a 30-2 record in the team's first season of play. By the time she left, she had compiled a 233-30 overall record at the school, won conference titles in each year and advanced to the National Junior College Athletic Association Region VII Tournament all eight times.

At Sullivan, Litter coached two NJCAA first-team and three second-team All-Americans, as well as three Kodak first-team All-Americans. In addition, her high-powered offense, generated an NJCAA scoring record in 1993-94, averaging 107.6 points per game, and were ranked as high as third nationally.

The Executives were a staple of the NJCAA Region VII Tournament from 1990 through 1997. Sullivan had its greatest success under Litter in her fourth year in Lexington. That season, the program advanced all the way to the "Final Four", before losing by eight points to eventual national champion Trinity Valley (TX) and finishing third.

But, her teams did more than just get it done on the court. Each one of her players that completed two years at the school either received their Associate's Degree or transferred to a four-year institution. Included among the future stops of her student-athletes were such notable basketball powers as Western Kentucky, Maryland, Auburn, Kentucky, Louisville and Drake. In total, 34 went on to play in college and 22 earned a spot on an NCAA Division I roster.

Her first head coaching venture was no different. Litter spent eight years pacing the sidelines of Lees College in Jackson, Ky., where she was responsible for taking over the reigns of a new program. The Lady Generals were in existence two years prior to her arrival. She subsequently tacked up a 203-55 record in eight years at the school.

At Lees, her squad won six conference titles and competed in the NJCAA Tournament eight times. She sent 25 athletes onward to play at Division I schools after they completed their careers' at Lees. Of the 39 who played two years, 35 either graduated or went on to finish their degree at another school.

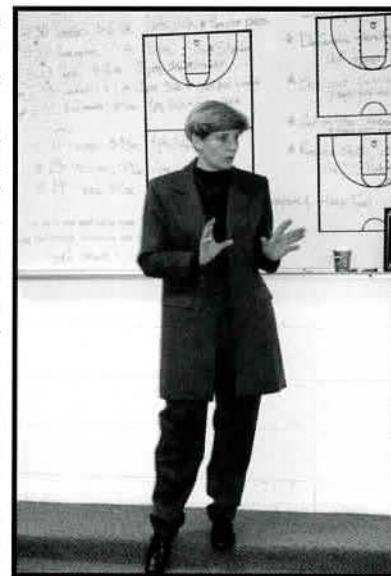

Combined between her stops at the two schools, Litter earned 11 Kentucky Junior College Athletic Conference Coach of the Year honors and four NJCAA Region VII Coach of the Year

Former MSU Athletic Director Mike Mincey presents Litter the 2001-02 OVC Coach of the Year plaque at the team banquet.

Litter scored 15 points and had 10 rebounds during the 1976-77 season, before an injury ended her playing career early.

awards in her 16-year reign. In addition, she was recognized by Lees College, which placed her in its Hall of Fame in 1995.

Litter's squads have always excelled in the classroom. In the 1999-2000 season, the Lady Eagles posted the nation's 21st-best team grade-point average among all Division I women's basketball programs. In addition, in each of her five years at the helm of the Lady Eagles, at least one of her players has received the Ohio Valley Conference Medal of Honor for having the highest GPA among all women's basketball players in the league. Her teams have consistently tallied one of the highest GPAs in the athletic department, regularly surpassing a 3.0. In addition, 34 times under her tutelage, a Lady Eagle has been recognized on the OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll.

A highly-sought after prep product from Chillicothe, Ohio, Litter played the 1976-77 year at Morehead State, before succumbing to a career-ending injury. She remained at MSU, first as a student assistant, then eventually as a graduate assistant coach, under Mickey Wells, serving through the 1980-81 campaign.

She earned her bachelor's degree in recreation and business administration in 1980, and then her master's degree in education in 1981, both from MSU. She resides in Morehead.

COACH LITTER'S PHILOSOPHY

"No written word, no oral plea, can teach our youth what they should be; nor all the books, on all the shelves, it's what the teachers are themselves."

Corbett Grigsby
Associate Head
Coach

Corbett Grigsby returns for his sixth year on the Lady Eagles' staff as the associate head coach, but has worked with Coach Laura L. Litter for the past 21 years, starting as the athletic director and the recruiting coordinator at Lees College from 1978 to 1989. After his stint at Lees, Grigsby and Litter moved on to Sullivan College from 1989-1997, where Grigsby took on the same responsibilities he held at Lees. At Morehead State, he directs the Lady Eagles' recruiting efforts, handles the scheduling, while also performing administrative duties.

Grigsby first entered into the coaching field in 1978 at Lees College. He served as athletic director when the women's basketball programs were begun at Lees and Sullivan, starting the team at Lees two years before the Litter's arrival. During his stay at the two schools, Grigsby's teams compiled a 476-104 record.

Over his 21 years, Grigsby's squads have won 30 or more games six times and 20 or more 13 times. Ninety percent of the players he recruited at his two previous stops either graduated or transferred to a four-year school. Five of those athletes also were named as All-Americans.

Prior to his coaching career, Grigsby taught in the Breathitt County (Ky.) school system. He has earned two degrees, both at institutions he later returned to as a coach. The 1962 Morehead State graduate earned his bachelor's degree in social studies, after receiving an associate's from Lees College in Ky., and his wife, Ruby, Lexington, Ky. They have two children, Stephen and two children, Rachael.

Naomi Bronson
Assistant Coach

After serving as a graduate assistant for the first few months of the school year, Naomi Bronson was promoted to a full-time assistant in mid-November. She spent her first year on the coaching staff as an administrative assistant. Her duties include practice and game coaching, recruiting, scouting, film exchange and breakdown, individual preseason workouts, academic monitoring, running the strength and conditioning program, and assisting with the community service program. She is pursuing her master's degree in industrial technology.

A 2001 graduate of MSU, Bronson earned her degree in industrial technology. A two-year standout with the Lady Eagles, Bronson averaged 6.1 points, 4.5 rebounds and 1.9 assists over 56 games, starting 34.

As a senior, she connected on 47 percent of her shots as the top backcourt player off the bench. That mark was raised to 52.5 percent in conference games. She led the team in scoring with a season-high 16 points against Texas A&M, and tied to squad-best honors in rebounds with seven against Southeast Missouri State.

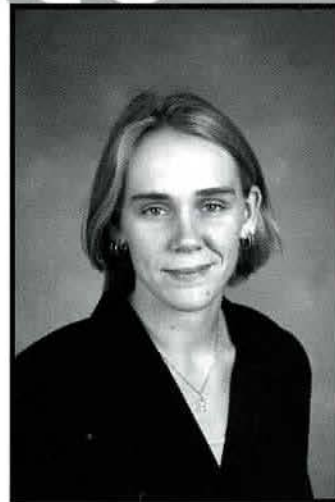

As a junior, she was second on the team in rebounding at 6.1 per game, in assists with 84 and steals with 41. She was the OVC's top rebounding guard, sitting seventh, and also ranked seventh in the league in offensive rebounds. That season, she also recorded her career highs in points, rebounds, assists and steals.

Bronson began her career at Cincinnati State Technical College, where she was a second-team

Coach

After two years as the Lady Eagles' starting point guard, Amy Spear moves to the bench as a member of the coaching staff this year. As a graduate assistant coach, Spear will aid with practice and game coaching, individual pre-season workouts, academic monitoring, running the strength and conditioning program, film exchange and assisting with the community service program. She is pursuing her master's degree in sports administration.

The May 2002 graduate finished her career tied for eighth in three-pointers, 13th in assists and 15th in steals on the MSU career lists. She averaged 6.2 points, 5.0 assists and 1.7 steals per game for her career. Had she taken eight more three-pointers, she would have qualified for the school's career three-point field goal percentage record at .479. She owns the school's single-season record at .527, set in 2000-01.

Both years at MSU, she ranked among the league's top five in assists per game and top 10 in assist-to-turnover ratio. As a junior, she also appeared on the OVC's steals per game list.

Spear spent two years at Okaloosa-Walton Community College in Niceville, Fla., where the Raiders posted back-to-back 19-win seasons. As a sophomore, she averaged six points, 3.6 assists and 2.6 steals per game, while shooting over 40 percent from three-point range.

Sandy Kitt Secretary

Now in her second full year as the women's basketball secretary, Sandy Kitt joined the Morehead State athletic department staff at the beginning of July 2000. An MSU employee for 16 years, Kitt has worked in the Public Safety, Nursing and Allied Health Sciences, and Admissions Offices during that time.

A native of Rowan County, Kitt, her husband, Rick, and their 5 1/2 year-old son, Christopher, currently reside in Mt. Sterling. A graduate of Rowan County High School, Kitt attended Morehead State.

Her hobbies include sewing and decorating cakes.

Sara Larson, A.T., C. Athletic Trainer

Sara Larson joined the MSU athletic training staff this year as a graduate assistant. A May 2002 graduate from Missouri, Larson primarily will work with the women's basketball team. A four-year student trainer, the Bowling Green, Mo., native earned her Bachelor of Science degree in nutritional sciences, with an emphasis in nutrition and fitness. She is pursuing her master's degree in sports and recreation administration at MSU.

At Missouri, Larson worked with women's basketball from 1998 to 1999, football for five semesters, softball and women's tennis for four, and women's volleyball and baseball for one semester each. In addition, she volunteered with the Special Olympics in the spring of 2000, the 2001 Missouri State Cheerleading Championships and the 2001 Missouri Wrestling Open. Larson also has served as an athletic trainer at women's basketball and softball camps. She has already received her athletic training certification.

The graduate of Bowling Green High School has been an athletic trainer since she was in the seventh grade. She spent four years on the track and field team at BGHS and was a member of the Alpha Beta Gamma Honor Society at the school.

A member of the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA), she received Missouri's Fred Wappel Most Outstanding Student Trainer for the 1999-2000 school year and was honored in the spring of 2002 by her peers with the Dr. Glenn L. McElroy Award. Larson also was a four-year member of the University of Missouri Sports Medicine Club, serving as its president (spring of 2000), vice-president (fall of 2001) and secretary (2000-01 year).

In addition to her other experiences, Larson has worked as a swim instructor, lifeguard and an emergency manager for the City of Columbia (Mo.), in the summers of 2000 and 2001.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

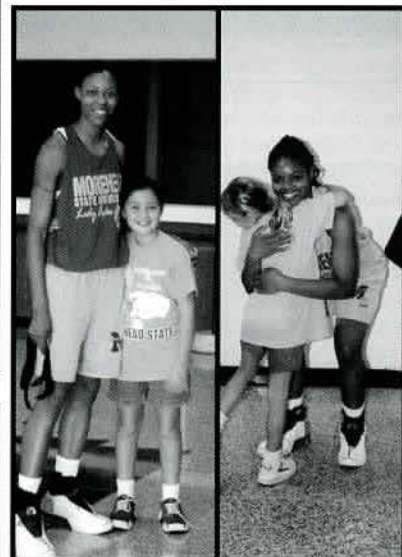

Morehead State student-athletes have always been very active in the community. The Lady Eagle basketball team is no exception. Since Coach Litter has taken over the program, the Lady Eagles have been even more involved in many local activities. Among their many endeavors include establishing a ball girl program, reading to children, helping the elderly and home bound, and beautifying the community. The Lady Eagles can frequently be seen at events all over Morehead and Rowan County lending their support. Coach Litter, her staff and the team believe in the importance donating their time and talents in giving back to the community which has been so supportive of their program.

SEASON OUTLOOK

"Believing and Achieving"

Depth. Versatility. No two words better describe the 2002-03 Lady Eagles. With 18 players on the roster and 16 available all year, Coach Laura L. Litter again will have a deep bench to use in every game. However, unlike in the past years, the entire bench is equally talented. That will most likely mean virtually everyone will see action in each contest early in the season until the coaching staff defines the rotation. Of the 16 active players, only three are limited to playing just one position, which gives Coach Litter a multitude of options to use on any given night.

The one area of some concern is the team's youth. Ten of the 18 have one year of experience or less, so there will be an adjustment period for many of the players. Countering that, however, is the team's strong six-member senior class, which is led by two of the top players in school history, forward/center Tasha Gales and guard/forward Travece Turner. The duo have been a staple of the starting lineup throughout their careers and figure to only add to their legacy as seniors.

Morehead State will look to build off of one of its most successful years in school history as it enters the 2002-03 campaign. Last year, the team won 21 games, finished third in the Ohio Valley Conference and broke a school record by winning 11 games in the Ellis T. Johnson Arena. The Lady Eagles return 11 letterwinners and three starters to take the next step in their plan of "BELIEVING AND ACHIEVING".

Expectations are high and the Lady Eagles may have a tough time matching them because they have upgraded their schedule.

"Last year, we gained the understanding of how to win and what it takes to win," Litter affirmed. "We learned that we have to be mentally ready every time we step on the floor, and I think we achieved that. We also have to be consistent in what we do."

"A little success goes a long way, and the confidence we gained from last year leaves us hungry to take the next step. We learned to play together and have confidence in each other."

The upward movement resulted in the team being picked to tie for second in the OVC's 2002-03 preseason poll of the league standings. Both Gales and Turner were named to the first team, while junior guard/forward Kandi Brown was chosen on the second team.

However, questions abound with the two losses in the starting lineup. How will the Lady Eagles replace Frances Montgomery at center and Amy Spear at point guard? MSU has several contenders for those spots, but someone will need to step forward into the roles as starters for the team to reach its full potential.

However, the coaching staff need look no farther than its six seniors to help provide stability, and its newcomers to assert themselves as the focal point of the future.

"Our seniors are a tremendously loyal group," Litter stated proudly. "They are committed to the program and their academics. They are true ambassadors for the University. It was our first true recruiting class and they are talented, goal-oriented leaders."

Among the most important offseason events was the May graduation of Gales, who consequently gained back a fifth year of eligibility. Academic success also has been a priority for the rest of the senior class, who combined have earned three OVC Medals of Honor, made six appearances on the OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll and spent nine semesters on the MSU Dean's List.

Although the seniors are the core of the team, it is the freshmen and the newcomers that gives rise to the real potential of Lady Eagles' possibilities. Collectively, the group is athletic and is likely to make an immediate impact at every position in the lineup.

"Our newcomers are talented and have endless potential," bragged Litter. "However, to reach their potential, they need to be patient, determined, committed and coachable. The adjustment process is the key; they need to polish their skills to be truly effective."

Much of the team's success will sit upon the shoulders of Gales and Turner, who will be the cornerstones of both the offense and defense.

"Tasha and Travece are both devoted to the program and determined to make this season a memorable one," Litter acknowledged. "They both have goals of winning the conference and the conference tournament, and are committed to doing anything to accomplish their goals. They also aspire to play after college and know that this season is an opportunity for them to showcase their talents to professional scouts."

This season's Lady Eagle squad will have its most options at the wing positions. Although Turner and Brown should be the starters, as many as 11 players could see time at those spots.

Turner is the team's most explosive leaper and best athlete. She is equally capable on either end of the floor, and adds a strong three-point shooting touch to her ability to put the ball on the floor and defend with the top wing players in the league.

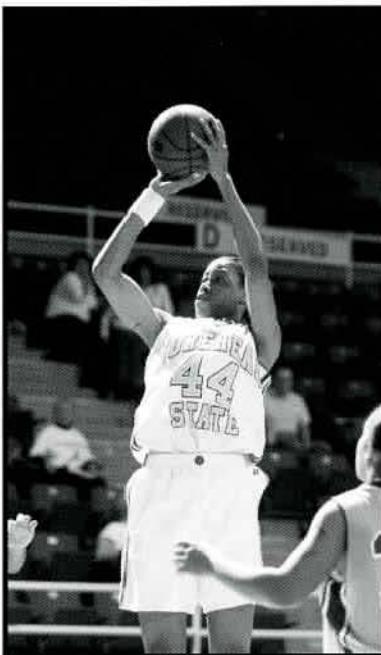

Brown is just as valuable as Turner. One of the team's most versatile and consistent players, Brown has been atop of MSU's statistical categories in scoring, rebounding, assists, steals and blocked shots throughout her career. However, she is most known for her shooting. Last season, she set an NCAA record for highest free throw percentage by a sophomore, and this year has a chance to break the school's career record in three-pointers.

A senior academically, Tiffany McCoy has the option of returning next year, but is expected to complete her career this spring after she graduates. A gifted athlete, McCoy is arguably the team's top perimeter defender and likely will be used mostly to shut down the opponent's top scorer. A solid post defender as well, she also may spend time in the paint.

Two long-range shooters figure next into the rotation. Sophomore Mandy Harmon and junior Haley Gilmore give Coach Litter the ability to extend the floor. Harmon is cut in the mold of Brown, with unlimited range, and a variety of different skills. She is a deceptive player, who will serve as a spark plug off the bench with her ability to score in bunches. Gilmore is more of a combination guard, who could slip into the lineup as the point guard at times. She is one of the team's most enthusiastic players.

One of the four newcomers to watch is TaNeisha Johnson. The freshman is as fundamentally sound, consistent and physically developed as any player Coach Litter has seen in her 21 years piloting programs. A strong player, who works as hard as anyone on the team, Johnson is likely to see a lot of time early in a variety of different spots.

Rounding out the wing players are two who will miss at least part of the season due to transfer rules. Freshman Jenny Stewart, who will be eligible in the second semester after transferring from Alice Lloyd College last January, is a good shooter and a hard worker. Sophomore Shermeca Howard will be out the whole season after transferring from UNC Wilmington. Howard is likely to make an immediate impact next year with her intelligence, coachability, energy and leadership qualities.

"Depending on our needs, we have wing players who can give us shooting range, or athleticism and exceptional speed," noted Litter. "We are as deep and talented at those spots as anywhere in our lineup."

In the post, Litter will likely rely on the combination of Gales and a pair of juniors DeVonda Williams and Jody Sizemore early. Gales is a long athlete, who can score either facing or with her back to the basket, and is an equally imposing defensive presence. She enters her final year likely to break the OVC's career blocked shot record.

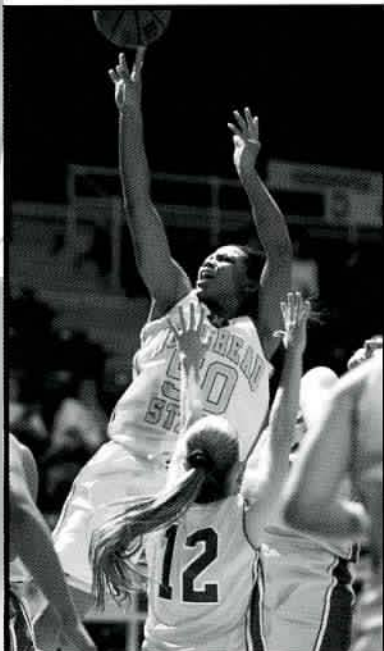

This year may be Williams' shot at a regular spot in the starting lineup. A physically imposing athlete, no one in the league uses her frame in the paint better than Williams, who is a dominant rebounder. However, she will need to develop her offensive skills to be a more well-rounded player. Her tenacity and improved shooting skills may mean that she could move out onto the wing more this season.

Sizemore elected not to play last year, after suffering through nagging injuries in the previous two seasons. However, she is back for her third campaign and gives the Lady Eagles a big body with a deft touch in the post. Her natural ability enables her to score and rebound as well as anyone in the OVC.

Two others who are still adjusting to the college game, sophomore Shelly Johnson and junior La'Keta "Red" Wales, are also likely to play significant roles this season. Johnson, who sat out last year, is long and lean, and has unbelievable potential. A leaper, who should be a shot-blocking force, Johnson will see most of her time at center. She just needs confidence and experience to reach her full potential.

With her long arms and rebounding skills, Wales brings energy and aggressive play to the post. Her versatility allows her to see time either as the center or power forward.

Steady senior Abby Adams gives the Lady Eagles a big body in the middle, and likely will again see spot duty there. The fundamentally-sound local player's loyalty to the program has made her one of the most

One of the OVC's most physical players, junior DeVonda Williams should again be a major force on the boards for the Lady Eagles.

"Defensively, we are as talented as anyone in the OVC in the post," remarked Litter. "We have a solid core of returnees, who are strong and talented. They will provide us with a significant offensive and defensive presence."

Litter's biggest question mark comes at the point guard position, where two seniors and two freshmen will battle to take over the starting role. The early frontrunner is likely to be senior Maria Starks, who the coaches describe as "ambitious". A flashy ball handler and passer, Starks gives the Lady Eagles athleticism and the ability to see the whole floor.

However, sisters Michelle and Sheena Gibson have the coaches excited about their possibilities in the lineup, and Litter expects them to make a push to start before the season is over.

Sheena brings exceptional speed, aggressiveness and a defensive tenacity, while Michelle is more offensive oriented and a natural point guard with great court awareness. She, too, has quickness and is very coachable.

The best shooter of the bunch is senior Michelle Clemons, who was slowed nearly all of last year by a preseason leg injury. A starter as a freshman, Clemons' tenacity and commitment to excel give the Lady Eagles a strong offensive option off the bench.

"Our point guards give us exceptional speed, ball handling, floor leadership and passing ability," declared Litter. "They give us everything we want in a point guard except experience."

To match its talent level and expectations, MSU will embark on its most challenging schedule in Coach Litter's tenure. The Lady Eagles' slate is full of several top teams, including five 19-game winners from last season and another three who won at least 16 contests. In addition, possible road or neutral-site games come against teams from six of the top Division I women's basketball conferences--the Mid-American, Big Ten, Colonial Athletic Association, Ivy League, Big West and Sun Belt.

"This is our toughest schedule yet," confessed Litter. "Some of the tougher teams we face include Ohio, Long Beach State, Northwestern, Binghamton and Glenville State, which is ranked in the preseason among the top five teams in Division II. Plus, we will get to see the two new teams that will be coming into our conference next year--Jacksonville State and Samford."

"We will travel to several tournaments, seeing different places and teams than we are used to. That will serve as an educational experience for the team. Overall, the non-conference schedule will prepare us for the OVC race."

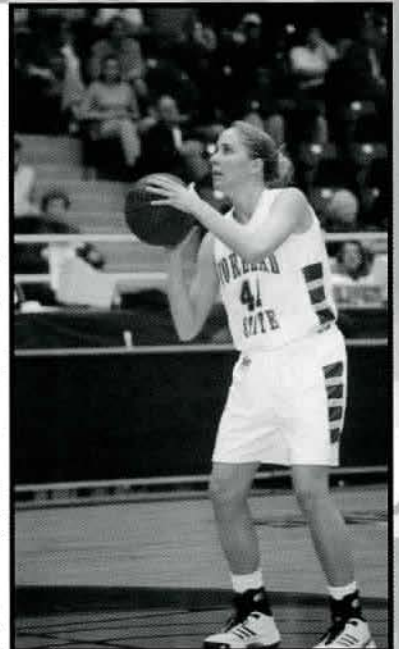

The OVC figures to be deep and challenging again this year. Four of the league's teams won at least 16 games last winter, and two were involved in the postseason. Austin Peay and Eastern Kentucky again figure to be the favorites, but Southeast Missouri State, with all of its incoming junior college talent, and powerhouse Tennessee Tech, even though it will be a very young team, should also be formidable foes.

"The OVC continues to develop into one of the most competitive and balanced conferences," Litter admitted. "We have five or six teams which should be in the mix to contend for the title, and eight which should be challenging opponents."

"Every team wants to win the conference and conference tournament," Litter added. "But we have other goals as well. We want to average 82 points per game and be more up-tempo than in the past. We also want to do a better job with our ball control. In the conference, we feel that with our athleticism, size and shooting ability, we should be able to lead in rebounding and field goal percentage."

"If we stay even keeled during the preseason," Litter claimed. "I think all of our goals are within reach. We will be challenged in the preseason like we have not been before, and if we do not get discouraged, we should be all right. Being realistic, the coaching staff acknowledges that a tougher schedule means more potential losses, but we may be a better team in the end, even if we win fewer games."

To reach their goals, the Lady Eagles are going to have to be team-oriented and not individualistic in their approach. There are plenty of talented players there and finding time to make everyone happy will be a difficult challenge for the coaching staff. Yet, with all of that talent, depth, versatility, quickness, athleticism and size, the Lady Eagles are on the right track to compete for the conference titles.

After setting a national record for free throw shooting as a sophomore, opponents will try to keep Kandi Brown off the foul line this year.

2001-02 YEAR IN REVIEW

"Class with ATTITUDE"

The 2001-02 season was a magical year for Morehead State as the team reached successes the program had not experienced since its heyday in the late '70s and early '80s. Finishing with a 21-8 record, the Lady Eagles achieved many milestones. They collected their first 20-win season since 1981-82, earned their first winning campaign since 1988-89, tied for the second-most wins in their history, tallied their best Ohio Valley Conference finish (third) since 1982-83, while winning their most-ever league matches (10) in a season, posted a school record with 11 more victories than the previous year and notched another all-time best MSU mark with 11 wins at the Ellis T. Johnson Arena.

The Lady Eagles were rewarded for their accomplishments as Laura Litter earned the OVC's Coach of the Year honor, senior forward/center Tasha Gales was named to the All-OVC First Team and junior guard/forward Travece Turner was chosen for the All-OVC Second Team. The dignity and determination with which the team used to reach its successes embodied its yearlong motto, "Class with Attitude".

MSU opened the season with a victory for the fourth straight season, when the team trounced Ohio Valley College at home, 97-34, tying the school record for largest margin of victory at 63 points. Making her collegiate debut, sophomore forward La'Keta "Red" Wales pumped in career highs of 10 points, eight rebounds and two blocked shots. The Lady Eagles improved to 2-0 for the first time since 1995-96 as they defeated IPFW the next night in the Johnson Arena.

After leading the team with 19 points and eight rebounds in the opener, senior center Frances Montgomery continued her strong start with 11 points and 11 rebounds versus the Mastodons. It was a dominating performance for many team members. Turner added 24 points, five assists and five steals, while Gales registered 15 points, eight rebounds and five blocks, and sophomore guard/forward Kandi Brown chipped in 17 points, hitting 5-of-7 from behind the three-point arc.

The team next headed to the Empire State, where it participated in the Time Warner Classic in Binghamton, N.Y. The Lady Eagles won their opening-round game against Long Island, led by junior point guard Maria Starks' 7-for-8 free throw shooting in the last two minutes and 11 seconds of the game. However, the Blue and Gold could not carry their success over to the next game as host Binghamton defeated MSU, 71-63. Montgomery and Turner were named to the all-tournament team.

Back at home for the Morehead State Classic, the Lady Eagles swept their games against High Point and Elon behind another set of strong performances from Montgomery and Gales.

The team's success continued on its two-game road trip to Wright State and Oakland. Gales (25 points, 12 rebounds) and Turner (19 points, nine assists) keyed the victory over WSU, the first-ever for Morehead State on the Raiders' home court. Turner made a game-winning layup to secure the team's victory over nemesis OU, which had systematically dismantled MSU in each of its previous three encounters.

After a break for exams, the winning streak grew to five as MSU topped Gardner-Webb in Boiling Springs, N.C., and extended its best start to a season since 1979-80. It was the Lady Eagles' only game during a 21-day stretch.

Returning from the holidays, MSU defeated Marshall in the first game of the Eastern Kentucky Comfort Suites Tip-Off Classic in Richmond, Ky. Behind Turner's 28 points, the most by a Lady Eagle since December 30, 2000, and Gales' 21 points and 13 rebounds, Morehead State equalled its best start in school history at 9-1 and extended its winning streak to six games, its longest since 1981-82.

Meeting IPFW for the second time of the year, the Lady Eagles' matched their win total from the previous season with an 87-70 victory over the Mastodons. Senior guard Amy Spear solidified her spot in the starting lineup, with a 14-point, five-assist performance. Sophomore forward DeVonda Williams also had an especially strong outing, recording 12 points, seven rebounds and three steals.

Opening the conference season at home, Coach Litter's troops extended their win streak to eight, tying the third-longest mark in school history and the longest in 21 years, with an 80-62 win over Tennessee State. They also improved to 11-1 on the year, equaling their best start ever after 12 games.

However, the streak came to an end two days later as Tennessee Tech out-lasted MSU, 76-73, despite a 32-point effort by Gales (who duelled reigning OVC Player of the Year Janet Holt evenly all night) and 56 percent shooting as a team. Gales' total was the most for a Lady Eagle since Amy Kieckbusch's 41 on February 20, 1997. It also was MSU's first home loss in six games.

Out on the road, the Lady Eagles lost their second straight game, which they did only twice during the season, by falling to Eastern Illinois. The team rebounded behind Gales' 22 points, which pushed her over 1,000 for her career, in a win two days later against Southeast Missouri State. The victory also snapped a seven-game losing streak to the Otahkians and was MSU's first-ever win in Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Brown scored 23 points, but Eastern Kentucky gave Morehead State its second home loss of the year. The Lady Eagles responded by defeating Murray State, finishing the game 10-for-10 at the free throw line. Morehead State received solid production from its bench, which was led by sophomore guard Haley Gilmore with nine points, as the Lady Eagles recorded their highest win total in over a decade.

The team's lone active freshman, guard/forward Mandy Harmon came off the bench and hit 3-of-4 three-pointers en route to scoring 11 points and earning the Lady Eagles a home victory over Tennessee-Martin. It also marked the team's sixth straight game with an attendance of over 1,000.

Playing its third game in five days, the Lady Eagles guaranteed their first winning season with a road victory over Tennessee State.

Opening the month of February, MSU suffered its largest loss of the year after Austin Peay dumped the Blue and Gold in Clarksville, Tenn., 89-61.

Returning home, Morehead State got back on the winning track with a seven-point victory over Southeast Missouri State. In the win, Montgomery registered her sixth double-double of the season and Spear moved onto the all-time MSU career assist list, after picking up eight. Behind their performance, the Lady Eagles swept the season series with SEMO for the first time ever.

Gaining a measure of redemption, MSU blistered Eastern Illinois in the rematch of a January contest. Turner went over 1,000 points for her career, while the Lady Eagles played their second of four games in front of over 2,000 in attendance and earned their ninth home victory of 2001-02.

Already having secured a spot to the OVC Tournament, road losses against the league's top two teams, Tennessee Tech and Eastern Kentucky, followed. However, the Lady Eagles started their second-longest win streak of the season by defeating Austin Peay at home, snapping an 11-game losing streak to the Lady Gavs. The victory guaranteed an OVC Tournament home game for the Blue and Gold, its first since 1996-97. Junior guard/forward and defensive whiz Tiffany McCoy earned her first career start, successfully shadowing APSU sharpshooter Brooke Armistead.

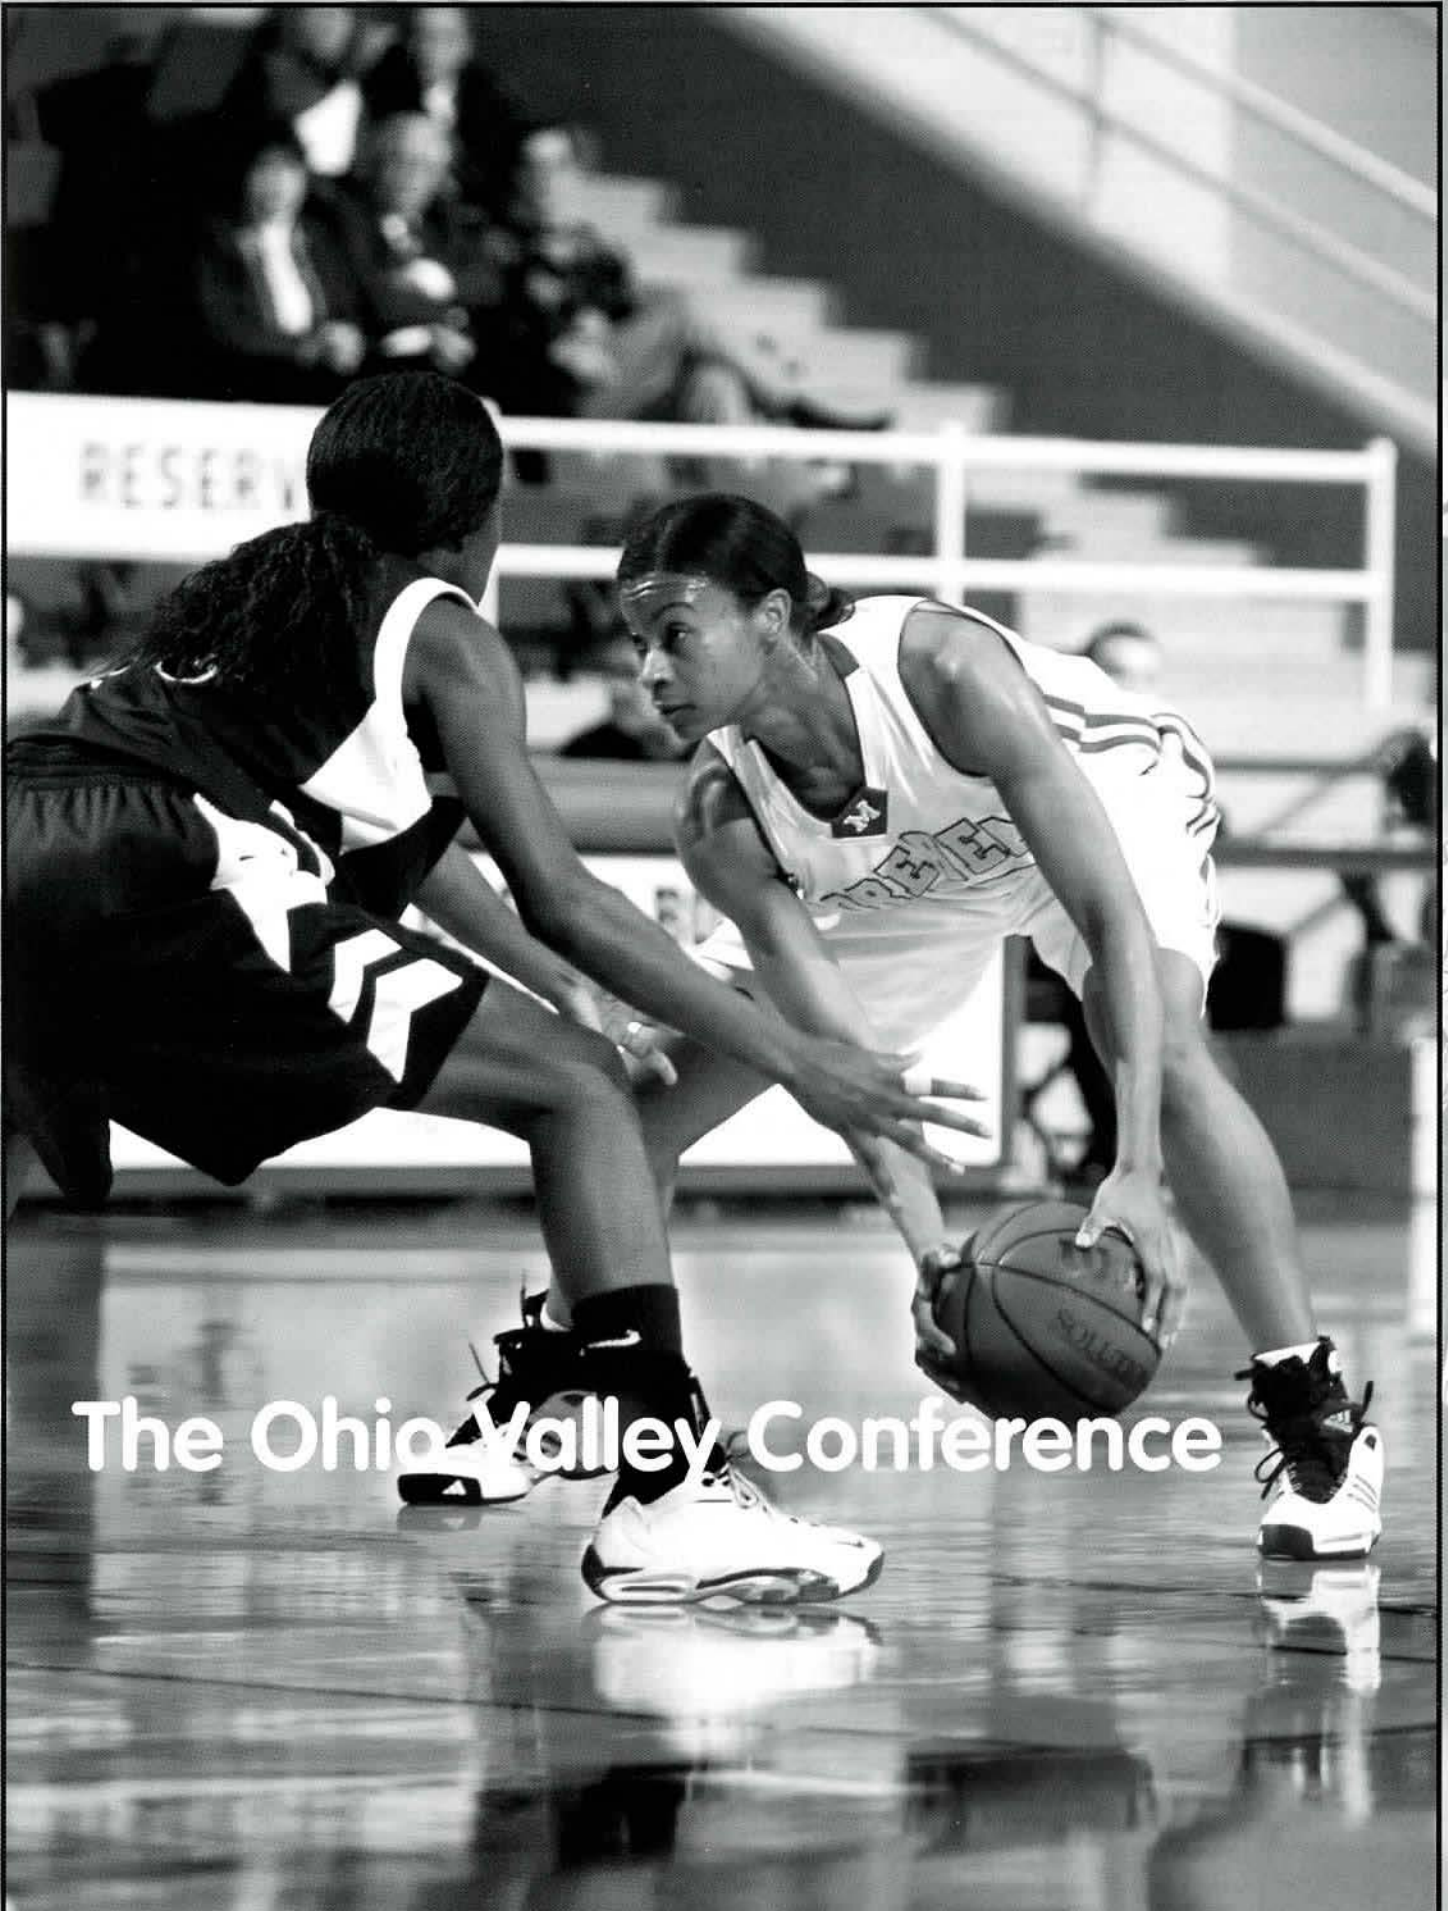

A win at Tennessee-Martin gave the Lady Eagles their most victories since 1981-82 and MSU kept the heat on with another win two days later at Murray State. It guaranteed Morehead State at least a third-place league finish, while setting a school record with 10 conference wins. In addition, it marked the team's first 20-win season in 20 years. With a 4-for-4 performance, Turner finished the OVC season without a miss at the free throw line and set a new league record by making 41 straight.

At home for the first-round of the OVC Tournament, Morehead State toppled UT-Martin, giving the Lady Eagles three wins over the Skyhawks in 2001-02, the first time an MSU squad had beaten one team three times in a year since 1982-83. With a well-balanced effort up and down the lineup, including a career-high point total from junior forward/center Abby Adams, the win sent MSU to the OVC "Final Four" for the second straight year, broke the school record with its 11th victory in Johnson Arena, and gave the Blue and Gold its 21st win of the season.

However, the four-game win streak ended in Louisville. Despite a strong effort from Turner (15 points, seven assists), Montgomery (15 points, eight rebounds) and Brown (19 points), and having won all 29 opening jump balls during the year, the third-seeded Lady Eagles fell to second-seeded Tennessee Tech in the semifinals.

Laura Litter earned OVC Coach of the Year honors after pointing the Lady Eagles to their first 20-win season in 20 years.

The Ohio Valley Conference

Entering its 55th year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

The OVC's proud past dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles (Turkey) Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged Feb. 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950's, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958, Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. (In 1961, Murphy earned football all-conference recognition at halfback.) With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

The first Division I-AA football playoff was held in 1978 with only four teams, which is the only year through present day that the OVC did not field a playoff representative. In 1979, four of the nation's top teams were invited to the playoffs, and two of them - Eastern Kentucky and Murray State - were from the OVC. Murray dropped its semifinal game to Lehigh, but the Colonels nipped Nevada-Reno in double overtime and claimed the national championship a week later with a 30-7 victory over Lehigh.

Football wasn't the only sport in which the OVC was quickly gaining respect. In 1955, the OVC became only the second six-member league nationally to earn an automatic bid to the prestigious NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, which, at that time, was limited to only 24 participants.

In the late 1970s, women's athletics began somewhat of a rebirth on the national scene as the NCAA began sponsoring and marketing women's sports. Recognizing the need to provide increased opportunities for female athletes, the OVC established women's championships in the sports of basketball, tennis and track in 1977, with cross country and volleyball added over the next four years. Those sports were initially governed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women, but the overall strength of women's programs in the league was demonstrated by the automatic bids the OVC instantly received when the NCAA became the governing body in 1982.

Women's basketball in the OVC has been dominated by Tennessee Tech, which has won or shared 15 regular-season titles and owns nine OVC Tournament titles. In fact, the Golden Eaglettes have reached the championship game of the OVC Tournament 18 times in the past 21 years. Although Tennessee Tech remains the standard-bearer, the league has become more balanced in recent years with Tennessee State (1994-95), Austin Peay (1996, 2000-01) and Eastern Kentucky (1997) having won six of the last nine OVC Tournaments.

Several coaches have made their mark in the relatively short history of OVC women's basketball. Former Tennessee Tech coach Marynell Meadors posted an amazing 363-139 (72.3%) record at Tech, becoming the first woman in NCAA or AIAW history to win 300 games at the same institution, while former Tennessee State skipper Teresa Phillips earned National Coach of the Year honors from USA Today in 1990 for turning around the Lady Tigers' program, and she went on to lead TSU to the NCAA Tournament in 1994 and 1995. Larry Joe Inman has won more than 100 games at both Middle Tennessee and Eastern Kentucky, and has earned OVC Coach of the Year honors seven times - four times at EKV and three at MTSU. Tennessee Tech's Bill Worrell has led the Golden Eagles to eight NCAA Tournament appearances in the last 16 seasons, including five straight from 1989-93.

Many great players have graced the hardwood over the years, including former OVC Players of the Year Pam Chambers, Jerilyn Harper, Cheryl Taylor, Angela Moorehead, Roschelle Vaughn, Diane Seng and Janet Holt from Tennessee Tech; Morehead State's Donna Murphy and Priscilla Blackford, Eastern Kentucky's Kim Mays and Southeast Missouri's Gray C. Harris.

Through the early years of the league, administrators wrestled with fan behavior due to the close proximity of the conference members and the intense rivalries which developed. Just as it did decades ago, the OVC took the leadership role on what has become a national issue. In 1995, the OVC implemented a first-of-its-kind "Sportsmanship Statement", a policy which promotes principles of fair play, ethical conduct and respect for one's opponent. The statement has become a model for others to follow across the nation, answering the challenge of the NCAA Presidents' Commission to improve sportsmanship in collegiate athletics.

Over its 54 years, OVC teams have garnered national championships and bowl games in football, along with national team or individual titles in the sports of rifle, cross country, track and golf.

The OVC also has produced several Olympic athletes (including Morehead State's gold-medal bobsledder Brian Shimer), while some of the greatest players in professional sports were educated at OVC institutions. The list includes former greats such as basketball's Clem Haskins (Western Kentucky) and two-sport star Steve Hamilton (Morehead State) to present-day standouts like basketball players Carlos Rogers (Tennessee State), Popeye Jones (Murray State), and Bubba Wells and Trenton Hassell (Austin Peay); football players Chad Bratzke (Eastern Kentucky), Marquis Walker (Southeast Missouri), Chris Watson (Eastern Illinois) and Brent Alexander (Tennessee State); baseball players Kirk Reuter (Murray State), Kerry Robinson (Southeast Missouri) and Willie Blair (Morehead State); and professional golfer Jeff Sluman (Tennessee Tech).

The playing field isn't the only place where OVC athletes are working hard. The league also recognizes excellence in the classroom. The prestigious OVC Academic Achievement Banner is awarded annually to the league school whose athletes produce the highest grade-point average when compared to the general student body. Also, six Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented yearly to male and female athletes, while others are commended for their academic success by being Medal of Honor recipients or named to the Commissioner's Honor Roll. Additionally, the Steve Hamilton Sportsmanship Award, in honor of the former Morehead State student-athlete, coach and athletics director, is presented annually to a junior or senior student-athlete with significant athletic contributions who best exemplifies the characteristics of sportsmanship and citizenship.

The OVC sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and indoor and outdoor track and field for men; and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, and volleyball for women. The OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Over the last few years, the league has grown, not only in the number of athletics opportunities it is providing for students, but in terms of the number of institutions in the league. In the early 1990's, the league expanded by two members, adding Southeast Missouri State University and the University of Tennessee at Martin. The league grew again in 1996-97 with the addition of Eastern Illinois University. Other current representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Tennessee State University and Tennessee Technological University. Jacksonville State and Samford join the OVC in the fall of 2003, expanding the conference to 11 members for the first time.

Members of the OVC office staff include Dan Beebe, Commissioner; Ron English, Associate Commissioner; Kim Melcher, Assistant Commissioner; Ryan Altizer, Director of Communications; Lee Moses, Director of Compliance; David Mines, Director of Special Projects; and Linda Wesson, Secretary.

OVC SPORTSMANSHIP

The Ohio Valley Conference is committed to establishing sportsmanship and developing healthy environments for competition. This conference wants to lead the way in abolishing the notion that it is desirable to create a "hostile" environment for intercollegiate athletic contests. Instead, we will strive to create "hospitable" environments. We believe that part of the role of education through sports is to teach our youth and our communities to conduct themselves with sportsmanship and respect for opponents.

OVC student-athletes must understand that they are perhaps the most visible representatives of their institutions. Also, their behavior is observed and emulated by many who are younger. OVC student-athletes must honor the responsibilities that accompany the privilege of representing our schools by behaving with dignity and class on and off the field.

Respect for the game in which the student-athlete participates also demands respect for the opponent. Student athletes at OVC institutions are expected to treat opponents with sportsmanship. There can be no tolerance for taunting and baiting of opponents.

The fans attending our games must be reminded by the public address announcer of the expectations of sportsmanship and respect for both opponents. We expect that all fans will act in an appropriate manner, and respect the opposition and the officials. We understand that occasionally there are individuals who attend games and abuse the opposition and officials. Those individuals may be dismissed from athletic events.

GAME INFORMATION

The top eight teams qualify for the OVC Tournament, with the top four hosting the first round games on Tuesday, Mar. 4. The semifinals and finals will be played at the Gaylord Entertainment Center in Nashville, Tenn., on Friday, Mar. 7 and Saturday, Mar. 8. The conference tournament champion earns an automatic bid to the NCAA Championships.

TIE BREAKERS

Two Way—Head-to-head competition is the first criteria, if the two teams split their meetings, then the records versus the highest seed are compared. This process continues through the No. 10 seed. If the tie remains, the seeds will be determined by a coin flip.

Multiple*—Composite records between the tying teams are evaluated first. The tying teams are then compared against the records of the highest seed. This process continues through the No. 10 seed. If the tie remains, the seeds will be determined by a coin flip.

NOTE—Once a multiple tie has been reduced to two teams, the two-way formula is used.

HALL OF FAME LADY EAGLES

In the 33 years the Morehead State women's basketball program has been in existence, only eight individuals have been inducted into the Morehead State Hall of Fame. In total, 97 athletes, coaches and administrators have earned the honor. The first group was inducted in 1985 and included such names as Steve Hamilton and John E. "Sonny" Allen. Athletes are not eligible for induction until ten years after the completion of their careers at MSU. Coaches and administrators are not eligible for induction until five years after they have left their position.

The University

Morehead State University™

Meeting the educational needs of East Kentucky while striving to constantly improve the quality of its public service, economic development and applied research programs are the primary objectives of Morehead State University.

Historically, the University traces its lineage to the Morehead Normal School, which opened its doors in 1887. The private school closed in the spring of 1922 when the Kentucky General Assembly established Morehead State Normal School. The state institution accepted its first students in the fall of 1923 and graduated its first class in 1927. Name changes occurred in 1926 when "and Teachers College" was added, again in 1930 when it was shortened to Morehead State Teachers College, again in 1948 when "Teachers" was dropped and, finally, to university status in 1966. Twelve men, starting with Frank C. Button, have served as president. Dr. Ronald G. Eaglin assumed office as the 12th president on July 1, 1992.

Academically, the University offers 75 undergraduate degree programs, including nine associate level degrees and 12 pre-professional programs in four colleges—Business, Education, Humanities, and Science and Technology—and 19 academic departments. There are 35 graduate degree programs plus 17 graduate level non-degree programs designed especially for professional educators. A post-master's level degree, education specialist with four specialty areas, and a joint doctoral program with the University of Kentucky are offered on the MSU campus.

Classes are conducted in Ashland, Jackson, Maysville, Pikeville, Prestonsburg, West Liberty, Whitesburg and other locations. Extended campus centers located in Ashland, Jackson, Prestonsburg and West Liberty are staffed with full-time directors. Additionally, the University offers a number of distance learning courses throughout the region via the Internet and interactive compressed video. Two-thirds of MSU's 340 full-time faculty members hold doctoral degrees.

Physically, the University is located in the foothills of the Daniel Boone National Forest in Rowan County. The nearly 500-acre main campus within the city limits of Morehead includes more than 50 major structures with a total replacement value of more than $150 million. Beyond the city, the University's real estate holdings include the 320-acre Derrickson Agricultural complex and a nine-hole public golf course. The instructional plant includes 120 classrooms and 112 laboratories. Housing facilities include space for approximately 3,400 single students and 138 student families.

Fiscally, the University currently operates on an annual budget of $92.1 million with about $44.7 million provided by the state and $29.4 million coming from tuition and fees and other sources. Additionally, grants and contracts from external sources for research, service and academic/student support projects generate more than $10 million each year. Private donations to the University, mainly through the MSU Foundation Inc., have reached more than $15 million.

Statistically, the University has awarded more than 51,000 degrees and currently has 1,049 full-time employees. Enrollment for fall 2001 was 9,027, with the student body representing 105 Kentucky counties, 43 states and 37 foreign countries. The University attracts more than 50,000 visitors annually and its economic impact, directly and indirectly, on the Morehead area is estimated at more than $80 million yearly.

Administratively, the University is governed by an 11-member Board of Regents with eight citizens appointed by the governor and three seats held by elected faculty, staff and student representatives. Management of the institution is vested primarily in five divisions—Academic Affairs, Administration and Fiscal Services, Development, Student Life and University Relations—each headed by a vice president.

Athletically, the University sponsors 18 intercollegiate sports for men and women in accordance with the regulations of the Ohio Valley Conference, the Pioneer Football League and Division I of the National Collegiate Athletic Association. Those sports include football, basketball, baseball, cross country, indoor and outdoor track and field, rifle, golf and tennis for men, and volleyball, soccer, basketball, softball, cross country, indoor and outdoor track and field, rifle and tennis for women. MSU also supports an intramural program involving more than 20 team and individual sports.

Affirmative Action Statement

Morehead State University is committed to providing equal educational opportunities to all persons regardless of race, color, national origin, age, religion, sex, or disability in its educational programs, services, activities, employment policies, and admission of students to any program of study. In this regard the University conforms to all the laws, statutes, and regulations concerning equal employment opportunities and affirmative action. This includes: Title VI and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Executive Orders 11246 and 11375, Equal Pay Act of 1963, Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and Kentucky Revised Statutes 207.130 to 207.240. ADMINISTRATION

Dr. Ronald G. Eaglin, President

Dr. Ronald G. Eaglin, an outspoken proponent of student success strategies in college administration, has served since July 1, 1992, as the 12th president of Morehead State University.

A native of St. Louis, Mo., President Eaglin came to Kentucky from the chancellorship of Coastal Carolina University in Conway, S.C. Previously, he was vice chancellor for academic affairs at the University of South Carolina at Spartanburg. Earlier, he was the southeast regional director of the American College Testing Program (ACT).

A former chair of Kentucky's Conference of University Presidents, Dr. Eaglin holds a bachelor's degree in biology and mathematics from Southeast Missouri State University, a master's degree in student personnel administration from Southern Illinois University and a doctoral degree in educational psychology from the University of Utah. At SEMO, he was a member of the varsity tennis team before graduating in 1962.

President Eaglin's expertise in student retention has been highlighted in a research report he wrote for the American Association of Colleges and Universities (AACSC) on the role of campus chief executives in helping students be successful in college. Dr. Eaglin initiated a study of the teacher education program on the MSU campus that led to a review and improvement of the University's program. In addition, he was involved in the formation of a "P-16+ Regional Council" which is based at MSU and brings together representatives from the public and private colleges in the area, school superintendents, local government leaders, members of state agencies and CEO's of regional businesses and industry.

He has made presentations across the country on student retention and the role of the President in accomplishing this goal. Involved with numerous publications on this topic, Dr. Eaglin edited the book "Five Habits of Successful Students" published by the International Organization for Student Success.

The University's CEO was a member of the AACSC Board of Directors and had the distinction of representing two different institutions on the NCAA Presidents Commission. He currently serves on the NCAA Board of Directors for Division I and on the Executive Committee charged with choosing a new President. He previously served a term as President of the Ohio Valley Conference. His consulting work in student personnel and academic matters has taken him overseas to Cyprus, China and Ireland, and to numerous campuses across the country.

Dear Friends:

Morehead State University is committed to upholding the highest integrity within all procedures and practices of the athletic department. We are pleased to publish this note as a reference to understanding often confusing NCAA regulations.

The NCAA defines "representatives of athletic interests" as alumni, friends and boosters of the University. All member institutions are held accountable for their representatives' actions. One violation could jeopardize the eligibility of any or all Eagle Athletic programs.

As a general rule, anyone who has financially supported Eagle Athletics, been a member of any booster organization, or who has supported Eagle Athletics is considered a "representative" of Eagle Athletics. If anyone has questions regarding these types of relationships, please contact Brian Hutchinson, Director of Development and Marketing at (606) 783-2593.

Prospective student-athletes can be defined as a student who has started classes in the ninth grade or any younger student-athlete who has received a benefit from the institution. These individuals may only be recruited by MSU coaches who have passed the NCAA Recruiting Rules Examination. While "representatives" of Eagle Athletics may speak to any of these individuals via telephone or in person, a recruiting effort must not be made. Also, no student-athlete or prospective student-athlete may receive any extra benefit outside of the support provided by the institution. For any questions regarding this description, please contact Jim Wells, Compliance and Educational Services Director at (606) 783-5136.

These are certainly not all the regulations any "representative" of Eagle Athletics must remember. However, they provide a good outline of the types of things that could endanger the eligibility of any MSU Athletics program. Again, feel free to contact us if you have any questions. Thanks again for your support of Morehead State Athletics.

Sincerely,

Jim Wells

Compliance and Educational Services Director

Brian Hutchinson

Associate Director of Athletics

MSU's Choices Program

The purpose of the "Choices for a New Millennium" program is to involve the student and community population in alcohol education and awareness through the leadership of students and student-athletes, ultimately reducing substance abuse on our campus.

NCAA Alcohol Education Program

Through the Choices Grant and CHAMPS LifeSkills programs, MSU attempts to foster the development of its student-athletes as well-rounded individuals. As part of its enrichment of the student-athlete experience, MSU invites speakers to come to the University to help enhance the personal development of each individual by emphasizing character and leadership, as well as educating them on health and safety issues relevant to life as a college student-athlete.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS!

The Lady Eagles have a history of being successful off of the court, especially in their academic endeavors. In total, the team has had six athletes recognized a total of nine times with the OVC Academic Medal of Honor in the 14 years the conference has presented the award. In addition, 81 times a Lady Eagle has earned a spot on the Commissioner's Honor Roll. Among the current student-athletes, five have been named 14 times to the MSU Dean's List during their careers.

The OVC's highest all-around in-season honor is the Scholar-Athlete Award, recognizing excellence in athletics, academics and leadership. Twenty-one MSU athletes, including women's basketball player, Donna Stephens in the inaugural year of the award (1981-82) have been recipients of the honor.

OVC ACADEMIC MEDAL OF HONOR

For the past 14 years, the Ohio Valley Conference has recognized student-athletes for their academic achievements with its Academic Medal of Honor. The award is presented to the student-athlete who has the highest GPA (above 3.00) in each sport sponsored by the OVC. In case of ties, each student-athlete is given a Medal of Honor. In total, 42 women's basketball student-athletes have been chosen, with eight of the nine current OVC schools having had at least one student-athlete win the award. Austin Peay has had 10 student-athletes selected, the most by any school. Morehead State is second with nine. For the third straight year, senior Abby Adams posted a 4.0 GPA and became the team's first three-time Medal of Honor recipient.

ATHLETIC FACILITIES

Morehead State has at its disposal modern and well-equipped facilities for the use of its athletic teams. Included among those are Jayne Stadium, the Academic-Athletic Center (AAC), the George A. Sadler Tennis Courts, Allen Field, Wetherby Gym and the University Softball Field. Among the facilities used for purposes other than competition is the Phil Simms Weight Training Facility, a building dedicated by the former Morehead State and New York Giants' football star, which allows MSU athletes every opportunity to enhance their strength and conditioning. In addition, there is a spacious athletic training facility in Jayne Stadium complete with all of the resources needed to enhance the training of MSU athletes, and allowing them to rehabilitate and recover from injuries quickly and safely.

The Academic-Athletic Center and the Ellis T. Johnson Arena have been the home for Lady Eagle basketball practices and games since the Fall of 1981. Ground was broken for the structure in the Spring of 1978. The building was erected at a cost of $7,035,000 and it was opened for occupancy by the athletic staff on June 1, 1981.

The first university function held in the Academic-Athletic Center was spring commencement on May 9, 1981. Since then, the arena has hosted concert performances by Alabama, David Letterman, M.C. Hammer, the Goo Goo Dolls, Blessed Union of Souls, Nappy Roots and Sawyer Brown, to mention a few. The arena also plays host to the 16th regional boys and girls' high school basketball tournaments annually during March.

Ellis T. Johnson Arena seats 6,500 spectators, and additional seating can be added for concerts and other speaking engagements. A hydraulic stage, located at the east end of the arena, can be raised up to six feet above floor level for simple conversion from a basketball floor to an auditorium platform. Ten sections of the arena are fixed with blue chairback seating, two sections have gold cushioned chairback seats and the remaining seating is in bleacher form.

The AAC houses offices for all of the athletic staff members with the exception of football, baseball, rifle, and cross country/track and field.

The square-shaped building was the result of over four years of careful planning. Preliminary planning, which originally called for the renovation of Wetherby Gymnasium, began in 1975. Located in the complex are a gymnastics room, a physiology laboratory, a VIP room for entertaining guests, a weight room, sauna and steam rooms, four concession areas and a number of storage areas.

Another part of the AAC structure is an L-shaped swimming pool and diving area. The aquatic facility, which cost approximately $1.5 million of the total $7 million complex, has seating for 300 spectators, and was the home of the MSU swim and dive teams through 1995, before the program was discontinued. In addition, deep under the floor, there is an underwater viewing area for instructors to watch students' swimming and diving styles. An underwater speaker system also is available to assist instructors.

Since beginning play at the Academic-Athletic Center in 1981, the Lady Eagle basketball team has posted a 139-116 record, for a .545 winning percentage. MSU has posted 13 winning seasons in 21 years of play in the arena. Last winter, the Lady Eagles won a school-record 11 games in the arena, bettering their previous best of 10 victories during the 1984-85 campaign.

Athletic Training

One of the major support services offered to the athletes is the main athletic training center located at Jayne Stadium. This facility provides a wide range of options for the treatment and rehabilitation of sports injuries. It contains four whirlpools, four electric stimulators, two ultrasound units, and nine treatment tables, along with a wide range of exercise and rehabilitation equipment. MSU also staffs two remote athletic training rooms located at the AAC and Wetherby Gym. The MSU staff includes the head athletic trainer Richard Fletcher, A.T., C.; assistant athletic trainer Jamey Carver, A.T., C.; and three graduate assistant athletic trainers, Courtney Ormerod; Sara Larson, A.T., C.; and Jennifer Miller, A.T., C. In addition, nine students provide ancillary support. Other vitally important members of the medical staff include, orthopedic surgeons Tom Fossett MD, Pat Serey MD, Jim Rollins MD and Anup Chatta MD; team dentist, Jim Bendixen DMD; and team optometrist, Thomas McHugh OD. The athletic training staff also utilizes the University health clinic located on campus. The University Clinic staffs four Certified Physicians Assistants and contracts with a local clinic to provide coverage during the afternoon by Family Practice Physicians. In addition, Saint Claire Medical Center, located in Morehead, is a full-spectrum medical service provider.

Weight Room

MSU athletes have two primary weight room facilities for their use. The largest is the Phil Simms Weight Training Facility, which is used primarily by the football squad, but accessible to all MSU teams. The other facility is located in the AAC and is the primary domain of the basketball teams. It offers a wide range of modern equipment, including a stairmaster, free weights and Nautilus-style machines, which help the Lady Eagles attain the highest level of strength training.

Locker Room

Besides having a first-rate facility in which to play and practice, the Lady Eagles also have a top-notch locker room with all of the amenities, including a large-screen television and a VCR to view game tapes and scout opponents, plus a lounge area with a sofa where they can relax. The locker room is also directly connected to the training room in the AAC, offering the athletes easy access to gain any necessary treatment.
