Rural Schools Will Begin August 16th

Late Date Is Due Largely To Scarcity of Farm Labor

Meeting in regular session on Monday, July 5, the Rowan County Board of Education fixed the starting date of the rural schools of this county as August 16, and starting date for consolidated schools as September 6th. Due to the teacher-shortage in this county, the Board was forced to make application for more than twenty emergency permits in order to supply teachers for all the rural schools. Applicants who hold emergency permits do not meet the minimum requirements for teaching permits in this county. The Board is now teaching experienced and high school graduates with eight months of teaching experience who are allowed to teach in this state during the present teacher shortage.

Li VanAntwerp Assigned To Navy School In New York

Lieutenant Charles Van Antwerp, head of Breckinridge Training School who is on leave for duty with the Navy, has been assigned to the Navy station at Union College, in Schoenectady, New York, according to word received here this week. Van Antwerp, who left Morehead last May 23 and has spent the last several weeks in indoctrination work at Columbia U.

Worn-Out Silk And Nylon Hosiery Have A Definite War Assignment

Women have one important war job in the salvage program in which men have to take a back seat. Men just can't do this job because only a woman knows what the last sign of life has gone out of her silk and nylon hosiery. When that dying gasp has been spent, women know that if they were their old stockings to the Government for powder bags and other military uses, they are doing their part.

Old silk stockings are used principally to make powder bags, while discarded nylon has innumerable uses, including the making of parachutes for our airborne invaders of enemy held territories. One might wonder how the different types of material collected are segregated, but chemists have made this one of the easier steps in putting old silk and nylon to work. All the hosiery undergoes a special processing which makes it simple to sort the different types of material. All are put through a special dye bath which enables silk and nylon salvages to tell which is silk and which is nylon, and just what part of the stocking is unwanted rayon or cotton.

All that is silk is then put through a process by which every thread is reclaimed. Needless to say, these are not respun into the fine gossamer sheers and service weights that once adorned women. Instead they turn up as sturdy powder bags used by the Army and Navy in their big guns. The reason for using silk instead of some other yarn is that it leaves no burning particles in the gun barrels which might prematurely set off another charge placed in the gun. Nylon stockings play an entirely different role in the war, being used largely to make strong parachutes worn by our paratroopers

Noted Lecturer, Pianist To Appear Here, Tues., July 13

Is Professor Of Musical Composition At N. Y. University

Charles Haubiel, outstanding contemporary pianist, lecturer, and composer will be present in concert next Tuesday night, July 13, from the auditorium stage of Morehead State Teachers College. For his local program, Mr. Haubiel will present variations on "Swanee River" in musical styles from Pope Gregory time until the present date. His program will include Metromorphoses over "Swanee River" in the styles of thirty composers, beginning with sixteenth century Plain Chant and concluding with Atonality and present day jazz. Following the presentation of the lecture-recital, he will play and talk on eight late music numbers.

Tobacco Growers Of County Urged To Control Bud Worm

A number of tobacco farmers are finding that bud worms are doing a lot of damage to their growing tobacco plants. This summer worm can do a lot of damage and every effort should be made to control them. For a number of years the standard poison has been a mixture of 1 pound arsenate of lead mixed with 75 pounds cornmeal or 6 heaping teaspoonfuls of arsenate of lead mixed with 12 pounds cornmeal. This poison mixture is applied with a tin can on the end of a stick. Since it is almost impossible to purchase corn meal the bud worm should be picked by hand or a poison mixture can be made of finely ground mill feed as a substitute for corn meal. When mill feed is substituted for corn meal it should be applied by putting a pinch of the poison in the bud instead of using the tin can.

Car Owners Requested To File Applications For Gasoline Ration Books

The Local War Price and Rationing Board has requested that car owners file their applications for their "A" Mileage Ration Books as soon as possible, in order that the Board may process them and mail them out before the present "A" rations expire on July 21.

Community Market To Begin Operation Thursday, July 15, On Public School Playground

The Community Market, an idea fostered and sponsored by the Morehead Board of Trade, will be put into effect on Thursday, July 15, between the hours of 8:00 a. m. and 12:00 noon, on the grounds of the Morehead Consolidated School. The Community Market, designed to give farmers and truck gardeners a wholesale outlet for their produce and to provide the people of Morehead with a source of farm produce, fresh and in wholesale lots, is an altogether new undertaking in Morehead and its success depends to a great extent upon the interest shown in its early stages. At the outset, Thursday will be observed as market day, and such time as demands make it necessary to hold sales on another day or on a number of days each week.

Local Boys Give Blood To Save Life Of Child

For the information of the seller, the Board of Trade has released for publication the following set of rules which will govern sales and the maintenance of the market place. 1. Sales books will be provided by the Board of Trade, and a duplicate copy of an itemized statement must be given to the purchaser with each sale. 2. Each salesman will be held responsible for the tidiness of his particular portion of the market. Rubbish cans and market baskets will be provided, and rubbish will not be tolerated to accumulate on the grounds. 3. Minimum sales amounts have been established for fruits and vegetables in wholesale lots for the following products—Beans, 1/2 bu.; Tomatoes, 1/2 bu.; Blackberries, 1 gal.; Potatoes, 1/2 bu.; Sweet Potatoes, 1/2 bu.; Cabbage, 1/2 bu.; Corn, 2 doz. ears; Cucumbers, 1/2 bu.; Onions, 1/2 bu.; Carrots, 1 doz. bunches; Beets, 1 doz. bunches; Peaches, 1/2 bu.; Apples, 1/2 bu.; Plums, 1/2 bu.; Watermelons, 1 doz.; Cantaloupes, 1 doz.; Grapes, 1/2 bu.; Lima Beans, 1/2 bu.; Burpees, 1/2 bu.; Onions, 10 lbs.; and Peas, 1/2 bu. All other products should be cleared with the Board of Trade Market Committee before being offered for sale.

Red Cross Chairman Renders Valuable Service In Many Similar Cases

It is unusual that a five year old child has appendicitis but this happened recently in Rowan County. The child was removed to St. Joseph Hospital at Lexington, but the appendix had ruptured before an operation could be made. In order to prevent infection the child was given all fallamide which had to be given in such quantity that it was destroying the red corpuscles. This made a blood transfusion necessary. The hospital was short on blood and called the Rowan County Chapter of Red Cross to see if blood donors could be found and brought to Lexington. Within thirty minutes after receiving the call, H. C. Hagan, Chairman of the local Chapter had six Morehead College men on their way to donate their blood for the little girl.

Lieut. Cochran Completes Marine Indoctrination

Lieutenant Rubye Lee Cochran, who taught commerce at Morehead State Teachers College during the past year, was a guest on the campus this week during her leave from Marine duty. Lieutenant Cochran received her bars as a Marine lieutenant in exercises held earlier this week at Holyoke College, where she has been stationed as a Marine lieutenant in training. She will report next Monday to the Marine Corps headquarters in Washington, D. C. to receive further assignment.

Berry Pickers Warned of Danger Of Forest Fires

Bare-foot boys and girls with their buckets and shoulder straps, "checks of tan" with juice stained lips and fingers, tell us louder than words, "it's (berry picking) time again." This is the time of year when Berry Pickers are welcome in the shape of unbroken matches, cigarette butts, and fresh picked berries will show. With all this wet weather, one scarcely thinks of woods fires these days, but it could happen, has happened in the past. Berry Pickers are welcome on National Forest Lands. Get your mason jars out in the sun and get on for next winter. Then when Forest Ranger Earl Staller comes around show him how many quarts your family picked without setting out woods fires. Probably he would like a nice juicy dish-ful to eat too.

J. J. Thomas Seeks Re-Election For State Senator

From Bath, Rowan, Fleming, Mason, Menifee, and Wolfe Counties

In this issue of the Independent appears the announcement of Senator J. J. Thomas, incumbent candidate for the office of State Senator from the district composed of Rowan, Bath, Fleming, Mason, Menifee and Wolfe counties, subject to the action of the Democratic Party at the August 7th primary election. In submitting his candidacy for reelection, Senator Thomas offers his record, made during one term in the House of Representatives and the present term in the State Senate, as the basis for his request for the consideration, influence and support of the Democrats of this district.

Rationing At A Glance

Blue stamps N, P, and Q are good through August 7. Red stamps P and Q are good now; R will be good July 15; S July 18; T they expire July 31. Coffee stamp 21 good through July 21. Sugar stamp 13 good for 5 pounds through August 15. Stamps 16 may be used in obtaining canning sugar in amounts of 5 pounds each through October 13. An exception to this rule where canning requires more than 10 pounds for canning, application for additional allotments may be made at the local ration board. The total that will be given to any person is 25 pounds for the entire canning season, 15 pounds in addition to the 10 pounds secured by stamps 15 and 16. This will be computed on the basis of 1 pound of sugar to each 4 food rations to be preserved. Of this maximum of a total of 25 pounds, not more than 5 pounds may be used for jams or jellies. The application for extra canning allotment must be made in writing to the board and accompanied by Ration Book One, stating the number of quarts of fruit processed by applicant since March 1st of this year. The amount of sugar on hand for home canning that has been obtained for making jams and jellies and the amount of sugar obtained for home canning will be used for this purpose, and any other information the board may require. One person may make application for his entire family unit.

Meals And Fats Validity Dates For Stamps

"P" good June 27 through July 31. "R" good July 11 through July 31. "S" good July 18 through July 31. Based on the use of Red Stamps as in the past or 48 cents per month. War Ration Book Two and Red Stamps will be used up about October 10, 1943. Processed Foods Blue Stamps K, L, M extended to July 7. N, P, and Q good July 1, through August 7. These questions have been frequently put to district Office of Price Administration officials in the last few days. They are undoubtedly applicable to problems of many readers. Q. My youngest son is eight months old and wears size 4 shoes. The next shoes I'll buy for him will require a ration stamp. It seems silly, but I don't seem to even stand. All three troops of Morehead Girl Scouts met in front of the Christian Church at eight o'clock Saturday morning and hiked to the C.C.C. camp site for their Camp Day. Party-six Browns, Intermediates and Seniors and their six leaders, Peggy Reynolds, Nanette Robinson, Ruth Bagg, Louise Antonian, Margaret Shannon, and Miss A.V. Wrenn were with the group. Mrs. Clark's and Mrs. Gordon Pinkner picked up individual boxes of food and other supplies at the Christian Church and took them in their cars to the camp site. Two other mothers, Mrs. Morgan Clayton and Mrs. Warren Shafer, joined the camp later in the afternoon. The camp program had mapped out a full day's program of songs, baseball and other games, outdoor cooking, wading, etc. In the afternoon camp presented a program for the group—a style show by the youngsters, a mock melodrama by the intermediates and a party by the seniors and a party of Supermen by the Seniors. Before the hike home an Investiture ceremony was held for new Brownies, Intermediates and Seniors. Miss Agnes Jones, a national Girl Scout field worker, was on the campus all day Tuesday and Wednesday, working with prospective leaders and the local Girl Scout community committee and leaders to help plan their work for the coming year—a year which will be a very busy one for Girl Scouts, so if you are a girl between the ages of seven and eighteen interested in Scouting send one of the leaders about joining for next fall. By the way, it's voted at Camp to abandon regular meetings for the rest of the summer except for group hikes or outdoor fun meetings—So Good-Bye Folks Till Next Fall.

Political Announcements

To the Democratic Voters of Bath, Menifee, Montgomery and Rowan Counties:

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney to fill the present unexpired term ending in 1945, subject to the action of the Democratic party at the primary election to be held on August 7, 1943. I have always supported the Democratic party and have been a practicing attorney for the past 18 years (during which time I served as County Attorney of my home county); I have also had considerable experience on the side of the Commonwealth during my practice and feel qualified by reason of my experience to properly handle the business of this important office. I am married and the father of three children. In the event of my nomination and election I pledge myself to the people of my district to honestly and faithfully fulfill all of the duties of the office to the best of my ability and to see that all persons charged with any violations of the criminal and penal laws of our State, regardless of Creed, Color or Station in life, have a fair and impartial trial, and by so doing thereby help preserve the institutions our country's boys are fighting for. Due to the emergency which exists because of the war, I realize that I will be unable to see a great many of the voters and I take this method of soliciting your vote and influence, which will be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully,
REID PREWITT.

Navy Class Sent To Advance School After Graduation

Ninth Division Completes 16 Weeks of Electrical Study Here

Graduation exercises for the Ninth Division, tenth class of Navy electricians to complete their sixteen weeks courses at the Naval Training School on the Morehead College campus, were held last Saturday afternoon at the college auditorium, with Lieutenant Commander George Walker, captain of the local unit, giving the speech of the afternoon and presenting the awards to the 138 sailors who had successfully completed their work here.

The graduating group, who came to the Morehead campus four months ago and were originally known as the Second Division, have all been assigned advanced schools for additional Navy training, said Captain Walker in his remarks. None of the graduates were assigned to direct duty to which at least part of each of the previous graduating classes had been assigned on leaving here.

According to Captain Walker, graduates of the Morehead Naval Training School who have been assigned to advanced training in the past have achieved such high performance records that advanced schools are asking for larger quotas of Morehead trainees. "I am very proud of the reputation that this school is getting throughout the Navy," he said, "I get the impression that the men graduating from this school are beginning to be looked upon very highly."

Honor man of the graduating Ninth, Bluejacket R. N. Johnson of Berwyn, Illinois, was not present for the graduating exercises, having completed his work early and reported for advanced training under the V-12 program of the Navy. Johnson completed his sixteen weeks of concentrated study in electricity on the Morehead campus with a scholastic average of 96.86. (Following Johnson in high scholastic rating were P. B. Harden, Dudley Holstein, J. P. O'Brien and R. D. Jackson. Honor men in the division were graduated as electricians' mates, third class, while the other graduates were sent out as strikers, eligible for advancement within a few weeks. Rated men were selected on the basis of scholastic standing, conduct and ability for leadership as evidenced by their sixteen weeks with the local Navy.

Before presenting the awards, Captain Walker read Article 1275 from the Navy regulations, governing the conduct of petty officers. He also gave several preliminary remarks on the necessity of strict compliance on Navy matters, and warned the graduating sailors to be careful of "loose talk."

The Ninth Division men left for their new stations this week, and a new contingent of Bluejackets who will be known as the First Division, will begin their training here next week.

Lieut. Ellis Johnson To Direct Athletics At Iowa Navy Station

Lieutenant (jg) Ellis Johnson, football coach of Morehead College who is on leave for Navy duty for the duration, has completed his indoctrination courses and has been assigned to the Navy unit at Iowa State University, in Iowa City, Iowa. He will report to his new station soon to begin his duties as athletic officer for the Navy school, which operates under the V-5 program.

Johnson left Morehead last May 22, reporting to Chapel Hill, North Carolina, for several weeks of rigorous training at the Naval pre-ight school on the University of North Carolina campus.

Johnson is one of the greatest athletes ever produced in Kentucky. Johnson was a star on athletic squads at the University of Kentucky, where he was the first letter man. He graduated from the University in 1933, and for the last seven years had been head football coach for the Morehead College Eagles.

Lieutenant Johnson is now in Morehead for the last leave before reporting to his new station. His wife and small daughter, Barbara Len, will accompany him to Iowa City.

Coach Miller Says Morehead Will Have Fall Cage Team

Put away your war discussions, your class worries and your gal friends for a moment, cage lovers, for intercollegiate basketball will definitely be at Morehead next year. Coach Len Miller stated recently that the Golden Eagles' silk-attired cagers will make their appearance next fall.

The new director of athletics whispered this good news to the other A. M. He realizes, though, that the task won't be easy because very few old men are coming back and the new fellows in will need plenty of training to acustom them to playing college ball.

It is entirely too early to say definitely just what kind of team he is in the making, but the coach has several swell players on the "team". It is known that one veteran variety player who will probably be on hand is Max Brand, a clever pivot from Paint-ville. Ten freshmen, who were outstanding high school stars, are expected to blister the varsity considerably since there will be no freshmen team this year.

Harry Carpenter and Tyndal Daily, flashy forward and guard from Olive Hill, and George Conley, a big boy from Ashland Junction, Colliage, are expected to offer competition for jobs on the varsity. Conspicuous by their absence are four luminaries who completed play last season—All K. I. A. forward Earl Duncan, Carl "Corky" Howerton, Bob Holbrook and Fred Johnson.

BOOK REVIEW

"Pedagogy and Pedagogy"
Dr. R. D. Judd, Author

Review by Virginia Karrick

Dr. R. D. Judd has given to the world in his latest book a workable human philosophy, simple and direct, and at the same time profound. His is a philosophy nurtured through years of teaching experience coming now to us as if from the mouth of a philosopher and a serious mood. The latter mood challenges education to accept its privilege and duty of training the emotions of its pupils and students so that they may live on a high plane where love and tolerance rule. The humorous mood delights by its subtle satire and wit. Both moods are presented in a straightforward, honest manner in a somewhat sketchy but sketches dealing with one thought, developing it naturally and fully in a rich, expressive vocabulary which is suited to the aim of the sketch.

The book opens with a triologue between Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle, who have returned to the earth for a short visit. The triologue, "Weighed in the Balance," tells us what the three old philosophers think of today's world and its affairs—their disappointment because civilization has not yet learned to live by the golden rule—their disappointment dulled by the hope that sometime in the future men will learn to do unto others as they would have others do unto them. The triologue progresses slowly and with dignity and ends filling our ears with the noise of the present day and the steady tramp of marching soldiers—the present civilization weighs in the balance and four-waiting.

After the triologue comes a humorous anecdote, then back to the serious mood again and thus through the book—from serious to humorous, from humorous to serious but ever leaving with the reader challenging and worthwhile thoughts.

Macmillan Offers Literary Prizes To Service Men

To celebrate its centenary in 1943, the firm of Macmillan, with headquarters in New York, London, Toronto, and branches in Boston, Chicago, San Francisco, Dallas, Atlanta, Bombay, Calcutta, Madras, and Melbourne, announces The Macmillan Centenary Awards: An Opportunity for Those in the Armed Forces.

In the announcement of this, the first general prize contest in their history, the publishers say: "In the Armed Forces of the United Nations, there are unquestionably many persons, who, but for the war, would be following writing careers. Many of them are undoubtedly even now planning books for the future and have possibly completed or embarked upon some part of their work. To encourage them and all others in the fighting forces of the United Nations is the aim of these Awards."

The American awards consist of $2,500 for the best novel and $2,500 for the best work of non-fiction. There will also be (at the publisher's discretion) smaller awards totaling $5,000, or other manuscripts or publishing proposals. All awards are outright payments and are in addition to the author's regular royalties. In the event of a tie, the full amount of the award will be paid re-elected to the office of State Senator, I will continue to labor for the welfare and assistance of the old age people, the needy blind and the widows and orphans of the state.

I wish to call the attention to the school teachers of this district, that I realize the teachers of this state are not receiving the pay that they are justly entitled to, and that realizing that the cause of education is not what it should be with reference to the raising of educational standards in this State, I will support any measure that shall insure better pay for the teachers and the improvement of the educational system of the State.

I especially wish to call the attention of the people of Morehead and Rowan County to my record with regard to the Morehead State Teachers College. You will find that I have always been a friend to the College and that I have supported all legislation for its betterment. If returned to the Senate, I pledge to continue that support.

My record in the past has been and I have so voted, in the interest of the farmers of the State, and I wish to say that I shall be against any measure that provides for additional raise of taxes on the farms lands of the State. I especially want to call the attention of the farmers of this district to my vote on the Mutual Insurance Bill that was introduced in the State Senate at the 1940 Session.

I realize that due to the present World War, the travel conditions are not as easy as before the War, it may be that I will be unable to see many of the voters in this district as I should want to see, and I fully realize that the minds of the people are upon the seriousness of this great War, and I can truthfully say that I have more interest in defeating the common enemy than in winning the nomination to any office.

During the first World War I volunteered my services ten days after the War was declared and served in the United States Army for 21 months. My son, J. J. Thomas, Jr., is now serving his country as a Midshipman in the United States Navy. I further pledge myself that when all the boys and girls shall return from the present conflict, it will be my great pleasure to support any measure or legislation that will be of interest to them.

I now submit to you and request that you study my record made in the past in both the House of Representatives and the State Senate, as your servant, and if you feel that you can support and vote for me on that record, it will be sincerely appreciated.

Respectfully yours,
J. J. Thomas

large quantities by families with infants.

Q. I was unable to apply for my No. 3 ration book before the deadline, June 10. What must I do now to obtain one? A. The book will not be put into circulation until September or perhaps October. You can go to your local board for an application and mail it in to the state center. It will be processed after those already on hand are sent out.

Q. If meat that I have purchased gives me a unit for use, what recourse do I have? Do I lose the red ration points used to purchase this meat? A. No, if within a reasonable length of time, dealers will exchange meat unit for consumption for a rationed product of the same point value.

Q. I am trading in my present car, which is a 1936 model, on a 1940 model. What happens to the tire inspection record for my 1936 car, and how do I obtain a tire inspection record for the 1940 car? A. The tire inspection record always follows the car in case of a transfer. In other words, the record for your 1936 car will remain with that car and the person who purchases it from you (whether he is a dealer or private individual) must have that tire inspection record. Similarly, it is the responsibility of the dealer or the individual who sells your 1940 car to furnish the record which has been issued to the car.

Q. I have only an "A" Book and have no occupational needs for my car. May I use my mileage to take a trip into Pennsylvania? A. You may not use a basic ration in the State of Pennsylvania at present for a non-essential, non-occupational trip. Kentucky is included in the critical gasoline shortage area and basic mileage may not be used there for such purposes as vacation trips and other non-essential purposes.

Q. I have a "C" Book, allowing me 70 miles per month, and I am driving home to work. My company is granting me a two-weeks vacation in July. Since I will not need my miles for that period, may I drive to work, may I use that same amount of mileage to drive on my vacation? A. Definitely not, to use it for a non-occupational purpose such as a vacation would constitute a violation of the regulations.

Q. The shoes I bought are not satisfactory. I took them back to the store and they would not give me another pair without a new stamp. How do I do it? A. With the store's approval of the exchange, no stamp is required. If the shoes are defective and the dealer accepts the return, he should give you a statement which you can take to your local rationing board for a special shoe stamp.

Q. Can a radio shop which sells tubes or other parts employ a customer who only wants to buy a tube or part to bring the radio to the shop and pay then for installing the tube or part? A. No. It is illegal to require a combination sale of any commodity or service where single items are sold separately in March, 1942, and are still sold separately.

Q. Can a shoe repairman raise his prices? A. No. He cannot raise his prices for the same work and grade of leather than he did for the same job in March, 1942. On all rubber heels, the OPA has set flat dollars and cent prices, including attaching of the heels.

Q. I have had a ration for heating my home and not water during the past heating season. When do I apply for my ration for the 1943-44 heating season? A. You will receive it in the mail a simple form, B-1167, which you are to fill out in full detail and mail back to the local rationing board. They will process the application and mail you your ration. If you have not received this form, write to your rationing board for it.

Q. I have a used washer and refrigerator. How do I determine their selling prices if I wish to sell them? A. Call your local rationing board and it will give you the dollar-and-cents price, if you can apply the make, model, and year of the refrigerator and washer.

month. Therefore, creameries are receiving as much for butter now as they were, and are expected to continue paying the going prices to farmers.

Farmers who sell their butterfat to a creamery and buy back butter for their own needs should receive the five cents a pound reduction in price on their butter, because the creamery received the 5 cents a pound subsidy on that butter the same as on all other.

After the War—WHAT?

"The state's greatest obligation is to prepare for the readjustment and certain return to civilian life of those who have contributed in full measure in defense of freedom."—From J. Lyter Donaldson's opening campaign speech.

★ Qualified by years of administrative work, State Highway Commissioner of Kentucky, attorney, banker, farmer.

★ An experienced, capable leader worthy of your confidence.

J. LYTER DONALDSON

Kentucky in the next four years needs a man with vision. One who can recognize and discharge the responsibilities of the State's post-war economic life. Donaldson is a man with a constructive administrative program.

rationing board for an additional ration for shoes for baby.

Q. We were told each person was to be allowed two pounds of meat a week. Our family of two persons has 32 red points a week. After deducting for butter, margarine, shortening and canned milk, there is a balance of 17 points, good for less than one pound of meat a week per person. On the other hand, adults in a family with several children get a meat allowance because children do not eat their two-pound share. Where is the discrepancy? A. The meat rationing program was worked out with care to divide meat among civilians as fairly as possible. This was done with the advice of nutrition experts, who agree that 16 points a week for each person would get him enough of the food that can be bought with red stamps to provide a wholesome diet. Ours is the most generous meat ration allowed in any country now at war. You are expected to supplement your red stamp purchases with non-rationed fish and poultry and with foods which nutritionally are substitutes for meat. A careful check may show you that adults in families with children do not get as much meat as you think. It appears that except for infants, children generally consume as much meat as adults, and more butter and cheese. It should be remembered, also, that adults ordinarily do not spend red stamps on canned milk, which is used in

Butter Prices Hit New Low

Inasmuch as the United States Department of Agriculture will soon support the wholesale price of butter at levels equivalent to 46 cents per pound until June 30, 1944, farmers should continue to receive the same prices they've been getting for butter-fat despite the 5 to 6 cents a pound roll-back in the retail price of butter at grocery stores, was an announcement made this week by the Kentucky USDA War Board.

The Government's 5-cent-a-pound subsidy to creameries and other buyers of butter-fat is being paid to all creameries who make 1,000 pounds or more of butter a

Having Trouble Getting Help?

So are we. Like you, we're faced with the biggest production job in our history. And, like you, we've lost many of the men who used to help us.

Yet that's only part of the story. Every day, on farm and factory, there's something new to test the skill of those running the business. Not only getting help, but—to mention a few others—rising costs, making a fair profit, and setting aside reserves for a rainy day. Fortunately, those problems are the same for farm and factory, though they may at times differ in size.

But it is that thing called "management," that peculiarly American ability to think through problems no matter how tough, that is helping to see us through today.

It is this skill in management that farmers and businessmen have made in common, a skill which insures the realization of our determination to produce all that's needed for our country today, and, tomorrow, to make a fair living through greater service to our fellow Americans. General Electric Company, Schenectady, New York.

TO ALL YOU FRIENDS OF THE BROWN HOTEL

FOR more than 200 nights during the past year, every available room of the Brown has been "sold out", and we have had the very unpleasant situation of being unable to accommodate many of our oldest and best friends.

Part of this unhappy condition is due to the fact that Louisville has become a key city in war production work, and hundreds of visiting officers, inspectors and officials have been using The Brown as their "home away from home". . . . Part of it is due to the fact that we have been trying to take care of the thousands of mothers, fathers and wives who come here to visit their boys in the two great nearby Army Camps. Under the circumstances, it is both our duty and our pleasure to see that as many of them as possible have proper accommodations for their brief moments with their soldiers. . . . Believe us sincerely—we by no means like the concentration of business we have been "enjoying" since the War began. We would vastly prefer the easier days before Pearl Harbor. But we think you are entitled to know the facts as outlined above, and we ask your sympathetic indulgence during these critical times. When Peace comes back, you'll find that we've really done the best job we know how to do, and that we've not forgotten our old friends.

Several days later the Salt Lake City put in at Pearl Harbor for repairs and general overhauling. "Bub" calls her the "fight-nest ship in the entire fleet."
Myers has been in the United States Navy for five years and has seen action from the very first of the War. He was at Pearl Harbor when the Japs made their first sneak attack on that port to open hostilities. Since that time "Bub" has been in many more battles of which the above account is only one. He has been home only once since enlisting in 1938.

"Clarence Myers, Jr., a younger brother, is also somewhere in the States enroute, and its publication hoping that Lady Luck will bring them together soon.

The account of the action given above was passed by United Pacific area, and the two boys are now given no aid or comfort to the enemy.
