Americans All

This week we start off this column with a letter from an American girl, just as a reminder that all Americans are not necessarily men, and that the girls can do and are doing their part, even though they are not and cannot be in the armed services of their country.

Muncie, Indiana
216 N. Hackley,
Dear Editor:
Will you please send me a list of our Rowan County citizens in the services? I am a citizen of Morehead but at the present time I am working in Muncie. I think we girls of Rowan county can at least drop the boys a line letting them know we are proud of them when they go for the day when they can be back home again. I am collecting pictures as many in my album. I think that would be a good idea for you to publish, as maybe someone else may like the idea. I am making an army scrap book also which I think is a very nice thing for past time.

Come on girls, let's help our Uncle Sam by writing as many boys in service as we can.
Madyin Brown,
216 Hackley, St. Muncie, Ind.

We are of course unable to supply a complete list of the names and addresses of the men from Rowan county who are in the service for the obvious reason that we do not have a complete list. We are gradually adding to that list, however, and in the near future will publish it for the convenience of our readers who may wish to write to them. In the meantime, many of the local young ladies are coming in to copy the lists so they may write to some of these lads. We still think it is a fine thing and a patriotic thing for them to do.

Back-No Letter
We thought you might be interested to know that Buck Ball sends his mother, Mrs. Lillian Bair a copy of the News-Chron in London, England. The paper was published on January 27, and the news of course is stale, but the paper is very interesting.

From the Hilton Boys
The two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis O. Hilton are both in the army and both stationed in the same camp, Camp Shelby, although in different companies. Their both write.
Janer Hirt,
Dear Mother and family:
I received your letter the other day and was glad to hear everyone was well.

Now there is something fun happens in the army every day. You see while we are on guard we are supposed to halt every body at 11:00 p. m. and see where they are going. Well there was a boy halted some thing and it didn't stop. So he shot and when he went to the boys in the 1500 he was killed, but out side of that there have been dogs, cats, horses and even fence posts shot at. We are supposed to walk on post in the military manner and to keep always on the alert, but you just let a nice looking young lady walk by—it's hard to do.
Mom, if nothing happens next month, Snooks and I will get a furlough. Boy I hope so. I can hardly wait and I get home to get some good old home cooked chicken. But don't

Forty MS Eagles In Service

Coach Ellis Johnson has released a list of 40 former Morehead athletes who are now in the service of the United States. These boys represent nearly every branch of the armed services. The only one who does not have a Morehead athletic in his roll.

Practically all of the forty volunteers for service and remaining few were drafted. Sixteen are in the air service. Fifteen or twenty more of the Eagles will probably be in the armed forces before September. Athletes now in the armed forces:
Leon Watson, Ashland, Ky.; Jones Talbot, Lafollet, Tenn.; Turner Barnes, Mt. Sterling, Ky.; James Grant, Williamsburg, Ky.

Every One Must Have Social Security Number

A warning to persons who will take defense jobs in the next few months that they must have social security account numbers was issued today by Albert M. Bohon, manager of the Ashland, Kentucky field office of the Social Security Board. He said:
"Persons who work in factories or in business places must have social security account numbers regardless of their age or sex. Many employers now demand that their social security cards before they are placed on the payroll. Forms may be obtained at the Social Security Board in the Second National Bank building, or at any post office."
Because of the increased demands for service the hours of the Ashland office have now been lengthened. The office is now open daily from 8:30 a. m. and on Saturday from 8:30 a. m. and until 12:30 p. m.

Vaughan Will Represent College

President William H. Vaughan, Ohio State Teachers college, Morehead, will represent that institution at the inauguration of Dr. Herman Lewis, president of the University of Kentucky, Wednesday, May 6, according to information received at the university from Morehead. Many nationally known duators and dignitaries from public life will take part in the program of inauguration of Dr. Donovan, which will open with registration of official delegates and an informal reception at ten a. m. in the Student Union building on the university campus.
A luncheon at noon, in the Student Union building, at which Mr. John W. Brooker, state superintendent of Public Instruction, will preside, has also been arranged, to be followed by the inaugural ceremonies which will open with the professional at 2:30 p. m.

Jefferson Day Dinner Will Draw Crowd

Most of Kentucky's Democratic leaders will gather at this city Saturday for the annual Jefferson day dinner which is the highlight of the spring political gatherings in the state. Heading the list of speakers will be Governor Keen Johnson, Senator A. B. Chandler, Congressman Joe B. Bates, and Richard M. Duncan of St. Joseph, Mo., chairman of the Democratic caucus. Other speakers include Robert Humphreys, secretary of the state central executive committee, William Natcher, president of the Young Democrat club of the state, Billy Miller, president of the 8th district Young Democrat clubs, and E. M. Hogge, County Attorney of Rowan county, and former president of the 8th district clubs. AF arrangements for the dinner are being handled by Representative Claude L. Clayton and Mr. Hogge.

The day's program will commence with an open house at the Young Democrat club of the date building. The banquet, to be served in the college cafeteria, will be preceded by a 30 minute band concert on Allie Young Hall terrace.

The co chairman announced today that reservations had already been made by practically every official and from many of Kentucky's political leaders at Washington. Senator Barkley has been in the city to discuss information reaching here, is making every effort to plan his work to attend. Thus the dinner billed as the most important political affair, is rapidly becoming one of the big state wide meetings of the year.

Because the attendance in the city has exceeded available facilities, the committee in charge is limiting reservations to 500. These tickets have been placed on sale in every county of the district and at Frankfort.

Tobacco Grading School Planned By Future Farmers

The correct methods of sorting, stripping, grading and pricing tobacco for market will be demonstrated at the Rowan county high school on Monday April 13, by Mr. F. H. Hart, chief of the tobacco section, Bureau of Agriculture and Economics, Washington, D. C. He will have with him a number of samples of all the grades of federal tobacco.

This demonstration which will be held in the western agricultural department of the school is open to any person in the community who may be interested in attending. Will sacrifice one Spinnette to any one who will contribute to the project. Write Jesse VanCamp, P. O. Box 510, Ashland, Kentucky.

Dr. E. O. Holland, Pullman, Washington, president of Washington State college will deliver the address at the inauguration, as will Dr. Donovan, Dr. Thomas Cooper dean of the University of Kentucky, Lexington, and director of the experiment station will preside at the ceremony, and installation will be conducted by Judge R. C. Stoll, Lexington, representing the Board of Trustees; Dr. Frank L. McVey, representing former presidents of the University of Kentucky; Governor Keen Johnson, representing the people of Kentucky. Following the inauguration, President Johnson will entertain with a reception at Maxwell Place, the president's home on the campus, and at 8:30 that evening a dinner will be presented by Judge R. C. Stoll, Lexington, principal speaker at the dinner will be Dr. Howard L. Lewis, Columbus, Ohio, president of Ohio State University.

To Repeat Performance By Request

After many urgent requests for a repeat performance of "The Old Peabody Pew," the ladies of the Methodist church will again present this play on Friday evening, April 10, at the Methodist church at 7:30.

If you failed to see this play when it was presented the first time a few weeks ago, don't miss it this time. The effort of the members of the Dorcas society, as they meet to help carpet their church, their sincerity and faith mixed with their quaintness, makes an event of entertainment for young and old.

Fiscal Court Has Stormy Meeting

The Rowan County Fiscal Court met in all day session on Tuesday, to decide a number of budget questions. The meeting was a more or less stormy one, attended by a number of members of the county who were pressing for the establishment of a county home demonstration agent for Rowan county. Other matters were the appropriations in the budget of funds for the maintenance of the office of county agent and the county health department.

Considerable argument developed over the proposed appropriation of the health department. The appropriation was finally adopted, and Spuire Henry Cox was made a member of the County Board of Health.

Forest Worker Is Local Hero As He Put Out Fire

On Monday, March 16, a fire caused by lightning, occurred near the head of Leatherwood Creek in Menifee county. The fire was suppressed by a CCC crew from the veterans camp at Yale, and a heavy rain which occurred that night.

Senior Fire Guard Wilbur B. Rose, was not satisfied however, and on Wednesday, March 18, decided to make an inspection of the burned area to see if the fire was entirely extinguished. Taking his axe and radio he climbed up the hillside to the base of the cliffs where the fire took place, and there he discovered that a snag had fallen against another tree and was still smoking near its base.

Rose started to cut off the CCC crew from the log and had it about out through when his axe slipped and struck him on the instep, causing a deep laceration.

Two WPA Projects Are Set Up For Rowan County

A project has just been released for operation and will start as soon as is practicable to grade drain and surface Rock road with crushed stone, a distance of 2.9 miles. This project is sponsored by the Rowan County Fiscal Court at a cost to the court of $12,446 and a cost to the Federal government of $45,733, making a total cost of $58,179. Approximately one hundred three men will be given employment for 8 months.

A project has just been released for operation and will start as soon as is practicable to improve the State Department of Highway roads in Bath, Boyd, Carter, Elliott, Lawrence, Morgan and Rowan counties by soil erosion control of roadsides and landscaping and seeding. This project is sponsored by the State Department of Highways at a cost to the department of $10,545, and a cost to the Federal government of $61,226. Approximately three hundred eighty nine men will be given employment for three months.

Legion Auxiliary Gets Charter Friday Night

The Legion auxiliary met at the Millard Trail hotel on Friday night of last week, with Mrs. Lena Miller, president, in charge. Those present were initiated. The auxiliary has been chartered. The auxiliary is working out plans to take charge of the work at the Red Cross sewing rooms one day each week.

MacArthur Day Celebration At College To Be Featured With Defense Stamps Sale

Observance of MacArthur Day on the Morehead College campus Saturday, April 11, will include a defense stamp sale, a parade, a flag raising ceremony and a stamp drive, as planned by the campus president's council. Morehead college is joining with hundreds of other colleges throughout the nation in paying tribute on April 11 to the noble stand of MacArthur and his Philippine army.

The most important aim in the promotion of defense stamp sales during the morning there will be a drive on the campus, and the student goal is set at 50 cents minimum per person. Stamps will be sold at the college post office, and student salesmen will be on the campus with them. Local clubs and business organizations have promised their support in the stamp sale campaign. Elsie Sanders will be in general charge of the drive on the campus.

A big parade, headed by the state superintendent of public instruction, will begin at 1:30 p. m. Saturday. Every student is asked to join the parade, and club members are urged to parade in groups with banners. The local American Legion post will also participate in the parade, which will travel the avenue and march through the business district back to the starting point.

Airport Plans Ready For Establishment

Morehead State Teachers college will have an airplane fly over course, an airfield, and all that goes with it, at last. Work has just been received by Dr. G. B. Pennebaker that the application of the college for such a license has finally been approved, and there is a probability that the first course will be offered this spring.

The Civil Aeronautics Authority has approved the first phase of the authority, and is expected to approve the second and final phase immediately by letting and approving the contract for training of student fliers. Dr. Pennebaker has been in touch with Mr. Seale, in charge of civilian pilot training in this district, and on the results of his conference with Mr. Barton, will depend the establishment of a mid spring program to open immediately.

The school when established will provide for the training of two classes of from ten to twenty students each year. Actual flying training will be in charge of Charles B. Meadows, airport manager and manager of the flying school. The ground school work will be taught in the college by Dr. Pennebaker.

Has Strange Accident Mrs. Lindsey Caudill

Mrs. Lindsey Caudill, suffered a peculiar and serious accident last Friday morning as she was on her way to work at the office of the county superintendent. Two boys riding on a bicycle came from behind her, struck her and knocked her down. They ran over her. As a result Mrs. Caudill suffered stomach injuries, and it was necessary to take seven stitches in her neck.

with Ches. He was going deep sea fishing Sunday afternoon but was too stormy. I spent the day in bed yesterday, but I'm going ashore this afternoon to take in a show.

Are you all having any strikes or talk of strikes? I'd like to trade places with some of those people who don't want to work to win this war. I average 12 hours a day, seven days a week and every fourth day I work 14 hours and stand from two to six hours sentry duty. I risk my life more times in one day than those fifty columnists do in a year. They don't know what work is. I wonder how they would take it if they were broke out of quarters at two o'clock in the morning once or twice a week and told to man their general quarter stations. You crawl down a wet deck to your plane. I say crawl because the plane are stacked so close together that it is only eight inches from the prop of one to the tail of the other. A propellor clears the deck by about a foot. I have seen men who stood up too soon. They were buried at sea the next morning. Of course they were getting paid for riskin' their necks. Yeah, they were! $36 a month. Of course in the Army we don't have to work over duty 24 hours a day. I should draw about $35 this pay (the 5th) so you can expect a money order soon at ter.

Americans All

Don't worry about us, Mom, and we'll be seeing you soon. Love, Junior A. Hinton.

And here's my brother Snooks: Dear Mom: Received your letter. Junior and I are well. How is the weather up there. It has been raining here for the past two weeks. Well, Mom, the boys are getting furloughs and they are getting from 10 to 15 days. Jr. and I will get one but it may not be till May, because just a small number of the battery can leave at a time. It will take at least three months before the furloughs will be over. I don't look for us to get them until May sometime. But when we do get them we will have 15 days. How is grandpa and how are all the kids. I bet Mable Lee is sure mean. Love 'em all, Robert (Snooks) Hinton

From Jack Kelley Dear Mother and Dad, I hit the jackpot, this week. I am now days off together. You know, I told you that we rated every eighth day off. Well, mine came on Monday and Saturday afternoon, we were told that our operations would be secured on Sunday because high winds were expected. I was in town Saturday night

I got the addresses of John Paul Messer, Russell Fugate and other boys out of the paper, and sent them all a card. I've written every one except aunt Mabel and aunt Effie. Tell them I'll write them some day, I think of it but just can't get time. I haven't washed my feet since last Monday. You never saw such a case of athlete's foot in your life. I've got it up to my ankles, solid blisters like poison ivy. I'm going to the hospital every day. They won't let me wash them and I have a little difficulty in taking a bath. I think it's getting better.

Salvage Scrap

(Continued From Page One) 2,333 light tanks of 147 of the medium tanks, and have on hand 12,492 tons of the scrap metal. Waste paper sold by the dealers during the same period totaled 3,807 tons, scrap rubber 923 tons and rags 1,205 tons.

Salvage on hand awaiting sale and delivery include 617 tons of waste paper, 429 tons of scrap rubber and 482 tons of rags.

The average price paid by the dealers for scrap metal was $11.1 a ton for rags, $20.15 a ton and for scrap paper $10.80 vary 1 to March 1, $505,025.62 worth of scrap metal is moving from the scrap metal industry back to the mills manufacturing implements of war.

This total sum represents the sale of $2,168,720 worth of scrap metal, $38,970 worth of scrap paper, $7,716.25 worth of scrap rubber and $24,286.75 worth of scrap rags.

As large as this figure appears for the sixty day period, there is still urgent need for increasing the total tonnage in order that the factories and the mills may be brought up to 100 percent production. There are still many steel mills closed down because they cannot secure enough scrap metals.

The Kentucky Salvage for Victory organization, functioning in every county of Kentucky at the present time has a tremendous job in stimulating the public so that their demands may be adequately met.

The report shows that 263 of the dealers can handle a capacity of 55,790 tons of salvage material in their yards in 20 days with 13 others having unlimited storage capacity.

Only 27 of the 216 dealers remaining 189 dealers have a total of 353 trucks in use for collection of scrap metal.

Forest Worker

(Continued From Page One) ash and severing a small artery. Rose immediately twisted a tourniquet above the cut and checked the spurting of the blood. He then coolly proceeded to finish the job of cutting through the log and extinguishing the fire to the last spark.

Falling to contact the towers with his radio, Rose was finally forced to painfully climb down to the nearest help. It was nine hours after the accident before Rose received medical aid.

Public appreciation of such faithful National Forest guards is indicated by the car being exercised to prevent the escape of fire to the woods.

"Yes, Major—Uncle Sam has the right o' way!"

America's war needs get first call on Chesapeake and Ohio services. For the railroad is a primary arm of defense... and it's "in for the duration!" We know that if the public is asked to defer to military needs they'll do it gladly, as a contribution to America's victory. Chesie's railroad has a big job on its hands. Our rails are humming 24 hours a day... with trains hauling raw materials to war industries in The Chesie

Corridor... with trains taking war goods to ports and camps and supply depots... transporting troops—and always trying to keep commercial shipping and regular passenger service up to Chesapeake and Ohio's high standards.

So, if your shipment is a bit late, or your passenger train waits a few minutes for troops and war materials... just say to yourself, "These being war a few minutes' delay is not WAZZOO!"
